About this compilation

This compilation

This is a compilation of Defence Determination 2016/19, Conditions of service, that shows the text of the law as amended and in force on 9/5/2024 (the compilation date).

The notes at the end of this compilation (the endnotes) include information about amending laws and the amendment history of provisions of the compiled law.

Uncommenced amendments

The effect of uncommenced amendments is not shown in the text of the compiled law. Any uncommenced amendments affecting the law are accessible on the Register (www.legislation.gov.au). The details of amendments made up to, but not commenced at, the compilation date are underlined in the endnotes. For more information on any uncommenced amendments, see the Register for the compiled law.

Application, saving and transitional provisions for provisions and amendments

If the operation of a provision or amendment of the compiled law is affected by an application, saving or transitional provision that is not included in this compilation, details are included in the endnotes.

Modifications

If the compiled law is modified by another law, the compiled law operates as modified but the modification does not amend the text of the law. Accordingly, this compilation does not show the text of the compiled law as modified. For more information on any modifications, see the Register for the compiled law.

Self-repealing provisions

If a provision of the compiled law has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law, details are included in the endnotes.

Chapter 6: ADF relocation on posting in Australia

Part 1A: General provisions

6.1A.1 Purpose

This Chapter sets out the provisions relating to relocation benefits for members and their resident family and recognised other persons when they are relocating within Australia.

6.1A.2 Definitions

In this Chapter the following apply.

ADF gap year means a program on which a member, including a member of the Reserves, provides continuous full-time service in SERVOP G.

Essential household item means an item that meets all the following.

- a. The absence of the item for more than 72 hours would unduly inconvenience the member, their resident family or a recognised other person.
- b. The item is in everyday use in the normal household.
- c. The member does not have an alternative item in their inventory.

Furniture and effects means portable household items ordinarily used for domestic purposes and convenience.

Non-portable item means an item that cannot be carried by two people and would require additional equipment, such as a crane or a forklift, to move it.

Private vehicle means a motor vehicle that is registered in the name of a member, their resident family or a recognised other person.

Suitable own home has the same meaning given by section 7.2.5.

Towable item means a caravan or trailer that is registered in the name of a member, their resident family, or a recognised other person, is roadworthy and is capable of being towed by the member's private vehicle.

Part 1: Relocation allowances

Division 1: Disturbance allowance

6.1.3 Purpose

A member may be compensated for some of the costs involved in a removal to a new dwelling within Australia. This Division outlines the kinds of costs covered, the conditions of eligibility and the amount payable.

6.1.4 Members eligible

A member is eligible for disturbance allowance if they are in either of the following situations.

- a. The member meets both the following conditions.
 - i. They are granted a removal to a new home.
 - ii. They are on continuous full-time service or cease continuous full-time service.
- b. The member meets all the following conditions.
 - i. They are a member who has unaccompanied resident family and no accompanied resident family, or a member with no resident family or recognised other persons.
 - ii. They have been deployed for 6 months or longer.
 - iii. The member chose under any of sections 7.4.23, 7.6.38, 7.7.11 or 7.8.31 to leave their accommodation.

Note: Section 1.6.1 applies to this section and may affect the payment of the allowance if a member and an adult who is recognised as resident family are both eligible for disturbance allowance for the same period.

6.1.5 Members not eligible

A member is not eligible for disturbance allowance if any of the following apply.

- a. They are moving from living-in accommodation in an establishment, unit or base to different living-in accommodation in the same establishment, unit or base.
- b. They are moving overseas from Australia.
- c. They are moving between two seagoing ships that have the same home port.
- d. They are moving to another home because the combined total of resident family and recognised other persons has changed.
- e. They meet all of the following.
 - i. They are a member who has unaccompanied resident family and no accompanied resident.
 - ii. They are moving to reunite with their resident family.

- iii. The location they are moving to is specified in their alternate located work agreement.

6.1.6 Amount of allowance

2. The amount of disturbance allowance is the amount specified in column C of the following table which coincides with both of the following.
 - a. The circumstances of the member described in column A.
 - b. The number of the current removal, as defined in section 6.1.7, specified in column B.

Item	Column A Circumstances of member	Column B Number of current removal	Column C Amount $

10.	Removal from storage to living-in accommodation, after deployment of more than 6 months.	Each time	175
11.	Removal from storage to living-out accommodation, after deployment of more than 6 months.	Each time	350

6.1.7 Number of current removal

1. The number of the current removal is defined as follows.

The number of removals for which a member has been eligible for disturbance allowance since they last began continuous full-time service. This number includes the current removal.

Note: When a member re-enters the ADF after a break in service, the number of removals re-starts at 1. Their first removal is not added to the number of removals in their previous period of service.

2. The member may have a partner who is also a member and they move together. In this case, the number of the current removal is the greater of the number of removals that one or the other undertook since they began continuous full-time service. This number includes the current removal.
3. Separate removals to a new location by a member, their resident family and recognised other persons are treated as 1 removal.

6.1.8 Resident family removed at a later date

1. A member who is removed without their resident family is eligible for an amount equal to the amount payable to a member under section 6.1.6 table item 2.
2. If the member's resident family are removed to the same location as the member at a later date, the total amount payable for both removals must not be more than if they had been removed together.

6.1.9 Removal on enlistment

A member who has no resident family and is granted a removal on enlistment is eligible for an amount equal to the amount payable to a member under section 6.1.6 table item 2.

6.1.10 Removals to and from overseas – number of removals

A removal related to an overseas posting counts as only 1 move, even when both the following happen.

- a. The member's furniture is stored under this Determination in Australia.
- b. Their furniture and effects are moved from storage to their posting when they return to Australia. This is whether they are accompanied on their return or not.

6.1.11 Death of a member

If a member dies and their resident family or recognised other persons are granted a removal, the resident family or recognised other persons are eligible for an amount of disturbance allowance. The amount is what the member would have been paid if the removal had been granted on ceasing continuous full-time service.

6.1.12 A child changing school – additional payment

1. A member is eligible for an additional payment of $266 for each child if all of the following apply.
 - a. The member's child is required to change schools because of a removal.
 - b. The child is a full-time student at a primary or secondary school.

Note: This does not include a child at a pre-school.
2. If the child's change of school is postponed to a later date, payment will only be made on the date they change school.
3. If the member's partner is also a member, only one member is eligible for the payment in respect of the child.

6.1.13 Telephone installation or reconnection costs

1. A member eligible for disturbance allowance for a removal may be eligible for assistance with costs of installing or reconnecting a private telephone in the dwelling they move to. They qualify if either of these conditions are met.
 - a. They had a private telephone disconnected from their former dwelling when they were removed from it.
 - b. They had a private telephone disconnected from another earlier dwelling when they were removed from it. Since that earlier removal, they continuously occupied a dwelling where either of the following conditions were met.
 - i. A telephone was provided.
 - ii. They were on long-term posting overseas.
2. The member may be reimbursed the cost of the installation or reconnection service, up to a maximum of $299.

6.1.14 Private vehicle transfer costs

1. A member is eligible for assistance with the costs of transferring a private vehicle registration to another State or Territory. The vehicle may belong to the member, their resident family or a recognised other person.
2. The benefit is an amount up to $63 for each removal. It is for 1 private vehicle only. It is to assist with fees and costs for registration plates, roadworthiness inspection, administration fees and ownership tests. It is not to assist with the registration fee for the vehicle.

6.1.15 Payment in special circumstances

1. A member may qualify for an allowance or reimbursement under this Part even if they do not meet one or more of the criteria for qualification.
2. The CDF may approve payment if the following conditions are satisfied.
 - a. The member does not qualify for reasons beyond their control.
 - b. Paying an amount is consistent with the purpose of the allowance.
3. The CDF cannot approve an amount greater than the member would have received if they had been eligible for an allowance or reimbursement.

Division 2: Childcare costs on removal

6.1.16 Purpose

A member may be eligible for assistance with the costs of childcare when they are being removed. This Division outlines conditions and amounts payable.

6.1.17 Members eligible

1. A member granted a removal is eligible for assistance with childcare costs on removal if all these criteria are met.
 - a. They have a child who is resident family or a recognised other person and meets either of the following conditions.
 - i. Is under 11 years old.
 - ii. Has a disability.
 - b. They must pay for the childcare.

Note: The childcare is not limited to recognised government or commercial day care facilities.
 - c. For family, Service or medical reasons, only the member or 1 adult who is recognised as resident family or as a recognised other person is able to help with the removal.
2. Medical reasons in paragraph 1.c include an adult who is recognised as resident family or as a recognised other person being unable to help with the removal because they have a medical condition. This must be supported by a medical certificate.
3. For the purpose of paragraph 1.c, family reasons include any of the following.
 - a. If any of the following are unable to help with the removal because of work commitments they cannot avoid.
 - i. The member.
 - ii. The member's partner.
 - iii. An adult who is resident family or a recognised other person.
 - b. The member is a single parent who has no adults recognised as resident family or recognised other persons that can help with the removal.
 - c. The member, their partner or an adult who is resident family or as a recognised other person is absent to care for a close family member who is ill.

Note: Claims should be supported by a medical certificate.

Note: Section 1.6.1 applies to this section and may affect the payment of assistance if a member and an adult who is recognised as resident family are both eligible for assistance with childcare costs on removal for the same period.

6.1.18 Location of assistance

The assistance is payable for childcare at either the new or the old location.

6.1.19 Amount of assistance

The member is eligible for a maximum of $47.40 a day. This is payable for up to 2 days of childcare per move for each eligible child who is resident family or a recognised other person. This means 2 days in total. It does not mean a maximum of 2 days at each of the new and old locations.

Division 3: Pet relocation

6.1.20 Purpose

This Division provides members with assistance towards the cost of relocating pets in Australia.

6.1.21 Pet relocation

1. Subject to section 6.1.23, a member is eligible for the cost of relocating a pet if the CDF is satisfied that the costs are reasonable having regard to subsection 2.
- 1A. A relocation under subsection 1 is between the following locations.
 - a. If the member is posted within Australia — from the member's losing location to their gaining location.
 - b. If the member is posted to an external territory or Thursday Island for more than 6 months — from the member's losing location to one of the following locations.
 - i. The posting location.
 - ii. A location within Australia chosen by the member.
 - c. If the member is posted from an external territory or Thursday Island to a location within Australia — from the location to which the pet was removed under paragraph b to the member's gaining location.
2. The CDF must consider all these criteria.
 - a. The circumstances of the posting, removal and accommodation of the member and any resident family or recognised other persons.
 - b. The nature and number of the pets to be relocated.
 - c. The arrangements to transport and board the pets.
 - d. The availability of discounted transport rates to the member.
 - e. Any relevant information the member provides about why they own the animal. This includes information satisfying the CDF that the pets are not owned mainly for commercial or economic purposes.
 - f. The time taken for travel between the former and new locations. Only the time taken for travel between housing benefit locations will be considered. This does not include time spent travelling to or from recreation leave between postings.
3. In this section, pet relocation means the commercial transportation and boarding of a household pet by a service provider who meets all of the following.
 - a. They have an Australian Business Number.
 - b. They conduct a business for profit in the transportation or boarding of household pets.
 - c. They are registered or licenced to carry out the business, as required under relevant State or Territory law.

4. The benefit provided under subsection 1 may be paid in any of the following circumstances.
 - a. Before the pet is relocated — if the member provides a quote or invoice from the service provider for the proposed services.
 - b. After the pet is relocated — by reimbursement if the member provides a receipt for the services provided.
5. If the benefit is provided before the pet is relocated, all of the following apply.
 - a. The member must provide a copy of the receipt within 21 days of the benefit being provided.
 - b. The member must repay the benefit if they do not provide a copy of the receipt within 21 days of the benefit being provided.
 - c. The member must repay the amount of the benefit not used for the pet relocation of the pet if any of the following apply.
 - i. The pet relocation does not occur.
 - ii. The cost of the pet relocation is less than the benefit provided.

6.1.22 When costs may be reimbursed – member posted overseas

1. If a member is posted overseas the CDF may reimburse the following costs, if satisfied that they are reasonable.
 - a. The commercial transportation of 1 or more household pets to a location within Australia.
 - b. The boarding costs of 1 or more household pets for the period the member is in receipt of temporary accommodation allowance in the losing posting location.
2. In deciding whether costs are reasonable, the CDF must consider all the criteria in subsections 6.1.21.2 and 6.1.21.3.

6.1.23 Limitations on pet relocations

1. The cost of a pet relocation does not include the costs for any of the following.
 - a. The purchase of any of the following.
 - i. Equipment or other items used in the transportation or boarding of the pet.
 - ii. Goods or services for the continued use, including pet containers and vaccinations.
 - b. A pet that is mainly used for economic or business purposes.
 - c. The costs of non-commercial transport or boarding of the pet.
2. If all of the following apply, the maximum cost of the pet relocation is the cost that would have been incurred if the pet were relocated to the member's posting location.
 - a. The member is posted to an external territory or Thursday Island.
 - b. The pet is relocated to a location chosen by the member.

Division 4: Relocation of other animals

6.1.24 Purpose

The Division provides a member who owns animals that are not household pets with the cost of transporting their animals that they would have driven from the member's old housing benefit locations their next housing benefit locations as a part of their removal had it not been for the COVID-19 pandemic.

6.1.25 Members this Division applies to

The Division applies to a member who meets all of the following.

- a. They are eligible for a removal under Part 5, Removals and Storage within Australia.
- b. They, their resident family or recognised other persons fly to their next housing benefit locations.
- c. The removal occurs during the COVID-19 pandemic.

6.1.26 Animal removals

1. Subject to section 6.1.27, a member is eligible for the reasonable cost of the transportation of their animal from the member's losing location to their gaining location.
2. The benefit provided under subsection 1 may be paid at any of the following circumstances.
 - a. Before the animal is removed — if the member provides a quote or invoice from the service provider for the proposed services.
 - b. After the animal is removed — by reimbursement if the member provides a receipt for the services provided.
3. If the benefit is provided before the animal is relocated all of the following apply.
 - a. The member must provide a copy of the receipt within 21 days of the benefit being given to the provided.
 - b. The member must repay the benefit if they do not provide a copy of the receipt within 21 days of the benefit being provided.
 - c. The member must repay the amount of the benefit not used for the animal if any of the following apply.
 - i. The removal of the animal does not occur.
 - ii. The cost of the removal of the animal is less than the benefit provided.

