Chapter 1—All proceedings

Part 1—Introduction

1.01 Name of Rules

These Rules are the Federal Circuit Court Rules 2001.

1.02 Commencement

These Rules commence on 30 July 2001.

1.02A Authority

These Rules are made under the Federal Circuit Court of Australia Act 1999.

1.03 Objects

- (1) The object of these Rules is to assist the just, efficient and economical resolution of proceedings.
- (2) In accordance with the objects of the Act, the Rules aim to help the Court:
 - to operate as informally as possible
 - to use streamlined processes
 - to encourage the use of appropriate dispute resolution procedures.
- (3) The Court will apply the Rules in accordance with their objects.
- (4) To assist the Court, the parties must:
 - avoid undue delay, expense and technicality
 - consider options for primary dispute resolution as early as possible.

Rule 1.04

- (5) If appropriate, the Court will help to implement primary dispute resolution.

1.04 Dictionary

The dictionary defines terms used in these Rules.

1.05 Application

- (1) It is intended that the practice and procedure of the Court be governed principally by these Rules.
- (2) However, if in a particular case the Rules are insufficient or inappropriate, the Court may apply the Federal Court Rules or the Family Law Rules, in whole or in part and modified or dispensed with, as necessary.
- (3) Without limiting subrule (2):
- (a) the provisions of the Family Law Rules set out in Part 1 of Schedule 3 apply, with necessary changes, to family law or child support proceedings; and
 - (b) the provisions of the Federal Court Rules set out in Part 2 of Schedule 3, apply, with necessary changes, to general federal law proceedings.

Note: These Rules have effect subject to any provision made by an Act, or by rules or regulations under an Act, with respect to the practice and procedure in particular matters: see subsection 81(2) of the Act.

General outline:

- Chapter 1 applies to all proceedings
- Chapter 2 applies to family law and child support proceedings
- Chapter 3 applies to all proceedings other than family law and child support proceedings
- Chapter 5 applies to proceedings under the Australian Human Rights Commission Act 1986

1.06 Court may dispense with rules

- (1) The Court may in the interests of justice dispense with compliance, or full compliance, with any of these Rules at any time.
- (2) If, in a proceeding, the Court gives a direction or makes an order that is inconsistent with any of these Rules, the direction or order of the Court prevails in that proceeding.

1.07 Applications for orders about procedures

A person who wants to start a proceeding, or take a step in a proceeding, may apply to the Court for an order about the procedure to be followed if:

- (a) the procedure is not prescribed by the Act, these Rules or by or under any other Act; or
- (b) the person is in doubt about the procedure.

Part 2—Documents

Division 2.1—General

2.01 Requirements for documents

- (1) A document (other than a form) to be filed must:
- (a) be set out on 1 side only of size A4 durable white paper of good quality; and
 - (b) be legible and without erasures, blotting out or material disfigurement; and
 - (c) have a margin at the left side of at least 30 mm; and
 - (d) have clear margins of at least 10 mm on the top, bottom and right sides; and
 - (e) be written in English; and
 - (f) be:
 - (i) printed in a font of not less than 12 points; or
 - (ii) hand-printed clearly in ink in a way that is permanent and can be photocopied to produce a copy satisfactory to the registrar; and
 - (g) have a space of not less than 8 mm between the lines of printing.
- (1A) However, unless the Court otherwise orders, strict compliance with subrule (1) is not required if the document:
- (a) is readable, including when it is bound; and
 - (b) can be easily scanned and photocopied.
- (2) This rule does not apply to a document annexed to an affidavit.

Note: The Court may give directions limiting the length of documents to be filed: see section 51 of the Act.

2.02 Document must have distinctive number

A document filed in connection with a particular proceeding must bear the distinctive number of the proceeding.

2.03 Document to be signed

- (1) A document to be filed (other than an affidavit, annexure or exhibit) must be signed by a party or by the lawyer for the party unless the nature of the document is such that signature is inappropriate.
- (2) If a document (other than an affidavit) is required by these Rules to be signed, that requirement is met if the signature is attached to the document by electronic means, by, or at the direction of, the signatory.

2.04 Forms

- (1A) The Chief Judge may approve a form for a provision of these Rules.
- (1B) A reference in these Rules to a notice of risk is a reference to Form 1 in Schedule 2.
- (1) Unless the Court otherwise orders, strict compliance with forms is not required and substantial compliance is sufficient.
- (2) A document prepared in the form prescribed for a similar purpose for the Family Court or the Federal Court may be taken to substantially comply with the appropriate form for a proceeding.
- (3) However, unless otherwise provided in these Rules, a document to be filed in a proceeding must be headed:

FEDERAL CIRCUIT COURT OF AUSTRALIA

At (Registry).

Division 2.2—Filing documents

2.05 How documents may be filed

- (1) A document may be filed by:
- (a) delivering it to the registry; or
 - (b) sending it to the registry by post; or
 - (c) fax or electronic communication, as permitted by this Division.

