Order 8A Service under the Hague Convention

Division 1 Preliminary

Note 1 This Order forms part of a scheme to implement Australia's obligations under the Hague Convention on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents in Civil or Commercial Matters. Under the Convention, the Attorney-General's Department of the Commonwealth is designated as the Central Authority (under Article 2 of the Convention) and certain courts and government departments are, for certain purposes, designated as 'other' or 'additional' authorities (under Article 18 of the Convention).

Note 2 This Order provides (in Division 2) for service in overseas Convention countries of local judicial documents (documents that relate to proceedings in the Court) and (in Division 3) for default judgment in proceedings in the Court after service overseas of such a document. Division 4, on the other hand, deals with service by the Court or arranged by the Court in its role as an other or additional authority, of judicial documents emanating from overseas Convention countries.

Note 3 The Attorney-General's Department of the Commonwealth maintains a copy of the Convention, a list of all Convention countries, details of declarations and objections made under the Convention by each of those countries and the names and addresses of the Central and other authorities of each of those countries. A copy of the Convention can be found at <http://www.hcch.net>.

- (3) The application must contain a written undertaking to the Court, signed by the legal practitioner on the record for the applicant in the proceedings to which the local judicial document relates or, if there is no legal practitioner on the record for the applicant in the proceedings, by the applicant:
 - (a) to be personally liable for all costs that are incurred:

 - (c) must be addressed to the Central Authority, or to an additional authority, for the Convention country in which the person is to be served; and
 - (d) may state that the applicant requires a certificate of service that is completed by an additional authority to be countersigned by the Central Authority.

- (a) that the translation is an accurate translation of the documents to be served; and
 - (b) the translator's full name and address and his or her qualifications for making the translation.

Note 2

5 How application to be dealt with

- (1) If satisfied that the application and its accompanying documents comply with rule 4, the Registrar:
 - (a) must sign the request for service abroad; and
 - (b) must forward 2 copies of the relevant documents:
 - (i) if the applicant has asked for the request to be forwarded to a nominated additional authority for the Convention country in which service of the document is to be effected — to the nominated additional authority; or
 - (ii) in any other case — to the Central Authority for the Convention country in which service of the document is to be effected.

6 Procedure on receipt of certificate of service

- (1) Subject to subrule (5), on receipt of a certificate of service in due form in relation to a local judicial document to which a request for service abroad relates, the Registrar:
 - (a) must arrange for the original certificate to be filed in the proceedings to which the document relates; and
 - (b) must send a copy of the certificate to:
 - (i) the legal practitioner on the record for the applicant in the proceedings; or

Note 2

- (ii) if there is no legal practitioner on the record for the applicant in the proceedings — the applicant.
- (2) For the purposes of subrule (1), a certificate of service is in due form if:
 - (a) it is in accordance with Part 2 of Form 14D; and
 - (b) it has been completed by a certifying authority for the Convention country in which service was requested; and
 - (c) if the applicant requires a certificate of service that is completed by an additional authority to be countersigned by the Central Authority, it has been so countersigned.
- (3) On receipt of a statement of costs in due form in relation to the service of a local judicial document mentioned in subrule (1), the Registrar must send to the legal practitioner or applicant who gave the undertaking mentioned in subrule 4 (3) a notice specifying the amount of those costs.
- (4) For the purposes of subrule (3), a statement of costs is in due form if:
 - (a) it relates only to costs of a kind mentioned in paragraph 4 (3) (a); and
 - (b) it has been completed by a certifying authority for the Convention country in which service was requested.
- (5) Subrule (1) does not apply unless:
 - (a) adequate security to cover the costs mentioned in subrule (3) has been given under paragraph 4 (3) (c); or
 - (b) to the extent to which the security so given is inadequate to cover those costs, an amount equal to the amount by which those costs exceed the security so given has been paid to the Registrar.

7 Payment of costs

- (1) On receipt of a notice under subrule 6 (3) in relation to the costs of service, the legal practitioner or applicant, as the case may be, must pay to the Registrar the amount specified in the notice as the amount of the costs.

Note 2

- (2) If the legal practitioner or applicant fails to pay that amount within 28 days after receiving the notice:
 - (a) except by leave of the Court, the applicant may not take any further step in the proceedings to which the local judicial document relates until the costs are paid to the Registrar; and
 - (b) the Registrar may take such steps as are appropriate to enforce the undertaking for payment of the costs.

8 Evidence of service

A certificate of service in relation to a local judicial document (being a certificate in due form within the meaning of subrule 6 (2)) that certifies that service of the document was effected on a specified date is, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary, sufficient proof that:

- (a) service of the document was effected by the method specified in the certificate on that date; and
- (b) if that method of service was requested by the applicant, that method is compatible with the law in force in the Convention country in which service was effected.

Division 3 Default judgment following service abroad of initiating process

9 Application of Division

This Division applies to civil proceedings for which an initiating process has been forwarded following a request for service abroad to the Central Authority (or to an additional authority) for a Convention country.

