Note For the definition of pieceworker see regulation 3.02.

- (2) The base rate of pay for the employee, expressed as an hourly rate of pay, is:
- (a) if there is a transitional rate — that rate; or
 - (b) if there is no transitional rate — the formula rate.
- (3) In this regulation:
- formula rate means the rate of pay worked out using the formula:

TH is the total hours worked by the employee during the relevant period.

Regulation 3.02

- (4) In this regulation:

- (b) for an employee who was continuously employed by the employer for a period less than 12 months immediately before the base rate of pay is to be worked out — that period.

transitional rate means the rate mentioned in, or calculated in accordance with, the transitional instrument or transitional APCS that applies to the employee.

3.02 Employee not award/agreement free if transitional instrument applies — meaning of piecemaker

 - (b) are not paid a rate set by reference to a period of time worked.

Examples of rates set by reference to quantifiable output or task

‘Part 3A—Avoiding reductions in take-home pay from modern award or transitional arrangements

13A Modern award terms giving FWA power to make take-home pay orders

- (1) A modern award may include terms that give FWA power to make an order (a take-home pay order) remedying a reduction in take-home pay suffered by an employee or outworker, or a class of employees or outworkers, as a result of the making of a modern award or the operation of any transitional arrangements in relation to the award (whether or not the reduction in take-home pay is a modernisation-related reduction in take-home pay).
- (2) An employee’s or outworker’s take-home pay is the pay an employee or outworker actually receives:
 - (a) including wages and incentive-based payments, and additional amounts such as allowances and overtime; but
 - (b) disregarding the effect of any deductions that are made as permitted by section 324 of the FW Act.

Note: Deductions permitted by section 324 of the FW Act may (for example) include deductions under salary sacrificing arrangements.

Regulation 3B.04

- (3) This Part applies to an employee or outworker, or a class of employees or outworkers, to whom a modern award applies if the employee, employees, outworker or outworkers are likely to suffer a reduction in take-home pay attributable to the making of a modern award or the operation of any transitional arrangements in relation to the award.

13B Orders remedying reductions in take-home pay

- (1) If FWA makes a take-home pay order under the terms of a modern award it must do so in accordance with this Part.
- (2) Without limiting the kind of take-home pay order that may be made under the terms of a modern award, one or more of the following orders may be made:
- (a) an order compensating a reduction in take-home pay that has already been suffered;

 - (b) an organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of such an employee or outworker; or
 - (c) a person acting on behalf of a class of such employees or outworkers.
- (4) If FWA is satisfied that an application for a take-home pay order has already been made in relation to an employee or outworker, or a class of employees or outworkers, FWA may dismiss any later application that is made in relation to the same employee, employees, outworker or outworkers.

13C Ensuring that take-home pay orders are confined to the circumstances for which they are needed

- (1) FWA must not make a take-home pay order in relation to an employee or outworker, or a class of employees or outworkers, if:
- (a) FWA considers that the reduction in take-home pay is minor or insignificant; or

Regulation 3B.04

- (b) FWA is satisfied that the employee, employees, outworker or outworkers have been adequately compensated in other ways for the reduction.
- (2) FWA must ensure that a take-home pay order is expressed so that:
 - (a) it does not apply to an employee or outworker unless the employee or outworker has actually suffered a reduction in take-home pay; and
 - (b) if the take-home pay payable to the employee or outworker under the modern award increases after the order is made, there is a corresponding reduction in any amount payable to the employee or outworker under the order.

13D Take-home pay order continues to have effect so long as modern award continues to cover employee, employees, outworker or outworkers

A take-home pay order made in relation to an employee or outworker, or a class of employees or outworkers, to whom a particular modern award applies continues to have effect in relation to the employee, employees, outworker or outworkers (subject to the terms of the order) for so long as the modern award continues to cover the employee, employees, outworker or outworkers, even if it stops applying to the employee, employees, outworker or outworkers because an enterprise agreement starts to apply.

13E Describing classes of employees or outworkers

- (1) Without limiting the way in which a class of employees or outworkers mentioned in items 13A to 13D may be described for the purposes of those items, the class may be described by reference to one or more of the following:
 - (a) a particular type of employment;
 - (b) a particular classification, job level or grade;
 - (c) a particular entitlement;

13G Application of provisions of FW Act to take-home pay orders

The FW Act applies as if the following provisions of that Act included a reference to a take-home pay order:

- (a) subsection 675(2);

 - (e) the reduction in the employee's take-home pay is attributable to the order varying the modern award.

- (5) An outworker who is not an employee suffers a modernisation-related reduction in take-home pay if:

Regulation 3B.05

- (b) the modern award contains outworker terms and the outworker is a person to whom the outworker terms apply; and

20A Application of the better off overall test to the making of enterprise agreements if modern awards contain transitional provisions

- (1) This item applies in relation to:
 - (a) an enterprise agreement, or an enterprise agreement that is proposed to be varied, that is to be assessed under subsection 193 (1) or (3) of the FW Act, for the purpose of determining whether it passes the better off overall test, during the period (the transitional period):

 - (i) from award-based transitional instruments that covered employees immediately before the modern award comes into operation; and
 - (ii) to the terms and conditions of employment of those employees covered by the modern award.
 - (2) For the purpose of determining whether the enterprise agreement, or the enterprise agreement as proposed to be varied, passes the better off overall test, subsections 193 (1) and (3) of the FW Act apply as if:
 - (a) FWA were required, at the test time under the relevant subsection, to compare the enterprise agreement, or the enterprise agreement as proposed to be varied, with:

the enterprise agreement, or the enterprise agreement as
