Occupational Health and Safety (Safety Standards) Amendment Regulations 2008 (No. 2)

Select Legislative Instrument 2008 No. 261

I, QUENTIN BRYCE, Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, make the following Regulations under the Occupational Health and Safety Act 1991.

Dated 12 December 2008

QUENTIN BRYCE
Governor-General
By Her Excellency’s Command

JULIA GILLARD
Minister for Employment and Workplace Relations
1 Name of Regulations

These Regulations are the Occupational Health and Safety (Safety Standards) Amendment Regulations 2008 (No. 2).

2 Commencement

These Regulations commence on the day after they are registered.

3 Amendment of Occupational Health and Safety (Safety Standards) Regulations 1994

Schedule 1 amends the Occupational Health and Safety (Safety Standards) Regulations 1994.

4 Transitional

Despite the repeal of regulation 4.62B of the Occupational Health and Safety (Safety Standards) Regulations 1994:

(a) subregulation 4.62B (2), as in force immediately before the commencement of these Regulations, continues to apply in relation to a special licence that was in effect at that time; and

(b) subregulation 4.62B (2) ceases to apply in relation to the special licence when the special licence:

(i) is renewed; or

(ii) ceases to have effect.

Note Subregulation 4.62B (2) makes a special licence subject to particular conditions. The subregulation will cease to apply in relation to a special licence if the licence is renewed, or ceases to have effect, after the commencement of these Regulations.

(b) the Australian Defence Organisation must establish and maintain a system for registering plant designs that is consistent with the procedure relating to registration in regulations 4.49, 4.50, 4.51, 4.52, 4.53 and 4.54;

(c) the Australian Defence Organisation must audit each of the systems established under paragraphs (a) and (b) once every 12 months;

(d) the Australian Defence Organisation must, if requested by Comcare or the Commission, provide an investigator with access to any system it has established to manage its obligations under the special licence;

(e) the Australian Defence Organisation must identify each item of plant operated under the special licence with a unique identifying number;

(f) the Australian Defence Organisation must ensure that the unique identifying number is displayed on or near the item of plant;

(g) the Australian Defence Organisation must keep a record of the details of all inspections, checks, tests, maintenance and cleaning that have been carried out for each item of plant operated under the licence;

(h) the Australian Defence Organisation must, upon request, provide an investigator with the maintenance records that relate to an item of plant;
(i) the Australian Defence Organisation must provide the Commission with the details of a person it can contact for any enquiries relating to the special licence;

(j) the Australian Defence Organisation must pay the fee set out in a notice under paragraph 4.58 (1) (c) or (2) (c) by the time stated in the notice;

(k) the Australian Defence Organisation must comply with a direction given by the Commission that the Commission considers necessary for ensuring the safe operation of the plant.

Note for paragraph (g) Subregulation 4.15 (1) requires an employer to take all reasonably practicable steps to ensure that a risk to the health and safety of a relevant person arising from plant used by employees at work, or the associated systems of work, under the employer’s control is eliminated or, if it is not reasonably practicable to eliminate the risk, minimised in accordance with Division 7. Paragraph 4.15 (2) (h) requires an employer to take all reasonably practicable steps to ensure that inspections, maintenance and cleaning are carried out having regard to procedures recommended for the plant by its designer or manufacturer, or developed for the plant by a competent person.