6.1.27 Limitations on animal removals

1. The animal meets the following criteria.
 - a. The animal is not primarily used for commercial purposes.
 - b. The animal does not breach biosecurity regulations that apply in an area through which they travel.

- c. The animal would have been moved by the member, their resident family or recognised other persons had the member, their resident family or recognised other persons driven.
- 2. The cost of transportation includes only the following.
 - a. The movement of the animal from the member's old housing benefit locations to the member's next housing benefit locations.
 - b. The boarding or agistment of the animal, however described, for necessary overnight breaks while the animal is being moved and for the days they arrive in the member's next housing benefit locations until the earlier of the following days.
 - i. The day after the member ceases to occupy temporary accommodation.
 - ii. The day the member is able to take possession of the animal.
- 3. The transportation of the animal must be undertaken by a service provider who meets the following.
 - a. They have an Australian Business Number (ABN).
 - b. Their primary purpose is to move animals from one location to another.
 - c. The business holds the necessary licences for the transportation of the animals.

Part 2: Loss on sale of furniture, effects and private vehicles

6.2.1 Purpose

This Part provides members with a reimbursement when they experience a financial loss associated with the sale of furniture, private vehicles, or other effects when they are relocated.

Note: Furniture and effects is defined in section 6.1A.2.

6.2.1A Loss on items obtained through a grant

A member is not eligible for reimbursement under this Part for a financial loss associated with the sale of an item obtained through a grant.

6.2.2 Furniture and effects – loss on sale

1. A person who meets any of the following is eligible for the reimbursement of the financial loss on the sale of furniture and effects if they choose to sell the items instead of having them removed to another location in Australia.
 - a. A member.
 - b. A person recognised as resident family of a deceased member.
 - c. A person recognised as a recognised other person of a deceased member.
2. A reimbursement under this section is only payable to one person.

Note: Section 1.6.1 applies to this section and may affect the reimbursement provided if a member and an adult who is recognised as resident family are both eligible for reimbursement for loss on the sale of the same furniture and effects.

6.2.3 Furniture and effects – amount of reimbursement

1. Subject to this section, the amount of reimbursement is the difference between what the member gets for the sale and the sum of these two amounts.
 - a. The current market value of the furniture and effects.
 - b. The incidental costs of selling the furniture and effects.

Note: Incidental costs are the standard charges of auctioneers and valuers, and reasonable advertising costs.
2. The amount of reimbursement must not be more than what the Commonwealth would pay to remove the furniture and effects.
3. If the member stores furniture and effects at Commonwealth expense and then sells them, the amount of reimbursement is reduced by the cost of the storage. If the cost of storage is greater than the loss, the member does not have to pay the Commonwealth the difference.
4. The amount is not to be reduced under subsection 3 in these circumstances.
 - a. It would cost more than the value of the reimbursement to continue to store the furniture and effects if they were not sold.

- b. By reason only of postings that do not attract a removal, the member would not use the furniture and effects within 12 months of becoming eligible for the reimbursement.

6.2.4 Private vehicles – loss on sale

1. This section applies in relation to any of the following vehicles.
 - a. A private vehicle that a member is (or would have been) eligible for removal to another location in Australia.
 - b. One private vehicle and one towable item owned by a member who meets all of the following conditions.
 - i. They are a member who has unaccompanied resident family and no accompanied resident family, or a member with no resident family or recognised other persons.
 - ii. They are deployed for 6 months or longer.
 - iii. They have made a choice to vacate their accommodation under subsections 7.4.23.2, 7.6.38.2, 7.8.31.2, section 7.7.11, or the CDF has decided that the member must leave the living-in accommodation under subsection 7.4.23.5.
 - iv. They have not put the vehicle or towable item in storage.
2. A person may choose to sell the vehicle instead of having it removed. They are eligible for reimbursement if they make a financial loss on the sale. In this subsection vehicle means a private vehicle or a registered item that can be towed.

Note: Storage includes on a Defence base or in non-commercial storage.
3. The benefit is available to any of these persons.
 - a. A member on continuous full-time service.
 - b. A former member who was on continuous full-time service and is eligible for a removal of a vehicle when they complete their service.
 - c. A person legally entitled to own the vehicle of a deceased member who was on continuous full-time service.

Note: Section 1.6.1 applies to this section and may affect the reimbursement provided if a member and an adult who is recognised as resident family are both eligible for reimbursement for loss on the sale of the same vehicle.

6.2.5 Private vehicles – amount of reimbursement

1. The amount of reimbursement for a vehicle described in paragraph 6.2.4.1.a is the lesser of the following two amounts.
 - a. The cost to remove the vehicle if it were removed under Chapter 6 Part 5.
 - b. The difference between the valuation and the amount of the sale price after reasonable incidental costs have been deducted from it.
2. The amount of reimbursement for a vehicle or towable item described in paragraph 6.2.4.1.b or 6.2.4.1.c is the lesser of the following two amounts.

- a. The cost to store the vehicle for the period of the member's deployment if it were stored under Chapter 6 Part 5.
 - b. The difference between the valuation and the amount of the sale price after reasonable incidental costs have been deducted from it.
3. In subsections 1 and 2, valuation means a commercial valuation by a member of a recognised motor trades organisation.
4. The CDF must be satisfied that the person made reasonable efforts to sell the vehicle without making a loss. The CDF must consider these factors.
 - a. When and how widely the person advertised the vehicle for sale.
 - b. How the person tried to sell the vehicle.
 - c. The nature and extent of offers made for the vehicle.
 - d. The particulars of the sale.
 - e. Any other relevant aspect of the sale.
5. In the case of a deceased member (see paragraph 6.2.4.3.c), the amount depends on where the vehicle is to go. Payment is for the cost of transporting the vehicle to the relevant place listed below.
 - a. Within the location where the vehicle is already.
 - b. The location of the last permanent residence of the member, their resident family or a recognised other person when they enlisted or were appointed.
 - c. A specific place if the member was enlisted or appointed from outside Australia.

 - b. The member's relationship status changes.

7.2.9 When a member's home is unsuitable

A home is not a suitable own home if any of the following apply.

- a. The CDF has decided that the home is not suitable under Division 2 of this Part.
- b. The member's own home is deemed unsuitable because it is rented out.
- c. All of the following circumstances apply.
 - i. The member buys a new home in their housing benefit location.
 - ii. The location will no longer be the member's housing benefit location within 3 months of buying the home.

Note: If the member lived in a Service residence or residence that the member receives rent allowance for before buying their new home, the member can remain in that residence until their removal to the new housing benefit location.

Division 2: Home becomes unsuitable

7.2.10 Purpose

This Division sets out when a member's suitable own home may cease to be suitable. This may create an eligibility for housing assistance under Part 4, 6 or 8 of this Chapter.

7.2.11 Member required to live in tied, appointment or assigned residence

1. This section applies to a member who is required by their Service to occupy a particular Service residence.
2. If the member owns a home at the housing benefit location, it is not a suitable own home. The member may not live in it during the period they are required to occupy the particular Service residence.
3. The member may live in their own home in the housing benefit location if the CDF is satisfied it is reasonable.
4. For approval under subsection 3, the CDF must consider the following factors.
 - a. Whether the residence is suitable for the member's representative duties.
 - b. The location of the residence.
 - c. The impact on any other members.
 - d. Any additional cost to the Commonwealth.
5. A home that is approved by the CDF under subsection 3 is taken to be the member's suitable own home.

7.2.12 A member's home is not suitable

1. A member's home is not a suitable own home in any of the following circumstances.
 - a. The home does not have the minimum number of prescribed bedrooms under subsection 7.2.5.1A.
 - b. The member, their resident family or a recognised other person has medical needs that the home cannot meet and the CDF is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to modify the home to meet the medical needs.
 - c. The member's relationship has broken down and all of the following apply.
 - i. The member's partner lives in the home.
 - ii. The member is unable to live in the home because of subparagraph i.
 - iii. The member is not receiving rent for the home from their partner.
 - d. All of the following apply.
 - i. A qualified person has certified the home as uninhabitable, or recommended it not be lived in.
 - ii. The member, their resident family or a recognised other person are likely to suffer a serious injury or illness if they remain in the home.

- iii. The member, their resident family or a recognised other person will not benefit from an insurance policy or compensation scheme intended to assist the member with replacement housing or remedy a problem.
 - iv. The CDF is satisfied that the reason the home has been certified as uninhabitable, or recommended it should not be lived in, is not due to the failure of the member to take reasonable steps to prevent the home from becoming uninhabitable or a qualified person recommending the home not be lived in.
 - e. Seven days before the settlement of the contract for the sale of a suitable own home.
 - f. Both of the following apply.
 - i. The member commenced action to sell the home before the member arrived in the housing benefit location.
 - ii. The CDF is satisfied that the member continues to take reasonable steps to sell the home.
 - g. The member has unaccompanied resident family and the home is in their housing benefit location.
2. In this section, partner includes a former partner.

7.2.13 Member's home is outside the housing benefit location

A member's own home is not a suitable own home if it is outside the housing benefit location or family benefit location.

Division 3: Home may be unsuitable if it is rented out

7.2.14 Purpose

This Division sets out how a member's own home may be deemed to be unsuitable because it is rented out and the member cannot get vacant possession. The member may be eligible for housing assistance under Part 4, 6 or 8 of this Chapter.

7.2.15 Member to include release clause in lease

1. A member who rents out their own home must include a release clause in a fixed-term lease if State or Territory legislation permits it.

Note: This includes seeking approval by a Residential Tenancy Tribunal or a similar body, if necessary.

2. A member who leases their own home for longer than 12 months and choose not to include a release clause in the lease is not eligible for housing assistance when that own home is in the member's housing benefit location or family benefit location.

Note 1: Housing assistance may be provided under 7.2.17 to a member in these circumstances.

Note 2: In some jurisdictions a member may not be able to include a release clause.

3. If a member does not include a release clause in a lease, they must tell the Defence Housing Australia Regional Operations Manager in writing all the following.
 - a. Why a release clause was not in the lease.
 - b. The length of the lease and when the lease was signed.
 - c. What they are doing to be able to live in the home.

7.2.16 Member waiting for a tenant to leave their home

If a member has included a release clause in a lease, their own home is taken to be unsuitable when all these conditions are met.

- a. They rented the house to a tenant before they knew the location where the house is would become their housing benefit location or their family benefit location on their next posting.
- b. Notice to terminate the tenancy has been given in time to allow the member to occupy the house on commencement of the member's next posting in the location becomes their housing benefit location or their family benefit location.
- c. They must wait for a period set out in the lease before they can live in the home.

7.2.17 CDF discretion to grant assistance

A member who is not eligible for housing assistance under section 7.2.15 is eligible for housing assistance if the CDF is satisfied the member has done all of the following.

- a. Notified the tenant in writing at the earliest practicable date that the lease is to be terminated.
- b. Taken any other formal steps under the relevant State or Territory legislation necessary to obtain vacant possession of the home.

- c. Advised the Defence Housing Australia Regional Office in writing of all of the following.
 - i. The earliest date that they are able to live in the home.
 - ii. The reason a release clause was not included in the fixed term lease.
 - iii. The length of the lease and the date it was signed.
 - iv. The actions taken to be able to obtain vacant possession of, and live in, the home.

7.2.18 Home leased for commercial purposes

A member is not eligible for housing assistance if they have lease their suitable own home for commercial purposes.

Part 3: Home sale or purchase

7.3.1 Purpose

1. Two forms of assistance to purchase or sell a home are available to a member or their resident family when the member is posted in Australia.
 - a. A one-off payment to assist them to purchase a home. The home must be in their housing benefit location or family benefit location and they must live in it. This payment is made under HPAS. It is payable once only during a member's ADF service.
 - b. Reimbursement to the member of the reasonable costs for selling a home and purchasing another home they will live in on the next posting. This assistance is given under HPSEA.
2. A member who purchases their first home under HPAS then enters into a following sell-purchase-sell home ownership cycle. Each time they purchase or sell another home on a posting, they can be reimbursed the reasonable costs involved. Time limits apply. This does not mean that a home must be sold or purchased following each posting. This is the member's choice. However, continued eligibility depends on a member maintaining the cycle of sell-purchase-sell. Some exceptions apply.

7.3.2 Member this Part applies to

This Part applies to a member who meets all of the following.

- a. They are on continuous full-time service.
- b. At the time of purchasing a home, the member is expected to continue to serve in their primary service location for another 12 months.
- c. The member purchased a home in their housing benefit location or family benefit location.

7.3.3 Member this Part does not apply to

This Part does not apply to a member on any of the following.

- a. Reserve service.
- b. Continuous full-time service for less than 12 months.

7.3.4 Definitions

In this Part the following apply.

Eligible person means a member or their resident family.

Eligible sale means the sale of a home under Chapter 7 Part 3 Division 2.

Home means a dwelling in Australia.

Posting means a posting that a Service authority expects to last at least 12 months.

An eligible person has purchased a home when they do any of the following.

- a. Sign a contract to purchase it.
- b. Sign an agreement for it to be built.
- c. Begin to build it, if they are an owner-builder.

Division 1: Initial home purchase

7.3.8 Purpose

The purpose of this Division is to provide assistance to a member for an initial home purchase.

7.3.10 Conditions of eligibility

1. A member is eligible for HPAS if all of the following are met.
 - a. The home is in the member's current or next housing benefit location or family benefit location.
 - b. An eligible person will live in the home within the period specified in section 7.3.13.

Note: Section 7.3.2 provides that to be eligible to benefits under Chapter 7 Part 3 the member must be on continuous full-time service, and the location where they have purchased the home will continue to be their housing benefit location or family benefit location for at least 12 months.
2. If the member's partner is also a member, only one member is eligible for HPAS.
3. Despite subsection 2, the other member may be eligible for HPAS in a future housing benefit location or family benefit location.

7.3.11 Member this Division does not apply to

This Division does not apply to a member who meets any of the following.

- a. They have received one of the following.
 - i. HPAS on or after 1 July 2000.
 - ii. HPSEA for a first home on or before 30 June 2000.
- b. They are on any of the following.
 - i. A transition location (general) agreement.
 - ii. A transition location (medical) agreement.

7.3.12 Purchase of land

This Division does not apply to the purchase of land that does not have a home on it.

