

THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

ANU MEDICAL SCHOOL ACADEMIC PROGRESS ORDER 2014

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

1. Authority for making the instrument. Academic Progress Rules 2014, subsection 10(3).
2. Purpose and operation of the instrument. The Order is made under Academic Progress Rules 2014, subsection 10(3) which requires that students in the ANU Medical School " must reach a satisfactory standard (within the meaning of the relevant Order made by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor) in all assessment tasks and courses before being permitted to progress to the next level of study."
3. Documents incorporated in the instrument by reference. None.
4. Consultation process. The Rules were made by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) after consultation with the ANU Medical School.

Corporate Governance and Risk Office
8 December 2014.