
2. Purpose and operation of the instrument. The Statute enables the making of Rules prescribing arrangements for the governance of ANU Colleges.

4. Consultation process. The Statute replaces the ANU College Governance Statute 2013, with the amended provisions relating to the designated ANU Colleges of the University. The change in the named ANU Colleges has been the subject of extensive consultation with the staff and students concerned. The Council of the University considered and approved the Statute on 21 July 2017.