7.3.13 When the home must be occupied

1. If a situation in an item in Column A of the following table applies — a home must be occupied by an eligible person within the specified time period in Column B of the same item.

Item	Column A Member's situation	Column B Specified time period
1.	They have signed a contract for a home to be built.	Within the earlier of the following two periods. a. One month after the day it is ready for occupation. b. 12 months after the member signs the contract.
2.	They begin to build a home as an owner-builder.	Within the earlier of the following two periods. a. One month after the day it is ready for occupation. b. 12 months after the member begins to build it.
3.	They purchase a home in the new location after one of the following and before they begin duty there. a. Official written notice of the posting is issued. b. Entering into an alternate located work agreement.	Within 1e month after the earlier of these 2 days. a. The day the member begins duty in the new location. b. The date of settlement of the contract to purchase the home.
4.	They purchase a home in any other circumstance.	Within 1 month after the date of settlement of the contract to purchase the home.

2. If an eligible person cannot occupy the home for a reason beyond their control, the time period for occupation specified in Column B of the table in subsection 1 may be extended for up to 12 months if the CDF is satisfied it is reasonable.

7.3.14 Amount of benefit

1. The amount of the benefit is a one-off payment of $16,949 (before tax).
2. If an eligible person shares ownership with other persons, the HPAS payment is made according to the share of ownership with those other persons. For this section, the member's family unit is treated as having one share of the home.

7.3.15 When a member must repay HPAS

1. A member must repay the HPAS payment if either of the following happens.
 - a. The purchase of the home does not go ahead for any reason.

Exception: If Service reasons prevent the purchase from going ahead, the CDF may decide that the member should be reimbursed their reasonable and unavoidable costs.
 - b. An eligible person does not occupy the home within the relevant period under section 7.3.13, When the home must be occupied.
- 1A. Despite paragraph 7.3.15.1.b, if Service reasons prevent an eligible person from occupying the home, the member does not have to repay the amount.
3. A member is still eligible for assistance in future if they meet either of these criteria.
 - a. They repaid an HPAS payment for reasons set out in subsection 1.

- b. They were reimbursed costs under paragraph 1.a.

Division 2: Sale of home or subsequent purchase – general

7.3.16 Purpose

1. This Division provides assistance to a member associated with either of the following.
 - a. Selling a home they or their resident family had been living in at the time the member is posted to a new primary service location.
 - b. Purchasing and occupying a home in a new housing benefit location or family benefit location within 4 years from the day that they start duty in a new primary service location.
2. If the member has used HPAS to purchase a home, they cannot also claim HPSEA for that purchase.

7.3.17 Basis

1. Eligibility for the reimbursement of costs must begin with the eligible purchase of a home. This may be under HPAS or HPSEA. HPSEA then works as a sell-purchase-sell cycle.
2. To qualify for reimbursement of costs, a member who has made an eligible purchase and is subsequently posted to another primary service location has 2 years to sell the home.
3. For the purpose of subsection 2, the 2-year period begins on the date official written notice of the posting is issued or alternate located work agreement is made.

7.3.19 Conditions of eligibility – sale

A member is eligible for the reimbursement of the costs of selling a home in the losing location when all these conditions are met.

- a. An eligible person lives in the home when official written notice of a posting is issued or alternate located work agreement is made.
- b. The costs are a result of the member being posted from one location to another.
- c. The member's last reimbursement was for the expenses of purchasing a home.
- d. The home is sold within 2 years of when official written notice of a posting to the new location is issued.

Note: Section 1.6.1 applies to this section and may affect the assistance provided if a member and an adult who is resident family are both eligible for HPSEA for the same home sale.

7.3.20 Conditions of eligibility – purchase

A member is eligible for the reimbursement of the costs of purchasing a home in their housing benefit location or family benefit location if all of the following apply.

- a. An eligible person lives in the home.
- b. The purchase costs are a result of the member changing primary service locations.
- c. The member's last reimbursement under this Part was for the costs of selling a home.
- d. The member purchases the home in the period between the follow dates.

- i. The date official written notice of the posting is issued or alternate located work agreement is made.
 - ii. Four years after they begin duty at the new primary service location.
- e. It is expected that the member will serve for a further 12 months in the location where they have purchased the home.
- f. If the member meets all of the following it is expected that they will continue to do so for 12-months from the date they purchase the home.
 - i. They have unaccompanied resident family.
 - ii. They have no accompanied resident family.

Note: Section 1.6.1 applies to this section and may affect the assistance provided if a member and an adult who is resident family are both eligible for HPAS for the same home purchase.

7.3.21 Members not eligible – purchase

1. A member is not eligible for HPSEA for the purchase of a home or land if any of the following apply.
 - a. They have received notice that their continuous full-time service will cease within 12 months.
 - b. They have applied to cease continuous full-time service within 12 months.
 - c. They are on any of the following.
 - i. A transition location (general) agreement.
 - ii. A transition location (medical) agreement.
2. A member posted overseas is not eligible for assistance with purchasing a home or land overseas. This is whether they are accompanied or not.
3. This subsection applies to a member who is required to live in, or occupy a tied or appointment Service residence. While they occupy that accommodation the member is not eligible for assistance to purchase a home or land at that posting location. They may be eligible again to purchase a home or land on their next posting.

7.3.22 Continuity of selling and purchasing

1. After they purchase their first home, an eligible person must maintain continuity of selling and purchasing homes through a series of postings in order to get HPSEA.

7.3.23 Time limit on sale and purchase

1. A member will qualify for reimbursement of the costs of sale of a home if they sign a contract for sale within 2 years of the date official written notice of a posting or alternate location work agreement to another location is issued.
- 1A. Despite subsection 1, a member ceasing continuous full-time service will qualify if they sign a contract for sale within 12 months before or after the date they cease continuous full-time service.

2. If a member who is posted to any of the following, the 2-year period specified in subsection 1 begins on the day the official notice of their next posting is issued.
 - a. An overseas posting location, whether accompanied or not.

Note: An overseas deployment is not a posting for the purpose of this paragraph.
 - b. A location where the member is required to occupy a Service residence or occupy living-in accommodation.
 - c. An adjacent housing benefit location that includes the member's home.
 - d. A specified location under section 7.3.28 where an eligible person could not reasonably be expected to purchase a home.

Note: A member may still purchase a home at a specified location if they wish, however the following should be noted.

 - a. The purchase will not qualify for HPSEA.
 - b. The continuity of the sale-purchase cycle will not be affected.
3. As the member cannot make an eligible purchase in the locations listed in subsection 2 the following apply.
 - b. There is no requirement to sell a home in their old location while on posting to one of these locations.
 - c. The 2-year period for selling a home starts on the date of issue of their next official written notice of posting to another location.
 - d. If the next posting location is one listed in subsection 2, the time limit extends again.
4. If a member is already some way through a 2-year period and they are posted to a location listed in subsection 2, the same applies as in subsection 3 above. The 2-year period starts on the date of their next written official posting notice to another location. If that is one of the postings listed in subsection 2, the time limit extends again.
5. To qualify for reimbursement of costs of purchasing a home, a member must sign a contract to purchase within the period between these two dates.
 - a. The date official written notice of the posting is issued.
 - b. Four years after beginning duty at the primary service location.
6. Subsection 7 applies to a member who meets all of the following.
 - a. They have unaccompanied resident family.
 - b. They have no accompanied resident family.
7. If the member's unaccompanied resident family join the member at a new housing benefit location, all of the following apply.
 - a. The eligibility for reimbursement of purchase costs transfers to the new housing benefit location.
 - b. The 2-year period for selling a home in the old location and the 4-year period for purchasing one in the new housing benefit location starts from the date the unaccompanied resident family become accompanied resident family.

7.3.25 CDF discretion in special circumstances

1. The CDF may approve reimbursement of an amount to a member who is not otherwise eligible for reimbursement under this Division or Division 3, for Service reasons. The CDF must be satisfied on all these matters.
 - a. Approval is reasonable in the light of the Service reasons.
 - b. The reimbursement is consistent with the purposes of this Division.
2. Any amount reimbursed must not be more than what would be payable in the circumstances to a member who is eligible for reimbursement.

Division 3: Sale of home or subsequent purchase – particular situations and costs that may be reimbursed

7.3.26 Purpose

This Division sets out eligibility for HPSEA when certain members purchase or sell a home or land in particular situations. It also explains what costs a member may and may not be reimbursed.

7.3.27 Purchasing land

1. A member may be eligible for the reimbursement of the costs of purchasing land to build a home on. Costs may be reimbursed as long as the land is purchased within the time limits in Division 2 section 7.3.23, Time limit on sale or purchase. They need not begin building the home within the 4 years. Relevant costs for purchasing both land and house may be reimbursed (see section 7.3.31, Amounts and kinds of costs that may be reimbursed). The costs may be reimbursed when a member or eligible person lives in the home.
2. A member will not be reimbursed costs of purchasing land when they do both of the following.
 - a. They purchase land at in their next housing benefit location or family benefit location before official written notice of posting is issued or alternate located work agreement to that location is made.
 - b. After they get the notice, they build a home on that land or sign a contract for a home to be built.
3. They will be eligible for reimbursement of costs involved in building the home.

7.3.28 Specified locations

2. A member's purchase or sale benefits when posted to a specified location are the same as if they occupy a Service residence.
3. This table lists the specified locations by State and Territory.

Item	State/Territory	Specified location
1.	New South Wales	Bogan Gate
		Macksville
		Myambat
		Tenterfield
2.	Northern Territory	Katherine
		Nhulunbuy
3.	Queensland	Atherton
		Biloela
		Bowen

5.	Western Australia	Bindoon
		Derby
		Exmouth (including Learmonth)
		Karratha
		Katanning
		Newman
		Northam
		Rottne Island
		Spring Hill
		Tom Price

4. The CDF can approve a location as a specified location. The CDF must be satisfied it would be unreasonable to expect an eligible person to purchase a home there. The CDF must consider all these factors.
- The remoteness and isolation of the location.
 - The quantity and standard of housing available to purchase at the location.
 - Any other factor relevant to the location.

7.3.29 Member returning to previous location

- This section applies if all of the following conditions are met.
 - A member is eligible for the reimbursement of the costs of purchasing a home in a housing benefit location or family benefit location (first location).
 - At their next housing benefit location or family benefit location (second location), an eligible person purchases a home.
 - The eligible person intends to sell the home in the first location.
 - The member is posted back to the first location within the 2-year time limit for selling the home.

Note: Reimbursement of the costs of selling a home in the first location is provided under section 7.3.19
- If subsection 1 applies, the member is to be reimbursed for a cost listed in section 7.3.31 in relation to any of the following.

- a. Selling the home in the second location.
 - b. Subject to subsection 3, selling the home in the first location and purchasing the home in the second location.
3. For the purpose of paragraph 2.b the member is not eligible for the reimbursement if they do any of the following after they receive written notice they are posting back, or are approved an alternate located work agreement, to the first location.
- a. The member signs the contract for selling or purchasing.
 - b. The member incurs costs as a consequence of signing the contract for selling or purchasing the home.

7.3.30 Reimbursement for sale on ceasing continuous full-time service or on a transition location agreement

- 1. Subject to subsection 2, a member is eligible for the reimbursement of the costs of selling a home if any of the following apply.
 - a. All of the following apply.
 - i. The member has ceased continuous full-time service.
 - ii. The member has moved from the final housing benefit location to another location.
 - iii. An eligible person incurred costs for the sale of a home in their final housing benefit location.
 - b. All of the following apply.
 - i. The member was on a transition location (general) or transition location (medical) agreement immediately before they ceased continuous full-time service.
 - ii. An eligible person incurred costs for the sale of a home in the location that was the housing benefit location immediately before the member moved to their transition benefit location.
- 2. To be eligible for a reimbursement under subsection 1, all of the following must be met.
 - a. The member's last reimbursement was for the expenses of purchasing a home.
 - b. The contract for the sale of the home was signed by an eligible person between the following days.
 - i. The day that is 12 months before the day the member ceased continuous full-time service.
 - ii. The day that is 24 months after the day the member ceased continuous full-time service.
- 3. For the purpose of paragraph 1.b.ii, transition benefit location means the housing benefit location of a member on a transition location (general) or transition location (medical) agreement.

Note: Section 1.6.1 applies to this section and may affect the assistance or reimbursement provided if a member and an adult who is resident family are both eligible for HPSEA for the same home sale.

7.3.31 Amounts and kinds of costs that may be reimbursed

1. A reimbursement for a cost listed in column A of the following table is the actual amount up to the amount set out in Column B of the same item.

Item	Column A Member costs	Column B Reimbursement
1.	Professional fees and disbursements for the purchase or sale.	The amount generally charged by a solicitor or land broker in the State or Territory where the home is located.
2.	Professional fees and disbursements for, or discharge of, a related mortgage, including those incurred by the mortgagee.	The amount generally charged by a solicitor or land broker in the State or Territory where the home is located.
3.	Costs incurred in items 1 or 2 above where a solicitor or land broker was not engaged, but does not include any procurement fee paid to negotiate the mortgage.	Reasonable costs.
4.	Agent's commission for the purchase of the home on behalf of the member or eligible person.	The amount generally charged by an agent in the State or Territory where the home is located.
5.	Agent or auctioneer's commission, fees or advertising expenses for the sale of the home.	The amount generally charged by an agent or auctioneer in the State or Territory where the home is located.
6.	Advertising costs for the sale of the home where an agent or auctioneer was not engaged.	10% of the amount generally charged by an agent or auctioneer in the State or Territory where the home is located.
7.	Amount paid to a mortgagee, in addition to the principal sum and interest due under the mortgage, for early discharge of mortgage on the sale.	The amount equal to 6 months interest at the rate payable on the date of the discharge of mortgage.
8.	Mortgage insurance for the purchase a mortgagee requires the member or eligible person to pay.	Mortgage insurance for a loan amount up to and including the purchase price of the home a mortgagee requires the member or eligible member to pay.
9.	Government duties or fees for the purchase or sale, or related mortgage or discharge of mortgage.	The amount generally charged by a government authority in the State or Territory where the home is located.

2. If Goods and Services Tax is included in a cost in items 1 to 8 of the table in subsection 1, the reimbursement includes the Goods and Services Tax.
3. If a person, who is not resident family or a recognised other person, holds a registered proprietary interest in a home with a member, the member is eligible for a share of the total reimbursement amount proportionate to the interest held by the member.
4. The costs under subsection 1 must be assessed as reasonable by a legal firm contracted by the Commonwealth to provide this advice.
5. In this section the following apply.

