

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Authorised Deposit-taking Institutions Supervisory Levy Imposition Determination 2013

This determination relates to a levy imposed by the Authorised Deposit-Taking Institutions Supervisory Levy Imposition Act 1998 (the Act) on authorised deposit-taking institutions (ADIs).

This determination commences on 1 July 2013 and relates to the 2013-14 financial year. The Authorised Deposit-Taking Institutions Supervisory Levy Imposition Determination 2012 is revoked upon commencement of this determination. Consistent with section 7 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, any obligation or liability incurred in previous financial years remains valid.

The determination will commence before it is registered. Commencement prior to registration, however, does not disadvantageously affect the rights of any person as at the date of registration or impose any liability on any person in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of registration. Commencement prior to registration is therefore consistent with subsection 12(2) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.

Subsection 7(3) of the Act requires the Treasurer, by legislative instrument, to determine:

- (a) the maximum restricted levy amount for each financial year;
- (b) the minimum restricted levy amount for each financial year;
- (c) the restricted levy percentage for each financial year;
- (ca) the unrestricted levy percentage for each financial year; and
- (d) how an ADI's levy base is to be worked out.

For foreign ADIs this determination provides that the restricted component of the 2013-14 levy will be calculated at 0.00250 per cent of assets held by the entity, subject to a minimum of $490 and a maximum of $1,170,500. The unrestricted component of the 2013-14 levy will be calculated at 0.000776 per cent of assets held by the entity.

For Specialist Credit Card Institutions and Providers of Purchased Payment Facilities this determination provides that the restricted component of the 2013-14 levy will be calculated at 0.00250 per cent of assets held by the entity, subject to a minimum of $10,300 and a maximum of $1,170,500. The unrestricted component of the 2013-14 levy will be calculated at 0.000776 per cent of assets held by the entity.

For all other ADIs, this determination provides that the restricted component of the 2013-14 levy will be calculated at 0.00499 per cent of assets held by the entity, subject to a minimum of $490 and a maximum of $2,341,000. The unrestricted component of the 2013-14 levy will be calculated at 0.000776 per cent of assets held by the entity.

The finance sector has been consulted on the 2013-14 supervisory levies through a Treasury and Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) discussion paper released on the Treasury website on 31 May 2013. The discussion paper discusses potential impacts of the levies on each industry sector and institution regulated by APRA. Four submissions were received during the consultation process, and two submissions specifically commented upon the preferred levy scenario that was outlined in the paper in relation to the Authorised Deposit-taking Institutions Supervisory Levy Imposition Determination 2013.

APRA and Treasury periodically review the methodology for imposing levies on the finance industry with submissions received from industry. The full range of issues raised in the methodology review will be considered and a formal response and position paper prepared by Treasury. As part of the review, further consultation will be undertaken with stakeholders, with a view to responding to identified issues in the context of the 2014-15 levies process.

The Office of Best Practice Regulation has previously advised that a Regulatory Impact Statement is not required as supervisory levies are considered machinery-of-government in nature.

This determination is a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.

A statement of compatibility with human rights for the purposes of Part 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011 is set out in Attachment 1.

Statement of Compatibility with Human Rights

Prepared in accordance with Part 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011

Authorised Deposit-taking Institutions Supervisory Levy Imposition Determination 2013

This Legislative Instrument is compatible with the human rights and freedoms recognised or declared in the international instruments listed in section 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011.

Overview of the Legislative Instrument

This determination relates to a levy imposed by the Authorised Deposit-Taking Institutions Supervisory Levy Imposition Act 1998 on authorised deposit-taking institutions (ADIs).

Subsection 7(3) allows the Minister to determine:

- (e) the maximum restricted levy amount for each financial year;
- (f) the minimum restricted levy amount for each financial year;
- (g) the restricted levy percentage for each financial year;
- (ca) the unrestricted levy percentage for each financial year; and
- (h) how an authorised deposit-taking institution's asset value is to be calculated.

Human rights implications

This Legislative Instrument does not engage any of the applicable rights or freedoms.

Conclusion

This Legislative Instrument is compatible with human rights as it does not raise any human rights issues.