10 Restriction on power to enter default judgment if certificate of service filed

- (1) This rule applies if:
 - (a) a certificate of service of initiating process has been filed in the proceedings (being a certificate in due form (within the meaning of subrule 6 (2)) that states that service has been duly effected; and

Note 2

- (b) the defendant has not appeared or filed a notice of address for service.
- (2) In circumstances to which this rule applies, default judgment may not be given against the defendant unless the Court is satisfied that:
 - (a) the initiating process was served on the defendant:
 - (i) by a method of service prescribed by the internal law of the Convention country for the service of documents in domestic proceedings on persons who are within its territory; or
 - (ii) if the applicant requested a particular method of service (being a method under which the document was actually delivered to the defendant or to his or her residence) and that method is compatible with the law in force in the country, by that method; or
 - (iii) if the applicant did not request a particular method of service, in circumstances where the defendant accepted the document voluntarily; and
 - (b) the initiating process was served in sufficient time to enable the defendant to enter an appearance in the proceedings.
- (3) In paragraph (2) (b), sufficient time means:
 - (a) 42 days from the date specified in the certificate of service in relation to the initiating process as the date on which service of the process was effected; or
 - (b) such lesser time as the Court considers, in the circumstances, to be a sufficient time to enable the defendant to enter an appearance in the proceedings.

11 Restriction on power to enter default judgment if certificate of service not filed

- (1) This rule applies if:
 - (a) a certificate of service of initiating process has not been filed in the proceedings; or

Note 2

- (b) a certificate of service of initiating process has been filed in the proceedings (being a certificate in due form within the meaning of subrule 6 (2)) that states that service has not been effected; and the defendant has not appeared or filed a notice of address for service.

- (2) If this rule applies, default judgment may not be given against the defendant unless the Court is satisfied that:
 - (a) the initiating process was forwarded to the Central Authority, or to an additional authority, for the Convention country in which service of the initiating process was requested; and
 - (b) a period that is adequate in the circumstances (being a period of not less than 6 months) has elapsed since the date on which initiating process was so forwarded; and
 - (c) every reasonable effort has been made:
 - (i) to obtain a certificate of service from the relevant certifying authority; or
 - (ii) to effect service of the initiating process;as the case requires.

12 Setting aside judgment in default of appearance

- (1) This rule applies if default judgment has been entered against the defendant in proceedings to which this Division applies.
- (2) If this rule applies, the Court may set aside the judgment on the application of the defendant if it is satisfied that the defendant:
 - (a) without any fault on the defendant's part, did not have knowledge of the initiating process in sufficient time to defend the proceedings; and
 - (b) has a prima facie defence to the proceedings on the merits.
- (3) An application to have a judgment set aside under this rule may be filed:
 - (a) at any time within 12 months after the date on which the judgment was given; or

Note 2

- (b) after the expiry of that 12-month period, within such time after the defendant acquires knowledge of the judgment as the Court considers reasonable in the circumstances.
- (4) Nothing in this rule affects any other power of the Court to set aside or vary a judgment.

Division 4 Local service of foreign judicial documents

13 Application of Division

- (1) This Division applies to service in this jurisdiction of a foreign judicial document in relation to which a due form of request for service has been forwarded to the Court:
 - (a) by the Attorney-General's Department of the Commonwealth, whether in the first instance or following a referral under rule 14; or
 - (b) by a forwarding authority.
- (2) Subject to subrule (3), a request for service in this jurisdiction is in due form if it is in accordance with Part 1 of Form 14D and is accompanied by the following documents:
 - (a) the document to be served;
 - (b) a summary of the document to be served, which must be in accordance with Form 14E;
 - (c) a copy of the request and of each of the documents mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b);
 - (d) if either of the documents mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) is not in the English language, an English translation of the document.
- (3) Any translation required under paragraph (2) (d) must bear a certificate (in English) signed by the translator stating:
 - (a) that the translation is an accurate translation of the document; and
 - (b) the translator's full name and address and his or her qualifications for making the translation.

Note 2

14 Certain documents to be referred back to the Attorney-General's Department of the Commonwealth

If, after receiving a request for service in this jurisdiction, the Registrar is of the opinion:

- (a) that the request does not comply with rule 13; or
- (b) that the document to which the request relates is not a foreign judicial document; or
- (c) that compliance with the request may infringe Australia's sovereignty or security;

the Registrar must refer the request to the Attorney-General's Department of the Commonwealth together with a statement of his or her opinion.

Note The Attorney General's Department of the Commonwealth will deal with misdirected and non-compliant requests, make arrangements for the service of extrajudicial documents and assess and decide questions concerning Australia's sovereignty and security.

15 Service

- (1) Subject to rule 14, on receipt of a request for service in this jurisdiction, the Court must arrange for the service of the relevant documents in accordance with the request.

 - (i) for the service of a document of a kind corresponding to the document to be served; or

- (ii) if there is no such corresponding kind of document — for the service of initiating process in proceedings in the Court;
- (b) if the applicant has requested a particular method of service and that method is compatible with the law in force in this jurisdiction — by that method;
- (c) if the applicant has not requested a particular method of service and the person requested to be served accepts the document voluntarily — by delivery of the document to the person requested to be served.

16 Affidavit as to service