Auctioneer means a person registered or licensed under relevant State or Territory laws to conduct business as an auctioneer.

Professional fees and disbursements means fees that meet both of the following.

- a. They are fees for work performed by a solicitor, land broker or conveyancer connected with a purchase or sale, and related disbursements that include any of the following.
 - i. Fees for a valuation, pest inspection, building inspection, survey or similar.
 - ii. Fees that are incurred by the solicitor, land broker or conveyancer on behalf of a member or eligible person.
 - iii. Mandatory fees imposed by relevant State or Territory local authorities.
- b. They are not fees for arranging or negotiating a mortgage.

7.3.32 Costs that may not be reimbursed

These kinds of costs may not be reimbursed.

- a. Capital costs. Normally owner-builders have these costs. Sometimes builders constructing a home for the member have them. Goods and Services Tax paid by a member or eligible person on capital purchases may not be reimbursed.
- b. Re-financing costs. These are financial institution and legal costs involved in varying an existing mortgage to raise finance for the new home.
- c. Costs normally associated with home ownership.
- d. Costs that can be put down to reasons of a non-Service nature.

Part 4: Living-in accommodation

7.4.1 Purpose

This Part provides the following.

- a. When a member may be required, or choose, to occupy living-in accommodation.
- b. The level of living-in accommodation that applies to the member, the contribution the member must make, and the responsibilities and rights that apply to the member.

7.4.1A Member this Part does not apply to

This Part does not apply to a member who is in the housing benefit location and on any of the following.

- a. A transition location (general) agreement.
- b. A transition location (medical) agreement.

7.4.2 Principles for the provision of living-in accommodation

1. Living-in accommodation is provided to meet the operational, training and duty of care responsibilities of the Department of Defence.
2. Members who occupy living-in accommodation are subject to the responsibilities and conditions that apply under the licence to live in provisions.
3. Members occupying living-in accommodation make a contribution based on rank, number of beds per room and the level of accommodation.

7.4.3 Definitions

In this Part the following apply.

Accommodation manager means a person responsible for managing living-in accommodation on behalf of the Department of Defence.

Common areas means areas inside and outside of the accommodation buildings which can be used or accessed any member occupying the accommodation building.

Fair wear and tear means the normal deterioration of an element of the room or building due to the ageing process and use.

Key includes an access card or a keypad access code.

Non-fair wear and tear means the faster deterioration of an element of the room or building caused by neglect or mistreatment.

Nuship means a Navy ship not yet commissioned into naval service.

On-board member means a member who chooses not to keep on-shore accommodation at the ship's home port or refitting port.

Service property has the meaning given in the Defence Force Discipline Act 1982.

Shore member means a member who keeps on-shore accommodation at the ship's home port or refitting port.

Division 2: Being required or choosing to live in

7.4.8 Member who is required to occupy living-in accommodation

1. Subject to suitable living-in accommodation being available, a member may be required by the CDF to occupy living-in accommodation for any of the following reasons.
 - a. The member is undertaking a training course.
 - b. An operational reason, including any of the following.
 - i. The member is performing as duty personnel, such as a watch keeper or sentry.
 - ii. The member is posted to a seagoing billet.
 - iii. The member is part of a deployment or exercise.
 - iv. The member is in an Army unit with a response notice of 28 days or less.
 - v. The member is required to occupy living-in accommodation for 12 months after initial Army training.
 - c. The member fills a specific position on a base.
 - d. The member is under the age of 18 years and the ADF is responsible for their care while they are away from their parents or guardian.
 - e. The member is the rank of Major or equivalent rank or below and is either in transit or on a short visit to the location.
2. A member is given a licence to live in for the period that they are required to occupy living-in accommodation under subsection 1.
3. A member who is eligible for housing assistance under Part 6 or Part 8 of this Chapter may keep that assistance when they are required to occupy living-in accommodation temporarily.

Note: An operational reason is an operational requirement that is lawful to impose in the circumstances.

7.4.9 Member who may choose to live in

1. The CDF may decide that accommodation not used for members required to live in under section 7.4.8 can be used for a member who chooses to live in.
2. A member may be eligible for a licence to live in the accommodation described in subsection 1 if they belong to any of the following categories.
 - a. A member who has no resident family or recognised other persons who does not have either of the following in their housing benefit location.
 - i. A suitable own home.

 - e. A member whose on-board accommodation becomes uninhabitable under subsection 7.4.44.4.
3. The CDF can revoke a decision made under subsection 1 at any time, by notifying the member of one of the following decisions.
- a. That living-in accommodation is needed for a member required to live in under section 7.4.8.
 - b. That a member's licence to live in under this section will end on a date specified in the notice to the member.
 - c. That the accommodation needs repair and is not fit for the member to live in.

7.4.10 Member with suitable accommodation who chooses to live in

- 1. A member who meets all the following conditions is subject to subsection 2.
 - a. The member is not required to live in.
 - b. The member has no unaccompanied resident family.
 - c. The member has suitable accommodation in the housing benefit location.
 - d. The CDF is satisfied that the member is unable to live in their suitable accommodation.
- 2. A member who meets the conditions in subsection 1 may choose, in writing, to live in accommodation described in subsection 7.4.9.1. They must pay a contribution at the rate for a member on leave without pay.
- 3. A member who meets all of the following may choose to live in under section 7.4.9 regardless of any other accommodation they own in the housing benefit location.
 - a. They have unaccompanied resident family.
 - b. They have no accompanied resident family.

7.4.11 Living-in accommodation not available

If living-in accommodation is not available to a member, the member may be eligible for rent allowance under section 7.8.5.

7.4.12 Responsibility for living-in accommodation

1. When the member takes the key to living-in accommodation from an accommodation manager, the member must acknowledge in writing that they will take strict care of the property they live in under the licence.

Note: If the member fails or refuses to give written acknowledgement that they will take strict care of the living-in accommodation, no licence to live in will be given.
2. To help minimise the cost of damage to living-in accommodation, a member must immediately notify an accommodation manager of any damage affecting a room they live in or use, or the common areas.

Note: If the living-in accommodation is damaged while the member is its custodian, then the member may be required to pay the costs related to the damage as a debt to the Commonwealth, unless the member can demonstrate that reasonable steps were taken to prevent the damage.

7.4.13 Condition reports

1. When a member moves into living-in accommodation, the member must be given a report listing the condition of the accommodation and its contents.
2. A member has 48 hours, or the first working day after the 48 hours, to assess the report, take either of the following actions and return the report to an accommodation manager.
 - a. Sign the condition report to show that they agree with it.
 - b. If member disagrees with all or part of the condition report – write the reason that they disagree on the report and sign it.
3. On receipt of the condition report, if the accommodation manager disagrees with the member's assessment of their allocated room then the following items must be placed on file with the report.
 - a. Photographs of the room.
 - b. A signed document listing the name of the photographer, time, date and location of the photographs.
4. If a member does not return the condition report within the time specified in subsection 2, it is taken that the member agrees with the condition report.
5. The following actions must occur before the member's licence to live in ends.
 - a. A member's living-in accommodation is inspected in the presence of the member or the member's agent.
 - b. The inspection is to be done having regard to the condition report.
6. The accommodation manager may waive a condition report when the member will only be in the accommodation for a short period of time.

Note: If a condition report has been waived it is at the accommodation manager's and the member's own risk.
7. A member, whose condition report has been waived under subsection 7, may request a condition report from an accommodation manager.

7.4.14 Revoking a licence to live in

1. A member's licence to live in may be revoked for a period of up to 3 years if the CDF is satisfied any of the following have occurred.
 - a. The member has deliberately, recklessly or negligently breached the conditions listed in Annex 7.4.A.
 - b. The member fails, or refuses, to comply with any reasonable request or direction from an accommodation manager relating to their living-in accommodation.
 - c. The member fails to give notice that the living-in accommodation will be unoccupied for at least 28 consecutive days, unless the absence is due to an emergency, or a situation which is beyond the member's control has occurred.
- 1A. Subsection 1 does not apply to a member who is under the age of 18.
2. In making the decision in subsection 1, the CDF must have regard to any relevant considerations, including the following.
 - a. The nature and severity of any breach by the member, including any risk assessment of the effect on other members in the living-in accommodation.
 - b. Any pattern of similar behaviour by the member.
 - c. Whether the member is required to occupy living-in accommodation.
 - d. Whether revocation would affect the member's ability to perform their duties.
 - e. If any hardship is likely to be caused to the member if their licence to live in is revoked, including the availability of reasonable quality off-base accommodation.
3. The CDF must advise the relevant contract service provider and the member's Service when a member's licence to live in has been revoked.
4. A member whose licence has been revoked under this section is not eligible for living-in accommodation, rent allowance or a Service residence while their licence to live in is revoked.
5. The member may seek redress of a decision to revoke a licence to live in made under this section.

Division 3: Suitable living-in accommodation

7.4.15 Suitable living-in accommodation

1. Living-in accommodation is suitable for a member if it is available and meets all of the following conditions.
 - a. It is in the member's housing benefit location or temporary duty location.
 - b. It is fit to live in at the time the member is issued with their room key.
 - c. It is at a level in column B that corresponds with the member's reason for occupying living-in accommodation or rank group in column A of the same item in the following table.

Item	Column A Reason for occupying living-in accommodation or rank group	Column B Level of accommodation
1.	Transit or short visit to the location.	Any available level
2.	Completion of compulsory residency, training or post-graduate work experience by a medical officer, Chaplain or Maritime Spiritual Wellbeing Officer.	Any available level

12.	To fill a specific position on a base for a period of 6 months or more.	Level 5
13.	To provide respite for a member posted to a seagoing submarine alongside in port that is not the vessel's home port.	Level 5

2. If suitable living-in accommodation is not available at the level set out for the member under paragraph 1.c table items 1 to 12, the member may occupy living-in accommodation that is available closest to the level listed for them in the table.
3. If suitable living-in accommodation is not available for the member under paragraph 1.c table item 13, suitable living-in accommodation is commercial accommodation provided by the contracted service provider under Chapter 9.

7.4.16 Classification of living-in accommodation by rank group and purpose

1. The CDF may classify living-in accommodation into levels. The CDF must consider these aspects of the living-in accommodation.
 - a. The size, standard and number of amenities.
 - b. Its age.

- c. What it is built from.
 - d. Upgrades to it.
 - e. Any other factor relevant to the accommodation.
2. This table sets out the level of living-in accommodation for each rank by rank group.

Item	If the member is a...	then their rank group is...	and they may occupy living-in accommodation at level...
1.	Corporal or below	other ranks	1	2	3	4	5
2.	Sergeant to Warrant Officer	senior non-commissioned officer
3.	Second Lieutenant to Captain	junior officer
4.	Major and above	senior officer	5

7.4.17 Change in member's rank group

1. If a member's rank changes, the member's rank group for living-in accommodation may change under section 7.4.16.
2. If the member changes rank group, the CDF may take any of the following actions.
 - a. Offer the member living-in accommodation under section 7.4.9, at a level that corresponds to the new rank group.
 - b. End the member's licence to live in their accommodation in accordance with a notice to the member.
 - c. Allow the member to remain in the accommodation they are currently in and pay the relevant contribution for that accommodation.

Note: This may affect the rate at which the member must contribute to the cost of living-in.

7.4.18 CDF may decide that accommodation is unsuitable

1. The CDF may decide that living-in accommodation is unsuitable for a member. The CDF must consider these factors.
 - a. Anything that prevents accommodation being lived in. It need not relate to the group level of accommodation.
 - b. Anything that makes the member's individual situation exceptional when compared with that of other members.
2. If the CDF decides that the accommodation is unsuitable, the CDF may end a member's licence to live in. The CDF should consider whether other accommodation is available.
3. If a member's licence to live in has been ended under this section the member may still be eligible for living-in accommodation, rent allowance or a Service residence.

7.4.19 Member required to share room

1. Subject to subsection 2, a member occupying living-in accommodation will have their own room.
2. A member may be required to share living-in accommodation if they are in one of the groups in the following table.

Item	A member in this group...	may be required to share...
1.	normal entry recruit or Reserve recruit during basic recruit training, in item 4 of the table in section 7.4.15	with 3 or more other members per room.

 - ii. While deployed, the member's deployment is extended.
 - iii. The total period of a member's deployment is 6 months or longer.
2. A member may make a choice between the following options.
 - a. To keep the living-in accommodation for the period of the member's deployment.
 - b. To leave the living-in accommodation.
3. The choice in subsection 2 must be in writing to the member's Commanding Officer and made before the member is deployed.
4. A member who fails to make a choice under subsection 2 is taken to have chosen to keep the living-in accommodation under paragraph 2.a.
5. A member who has made a choice under paragraph 2.a must vacate the living-in accommodation if the CDF is satisfied of any of the following.
 - a. The living-in accommodation is required for other members.
 - b. The living-in accommodation requires maintenance or repair.
6. If subsection 5 applies, the member is treated as a member who chose to leave the living-in accommodation under paragraph 2.b.

Division 4: Contribution for living-in accommodation

7.4.24 Contribution for living-in accommodation

1. A member must pay a contribution towards the cost of occupying living-in accommodation.
2. A member who occupies living-in accommodation for more than 1 day is not required to make a contribution for the last day they occupy the living-in accommodation.
Note: Additional contributions under section 7.4.30 may apply after the licence to live in ends.
3. The rate of contribution a member must pay is one of the following.
 - a. If the member is paid at a rank listed in items 1 to 4 in column A of the table in Annex 7.4.B and occupies a room with the number of beds in column B of the same item, the contribution is the rate in columns C to G of the same item that applies to the member's accommodation level.
 - b. If a member is paid at a pay grade listed in item 5 in column A of the table in Annex 7.4.B and occupies a room with the number of beds in column B, the contribution is the rate of the contribution per fortnight specified for the same item.
 - c. If a member meets one of the following and is paid at a rank in items 1 to 4 in column A of the table in Annex 7.4.B, the contribution is the amount in column E that corresponds with the number of beds in the room that the member occupies in column B of the same item.
 - i. The member is a medical officer occupying living-in accommodation during compulsory residency.
 - ii. The member is in training as a Chaplain and is occupying living-in accommodation at a seminary or theological college.
 - iii. The member is a Maritime Spiritual Wellbeing Officer occupying living-in accommodation at an educational institution during compulsory post-graduate work experience.
 - d. If paragraphs a. to c. do not apply and the member meets one of the following, the contribution is the rate specified in columns C to E of the table in Annex 7.4.B that applies for the members rank in items 1 to 4 of column A of the table for a member holding the same rank and occupying a room with 1 bed.
 - i. A medical officer who is required to occupy living-in accommodation during compulsory residency.
 - ii. A Chaplain in training who is required to occupy living-in accommodation at a seminary or theological college
 - iii. A Maritime Spiritual Wellbeing Officer who is required to occupy living-in accommodation in at an educational institution during compulsory post-graduate work experience.
 - e. If a member who chooses to occupy living-in accommodation goes on a period of leave without pay, the contribution is the rate specified in subsection 7.4.27.2 for the type of living-in accommodation they occupy.
Note: Section 7.4.9 provides that a member may choose to live in if the CDF approves based on there being accommodation available that is not required for members who are required to live in.