Note: The Federal Court and Federal Circuit Court Regulation 2012 and the Family Law (Fees) Regulation 2012 provide that a document may not be filed in a registry of the Court unless the fee payable for the filing has been paid. Both regulations also provide for an exemption or deferral of a fee, or payment of the fee on invoice, in certain circumstances.

- (1A) However, a document may not be filed by electronic communication if the document (including an attachment) is over 100 pages long.

- (2) A document is filed when it is accepted for filing by a Registrar and sealed with the seal of the Court or marked with a Court stamp, as required by Division 2.4.

Note: For the design, custody and affixation of the seal and validity of stamps: see sections 47 and 48 of the Act.

- (3) However, a document sent by fax or electronic communication, if accepted, is taken to have been filed:
- (a) if the whole document is received by 4.30 pm on a day the Registry is open for business—on that day; and
 - (b) in any other case—on the next day the Registry is open for business.

Note: Because of the Court's computer security firewall, there may be a delay between the time a document is sent by electronic communication and the time the document is filed.

2.06 Registrar may refuse to accept document

A Registrar may refuse to accept a document for filing if:

- (a) the document appears on its face to be an abuse of process, or frivolous, scandalous or vexatious; or
- (b) the document is filed in connection with a pending proceeding and the registry is not the appropriate registry; or
- (c) the rules relating to the electronic filing of documents have not been complied with.

2.07 Filing by fax

- (1) An authorised Registrar may approve at least 1 fax number for each Registry for receiving documents.
- (2) A document sent to a Registry by fax must be:
 - (a) sent to an approved fax number for the Registry; and
 - (b) accompanied by a cover sheet stating:
 - (i) the sender's name, postal address, telephone number, fax number and any document exchange number; and
 - (ii) the number of pages sent; and
 - (iii) the action sought in relation to the document.
- (3) If the document is in an existing proceeding, it must be sent to an approved fax number for the Registry that is the appropriate place for the proceeding.
- (4) If the document is required to be signed or stamped, and is accepted at the Registry, the Registrar must:
 - (a) make 1 copy of the document; and
 - (b) if the sender asks that the document be held for collection—hold it for collection for 7 days; and
 - (c) if the sender does not ask for the document to be held for collection, or having asked does not collect the document within 7 days—return the document by sending it:
 - (i) by fax to the fax number stated on the cover sheet; or

Rule 2.07A

- (ii) if no fax number is stated, to the postal address stated on the cover sheet.
- (5) The sender of a document to a Registry by fax must:
 - (a) keep the original document and the transmission report evidencing successful transmission; and
 - (b) produce the original document or the transmission report as directed by the Court.
- (6) If the Court directs that the original document be produced, the first page of the document must be endorsed with:
 - (a) a statement that the document is the original of a document sent by fax; and
 - (b) the day that the document was sent by fax.

2.07A Filing by electronic communication

- (1) An authorised Registrar:
 - (a) may approve the formats for electronic versions of documents that will be accepted by a Registry; and
 - (b) may approve at least one email address for any Registry for the purpose of receiving documents by electronic communication.
- (2) A document sent to a Registry for filing by electronic communication must:
 - (a) be sent using the Commonwealth Courts Portal at <http://www.comcourts.gov.au>; and
 - (b) be in an electronic format approved for the Registry; and
 - (c) be in a form that complies with rule 2.04; and
 - (d) be able to be printed with the content, and in the form, created.
- (3) An affidavit may be filed by electronic communication only by sending an image of the affidavit as required by subrule (2).
- (4) If the document is in an existing proceeding, it must be sent to the Registry that is the appropriate place for the proceeding by using:

- (a) the Court's Internet home page at <http://www.fmc.gov.au>; or
- (b) the Commonwealth Courts Portal at <http://www.comcourts.gov.au>.

2.07B Other requirements for filing by electronic communication

- (1) If a document sent by a person by electronic communication is required to be signed or stamped, and is accepted at a Registry, a Registrar must:
 - (a) for a document that, under these Rules, must be endorsed with a date for hearing—insert a notice of filing and hearing as the first page of the document; and
 - (b) for any other document—insert a notice of filing as the first page of the document; and
 - (c) make 1 copy of the document (including the notice mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) (whichever applies)); and
 - (d) if the sender requests that the document be held for collection—hold it for collection for 7 days; and
 - (e) if the sender does not request that the document be held for collection or, having made a request, does not collect the document within 7 days—return the document by sending it:
 - (i) by electronic communication to the email address stated on the cover sheet; or
 - (ii) if no email address is stated, to the postal address stated on the cover sheet.
- (2) A notice mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) is part of the document for the purpose of these Rules.
- (3) The person who sent the document must, as directed by the Court:
 - (a) if the document is an image of an affidavit—produce the original of the affidavit; or
 - (b) in any other case—produce a paper copy of the document.
- (4) If the Court directs that an original affidavit or a paper copy of a document be produced, the person who sent the document must:

Rule 2.07B

- (a) for an original affidavit—attach a statement to the affidavit stating the following:
 - (i) that it is the original of the affidavit sent by electronic communication;
 - (ii) the date that the affidavit was sent by electronic communication; or
 - (b) in any other case—endorse the first page with a statement that the paper copy is a true copy of the document sent by electronic communication, and the date that the document was sent by electronic communication.
- (5) If a document has been filed electronically and a notice has been inserted as the first page of the document as required by paragraph (1)(a) or (b), the notice is treated as part of the document for the Act and these Rules (including any rules about service of the document).

