5.4 Narrowband area services operating in the frequency band 1606.5 kHz to 1705 kHz — commercial broadcasting service under subsequent licence

(1) This section applies to a licensee if all of the following circumstances exist:

(a) the licensee holds a broadcasting licence (narrowband area service) issued by the ACMA under section 100 of the Act (the new licence);

(b) the licensee operated a narrowband area service station on a frequency in the frequency band 1606.5 kHz to 1705 kHz to provide a commercial broadcasting service in accordance with section 5.3;

(c) the broadcasting licence (narrowband area service) to which section 5.3 applied (the former licence) has expired;
(d) the person did not apply for the renewal of the former licence.

(2) The person may operate the narrowband area service station to provide a commercial broadcasting service under the new licence on the following conditions:

(a) the operation of the narrowband area service station under the new licence is authorised only on:

(i) the same frequency, in the frequency band 1606.5 kHz to 1705 kHz, which had been authorised by the former licence; or

(ii) if the ACMA subsequently varies the new licence to specify another frequency in the frequency band 1606.5 kHz to 1705 kHz — the other frequency;

(b) the commercial broadcasting service must be permitted by a commercial licence allocated before 6 November 2002;

(c) the licensee must provide any evidence required by the ACMA relating to whether the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1) apply;

(d) the location of the station specified in the new licence must be:

(i) within 10 kilometres of its location on 6 November 2002; or

(ii) if the ACMA is satisfied as to the matters specified in paragraphs 5.3 (2A) (a) and (b) — at another location that is specified by the ACMA;

(e) if the licensee intends to operate the narrowband area service station to provide a commercial broadcasting service under the new licence, as permitted by this subsection, the licensee must notify the ACMA of that intention in writing at least 14 days before first operating the narrowband area service station for that purpose.

(3) In this section:

commercial licence has the meaning given by subsection 5.3 (3).

location has the meaning given by subsection 5.3 (3).