7.4.25 Contribution if accommodation is not at level for a member's rank group

This table shows what contribution a member must pay if their accommodation is not at the level that corresponds to their rank in section 7.4.16.

Item	If the member lives in accommodation that is...	then their contribution is the one in the table that applies for...
1.	below the level for their rank group	the lower rank group.
2.	above the level for their rank group	their rank group.

7.4.27 Member on leave without pay

1. This section applies to a member who is granted leave without pay.
2. The fortnightly contribution rate for a member occupying a type of living-in accommodation in column A of the following table is the rate set out in column B of the same item.

Item	Column A Type of living-in accommodation	Column B Fortnightly contribution rate ($)
1.	A single room with private facilities	339.91
2.	A single room with shared facilities	292.22
3.	A room with 2 or 3 beds	243.01
4.	A room with 4 or more beds	123.39

3. The CDF may decide that the member was granted the leave without pay for exceptional reasons. In this case, the member must pay the same contribution they were paying before they went on leave without pay.

7.4.27A Member on a flexible service determination

1. This section applies to a member who meets all of the following conditions.
 - a. The member is on a flexible service determination.
 - b. The member has no unaccompanied resident family.
 - c. The member occupies living-in accommodation at the gaining location.
2. Subject to subsection 3, a member pays the rate of contribution that applies to the member's circumstances under Annex 7.4.B for living-in accommodation.
3. The rate of contribution is 150% of the rate that would have been payable by the member under subsection 2 for the following periods.
 - a. Unless subsection b applies, the period commencing on the 29th day of a continuous nonworking period and ending on the last day of the same nonworking period.

Note: This applies to each nonworking period.
 - b. The whole period of the member's flexible service determination if the total number of days that are the member's pattern of service in the member's flexible service determination is either of the following.
 - i. If a period in the flexible service determination is 1 year — less than 130 days.

- ii. If a period in the flexible service determination is part of a year — less than the number of days calculated using the following formula.

$$\text{number of days} = 130 \times \frac{FSD}{365}$$

Where:

FSD is the number days in the period of the member's flexible service determination that is less than 1 year.

- 4. If the member's pattern of service changes for a reason specified in the flexible service determination and the member has an incomplete cycle, either of the following applies.
 - a. If the member's contribution decreases, the member must be reimbursed the difference between the following two amounts.
 - i. The contribution that the member has paid for the member's cycle.
 - ii. The contribution that the member would have paid for the member's incomplete cycle under the changed pattern of service.
 - b. If the member's contribution increases, the member is not required to repay any amount for the incomplete cycle.
- 5. If the member's flexible service determination is varied for Service reasons, the member will be reimbursed the difference between the following two amounts.
 - a. The contribution that the member has paid during the period of the variation.

 - i. If a period in the flexible service determination is 1 year — less than 130 days.

- ii. If the period in the flexible service determination is part of a year – less than the number of days calculated using the following formula.

$$\text{number of days} = 130 \times \frac{FSD}{365}$$

Where:

FSD is the number days in the period of the member's flexible service determination that is less than 1 year.

- 3. If subsection 2 applies, the member must make a contribution towards their living-in accommodation for each weekday in the member's nonworking period. The member's contribution is calculated as follows.

$$\text{member's contribution} = NWP \times \left(\frac{C}{10} \right)$$

Where:

NWP is the number of weekdays during the member's nonworking period in the pay fortnight.

C is 50% of the fortnightly contribution rate set for the member's rank and circumstances in Annex 7.4.B that would apply to a member who has no recognised family or other recognised persons and not on a flexible service determination.

- 4. If the member's pattern of service changes for a reason specified in the flexible service determination and the member has an incomplete cycle, either of the following applies.
 - a. If the member's contribution decreases, the member must be reimbursed the difference between the following two amounts.
 - i. The contribution that the member has paid for the member's cycle.
 - ii. The contribution that the member would have paid for the member's incomplete cycle under the changed pattern of service.
 - b. If the member's contribution increases, the member is not required to repay any amount for the incomplete cycle.

Annex 7.4.A: Licence to live in Part 1: Quick guide

Note: The quick guide in this Part must be read in conjunction with the information provided in Part 2 of this Annex, Conditions of licence to live in.

7.4.A.1 What is a licence to live in?

1. Living-in accommodation is made available for members of the ADF.
2. You might be required to occupy living-in accommodation, or you might choose to.
3. When a room becomes available for you, and you are permitted to live in it, you hold a licence to live in.

7.4.A.2 What you get

When you have a licence to live in, you get the following things.

- a. A lockable room in living-in accommodation that is suitable for your rank and situation.
Exception: Barracks or shared accommodation may not be lockable.
- b. Access to common areas and facilities at the living-in accommodation.
- c. Privacy to use the assigned room and facilities, without unreasonable interference by Defence.
Exception: Barracks or shared accommodation will not be private.
- d. Maintenance and repair of the living-in accommodation provided in a timely manner by Defence.

7.4.A.3 What you must do and not do

1. Your licence to live in is conditional on you complying with rules set out in this Annex.
2. The main conditions that you must comply with are as follows.
 - a. When you take the key to your living-in accommodation from the accommodation manager, you must acknowledge in writing that you will take strict care of the property that you are to live in under the licence.
 - b. You must not let another person live in your room without Defence permission.
 - c. Ensure that your room remains in the same condition as on the day you first live in it, other than fair wear and tear.
 - d. You must not intentionally, recklessly or negligently cause damage to any part of the accommodation or common areas.
 - e. You must avoid any disturbance, nuisance or annoyance to other members.
 - f. You must tell Defence if you notice a hazard in your room or other part of the accommodation or common areas.

- g. You must not make any alterations to your room without written consent from Defence.

7.4.A.4 What happens if you don't comply with the conditions of the licence

These circumstances may apply if you fail to comply with the conditions in this Annex.

- a. Defence may revoke your licence and you will have to move out. You will not be eligible for rent allowance or a Service residence while the licence to live in is revoked.
- b. You might have to pay for cleaning or repairs to damage that you caused.
- c. You might have to keep contributing to the cost of the accommodation for a period, even though you have moved out.
- d. You might face disciplinary action.

Part 2: Conditions of licence to live in

7.4.A.5 Member must comply with the conditions in this form

1. A member who is required to occupy living-in accommodation, or who chooses to, may be permitted to occupy living-in accommodation made available by Defence. That permission is the member's licence to live in.
2. A member of the ADF has a licence to live in when they are permitted to occupy living-in accommodation by Defence.
3. Living-in accommodation is a benefit made available to members under section 58B of the Defence Act 1903. A licence to live in is not an agreement, tenancy or contract between a member and the Commonwealth.
4. This Annex sets out the conditions upon which a member is permitted to occupy and use living-in accommodation. These are conditions on the licence to live in.
5. The conditions in Chapter 7 Part 4 do not limit the legal authority of ADF commanders to issue commands or general orders associated with the use of living-in accommodation by ADF members.

7.4.A.6 Start of a licence to live in

1. When the member takes the key to their living-in accommodation from an accommodation manager, the member must acknowledge in writing that they will take strict care of the property they live in under the licence.
2. The member's licence to live in commences from the day they are given the key to the room that they are permitted to live in under subsection 1.
3. Defence may provide the member with a list of the room's contents, listing the condition of the contents and the condition of the room, fixtures and fittings. This is called a condition report.
4. The member must return the condition report to an accommodation manager within 48 hours of receiving it, or the first working day after the 48 hours, after doing either of the following actions.
 - a. Sign the condition report to show that they agree with it.
 - b. If the member disagrees with all or part of the condition report – write the reason that they disagree with the contents of the report, sign it.
5. Failure to return the condition report within the required period will be taken to be an implied agreement by the member of the contents of the report.
6. Defence may decide not to provide a condition report if it is reasonable to expect that the member will only be in the accommodation for a short period of time.
7. The member may request a condition report if Defence does not provide one.

7.4.A.7 Permitted use

1. The licence to live in is for the member only. Only the member may use the assigned room as a private residence.

2. Another member can only live in the room if that member is permitted by Defence to access and use it too.
3. The member must not allow any other person to live in the room.

Exception 1: The member is in a shared room and there is a requirement for members to share the room.

Exception 2: An accommodation manager or a contracted service provider may permit the other person to stay in the room for a very short period of time because of exceptional circumstances.

4. The member may use the common areas and shared amenities allocated to their rank group in the complex in which their assigned room is located.

Exception: An accommodation manager may allow the use of other common areas and shared amenities if the ones in the complex the member has an assigned room in become unusable.

7.4.A.8 Care of the living-in accommodation

1. The member must ensure that their assigned room remains in essentially the same condition as at the starting date, other than fair wear and tear.

Exception: Events outside a member's control, like a flood, earthquake or cyclone.

2. The member must comply with the following specific conditions drawn from the condition in subsection 1.
 - a. The member must not make any alterations to a room they live in or use without written consent from an accommodation manager.
 - b. The member must not alter, remove or add any lock or security device to or in their assigned room.
 - c. The member must not mark, deface or paint a room they live in or use, common areas in the building, or the areas surrounding the building.
3. The member must take care of the room they live in and any common areas they are permitted to use. The member must keep them in a clean and tidy condition.
4. The member must inform an accommodation manager immediately whenever maintenance or repairs are needed. This means that if the member becomes aware of any defect in the water, gas, drainage, sewerage or electrical installations, appliances, furniture, or fittings, they must inform an accommodation manager.
5. The member must not engage a repair person or make repairs without an accommodation manager's permission.
6. Defence will undertake any repairs and maintenance that the member is not required to under the conditions in this section, in a reasonable time.

7.4.A.9 Conduct and values

1. A member must comply with the conditions of conduct specified in this Annex while they occupy living-in accommodation.
2. The member must also comply with conditions of conduct set out in any instructions made under section 10 of the Defence Act 1903 which are relevant to conduct and behaviour.
3. Additional conditions for use of the accommodation may be set from time to time by the accommodation manager, Senior Australian Defence Force Officer or the Commanding Officer/Officer Commanding. A copy must be given to the member. The member must comply with the conditions, as long as they are lawful.
4. If the member does not comply with the conditions of conduct, the CDF may revoke the licence to occupy living-in accommodation.

7.4.A.10 Conduct – animals

The member must not keep animals in the living-in accommodation.

7.4.A.11 Conduct – damage

1. The member must not intentionally, recklessly or negligently cause damage to any part of the living-in accommodation, furniture, fixtures or fittings, or common areas.
2. The member must immediately notify the accommodation manager of any damage affecting the living-in accommodation or common areas.

7.4.A.12 Conduct – disturbance

A member must not do any of the following

- a. Cause undue disturbance, nuisance or annoyance to other members.
- b. Throw anything out of windows or off balconies, or place anything on outside window sills.
- c. Hang clothes, washing, equipment or other similar articles in any place not specifically provided for the purpose.
- d. Obstruct or impair access to accommodation or common areas.

7.4.A.13 Conduct – lighting, heating and cooking

1. The member must not use any means of lighting, heating, or cooking in a room they live in or use, or common areas of the building, except in the place and the manner provided for by Defence in the room or building.

Exception: The member may use appliances for additional lighting, heating and cooling and cooking if permitted by an accommodation manager.
2. If a member triggers a false fire alarm, the member may have to pay Defence for the cost of any emergency services called out if Defence has been charged for the call out. The member's action may have caused a debt under the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013.

7.4.A.14 Conduct – security

1. The member must notify an accommodation manager as soon as possible after they become aware that an accommodation key they have been issued is lost.
2. The member must pay Defence for the cost of replacing the key or lock, or resetting the access code.

7.4.A.15 Conduct – smoking

1. The member must not smoke in any room they live in or use, or common areas of the building.
2. If a member triggers a false fire alarm, the member may have to pay Defence for the cost of any emergency services called out if Defence has been charged for the call out. The member's action may have caused a debt under the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013.

7.4.A.16 Conduct – vehicles

1. Members must not keep a vehicle at the living-in accommodation if it is unroadworthy or unregistered.

Exception: If a member's car registration expires while a member is on an overseas deployment, the car may remain at the living-in accommodation until the member registers the vehicle as soon as practicable on their return to their accommodation.
2. Members may conduct the following activities only in areas designated by Defence for that purpose.
 - a. Park vehicles.
 - b. Wash vehicles.
 - c. Maintain vehicles.
3. Members must not use the living-in accommodation for vehicle storage or maintenance.

Exception: A member may be given permission from the accommodation manager to store bicycles in their accommodation when no lockable storage is provided. Permission may only be granted if it is safe to store the bicycle in the member's accommodation.
4. A member must observe the following rules relating to neatness.
 - a. The member must clean up any spills caused by the vehicle at once.
 - b. The car park or parking spot must be kept in a tidy condition.
 - c. Vehicle parts and engines may not be stored in a car park or parking spot.

7.4.A.17 Conduct – visitors

1. A member is not permitted to have a visitor stay overnight in the living-in accommodation unless subsection 2 applies
2. The Commanding Officer or accommodation manager may permit any of the following.
 - a. Grant permission for a visitor to stay overnight.

- b. In exceptional circumstances, grant permission for a person recognised as one of the following to live with them in the living-in accommodation.
 - i. Resident family.
 - ii. A recognised other person.

Note: The person must comply with the conditions set out in this Annex.