Division 2.3—Searching records

2.08 Searching records

- (1) The following persons may search the court record relating to a family law or child support case, and inspect and copy a document forming part of the court record:

 - (a) for paragraphs (1)(c) and (d) and (2)(b)—may include conditions, including a requirement for consent from a person, or a person in a class of persons, mentioned in the court record; and

- (3) In considering whether to give permission under this rule, the Court must consider the following matters:

 - (b) whether the access sought is reasonable for that purpose;

Rule 2.08

- (c) the need for security of court personnel, parties, children and witnesses;
 - (d) any limits or conditions that should be imposed on access to, or use of, the court record.
- (4) Rule 2.32 of the Federal Court Rules applies to the searching of records in a proceeding that is not a family law or child support proceeding.

court document includes a document filed in a case, but does not include correspondence or a transcript forming part of the court record.

2.10 Stamp of Court

- (1) The Registrar must keep in his or her custody a stamp designed, as nearly as practicable, to be the same as the design of the seal of the Court.
- (2) The stamp of the Court must be attached to all process filed in the Court and orders entered and to other documents as directed by the Court.

Note: Documents marked with the stamp are as valid and effectual as if sealed with the seal of the Court: see subsection 48(2) of the Act.

2.11 Methods of attaching the seal or stamp

- (5) Subsection 36(2) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 does not apply to these Rules.

3.05 Extension or shortening of time fixed

- (1) The Court may extend or shorten a time fixed by these Rules or by a judgment, decree or order.

Division 4.1—General rules about starting proceedings

4.01 Application

- (1) Unless otherwise provided in these Rules, a proceeding must be started by filing an application in accordance with the approved form.
- (2) An application for final orders may include an application for interim or procedural orders.
- (3) A person may not file an application for an interim or procedural order unless:

 - (f) why the making of the order is a matter of urgency and why an abridgement of the time for service of the application and the fixing of an early hearing date would not be more appropriate; and

Rule 5.03

- (g) if the application relates to a financial matter, the capacity of the applicant to give an undertaking as to damages; and
 - (h) the other facts, matters and circumstances relied on by the applicant in support of the application.

15.07 Duty to Court and form of expert evidence

For an expert's duty to the Court and for the form of expert evidence, an expert witness should be guided by the Federal Court practice direction guidelines for expert witnesses.

Note: While not intended to address all aspects of an expert's duties, the key points in the guidelines are:

- an expert witness has a duty to assist the Court on matters relevant to the expert's area of expertise
- an expert witness is not an advocate for a party
- the overriding duty of an expert witness is to the Court and not to the person retaining the expert
- if expert witnesses confer at the direction of the Court it would be improper for an expert to be given or to accept instructions not to reach agreement.

15.08 Expert evidence for 2 or more parties

- (1) This rule applies if 2 or more parties to a proceeding call expert witnesses to give opinion evidence about the same, or a similar, question.
- (2) The Court may give any direction that it thinks fit in relation to:

 - (i) his or her opinion on the question; or
 - (ii) his or her opinion on the opinion of another expert on the question; or

- (c) the order in which the expert witnesses are to be sworn, are to give evidence, are to be cross-examined or are to be re-examined; or
- (d) the position of witnesses in the courtroom (not necessarily in the witness box).

Example: The Court may direct that the expert witnesses be sworn one immediately after another, and that they give evidence after all or certain factual evidence has been led, or after each party's case is closed (subject only to hearing the evidence of expert witnesses) in relation to the question.

 - (a) appoint an expert as court expert to inquire into and report on a question arising in the proceeding; and

Division 15.4—Affidavits

- (2) If the person making an affidavit does not have an adequate command of English:
 - (a) a translation of the affidavit and oath or affirmation must be read or given in writing to the person in a language that the person understands; and

- (3) If an affidavit is made by a person who is incapable of reading it or incapable of signing it and a certificate under subrule (1) or (2) does not appear on the affidavit, it may not be used in a proceeding unless the Court or a Registrar is satisfied that:
 - (a) the affidavit was read, or if appropriate a translation read or given in writing, to the person; and
 - (b) the person seemed to understand the affidavit; and
 - (c) in the case of a person physically incapable of signing—the person indicated that the contents were true.

Example: For an affidavit with 10 annexures totalling 100 pages, the first page of the first annexure is page 1 and the last page of the last annexure is page 100. An annexure would be identified in the affidavit in the following way: 'Annexed and marked with the letter G (pages 72-81) is a copy of the agreement for sale'.
- (5) An exhibit must:

 - (b) contains opinions of persons not qualified to give them.

- (2) Unless the Court or a Registrar otherwise directs, any costs caused by the material struck out must be paid by the party who filed the affidavit.
