

CUSTOMS ACT 1901

CUSTOMS TARIFF ACT 1995

PART I OF SCHEDULE 4

BY-LAW NOS. 9640030 TO 9640051

I, Richard Janeczko, delegate of the Chief Executive Officer for the purposes of section 271 of the Customs Act 1901, hereby make the by-laws set out in the Schedule hereto.

Unless the context otherwise requires, where a description of goods is specified in a by-law set out in the Schedule hereto, the goods to which that by-law applies by virtue of that description are such goods to which that description would apply if it were specified in the tariff classification in Schedule 3 to the Customs Tariff Act 1995.

Unless the context otherwise requires, any word or phrase used in a reference in a by-law set out in the Schedule hereto has the same meaning as if it were used in the tariff classification in Schedule 3 to the Customs Tariff Act 1995 that applies to those goods to which that reference in that by-law applies.

THE SCHEDULE

BY-LAW NO. 9640033

Item 8
Part I of Schedule 4

1. This by-law may be cited as Customs By-law No. 9640033.
2. This by-law shall take effect on and from 1 July 1996.
3. Item 8 in Part I of Schedule 4 to the Customs Tariff Act 1995 applies to goods, being:
 - (1) the personal effects, furniture and household goods (other than motor vehicles, cigarettes, cigars, tobacco or spirituous liquors) of a member of a Papua New Guinea Visiting Force or of the civilian component or of a dependent, subject to the following conditions:
 - (a) the goods are imported at the time of the first arrival of the member to take up service in Australia, or, in the case of a dependent at the time of the first arrival of the dependent to join a member; and
 - (b) the member or dependent lodges an undertaking with the Regional Director that the goods will not be sold, traded, exchanged, hired out, donated or otherwise disposed of in Australia within a period of two years immediately after the date of their importation, unless:
 - (i) prior written approval has been obtained from the Regional Director; and
 - (ii) unless the Regional Director determines otherwise, the duty which would have been otherwise payable on the goods on the date on which they were entered for home consumption is paid;
 - (2) regulation military uniforms imported by a member of a Papua New Guinea Visiting Force, for that person's use;
 - (3) motor vehicles imported by a member of a Papua New Guinea Visiting Force or of the civilian component, being a motor vehicle owned and used outside Australia by the member during the period of three months immediately preceding his first departure for Australia, provided that the motor vehicle remains in the use, ownership and possession of that member or, with the written permission of the Regional Director, of another member during the period of two years immediately after the date of its importation, UNDER SECURITY.
4. For the purposes of this by-law, "Visiting Force", "civilian component" and "dependent" have the meanings expressed in Section 1 of the Agreement between the Governments of Australia and Papua New Guinea concerning the status of members of a "Visiting Force" in a "Receiving State" which entered into force on 16 September 1975, ie.,
 - (a) "Visiting Force" means members, including loan personnel or units of the Defence Force of one State when in the territory of the other State in connection with activities by arrangement between the two States, provided that the two States may arrange that certain individuals from units or formations shall not be regarded as constituting or being included in a Visiting Force;
 - (b) "civilian component" means civilian personnel in the Receiving State who, not being nationals nor persons ordinarily resident in the Receiving State;
 - (i) are employed by or in the service of a Visiting Force or an authorised service organisation;
 - (ii) are serving with an organisation that with the approval of the authorities of the Receiving State is accompanying a Visiting Force, or
 - (iii) are attached to or accompanying the Visiting Force, but does not include a dependent;
 - (c) "dependent" means a person who is neither a national of nor ordinarily resident in the Receiving State and who in relation to a member of a Visiting Force or of the civilian component is:
 - (i) the spouse of the member;

- (ii) a part of the family of the member residing with the member;
 - (iii) in the custody, care or charge of the member; or
 - (iv) wholly or mainly maintained by the member, other than as a servant or a member of the servant's family.
5. For the purposes of this by-law, "loan personnel" means members of, and "loan serviceman" means a member of, the Australian Visiting Force on loan and attached to the Papua New Guinea Defence Force under section 30(2) of the Defence Act 1974 of Papua New Guinea.
 6. For the purposes of this by-law, "at the time of the first arrival" means any time during the period extending from six months before to six months after the date of first arrival in Australia of the member or dependent, as the case may be, or such further period as the Regional Director may allow.
 7. For the purposes of this by-law, the "Customs Tariff Act 1995" means the Customs Tariff Act 1995, as amended or proposed to be altered.