7.4.A.18 Access to a member's room

- 1. The member is entitled to privacy to use the assigned room and facilities, without unreasonable interference by Defence. However, the member does not have exclusive possession of their assigned room.
- 2. The Commanding Officer or a person they authorise may enter a member's assigned room for reasons of command or discipline, or in an emergency.
- 3. The following arrangements apply in regard to access to a member's room.
 - a. Defence or its contractors may enter the room to undertake cleaning, maintenance or repairs.
 - b. Prior notice must be given to the member.

Exceptions:

- 1. In an emergency.
 - 2. If it is not possible to give prior notice.
- c. If Defence enters a room without a member's permission and not in the presence of the member, a notice advising that the room has been entered and the purpose of the entry must be affixed to the member's door (or other highly visible spot).
- 4. Room inventory and condition inspections may occur at least every 6 months during a member's stay in living-in accommodation. An individual's room may be inspected more frequently as required by the Commanding Officer/Officer Commanding at the living-in accommodation.

7.4.A.19 Swapping rooms

- 1. A member may apply to the accommodation manager for approval to swap their assigned room. If the approval is granted, the member is given a new licence to live in for the new room. The licence to live in for the old room ends.
- 2. The member must not transfer the licence to live in to another person.

7.4.A.20 Moving furniture and fittings

- 1. The member must get written permission from the accommodation manager before they remove any property, furniture or fittings (with the exception of property owned by the member) from their room to another location.

Exception: Furniture moved from the member's room to another room on a short-term, temporary basis.

2. The member must not remove any of the property, furniture or fittings provided for use in other rooms or common areas, such as the dining room, common room, or another living-in room to their assigned room.

Exception: Short-term use of equipment provided for use in the member's room.

7.4.A.21 Absence from the accommodation

1. The member must inform the accommodation manager in writing of any period for which it is likely that the assigned room will be unoccupied for a period of 21 days or longer.

Exception: The member is absent for the period due to an emergency, or other situation beyond the member's control.

2. If the member fails to give that notice, then the CDF may revoke the licence to live in under paragraph 7.4.14.1.c because the member has abandoned their responsibilities under the licence.

7.4.A.22 When a licence to live in ends

1. A licence to live in ends on whichever of the following dates happens first.
 - a. The day set out in a notice given to the member by Defence.
 - b. The last day of the fixed period of the licence.
 - c. The day set out in a notice that the member gives to Defence under subsection 2.
2. The following table shows a member's obligations to give notice of the day that they will move out, and their contribution period.

Item	If the member...	then the notice must be given...	and the member's contributions end...
1.	has control over the removal date	at least 21 days before the end of the licence to live in	on the later of the following dates. a. The date the member is removed. b. 21 days after the member gives notice.
2.	must give notice due to Service reasons beyond the member's control	as soon as possible	when the member is removed.
3.	is deployed at short notice

3. After the member gives notice, Defence will arrange with the member for an inspection of the member's room before the licence ends.

Exception: The member may nominate an agent to represent them at the inspection if they are unable to attend the inspection for Service reasons.

7.4.A.23 Vacating the accommodation

1. The member must leave their assigned room neat and tidy and in essentially the same condition as at the starting date other than fair wear and tear.
2. The member must return their key to Defence when vacating their assigned room. Failure to return the key may result in the member continuing to pay a contribution charge for the room until the key is returned.

Note: If the member does not return the key, the member must pay for the cost of replacing the key.

3. The member must vacate the accommodation and remove all their possessions by the end of the day the licence to live in ends.

7.4.A.24 What happens if a member fails to comply with this Annex

It is a condition of a member's licence to live in that the member complies with the conditions set out in this Annex. Failure to comply with the conditions could have any of the following results.

- a. Revocation of the licence to live in.
- b. Recovery of money from the member.
- c. Administrative sanction or censure.
- d. Disciplinary action under the Defence Force Discipline Act 1982.
- e. Civil legal action or criminal penalties, if the member's conduct also breaches legal or criminal standards of behaviour.

7.4.A.25 Disputes

1. If the member and accommodation manager disagree with the condition of the accommodation, then the accommodation manager must place the following items on file with the condition report.
 - a. Photos of the room.
 - b. A signed document listing the name of the photographer, time, date and location of the photos.
2. If the member has a concern or complaint they should first contact an accommodation manager, to see if the matter can be resolved informally.
3. A member who is dissatisfied with the outcome from the accommodation manager may use normal Defence complaint procedures, including redress of grievance.

Part 5: Temporary accommodation allowance

Division 1: General provisions

7.5.1 Purpose

Temporary accommodation allowance assists a member or a person in their household who must live in temporary accommodation by assisting with accommodation and certain other costs.

7.5.2 Definitions

In this Part the following apply.

Accommodation means any of the following.

- a. A Service residence.
- b. A suitable own home.
- c. A home for which rent allowance is payable.
- d. Accommodation provided under Part 7.

Suitable accommodation means accommodation that has enough furniture and effects for a member and their resident family and recognised other persons to live in it on a normal domestic basis.

7.5.3 Definitions – SAFE scheme

In this Part the following apply in relation to the SAFE scheme.

Member includes any person eligible for a benefit under subsection 7.5.6.3.

Note: This has the effect of extending the benefits in this Part to a person granted accommodation under the SAFE scheme.

The SAFE scheme means a scheme that provides emergency assistance for persons who cannot remain in their home due to a domestic crisis that may be happening or be threatened.

7.5.6 Members eligible

1. A member and their resident family and recognised other persons may be eligible for temporary accommodation allowance if they meet any of these conditions.
 - a. They are eligible for a removal.
 - b. They are eligible for housing assistance under this Chapter. They are temporarily unable to live in suitable accommodation.
 - c. They notify the Defence Housing Australia Regional Operations Manager that they intend to buy a suitable own home at their housing benefit location or family benefit location.

- d. Their furniture and effects are in transit to their housing benefit location or family benefit location.
 - e. They are required to isolate in a place specified by State or Territory authorities that is not the member's or their resident family's and recognised other person's usual place of residence.
2. A deceased member's resident family and recognised other persons may be eligible for the allowance under section 7.5.10 if they are granted a removal.
3. Any of the following persons may be granted emergency assistance under this Part under the SAFE scheme.
 - a. A member.
 - b. A person in the member's household.
 - c. The member's resident family.
 - d. The member's recognised other person.

7.5.7 Approval under the SAFE scheme

The CDF may approve emergency assistance for a person who meets both of the following conditions.

- a. They are a person eligible for a benefit under subsection 7.5.6.3.
- b. They are under threat of a domestic crisis, or in a domestic crisis.

7.5.8 Member not eligible

A member is not eligible for temporary accommodation if the CDF is satisfied that the member, their resident family, or a recognised other person of the member caused any of the following to occur.

- a. The furniture and effects not to arrive at the location until one or more days after the member and any resident family or a recognised other persons got there.

Note: An offer made in accordance with this subsection is usually a reasonable offer for the purposes of section 7.6.33, Acceptance or rejection of reasonable offer.

4. The CDF may allocate a member a Service residence that is more than one level above the rent band for the member's rank group, if accommodation is not available at a lower rent band. The member's contribution is dealt with in the same way as other members allocated a Service residence above their rank group eligibility.

Note: A member would not be allocated a Service residence two groups below their rank group eligibility. Rent band choice or housing with rent allowance give alternatives to allocation.

Division 5: Rent band choice homes

7.6.18 Purpose

1. The purpose of this Division is to provide housing assistance that makes a wider range of housing choice available for members.
2. Rent band choice allows a member to choose a residence in a better location to suit their lifestyle. The member chooses to occupy a rent band choice home that does not meet the minimum standard for a Service residence, but is in an attractive location.

7.6.19 Rent band choice

1. Rent band choice is off-base accommodation made available by Defence Housing Australia that falls outside the minimum standard of a Service residence.
2. A rent band choice home is classified under the rent band that the home's rent falls into.
3. A member may be offered an available rent band choice home that corresponds to their rank group and a rent band in the table.

Item	If a member has a rank in this group...	then their rent band is...
1.	Corporal or lower Sergeant Staff Sergeant Second Lieutenant Lieutenant	1
2.	Warrant Officer Class 2 Warrant Officer Class 1 Captain	2
3.	Major Lieutenant Colonel	3
4.	Colonel Brigadier	4

4. If a member accepts the offer of a rent band choice home, then that offer is taken to be a reasonable offer of a suitable Service residence, regardless of the rent band that the home is in.
5. A member who refuses a rent band choice home offered to them is taken not to have rejected a reasonable offer.

7.6.20 Member living in a rent band choice home above their rank group

1. The CDF may offer a member a rent band choice home that is in a rent band above the one specified for the member's rank group in the table in section 7.6.19.
2. If the member accepts the offer of a home under this section, they must pay the following contribution.
 - a. If any of the following apply — the rate that applies to them under Part 2 of Annex 7.A.

- i. If the member is not on a flexible service determination.
 - ii. The member's pattern of service over each 4-week period is 2 weeks working and 2 weeks not working.
 - iii. The member's pattern of service over each 4-week period is 3 weeks working and 1 week not working.
- b. If the member is on a flexible service determination and their pattern of service over each 4-week period is 1 week working, 3 weeks not working — 150% of the rate that applies to them under Part 2 of Annex 7.A.

7.6.21 Member living in rent band choice home below their rank group

1. The CDF may offer a member a rent band choice home that is below the rank group specified for the member in the table in section 7.6.19.
2. If the member accepts the offer of a home under this section, they must pay the contribution for the rent band that the rent band choice home is in, under Part 1 of Annex 7.A.

Note: This contribution is listed under a lower rank group.

Exception: The member is on a flexible service determination (weeks per month pattern of service). The member's rate of contribution is set out in the following table.

Item	If the member's pattern of service over each 4 week period is...	the member's contribution is...
1.	1 week working, 3 weeks not working,	150% of the rate that applies to them under Annex 7.4.B.
2.	2 weeks working, 2 weeks not working,	100% of the rate that applies to them under Annex 7.4.B.
3.	3 weeks working, 1 week not working,

Division 6: Appointment, tied and assigned residences

7.6.23 Appointment residences

1. The CDF has nominated a member in each capital city to be the ADF representative for their State or Territory.
Exceptions: Canberra, Sydney.
2. The representative must live in a Service residence at a specific address. Sometimes this home is called an appointment residence.
3. This table sets out the representatives and their appointment residences.

Item	City	Appointment	Appointment residence
1.	Brisbane	General Officer Commanding 1 st Division (GOC 1 DIV)	18 O'Connell Place, Ashgrove

7.	Air Commander	Briarcliffe, Sydney
8.	Commander Australian Fleet	Cliff House, Sydney
9.	Chief Joint Operations	3 Rosenthal Street, Campbell, Canberra

7.6.25 Assignment of other specific residences

The CDF may require a member to occupy a specific Service residence on or near a Defence establishment. One of these conditions must apply to the member.

- a. They attend outside normal hours to perform duty essential to the working of the establishment. The extra duty happens often and without notice. The member's duty roster is so frequent that it often disrupts their domestic life.
- b. The member is responsible for the safety of lives or property at the establishment.
- c. The member is responsible for important health or welfare matters at the establishment.
- d. The location is remote and a Service residence is provided for a member posted there.

7.6.26 Service residence alternative to tied or appointment residence

- 1. This section applies to a member who is required to occupy an appointment or tied residence.
- 2. The CDF may decide that a member assigned to a specific Service residence may occupy an equivalent Service residence instead. The CDF must consider all of the following factors.
 - a. Whether the residence is suitable for the member's representative duties.
 - b. The location of the residence.
 - c. The impact on any other members.
 - d. Any additional cost to the Commonwealth.

7.6.27 Furniture rental for appointment, tied and assigned residences

- 1. This section applies to a member in either of the following categories.
 - a. A member who has unaccompanied resident family and no accompanied resident family.
 - b. A member who has no resident family but has recognised other persons.
- 2. The CDF may approve payment of the reasonable costs of furniture hire for a member who is required to live in a Service residence under this Division.
- 3. For subsection 2, the CDF must have regard to the costs that could be paid if the member required the furniture for a rented home under the table in subsection 7.8.25.2, and must not approve a payment for either of the following.
 - a. An item that is already in the Service residence and available for the member's use.
 - b. An item that the member already owns and that it is reasonable for them to use in the Service residence.

 4. Members who occupy a surplus Service residence can only share the residence with other members who are eligible under this section or section 7.6.30.
 5. Despite subsection 4, a member who has a recognised live-in carer may occupy a surplus service residence under this section.
 6. A member with unaccompanied resident family and no accompanied resident family may be eligible to live in an appointment, tied or assigned Service residence under Division 2, Appointment, tied and assigned residences.

7.6.30 Member with no resident family eligible for a Service residence

1. A member with no resident family or recognised other persons who is eligible for rent allowance under Part 8 may choose to live in a surplus Service residence.
2. A member who occupies a surplus Service residence can only share the residence with other members who are eligible under this section or section 7.6.29.
3. A member with no resident family or recognised other persons may be eligible to live in an appointment, tied or assigned Service residence under Division 2, Appointment, tied and assigned residences.

7.6.33 Acceptance or rejection of reasonable offer

1. An offer of a Service residence by Defence Housing Australia is reasonable if the home meets one of the following.
 - a. It is a suitable Service residence under section 7.6.4.
 - b. It is at the rent band listed for the member's rank group in section 7.6.13.

Note: This includes on-base Service residences which are taken to hold a market-rent-based classification.
 - c. If no Service residence is available in the rent band for the member's rank group under section 7.6.13, it is a Service residence in the rent band above or below the member's rent band.
 - d. It is rent band choice accommodation which the member accepts.
3. If a home at a lower rent band does not have enough rooms for the family's children to occupy using the table in section 7.6.4, it would not be considered a reasonable offer for the purpose of paragraph 1.b.
4. To continue to be eligible for housing assistance, the member must either accept a reasonable offer or reject it in writing for a reason in section 7.6.34.
5. A member might reject a reasonable offer for reasons not in section 7.6.34. If the CDF does not consider the reasons to be sufficient grounds to reject the Service residence, and Defence Housing Australia cannot offer the Service residence to another member within 1 month, the member's name will be removed from the Service residence waiting list. They will not be eligible for temporary accommodation allowance, rent allowance or storage during the remainder of their posting.

