Schedule 1 Amendments

(Section 3)

[1] Section 1.3, definition of Wiring Rules

substitute

substitute

(4) For paragraph (2) (a), a cabling provider is taken to comply with the competency requirements if the cabling provider gives to a registrar:

(a) a copy of a current registration as a cabling provider that was issued by a registrar; or

(b) both of the following:

(i) an application for renewal of registration as a cabling provider;

(ii) a copy of the cabling provider’s registration that expired during a period that is not greater than 12 months before the application for renewal is given to the Registrar; or

(c) written certification from a registered training organisation that the cabling provider has completed a training course that complies with the competency requirements; or

(d) written advice from the ACMA stating that, for a reason mentioned in the advice, the cabling provider may use an expired registration.

Note Upon registration, a provider will receive proof of registration from a registrar. The precise form of the proof of registration is a matter for the particular registrar, but it will usually be a registration card, and in some cases a written certificate.
