

Student Assistance (Education Institutions and Courses) Determination 2009 (No. 2)

as amended made under subsections 3 (1) and 5D (1) of the Student Assistance Act 1973

This compilation was prepared on 11 January 2013 taking into account amendments up to Student Assistance (Education Institutions and Courses) Amendment Determination 2012 (No. 1) (F2012L02588).

Prepared by the Department of Industry, Innovation, Science, Research and Tertiary Education.

1 Name of Determination

This Determination is the Student Assistance (Education Institutions and Courses) Determination 2009 (No. 2).

2 Commencement

This Determination commences on the day after it is registered.

3 Revocation

Student Assistance (Education Institutions and Courses) Determination 2009 (No. 1) is revoked.

4 Definitions

In this Determination:

accredited higher education course means a course that is:

- (a) accredited as a higher education course by TEQSA or taken to be course accredited by TEQSA in relation to the provider for the purposes of the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency Act 2011; or
- (b) if a higher education institution is authorised by a law of the Commonwealth to accredit its own higher education courses — a course conducted and accredited as a higher education course by that institution.

accredited secondary course means a course accredited as a secondary course by the State or Territory authority responsible for the accreditation of secondary courses in the State or Territory in which the course is conducted.

Act means the Student Assistance Act 1973.

Australian Apprenticeships Access Programme means the program of that name funded by the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations.

bridging study for overseas-trained professionals means the occupation-related subjects, course, tuition or training program that:

- (a) is necessary for an overseas-trained professional to complete in order to meet the requirements for entry into their profession in Australia; and
- (b) is provided by an educational institution that has been approved as a higher education provider under the Higher Education Support Act 2003.

ESL course means a course of instruction in English as a second language.

Integrated undergraduate/postgraduate course means an accredited higher education course where:

- (a) an accredited tertiary qualification other than a Masters degree or a Doctorate degree is an available outcome for students undertaking the course; and

- (b) the course is not described as a Masters course but it is integrated with a Masters level qualification or contain unit components of a Masters course.

Masters qualifying course means a bridging course that gives participants the qualifications necessary for entry into a Masters degree course, but does not include any course which forms part of a Masters degree course.

National Register has the meaning that term is given in section 3 of the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011.

Open Learning means a program of assessment based on study provided through Open Universities Australia Pty Ltd (ACN 053 431 888) trading as Open Universities Australia.

preparatory course means:

- (a) a VET course that provides remedial education or involves preparatory activities to enable participation in subsequent education or social settings, and is of a type that aims to achieve basic skills and standards or to prepare students for further education; or
- (b) a course offered by a higher education institution that is designed to assist people to gain entry to higher education level courses (including enabling and bridging courses).

pre-vocational course means a course designed to assist people to gain entry to a specific related VET course or an Australian Apprenticeship, and includes an Australian Apprenticeships Access Programme.

registered training organisation means a training organisation that is registered on the National Register as a registered training organisation.

special school means an institution located in Australia that is conducted primarily for students with a disability and is:

- (a) a government school; or
- (b) a non-government institution that is recognised as a school under the law of a State or Territory in which the institution is located.

TEQSA means the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency.

VET means vocational education and training.

VET accredited course means:

- (a) a course accredited by a body under a delegation from the Australian Skills Quality Authority; or
- (b) a course accredited by the Australian Skills Quality Authority.

VET course means

- (a) the units of competency of a training package that is endorsed by the Ministerial Council which has responsibility for the VET Quality Framework;
- (b) the modules of a VET accredited course; or
- (c) the modules of a course accredited by the VET Regulator of a State which is a non-referring State within the meaning of section 7 of the National Vocational Education and Training Act 2011.

VET Quality Framework has the meaning that term is given in section 3 of the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011.

vocational education and training program means a course that leads to an award of an AQF qualification or a Statement of Attainment, and the course must be:

- (a) an accredited vocational education and training course; or
- (b) a sequence of training consisting of one or more subjects or modules where each subject or module is from an accredited vocational education and training course; or
- (c) a structured approach to the development and attainment of competencies for a particular AQF qualification specified in an endorsed training package.

5 Higher education institutions

For the definition of higher education institution in subsection 3 (1) of the Act, the following are to be regarded as higher education institutions for the purposes of the Act:

- (a) an institution that is established by a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory as a higher education institution;
- (b) an institution registered or taken to be registered by TEQSA as a higher education provider.

6 Secondary schools

For the definition of secondary school in subsection 3 (1) of the Act, the following are to be regarded as secondary schools for the purposes of the Act:

- (a) an institution located in Australia that is a government secondary school;
- (b) an institution located in Australia that is recognised as a secondary school under the law of the State or Territory in which the institution is located.

7 Technical and further education institutions

For the definition of technical and further education institution in subsection 3 (1) of the Act, registered training organisations are to be regarded as technical and further education institutions for the purposes of the Act.

8 Other education institutions

For paragraph (d) of the definition of education institution in subsection 3 (1) of the Act, special schools are to be regarded as education institutions for the purposes of the Act.

9 Secondary courses

For paragraph 5D (1) (a) of the Act, a secondary course is a course:

- (a) specified in Column 1 of the table in Schedule 1 to this instrument that is provided by an education institution specified for that course in Column 2 of that table; or
- (b) provided by a secondary school, a registered training organisation or a higher education institution that leads to an accredited secondary course qualification involving:
 - (i) accredited secondary course subjects; or
 - (ii) a VET course.

10 Tertiary courses

(1) For paragraph 5D (1) (a) of the Act, a tertiary course is a full time course:

- (a) specified in Column 1 of the table in Schedule 2 to this instrument that is provided by an education institution specified for that course in Column 2 of that table; or
- (b) that is:
 - (i) accredited at Masters level; and
 - (ii) specified in Column 2 of the table in Schedule 3 to this instrument; and
 - (iii) provided by the education institution specified for that course in Column 1 of that table.

(2) Without limiting paragraph (1), a course that meets the requirements of paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) and is not a full time course is a tertiary course for the purposes of paragraph 1061PC of the Social Security Act 1991.

(3) For paragraph 5D (1) (b) of the Act, a unit of a course mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) is part of a tertiary course.
