Part 1—Preliminary

1 Name of Regulations

These Regulations are the Judges' Pensions Regulations 1998.

3 Definitions

In these Regulations:

Act means the Judges' Pensions Act 1968.

Part 1A—Age factor

3A Age factor

- (1) For subsection 6C(4) of the Act, the age factor is worked out using the following formula:

$$\frac{a_y \times (365 - d) + a_{y+1} \times d}{365}$$

where:

a_y is the factor mentioned in Schedule 1A that applies to the Judge's gender and age on retirement.

a_{y+1} is the factor mentioned in Schedule 1A that applies to the Judge's gender and age, as if the Judge were 1 year older on retirement.

d is the number of days starting at the start of the day after the Judge's last birthday and ending at the end of the day he or she retires.

Note: d is equal to zero if the Judge retires on his or her birthday.

- (2) In this regulation:

age is taken to be the Judge's age at his or her last birthday before or on retirement.

Part 1B—Age factor for calculation of benefits after payment of release authority lump sum for Division 293 tax purposes

- (a) unless paragraph (b) applies—the factor set out in column 2 of the item; or
 - (b) if the Judge's retirement is due to permanent disability or infirmity—the factor set out in column 3 of the item.

Part 3—Superannuation Payment split (Parts VIIIB and VIIC, Family Law Act 1975)

5 Accrued benefit multiples

- (1) For Parts VIIIB and VIIC of the Family Law Act 1975, and regulations made under that Act, the following accrued benefit multiples are prescribed in relation to the entitlement of a Judge to a pension under the Judges' Pensions Act 1968:
- (a) at separation—the number equal to the time, in days, of qualifying service as a Judge served when separation occurs;
 - (b) at payment:
 - (i) for a Judge to whom subsection 6(2) of the Act does not apply—the number equal to the time, in days, of service as a Judge served at the time when the Judge becomes, in regard to his or her service, entitled to a pension under the Act; and
 - (ii) for a Judge to whom subsection 6(2) of the Act applies—the number equal to the minimum time, in days, of service that the Judge would have had to serve in order to become, in regard to his or her service, entitled to a pension under the Act if that subsection did not apply.

- (2) In this regulation:

qualifying service as a Judge means service counting towards qualifying the Judge for entitlement to pension under the Act.

Note: For application of the multiplier, see, in particular, regulations 19 and 26 of the Family Law (Superannuation) Regulations 2001.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe how an amendment is to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, then the misdescribed amendment can be incorporated through an editorial change made under section 15V of the Legislation Act 2003.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the amendment is not incorporated and “(md not incorp)” is added to the amendment history.
