3 Authority

This instrument is made under subsections 741(1) and 1020F(1) of the Corporations Act 2001.

4 Definitions

In this instrument:

Act means the Corporations Act 2001.

ASX means ASX Limited.

current and previous plan purchases, in relation to an application for shares or interests under a purchase plan, means:

- (a) the shares or interests the subject of the application;
- (b) any other shares or interests in the class applied for under the purchase plan or any shares or interests in the class issued under a similar arrangement in the 12 months before the application;
- (c) any other shares or interests in the class which the holder has instructed a custodian to acquire on their behalf under the purchase plan;
- (d) any other shares or interests in the class issued to a custodian under an arrangement similar to the purchase plan in the 12 months before the application as a result of an instruction given by the holder to the custodian or another custodian and which resulted in the holder holding beneficial interests in the shares or interests.

IDPS and IDPS-like scheme have the same meanings as in ASIC Class Order [CO 13/763] and [CO 13/762] respectively.

instruction includes a direction or request.

purchase plan, in relation to shares in a body or interests in a registered scheme, means an arrangement under which:

- (a) an offer is made to each registered holder of shares or interests in the class on a date determined by the issuer, and whose address (as recorded in the register of members) is in a place in which, in the reasonable opinion of the issuer, it is lawful and practical for the issuer to offer and issue shares or interests to that person;
- (b) an offer may enable a registered holder who is a custodian to acquire shares or interests on behalf of a person (the beneficiary) on whose behalf the custodian is holding shares or interests in the class;
- (c) each offer is made on:
 - (i) the same terms and conditions:
 - (A) to the extent that it is an offer to a registered holder to acquire shares or interests on their own behalf; and
 - (B) to the extent (if any) it is an offer to a registered holder to acquire shares or interests as a custodian on behalf of a beneficiary; and

- (ii) a non-renounceable basis;
- (d) if offers of the kind are referred to in sub-subparagraph (c)(i)(B) are made—the terms and conditions on which a registered holder may acquire shares or interests on their own behalf or as a custodian on behalf of a beneficiary are nearly as practicable the same;
- (e) the issue price of the shares or interests is less than the market price of the shares or interests during a specified period in the 30 days before either the date of the offer or the date of the issue; and
- (f) the total application price for the shares or interests acquired:
 - (i) by a person on their own behalf; and
 - (ii) by a custodian on behalf of the person; and
 - (iii) by a custodian in relation to which another custodian holds beneficial interests in the shares or interests on behalf of the person,in any 12-month period does not exceed $30,000.

registered holder means a person recorded in:

- (a) the register of members of a body as a member of the body; or
- (b) the register of members of a registered scheme as a member of the scheme.

regulated superannuation fund has the same meaning as in the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993.

self-managed superannuation fund has the meaning given by section 17A of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993.

superannuation master trust means a regulated superannuation fund under which:

- (a) a member of the fund gives, or is entitled to give, an instruction that a particular financial product is to be acquired; and
- (b) if the member gives such an instruction, the trustee, or a custodian who holds financial products on behalf of the trustee, must (subject to any discretion they have to refuse) acquire the financial product; and
- (c) if the trustee or custodian acquires the financial product in accordance with an instruction given by the member—the member is to have rights or benefits calculated by reference to dividends or other benefits derived from the product.

5 Interpretation

In this instrument:

- (a) if two or more persons are recorded in the register of members as jointly holding shares or interests in the body or scheme they are taken to be a single registered holder and a certificate given or statement made by any of them for the purpose of subsection 8(2) is taken to be a certificate given or statement made by all of them;
 - (b) subject to subparagraph (c), if a custodian holds shares or interests jointly on behalf of two or more persons:
 - (i) the $30,000 limit applies jointly in relation to those persons as if the custodian holds the shares or interests on behalf of a single person; and
 - (ii) the custodian is taken to have been instructed to apply for shares or interests on behalf of those persons if:
 - (A) the custodian has received such an instruction in accordance with the terms on which the shares and interests are held; or
 - (B) where the terms on which the shares or interests are held do not cover the giving of instructions of this kind—the custodian has received such an instruction from any of those persons;
 - (c) if, in relation to an IDPS-like scheme, a superannuation master trust or a self-managed superannuation fund, a member of the scheme, trust or fund has their distributions of capital and income from the scheme, trust or fund determined by reference to shares or interests that are held by the responsible entity or trustee of the trust or fund (or, if applicable, another custodian) as a result of an instruction given by the member to the responsible entity or trustee, then:
 - (i) any shares or interests held by the responsible entity or trustee (or, if applicable, another custodian) as a result of the instruction are taken to be held on behalf of the member;
 - (ii) any instruction given by the member to the responsible entity or trustee to acquire shares or interests is taken to be an instruction to acquire shares or interests on behalf of the member; and
 - (iii) any application for shares or interests by the responsible entity or trustee (or, if applicable, another custodian) as a result of an instruction given by the member is taken to be an application to acquire shares or interests on behalf of the member;
- Note: In IDPS-like schemes, superannuation master trusts and self-managed superannuation funds, the responsible entity or trustee may hold trust property on behalf of members as a whole rather than on behalf of a specific member even if the property was acquired on the instructions of that member.
- (d) references to an issuer offering shares or interests include the issuer inviting applications for the issue of shares or interests;

- (e) if a share or interest must under the terms on which it is traded only be transferred together with one or more other shares or interests or other financial products (together, a stapled security):
 - (i) the $30,000 limit in section 8 (wherever occurring), and in the definition of purchase plan, applies to the stapled security as if its component shares or interests constituted a single share or interest and not to any of those components separately;
 - (ii) references to issue price and market price of shares or interests in paragraph (e) of the definition of purchase plan apply to the stapled security as if its component shares or interests constituted a single share or interest and not to any of those components separately;
 - (iii) the share or interest is taken to be in a class which is quoted on the financial market operated by ASX if the stapled security is quoted on that market.
- (f) a notice is defective if the notice:
 - (i) does not comply with subparagraph 7(f)(ii); or
 - (ii) is false in a material particular; or
 - (iii) has omitted from it a matter or thing which renders the notice misleading in a material respect.
- (g) an arrangement covered by ASIC Class Order [CO 09/425] is taken to be similar to a purchase plan;
- (h) an arrangement is not to be taken not to be similar to a purchase plan merely because:
 - (i) only one of them involves custodian offers; or
 - (ii) where both the arrangement and the purchase plan involve custodian offers—only one of them involves offers to a custodian to acquire shares or interests in the class where another custodian holds beneficial interests on behalf of another person; or
 - (iii) they involve different maximum levels of applications by registered holders.