Exception: If an offer is not reasonable because the home offered does not meet the conditions in subsection 1, the member can reject it in writing. There is no effect on any benefits. The member would be eligible for another Service residence or rent allowance.
6. In this section, waiting list means a list of members who meet all the following.
 - a. They are eligible for a Service residence.
 - b. They have been identified as needing a Service residence.
 - c. They do not have a Service residence.

7.6.34 Reasons for rejecting a reasonable offer

1. This section applies to a member who rejects a reasonable offer of a Service residence.
2. An offer is not reasonable if the member rejects it for any of these reasons. This means that the member is still eligible for a Service residence.
 - a. The home is at the classification that applies two or more groups below the member's rank group.
 - b. The home has a swimming pool.
 - c. The home and grounds are unsuitable for the member's pet and all the following apply.

Note: Contributions do not recommence for a member who returns part-way through their deployment. They only recommence at the cessation of their deployment.

7.6.43 Higher contribution scheme, above rank group

If the member chooses to accept a Service residence or rent band choice home with a rent band higher than the one specified for the member's rank group eligibility under section 7.6.13, the member must pay the contribution listed for their rank and the higher rent band under Part 2 of Annex 7.A for the period that they hold the home.

Note: This is called a 'higher contribution scheme' contribution.

7.6.44 Contribution for a home chosen at a lower rank group's rent band

1. This section applies to a member who chooses a Service residence or rent band choice home with a lower rent band than the member is eligible for at their rank group.
2. The member must pay the contribution for the lower rank group listed against the rent band of the home under section 7.6.41 and Annex 7.A.

7.6.45 Member allocated a Service residence above their rank group

1. This section applies to a member who is allocated a Service residence in a rent band that is higher than the one specified for the member's rank group in subsection 7.6.13.1.
2. The member must pay the contribution that applies under section 7.6.41 and Annex 7.A.

7.6.46 Member allocated a Service residence below their rank group

1. This section applies to a member who is allocated a Service residence with a lower rent band than the member is eligible for at their rank group under 7.6.13.
2. The member must pay the contribution for the lower rank group listed against the rent band of the home in Annex 7.A.

7.6.48 Member promoted or commissioned

1. This section applies to a member who meets both of these conditions.
 - a. They live in a Service residence that is above their rank group eligibility.
 - b. They are promoted to a rank in the next higher rank group.
2. A member who has been promoted must notify Defence Housing Australia in writing. This allows Defence Housing Australia to assess whether the promotion has any effect on the member's contribution.
3. On the date of their promotion, the member's contribution for the Service residence is increased to the rate for their new rank group (relevant to the classification of the Service residence).
4. If a member's new rank group is the one specified for the classification of their Service residence or rent band choice home under subsection 7.6.13.1, both the following arrangements apply.
 - a. Any requirement for the member to pay a higher contribution scheme amount under Part 2 of Annex 7.A ceases.
 - b. The member must pay the contribution worked out under Part 1 of Annex 7.A.

5. A member who is notified of a promotion to a higher rank group is able to be allocated a Service residence at the higher rank group before the posting commences. The member may continue to pay the contribution for their substantive rank group until the date the promotion commences. From the date of promotion the member must pay the contribution for their new rank.
6. If a member is appointed as a commissioned officer, and this results in a reduction in the member's rank group under the table in section 7.6.13.1, the member is taken to continue to be eligible in the rank group they held as a non-commissioned officer, until they reach a higher rank.

7.6.49 Member reduced in rank

1. This section applies to a member who meets all these conditions.
 - a. They live in a Service residence that is at or above their rank group eligibility.
 - b. They are reduced to a rank in a lower rank group.
2. On the date their rank is reduced, the member's contribution for an allocated Service residence is reduced to the rate for their new rank group (relevant to the classification of the Service residence).
3. If the member paid a contribution for their home under section 7.6.43 (the higher contribution scheme) immediately before they were reduced in rank, they must continue to pay the contribution that applies for their home and previous rank under Part 2 of Annex 7.A.
4. A member who has been reduced in rank must notify Defence Housing Australia in writing. This allows Defence Housing Australia to assess whether the reduction in rank has any effect on the member's contribution.
5. On reduction of rank, a member who is paying a contribution under the higher contribution scheme may elect to move out of the home. The removal does not attract any assistance and is at the member's own expense.

7.6.50 Member on leave without pay

1. A member is not eligible to live in a Service residence while they are on leave without pay under Chapter 5 Part 10, Leave without pay.
2. This section does not apply to a member on the following types of leave.
 - a. Maternity leave.
 - b. Parental leave.
3. The CDF may decide that the member was granted the leave without pay for exceptional reasons. In this case, they may be eligible for a Service residence in the normal way. They pay their usual contribution.
4. A member who is not eligible for a Service residence under this section may apply to live in a Service residence under Division 7 section 7.6.37. They must pay the Defence Housing Australia rent under section 7.6.37.

7.6.52 Member undergoing training

The contribution for a Service residence for a member who has accompanied resident family or recognised other persons is not reduced for any period that the member is a member undergoing training.

7.6.53 Service residence reclassified

A change in the rent band of a Service residence under Division 3 or 5 does not apply until the end of any current occupancy agreement.

Note 1: This means that a change will not affect a member during the life of their tenancy.

Note 2: Subsection 7.6.41.2 allows CDF to reduce a contribution in some circumstances, without changing the classification of a Service residence.

7.6.54 Contribution for a partner who is also a member

1. This table sets out who pays the contribution, if a member's partner is also a member and both occupy a Service residence.

Item	If the members have...	the contribution is payable only by the member with the...
1.	different rank group eligibility	higher rank group eligibility.
2.	the same rank group eligibility	higher rank, increment or pay grade.

2. Only one contribution is payable by a member and their partner who is also a member jointly under subsection 1, if they meet all these conditions.
 - a. They are both members.
 - b. One of them is a member who has unaccompanied resident family and no accompanied resident family.
 - c. The other is a member who has accompanied resident family and no unaccompanied resident family.
3. Despite subsection 2, no contribution is payable by either member if one of the members occupies a suitable own home.
4. If the senior member is on leave without pay, the member's contribution is taken to remain at the same rate as before period of the leave began.

7.6.55A Contribution for member on a flexible service determination

1. This section applies to a member who lives in accommodation provided under this Part and is promoted.
2. If the member stays in the same rank group, their contribution rate will not change.
3. If the member moves to a higher rank group, their contribution may increase.
4. The member may apply in writing to the CDF to have their contribution reviewed. The review must be based on whether the member's rent ceiling is affected by their change in rank group. The member can ask for the review either before or after they are promoted. The CDF must notify the member of their decision in writing.
5. If the CDF determines that the amount of contribution should change, the new rates are payable from the later of these dates.
 - a. The day the member is promoted.
 - b. A day chosen by the member.
6. After the member moves out of the accommodation, the benefits for the member's next accommodation will be based on the member's new rank.

7.7.17 Member reduced in rank

1. This section applies to a member who lives in accommodation provided under this Part and is reduced in rank.
2. If the member stays in the same rank group, their contribution rate will not change.
3. If the member moves to a lower rank group, the contribution rate the member pays is reduced. The new contribution rate takes effect on the day the member's demotion takes effect.
4. Despite subsection 3, the member's rent ceiling is preserved until the member moves out of the accommodation.
5. After the member moves out of the accommodation, the rent ceiling for the member's next accommodation is the amount that applies to their new rank group. The reduced rent ceiling applies from the day after the member moves out of the accommodation provided under this Part.
6. A member who has been reduced in rank must notify the Defence Housing Australia Regional Operations Manager in writing. This allows Defence Housing Australia to assess whether the reduction in rank has any effect on the member's contribution.

7.7.18 Exemptions from contributions

A member who has no resident family or recognised other persons is not required to make a contribution towards their rent for a period the member satisfies any the criteria of the table at section 7.8.18.

7.7.19 Contribution for member on leave without pay

1. A member is not eligible for accommodation under this Part while they are on leave without pay under Chapter 5 Part 10, Leave without pay.
2. This section does not apply to a member on the following types of leave.
 - a. Maternity leave.
 - b. Parental leave.
3. The CDF may decide that the member was granted the leave without pay for exceptional reasons. In this case, the member may apply to keep their accommodation provided under this Part. They must pay Defence Housing Australia the full market rent for the accommodation.

Exception: Members under section 7.7.18, Exemptions from contributions.

7.7.21 How visiting members affect contributions

1. A member who is a visitor to the household may be required to contribute to the cost of the accommodation provided under this Part. The contribution for the visitor is worked out as follows.
 - a. If the visit is for less than 4 weeks the visiting member is not required to pay a contribution towards the accommodation.

- b. If the visit is for 4 weeks or more then the visiting member's required contribution is shown in the following table.

Item	If the visitor has...	the visitor is...
1.	a permanent home at another location	not taken to be a resident. The visiting member is not required to pay a contribution towards the accommodation.
2.	no permanent home	taken to be a resident member. The visiting member is required to pay a contribution under the rate for shared accommodation in Annex 7.D Part 2 that applies for their rank group and accommodation.

2. If the visiting member is required to pay a contribution under subsection 1 the resident member pays a contribution rate for the shared accommodation in Annex 7.D Part 2 that applies for their rank group and accommodation.
3. After the day that the visiting member leaves the accommodation the resident member's contribution payment returns to the normal contribution worked out for the member under this Part.
4. The member must apply in writing to the Defence Housing Australia Regional Operations Manager to obtain approval if the person will be living in their home for longer than 4 weeks.

7.7.22 Contribution when one member leaves a shared home

1. This section applies to a member who remains in shared accommodation provided under this Part after a housemate has left the accommodation for Service reasons.
2. The remaining member continues to contribute at the shared rate they paid, in accordance with subsection 7.7.14.2 table item 2, for up to 4 weeks after their housemate has left the home.
3. If the housemate is not replaced within the 4-week period, then at the end of that period the member must take either of the following actions.
 - a. Contribute at the relevant rate in column B of Annex 7.D Part 2, for a member who lives alone.
 - b. Vacate the choice accommodation at their own expense.

Part 8: Rent allowance

 - ii. If a period in a flexible service determination is part of a year — less than the number of days calculated using the following formula.

$$\text{number of days} = 130 \times \frac{FSD}{365}$$

Where:

FSD is the number days in the period of the member's flexible service determination that is less than 1 year.

4. If the member's pattern of service changes for a reason specified in the flexible service determination and the member has an incomplete cycle, either of the following applies.
 - a. If the member's contribution decreases, the member must be reimbursed the difference between the following two amounts.
 - i. The contribution that the member has paid for the member's cycle.
 - ii. The contribution that the member would have paid for the member's incomplete cycle under the changed pattern of service.
 - b. If the member's contribution increases, the member is not required to repay any amount for the incomplete cycle.
5. If the member's flexible service determination is varied for Service reasons, the member will be reimbursed the difference between the following two amounts.
 - a. The contribution amount that the member has paid during the period of the variation.
 - b. The contribution rate that the member would have paid under Annex 7.D during the period of the variation.

7.8.18B Rent contribution for member with who has unaccompanied resident family and no accompanied resident family on a flexible service determination

1. This section applies to a member who meets all of the following conditions.
 - a. The member meets all of the following.
 - i. They have unaccompanied resident family.
 - ii. They have no accompanied resident family.
 - b. The member is on a flexible service determination.
 - c. The member lives in a rented home at the gaining location.
2. A member's may be required to pay a contribution if they meet one of the following conditions.
 - a. The member has a nonworking period that exceeds 28 continuous days.
 - b. The total number of days that are the member's pattern of service in the member's flexible service determination are either of the following.
 - i. If a period in a flexible service determination is 1 year — less than 130 days.
 - ii. If a period in a flexible service determination is part of a year — less than the number of days calculated using the following formula.

$$\text{number of days} = 130 \times \frac{\text{FSD}}{365}$$

Where:

FSD is the number days in the period of the member's flexible service determination that is less than 1 year.

3. If subsection 2 applies, the member must make a contribution towards their living-in accommodation for each weekday in the member's nonworking period. The member's contribution is calculated as follows.

Where:

- NWP is the number of weekdays during the members nonworking period in the pay fortnight.
- C is 50% of the fortnightly contribution rate set for the member's rank and circumstances in Annex 7.D that would apply to the member if they were a member with no resident family or recognised other persons and not on a flexible service determination.

4. If the member's pattern of service changes for a reason specified in the flexible service determination and the member has an incomplete cycle, either of the following applies.
 - a. If the member's contribution decreases, the member must be reimbursed the difference between the following two amounts.
 - i. The contribution that the member has paid for the member's cycle.
 - ii. The contribution that the member would have paid for the member's incomplete cycle under the changed pattern of service.
 - b. If the member's contribution increases, the member is not required to repay any amount for the incomplete cycle.
5. If the member's flexible service determination is varied for Service reasons, the member will be reimbursed the difference between the following two amounts.
 - a. The contribution amount that the member has paid during the period of the variation.
 - b. The contribution rate that the member would have paid under Annex 7.D during the period of the variation.

7.8.18C If a flexible service determination ends early

1. This section applies to a member who meets both of the following criteria.
 - a. The member pays a contribution for rented accommodation under either of the following sections.
 - i. Section 7.8.18A, for a member on a flexible service determination.
 - ii. Section 7.8.18B, for a member who has unaccompanied resident family and no accompanied resident family on a flexible service determination.
 - b. The member's flexible service determination ends before the end date specified in the flexible service determination.
2. If the member has an incomplete cycle, the following table applies.

Item	If the contribution the member would have paid for the incomplete cycle is...	and the flexible service determination was ended...	then...
1.	higher than what the member has paid for the incomplete cycle	on request from the member	the member must pay the difference between the following two amounts. a. The contribution that the member has paid for the member's cycle. b. The contribution that the member should have paid for the member's incomplete cycle.
2.	less than what the member has paid for the incomplete cycle	on request from the member	the member must be reimbursed the difference between the following two amounts. a. The contribution that the member has paid for the member's cycle. b. The contribution that the member should have paid for the member's incomplete cycle.
3.	less than what the member has paid for the incomplete cycle	for Service reasons or a reason set out in the flexible service determination
4.	higher than what the member has paid for the incomplete cycle	for Service reasons or a reason set out in the flexible service determination	the member is not required to pay any amount.

