1960. No. 62

REGULATIONS UNDER THE NATIONALITY AND CITIZENSHIP ACT 1948-1959.*

I, THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL in and over the Commonwealth of Australia, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, hereby make the following Regulations under the Nationality and Citizenship Act 1948-1959.

Dated this 11th day of August, 1960.

DUNROSSIL

Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command,

R. R. Sonnen

Minister of State for Immigration.

CITIZENSHIP REGULATIONS.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Citizenship Regulations. Citation.

2.—(1.) The Citizenship Regulations (comprising the Statutory Rules Repeal and saving. specified in the First Schedule to these Regulations) are repealed.

(2.) Every certificate issued and appointment, application, claim or declaration made under the Regulations repealed by the last preceding sub-regulation, or under the Regulations repealed by those first-mentioned Regulations, and in force or subsisting immediately before the commencement of these Regulations shall be deemed to have been issued or made, as the case may be, under these Regulations.

3.—(1.) In these Regulations, unless the contrary intention appears— Interpretation.

“authorized officer”, in relation to the exercise of a power, or the performance of a duty or function, under these Regulations, means an officer of the Department of Immigration, or a person, or a person included in a class of persons, authorized for that purpose by the Minister;

“the Act” means the Nationality and Citizenship Act 1948-1959.

(2.) For the purposes of these Regulations, a person shall be deemed to act as a citizenship agent if he demands or receives a fee, commission or other reward for or in relation to services rendered or to be rendered by him in respect of an application under the Act.

(3.) In these Regulations, a reference to a Form shall be read as a reference to a Form in the Second Schedule to these Regulations.

(4.) Strict compliance with the Forms is not necessary and substantial compliance is sufficient.

* Notified in the Commonwealth Gazette on 18th August 1960.
825/60.—PRICE 1s. 9/23.6.1960.

(5.) The provisions of these Regulations, other than regulation 5 of these Regulations, shall be construed and applied as if the Island of Nauru were part of New Guinea.

4. Where a person is required to furnish particulars under these Regulations, he shall furnish such documents in support of those particulars as are required by the Minister. Documents in support of particulars.

5.—(1.) In this regulation, “Australian protected person” means a person— Protected persons.

- (a) who, having been born in New Guinea or Nauru, whether before or after the commencement of these Regulations, is not a British subject; or
- (b) who is registered as an Australian protected person under sub-regulation (4.) of this regulation, but does not include a person who has, in accordance with this regulation, renounced his status as, and ceased to be, an Australian protected person.

(2.) It is declared that—

- (a) an Australian protected person is, for the purposes of the Act, under the protection of the Australian Government; and
- (b) a person who is, under the law of a country, or a part of a country, to which section seven of the Act applies, a British protected person or a protected person of that country or of that part of that country is, for the purposes of the Act, under the protection of the Government of that country or of that part of that country.

(3.) Where a woman, being an alien, has, whether before or after the commencement of these Regulations, married a person who, at the time of the marriage, was an Australian protected person, she may, at any time, apply to the Minister, in a form approved by the Minister or by an authorized officer, for registration as an Australian protected person.

(4.) The Minister may, in his discretion, if he is satisfied that it is desirable so to do in all the circumstances, cause an applicant under the last preceding sub-regulation to be registered as an Australian protected person.

(5.) An Australian protected person who is a national of a foreign country may, at any time after attaining the age of twenty-one years and whilst of sound mind, make a declaration, in a form approved by the Minister or by an authorized officer, renouncing his status as an Australian protected person.

(6.) The person making the declaration shall forward the original declaration, together with a copy of the declaration, to the Secretary.

(7.) The Secretary shall register the declaration and thereupon the person making the declaration shall cease to be an Australian protected person.

(8.) The Secretary shall—

- (a) retain the original declaration;
- (b) certify in writing on the copy that it is a true copy and that it has been registered by him, stating the date of registration;

- (c) on payment of the prescribed fee, forward the copy so certified to the person who made the declaration; and
- (d) if that person is registered as an Australian protected person under sub-regulation (4.) of this regulation, cancel that registration.

6.—(1.) A notice to the Minister by an Irish citizen who, immediately before the date of commencement of the Act, was also a British subject Claim under section 8 of the Act. claiming to remain a British subject under sub-section (1.) of section 8 of the Act shall be in accordance with Form A.

(2.) A notice to the Minister by a person who satisfies the Minister that he is the responsible parent or the guardian of an Irish citizen—

- (a) who, immediately before the date of commencement of the Act, was also a British subject; and

(b) who is a child who has not attained the age of sixteen years, claiming on behalf of that child for that child to remain a British subject under section 8 of the Act shall be in accordance with Form B.

7.—(1.) For the purposes of section 11 of the Act, a Register of Births Registration of births abroad. Abroad shall be kept at each Australian consulate in a bound volume containing pages in accordance with Form C.

(2.) A person applying to an Australian consul for the registration of the birth of a child born abroad shall furnish particulars of the name and address of the physician, midwife or other person who assisted at the birth and the particulars necessary for the Australian consul to complete an entry in the Register of Births Abroad kept by him.

(3.) In addition to the particulars referred to in the last preceding sub-regulation, the applicant shall furnish the following particulars in respect of each parent or, if the child was born out of wedlock, of his mother:—

- (a) name and address;
- (b) place and date of birth;
- (c) if the child was born in wedlock—the place and date of marriage;
- (d) if not born in Australia—details of first arrival in Australia or New Guinea;
- (e) period of residence in Australia;
- (f) if ordinarily resident in Australia at the date of application—the place of residence in Australia, object of the journey outside Australia during which the birth took place and date of intended return to Australia;
- (g) occupation at the time of application and name and business address of employer (if any); and
- (h) if Australian citizenship was acquired through the grant of a certificate of registration or a certificate of naturalization—details of the certificate.

(4.) The applicant shall, if required, furnish two photographs of each parent of the child, or if the child was born out of wedlock, of his mother.

(5.) The birth shall not be registered of a person who has been declared, or a person included in a class of persons which has been declared, by order of the Minister to be ineligible for admission to Australia for permanent residence, and a certificate of registration of birth abroad issued in respect of such a person or of persons included in such a class of persons shall be of no force or effect.

(6.) An extract from a Register of Births Abroad certified by the Australian consul keeping the Register, or by an authorized officer, may be issued to any person upon application and upon payment of the prescribed fee.

8.—(1.) An authorized officer may issue declaratory certificates of citizenship to Australian citizens in accordance with this regulation. Issue of declaratory certificate of citizenship.

(2.) A declaratory certificate of citizenship shall be issued in the name of the Minister and shall be in accordance with Form D.
