6 What Tribunal may do with applications

(1) The Tribunal may use the application to conduct its own research into the reviewable decision.

(2) The Tribunal’s research may include giving the application for comment to:
   (a) a person or organisation considered by the Tribunal to be appropriate; and
   (b) a person or organisation the subject of adverse comment in the application.

(3) For paragraph (2)(a), the grounds on which the Tribunal may decide that a person or organisation is appropriate include:
   (a) that the person or organisation has the capacity to assist with the review of the reviewable decision; and
   (b) that the person or organisation has an interest in the reviewable decision.

7 Report by Secretary

(1) The Tribunal may give an application to the Secretary.

(2) The Secretary may give the application for comment to:
   (a) a person in the Department; and
   (b) a person in the Defence Force.

(3) If the Secretary is given an application under subrule (1), the Secretary must give the Tribunal a report on the reviewable decision to which the application relates within:

(4) The report must include the following:
   (a) the findings on material questions of fact and the reasons for the decision;

   (c) if a Tribunal member who holds a security clearance for accessing a document on the list requests access to the document—give that Tribunal member a specified number of copies of the document within 10 working days after the day the Secretary receives the request.

(6) The Tribunal may approve, in writing, a written request from the Secretary for more time to prepare the report or the list.

(7) The approval must state the additional time approved by the Tribunal.

8 Applicant may respond to report

(1) After receiving a report mentioned in subrule 7(3), the Tribunal must:
   (a) give a copy of the report to the applicant within 10 working days; and

Editorial changes
The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments
A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe the amendment to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, the amendment is incorporated into the compiled law and the abbreviation “(md)” added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.
