Arts Department means the Department administered by the Minister administering the Protection of Movable Cultural Heritage Act 1986.

illegally removed cultural property means an item of:
(a) Syrian cultural property; or
(b) archaeological, historical, cultural, rare scientific, or religious, importance; that has been illegally removed from Syria on or after 15 March 2011.

5 Return of illegally removed cultural property of Syria

(1) A person who suspects that an item in the possession or control of a person is illegally removed cultural property must, as soon as practicable, notify any of the following:
(a) the Secretary of the Department;
(b) the Secretary of the Arts Department;
(c) a member of the Australian Federal Police or of the police force of a State or Territory.

(2) If the Secretary of the Department reasonably believes that a person has possession or control of an item that might be illegally removed cultural property, the Secretary may, by written notice to the person, direct the person to comply with arrangements specified by the Secretary for storage of the item.

Note: If notified about an item under subsection (1), the Departments and police will work together to determine whether the item is illegally removed cultural property. If satisfied it is, the Department will arrange for its eventual safe return to an appropriate institution in Syria.

(3) A person commits an offence of strict liability if:
(a) the person is directed under subsection (2) to comply with specified arrangements; and
(b) the person fails to comply with the arrangements.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

illegally removed cultural property, the Secretary must terminate the arrangements.

(3) A body corporate contravenes this section if:
   (a) the body corporate has effective control over another body corporate or entity (wherever incorporated or situated); and
   (b) the other body corporate or entity contravenes subsection (1).

7 Compensation for acquisition of property property (within the meaning of paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution) from a person otherwise than on just terms (within the meaning of that paragraph), the Commonwealth is liable to pay a reasonable amount of compensation to the person.

(2) If the Commonwealth and the person do not agree on the amount of the compensation, the person may institute proceedings in the Federal Court of Australia for the recovery from the Commonwealth of such reasonable amount of compensation as the court determines.
