Universal Service Subsidies (2005-06, 2006-07, 2007-08 Default Area) Determination (No. 1) 2005

I, HELEN LLOYD COONAN, Minister for Communications, Information Technology and the Arts, make the following Determination under subsection 16(1) of the Telecommunications (Consumer Protection and Service Standards) Act 1999.

Dated 21 June 2005.

HELEN COONAN

Minister for Communications, Information Technology and the Arts

1 Name of Determination

This Determination is the Universal Service Subsidies (2005-06, 2006-07, 2007-08 Default Area) Determination (No. 1) 2005.

2 Commencement

This Determination commences on the day after it is registered on the Federal Register of Legislative Instruments.

3 Definitions

In this Determination:

Act means the Telecommunications (Consumer Protection and Service Standards) Act 1999.

claim periods means:

- (a) the 2005-2006 financial year; and
- (b) the 2006-2007 financial year; and
- (c) the 2007-2008 financial year.

default area means the area for which the Minister is taken to have made a determination as a result of subsection 9G(3) of the Act.

relevant service obligations means:

- (a) the obligation referred to in paragraph 9(1)(a) of the Act (dealing with the standard telephone service); and
- (b) the obligation referred to in paragraph 9(1)(b) of the Act (dealing with payphones).

standard telephone service includes an alternative telecommunications service (ATS) which is supplied in accordance with an approved ATS marketing plan in fulfilment of the obligation under paragraph 9(1)(a) of the Act.

4 Universal service subsidies

For the purposes of section 16 of the Act, the amount of the universal service subsidies specified in the Schedule is determined for the default area in respect of the relevant service obligations for the claim periods.

Note: Subsection 9G(3) of the Act provides that if at a particular time any areas of Australia are not within a universal service area, covered by a determination under subsection 9G(1), in respect of a service obligation, those areas together constitute at that time a single universal service area in respect of that service obligation and the Minister is taken to have made a determination under subsection 9G(1) to that effect.

5 Circumstances in which subsidies are payable

A universal service provider for a claim period is eligible to be paid the subsidies specified in the Schedule if the provider complies with the provider's obligations under section 12C of the Act.
