1 Name

This is the List of Exempt Native Specimens Instrument 2001.

2 Authority

This instrument is made under subsection 303DB(1) of the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999.

3 Definitions

In this instrument:

EPBC Act means the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999.

list means the list established by section 4.

personal baggage means personal baggage (including personal effects) of a person departing from Australia that is not intended to be used for any commercial purpose, including sale, lease, hire or exchange.

4 Establishment of the list

(1) The list in Schedule 1 is established for the purposes of subsection 303DB(1) of the EPBC Act.

(2) This is a list of native specimens that are exempt from export control under the EPBC Act (see Part 13A of that Act).

(3) The list includes only specimens that are, or are derived from, Australian native animals and plants.

(4) The list does not include live mammals, birds, reptiles or amphibians.

5 How the list works

Taxon/Item column

(1) Items in the column of the list headed "Taxon / Item" may:
  (a) include the scientific names of taxa related to the items; or
  (b) include descriptions that uniquely identify fisheries the specimens from which are included on the list.

Common name and Taxon/Item columns

(2) The column of the list headed "Common Name" is included for information only, and in particular:
  (a) if a common name specified for an item in the column of the list headed "Common name" is that of an animal or a plant—the scientific name in the

Authorised Version F2025C00097 registered 29/01/2025 column of the list headed "Taxon / Item" for that item determines if specimens of the species so named are included on the list; and

(b) if a common name specified for an item in the column of the list headed "Common name" is that of a fishery—the description of the fishery in the column of the list headed "Taxon / Item" for that item determines if specimens from the fishery described are included on the list.

Notation column

(3) Inclusion of a specimen in the list is subject to any conditions or restrictions included for the specimen in the column of the list headed "Notation".

Note: A specimen must satisfy any such conditions or restrictions in order to be exempt from export control under the EPBC Act (see Part 13A of that Act).

6 Structure of the list

7 Automatic repeal of spent items

This section repeals an item in the list, with effect from the start of a particular day (the repeal day), if the item provides in the column of the list headed "Notation" that:

(a) the item, or the specimen (or specimens) covered by the item, is included in (or on) the list until the day before the repeal day; or

(b) the inclusion of the item, or the specimen (or specimens) covered by the item, in (or on) the list is to expire after a specified period that ends on the day before the repeal day.

Endnotes

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

The endnotes provide information about this compilation and the compiled law.

The following endnotes are included in every compilation:

Endnote 1—About the endnotes
Endnote 2—Abbreviation key
Endnote 3—Legislation history
Endnote 4—Amendment history

Abbreviation key—Endnote 2
The abbreviation key sets out abbreviations that may be used in the endnotes.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4
Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes
The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments
A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe how an amendment is to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, then the misdescribed amendment can be incorporated through an editorial change made under section 15V of the Legislation Act 2003.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the amendment is not incorporated and "(md not incorp)" is added to the amendment history.
