9AA Annual increase in rates

Despite any other provision of these regulations, a rate prescribed by subregulation 9(11), (12), (13) or (15) is increased, as applicable, in accordance with regulation 9AB, on each anniversary of 1 July 2006.

9AB Calculation of increase

- (1) In this regulation:

CPI number means the All Groups Consumer Price Index number (that is, the weighted average of the 8 Australian capital cities) published by the Australian Statistician.

earlier CPI number, for a financial year, means the CPI number for the last March quarter before the beginning of the financial year.

latest CPI number, for a financial year, means the CPI number for the last March quarter before the end of the financial year.

rate means a rate prescribed by subregulation 9(11), (12), (13) or (15).

relevant financial year means a financial year beginning on or after 1 July 2006.

relevant rate, for a financial year, means the rate applying in the financial year.

- (2) If, for a relevant financial year, the latest CPI number is greater than the earlier CPI number, a rate is taken to increase, on 1 July of the next financial year, in accordance with the following formula:
- $$\frac{\text{relevant rate} \times \text{latest CPI number}}{\text{earlier CPI number}}$$
- (3) If, apart from this subregulation, a rate prescribed by subregulation 9(11) and increased under subregulation (2) is not a multiple of 0.1 cents, the rate is to be rounded to the nearest multiple of 0.1 cents and, if the amount to be rounded is 0.05 cents, rounded up.
- (4) If, apart from this subregulation, a rate prescribed by subregulation 9(12), (13) or (15) and increased under subregulation (2) is not a multiple of 10 cents, the rate is to be rounded to the nearest multiple of 10 cents and, if the amount to be rounded is 5 cents, rounded up.
- (5) If, at any time, whether before or after the commencement of this regulation, the Australian Statistician publishes for a particular March quarter a CPI number in substitution for a CPI number previously published by the Australian Statistician for the quarter, the publication of the later CPI number is to be disregarded for this regulation.
- (6) However, if, at any time, whether before or after the commencement of this regulation, the Australian Statistician changes the reference base for the Consumer Price Index, then, in applying this regulation after the change is made, regard is to be had only to numbers published in terms of the new reference base.

The total amount, not exceeding $500, of an entitled person's travelling expenses is payable to the person if:

- (a) he or she applies to the Commission for payment of travelling expenses up to $500 (whether the application is made before or after travel); and
- (b) the application is accompanied by written evidence of his or her travelling expenses.

- (b) the person's application is accompanied by written evidence of his or her travelling expenses.

- (2) The amount payable to the person, as soon as practicable after receipt of the application by the Commission, is the lesser of:

- (a) the amount of his or her travelling expenses; and
- (b) the amount calculated by the Commission, in accordance with regulations 9, 9AM and 9AN, as the amount of travelling expenses payable to the person.

- (3) The Commission must notify an entitled person of a decision it makes under subregulation (2) as soon as practicable after the Commission receives that person's application.

9AF Travelling expenses under section 170B or 196ZO of the Act—request for written evidence

- (3) The Commission must notify an entitled person of a decision it makes under subregulation (2) as soon as practicable after the Commission receives that person's application.

9AG Reconsideration of decisions—initiated by the Commission

If the Commission is satisfied that information given to the Commission when it made a decision under regulation 9, 9AD or 9AE is false or misleading in a relevant detail, the Commission may, in its discretion:

- (a) reconsider the decision; and
- (b) if it decides that an amount of travelling expenses has been paid that would not have been paid but for the false or misleading statement or representation—request the entitled person to repay to the Commonwealth an amount equal to that amount.

Note 1: The effect of section 205 of the Act is that if a person is paid a pension, allowance or other pecuniary benefit under the Act because of a false statement or representation to the Commission by that person, procedures are prescribed enabling the Commission to recover from that person an amount equal to the amount of the pension, allowance or other pecuniary benefit paid.

Note 2: The effect of section 208 of the Act is that if a person is paid a pension, allowance or other pecuniary benefit under the Act because of a false or misleading statement to the Commission by that person, the person is guilty of an offence that is punishable, on conviction, by a fine or imprisonment or both.

9AL Review by Administrative Appeals Tribunal

- (1) Application under the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for a review of a decision of the Commission under regulation 9AG or 9AI.

9AM Travelling expenses to a single destination for 2 or more purposes

Despite regulations 9, 9AD and 9AE, if a person who is entitled to be paid travelling expenses under section 110, 132, 170B, 196ZO or 196ZQ of the Act travels to 1 destination for 2 or more purposes referred to in section 110, 132, 170B, 196ZO or 196ZQ of the Act, the amount of travelling expenses that that person is entitled to be paid is the greatest amount payable under section 110, 132, 170B, 196ZO or 196ZQ of the Act for 1 of those purposes.

Note: For example, a person who travels to a medical practice to obtain relevant documentary medical evidence as well as for treatment will only be paid the greatest amount of travelling expenses payable under section 110, 132, 170B, 196ZO or 196ZQ of the Act for that travel.

9AN Travelling expenses to multiple locations within the same town or city

Despite regulations 9, 9AD and 9AE, if a person who is entitled to be paid travelling expenses under section 110, 132, 170B, 196ZO or 196ZQ of the Act travels to more than 1 location in the same city or town for a purpose or purposes referred to in section 110, 132, 170B, 196ZO or 196ZQ of the Act, the amount of travelling expenses that that person is entitled to be paid is:

- (a) the greatest amount payable under section 110, 132, 170B, 196ZO or 196ZQ of the Act for travel to the city or town; and
- (b) the greatest amount payable under section 110, 132, 170B, 196ZO or 196ZQ of the Act for travel between each location within that city or town.

Note: For example, a person who travels to a medical practice in a city for treatment, and then goes to another location in the same city for a medical examination before returning home, will only be paid once for the return travel to the city, and once for the travel from the medical practice to the other location (being the greatest amount of travelling expenses payable under section 110, 132, 170B, 196ZO or 196ZQ of the Act for that travel).

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe the amendment to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, the amendment is incorporated into the compiled law and the abbreviation “(md)” added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the abbreviation “(md not incorp)” is added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.