Division 4: How rent allowance is worked out

7.8.19 Rent allowance – General

1. In this section, rent is taken to be the lower of these amounts.
 - a. The fortnightly rent paid by the member for a property.
 - b. The approved rent ceiling for the property.
2. The rate of rent allowance is worked out using this formula.

$$\text{rent allowance} = \text{rent} - A$$

Where:

A is the member's contribution set out in Division 3.

7.8.20 Rent allowance – sharing a home

1. This section applies to a member who meets both these conditions.
 - a. The member meets one of the following.
 - i. They have no resident family or recognised other persons.
 - ii. They have unaccompanied resident family and no accompanied resident family.
 - b. They share a house that they get rent allowance for.
- 1A. This section does not apply to a member who has no resident family but has recognised other persons.
2. The fortnightly rate of rent allowance is calculated using the following formula.

Where:

A is the fortnightly rate of rent.

B is the member plus the number of people the member is sharing the home with.

Note: Sharing a home is defined term in section 7.8.3.

C is the fortnightly rent contribution made by the member.

3. A visitor to the house who is 18 years or older may affect the amount of rent allowance a member is eligible for. If the visit is for less than 4 weeks, rent allowance will not be affected. If the visit is for 4 weeks or more, this table shows the effect on the member's rent allowance.

Item	If the visitor has...	then they are...
1.	a permanent home at another location.	Not taken to be a resident. The visit will not affect the member's rent allowance.

2.	no permanent home.	Taken to be a resident. The visit will reduce the member's rent allowance from the first day of their stay.
----	--------------------	--

4. The member must inform the Defence Housing Australia Regional Operations Manager in writing if a person will be living in their home for longer than 4 weeks. The CDF will then decide if the member is subletting their home. The CDF must consider all the circumstances in which the person is living in the home.

7.8.21 House-sitter for absent member

1. This section applies to a member who meets all the following conditions.
 - a. The member meets one of the following.
 - i. They have no resident family or recognised other persons.
 - ii. They have unaccompanied resident family and no accompanied resident family.
 - b. The member is absent from rental accommodation on deployment or temporary duty.
 - c. The member has arranged for a house-sitter to occupy their rent allowance accommodation.
2. If all the following conditions are met, the house-sitter will not affect the amount of a member's rent allowance.
 - a. The house-sitter pays no rent to the member for the rent allowance accommodation.
 - b. The house-sitter leaves when the member returns from the deployment or temporary duty.
 - c. The house-sitter does not normally share with the member.
3. The member must inform the Defence Housing Australia Regional Operations Manager in writing if a person will be living in their home.
4. If a house-sitter pays rent to the member for the rent allowance accommodation the member is taken to have sublet the property.

7.8.22 Resident child carer

1. A member may have a resident child carer living with the family.
2. The member must inform their unit administrator in writing when either of the following occurs.
 - a. A resident child carer moves into their rented home. The member is to provide a date when the arrangement is expected to end, if known.
 - b. A resident child carer moves out of their home.
3. The member's unit administrator must forward the information provided by the member under subsection 2 to the Defence Housing Australia Regional Operations Manager.

Note: The disclosure in this section is necessary to ensure that a member's housing benefits are not reduced. It also helps to clarify that the person living in the house is not intended by the member to become recognised family.

4. The resident child carer will not affect the amount of the member's rent allowance.

7.8.23 Rent allowance – sublet home

1. This section applies to a member in either of the following situations.
 - a. The member meets all of the following.
 - i. They have accompanied resident family and no unaccompanied resident family
 - ii. They have sublet part of the home that they get rent allowance for.
 - b. The member meets all of the following.
 - i. They have no resident family or recognised other persons or they have unaccompanied resident family and no accompanied resident family.
 - ii. They are on deployment for more than 6 months.
 - iii. They have sublet the home, or part of the home, that they get rent allowance for.
2. The rate of rent allowance is a fortnightly rate worked out using this formula.
3. The member must inform the Defence Housing Australia Regional Operations Manager in writing if a person will be living in their home for longer than 4 weeks. The CDF will then decide if the member is subletting their home. The CDF must consider all the circumstances in which the person is living in the home.

7.8.25 Furniture rental

1. This section applies to a member who meets one of the following.
 - a. They have no resident family or recognised other persons.
 - b. They have unaccompanied resident family and no accompanied resident family.
2. Subject to subsection 2A, a member may include the cost of hiring items in the cost of rent up to their rent ceiling.
- 2A. Costs that may or may not be include in the cost of rent are set out in the following table.
 - a. Column A sets out costs that can be included.
 - b. Column B sets out costs that cannot be included, unless the member meets all of the following.
 - i. They are a member who has unaccompanied resident family and no accompanied resident family.
 - ii. They own similar items used in their resident family's home.

Item	Column A Items that can be included	Column B Items that cannot be included
1.	Dining table and 4 chairs	Television
2.	Lounge suite or chairs	DVD player

3.	Bed and bedside table	Stereo
4.	Refrigerator	Piece of office furniture
5.	Microwave	Computer or laptop
6.	Washing machine	Video game console
7.	Vacuum cleaner	Kitchen and linen pack
8.	Clothes dryer	Bedside or desk lamp
9.	Coffee table
10.	Outdoor setting

3. A member must not be paid an amount for any of the following costs under this section.
 - a. Hire costs that assist the member to buy furniture.
 - b. The cost of an item that is already in the home and available for the member's use.
 - c. The cost of an item that the member already owns and that it is reasonable for them to use in the rented home.
4. The rules about rent ceiling increases apply to a member this section applies to.

7.8.26 Major General – reduced rent allowance

1. This section applies to a member who meets both of these conditions.
 - a. They hold the rank of Major General.
 - b. They rent a home of the same standard as a class D Service residence.
2. The member's rent allowance is worked out as if the member was a Brigadier.

7.8.27 Member promoted

1. This section applies to a member who is eligible for rent allowance and is promoted.
2. If the member stays in the same rank group, their eligibility for rent allowance will not change.
3. If the member does not stay in the same rank group, their benefit may change. The amount they must contribute toward rent costs may also increase.
4. The member may apply in writing to the CDF to have their benefit reviewed. The review must be based on whether the member's rent ceiling is affected by their change in rank group. The member can ask for the review either before or after they are promoted. The CDF must notify the member of their decision in writing.
5. If the CDF determines that the amounts of rent allowance and contribution should change, the new rates are payable from the latest of these dates.
 - a. The day the member is promoted.
 - b. A day chosen by the member.
6. When the member moves out of the home, all later benefits will be assessed at the higher rank.

7.8.28 Member reduced in rank

1. This section applies to a member who is eligible for rent allowance and is reduced in rank.
2. If the member's rank group changes, their eligibility for rent allowance would normally change. This is because the contribution rates that apply to the member would be the ones for the lower rank group. However, the rent ceiling would remain at the higher rank group rate.
3. The contribution the member must make toward the cost of rent is reduced if they belong to a lower rank group after demotion.
4. The reduced contribution under subsection 3 starts on the day the member's demotion takes effect.
5. Despite subsection 2, the member does not get a lower rent ceiling from the day that their rank is reduced.
6. The member may move into another home that they get rent allowance for. In this case, the rent ceiling for the member is reduced to the amount that applies to their new rank group. The reduced rent ceiling applies from the day the member moves out of the home they were living in at the time they were demoted.
7. A member who has been reduced in rank must notify the Defence Housing Australia in writing. This allows the Defence Housing Australia to assess whether the reduction in rank has any effect on the member's contribution.

7.8.29 Changing homes at the housing benefit location or family benefit location

1. A member must re-apply for rent allowance if they move to another rented home at their housing benefit location or family benefit location.
2. A rent ceiling increase approved for a previous home cannot be kept for the new home.
3. The member can seek a rent ceiling increase for the new home under section 7.8.12. They must include any evidence that section requires.

Division 5: Events that will end or limit eligibility

7.8.34 Member on leave without pay

1. A member is not eligible for rent allowance while they are on leave granted under Chapter 5 Part 10, Leave without pay.
2. This section does not apply to a member on one of the following types of leave.
 - a. Maternity leave.
 - b. Parental leave.
3. The CDF may decide that the member was granted the leave without pay for exceptional reasons. In this case, they may be eligible for rent allowance in the normal way.

7.8.35A Contribution for member on a flexible service determination

1. This section applies to a member who meets both the following conditions.
 - a. The member is on a flexible service determination (weeks per month pattern of service).
 - b. The member is required to make a contribution for rent allowance under section 7.8.17.
2. The member's rate of contribution is set out in the following table.

Item	If the member's pattern of service over each 4-week period is...	the member's contribution is...
1.	1 week working, 3 weeks not working,	150% of the rate that applies to them under Annex 7.D.
2.	2 weeks working, 2 weeks not working,	100% of the rate that applies to them under Annex 7.D.
3.	3 weeks working, 2 week not working,

Note: Each working day in the week is based on a normal full-time work day.

7.8.36 Resident family not at a rented home

1. This section applies to a member if their accompanied resident family and recognised other persons cease living with the member in the rented home the member lives in.
2. The member is eligible for rent allowance until the earlier of the following dates.
 - a. The day the member, their resident family and recognised other persons move out of the home.

- b. One month after the day the member's resident family and recognised other persons stop living at the home.
- 3. If a person in the member's resident family, or a recognised other person, dies and the member ceases to have any resident family or recognised other persons, the member's eligibility for rent allowance as a member who has accompanied resident family for that home continues until the earlier of these dates.
 - a. The day the member moves out of the home.
 - b. Three months after the day the requirement to house accompanied resident family or recognised other persons ends.
- 4. If subsection 2 or 3 applies, the member may become eligible for rent allowance for that rented home, or another one, as a member who has no resident family or recognised other persons.

7.8.37 Member dies

- 1. This section applies if a member dies while they are eligible for rent allowance for the home that they or their resident family and recognised other persons occupy.
- 2. If the member's resident family and recognised other persons were living in the home, rent allowance continues to be payable in relation to the rented home until the latest of these dates.
 - a. The day they move out of the home.

 - ii. The date the lease ends.
 - b. A later date set by the CDF that the CDF considers reasonable.
- 4. The rent allowance is at the rate that applied to the member.

7.8.38 Rent allowance audit

1. Each member's rent allowance may be audited one or more times in each posting cycle.
2. The purpose of the audit is to check that the member is getting the amount of rent allowance they are eligible for. It checks facts including the address in the housing benefit location or family benefit location and the number of resident family or recognised other persons or other residents.
3. To start an audit, the Defence Housing Australia Regional Operations Manager must take both these steps.
 - a. Write to the member to seek confirmation of information the Manager needs to make the checks.
 - b. If the member does not respond, give written notice to the member's unit that the member is to be audited.
4. The member must respond within 14 days of receiving the Defence Housing Australia Regional Operations Manager's letter. The response must be in writing.
5. The member may be absent from the location at the time of the audit. The audit must then be suspended until the member returns.
6. This suspension lasts until the Defence Housing Australia Regional Operations Manager gets written notice that the member is in the housing benefit location.

7.8.39 Member who fails to respond to audit

1. The member's eligibility for rent allowance will cease if they fail to comply with all of the requirements under subsection 7.8.38.2, unless subsection 7.8.38.4 applies.
2. If the member's eligibility for rent allowance has ceased under subsection 1, the member's eligibility for rent allowance recommences when all of the following have been met.
 - a. The member complies with the request under paragraph 7.8.38.2.a.
 - b. The Defence Housing Australia Regional Operations Manager is satisfied that the member has reasonable grounds for not responding within the time provided under paragraph 7.8.38.2.b.

Division 6: Advances and repayments

7.8.40 Purpose

A member might be unable to pay the bond or other fees for securing a rental property. The member may be eligible for an advance.

2. The member may apply for assistance for some of the costs of entering into a rental lease.
3. A member who must pay the costs in column A of the table is eligible for the assistance in column B of the same table item.

Item	Column A Cost	Column B Assistance
1.	A rental bond	An advance payment of up to a maximum of twice the member's fortnightly rent ceiling. Note: The member may apply for less than the full amount.
2.	Rent in advance	An advance payment of up to a maximum of twice the member's fortnightly rent ceiling. Note: The member may apply for less than the full amount.
3.	A utility connection deposit	An advance payment of the cost of the deposit.
4.	Commonwealth, State or Territory stamp duty of the lease	Reimbursement of the amount that was paid. Note: This amount is not repayable.
5.	Fees to a lawyer for preparing a lease	Reimbursement of up to $1,000. Note: This amount is not repayable.

Note: The member may apply for assistance for the costs under both table items 1 and 2.

4. A member who received an advance under table items 1, 2 or 3 must repay the amount they received.

7.8.42 Advance payment of bond when sharing

1. This section applies to a member who shares a rented home with another person and gets rent allowance.
2. The member can apply for an advance of the money they would be eligible for under section 7.8.41. They can apply for an advance of all or part of the amount.

7.8.44 Member to give evidence of payment

1. A member who receives an advance payment under this Division 6 must provide the Defence Housing Australia Regional Operations Manager documents to demonstrate that it was spent for the intended purpose.
2. The documents under subsection 1 must be provided within 14 days of entering into a lease.

7.8.45 Unused advances to be repaid

1. If any part of an advance is not used for its intended purposes, the member must repay it immediately.
2. The CDF may decide that a member who received an advance has not paid or lodged it. The member must repay the advance immediately.
3. The CDF may decide that a member who received an advance for rent has not entered a lease and paid rent within a reasonable period. The member must repay the advanced amount back immediately.
4. In making a decision under subsection 3, the CDF must consider all these factors.
 - a. Where the housing benefit location or family benefit location is.

Part 11: Evacuation assistance

7.11.1 Purpose

1. The purpose of this Part is to provide members and their resident family and recognised other persons who occupy service accommodation on a Defence establishment with accommodation and other benefits if the establishment is evacuated due to an actual or imminent emergency.

7.11.2 Members this part applies to

This Part applies to a member who occupies either of the following on a Defence establishment immediately before an evacuation order is issued.

- a. A Service residence.
- b. Living-in accommodation.

7.11.3 Period of evacuation assistance

1. A member is eligible for evacuation assistance from one of the following times.
 - a. If the evacuation order included a start time, that time.
 - b. If no start time was included in the evacuation order, the time the evacuation order was issued.
2. A member ceases to be eligible for evacuation assistance at one of the following times.
 - a. If the evacuation order included an end time, that time.
 - b. If no end time was included in the evacuation order, a time set by the Senior ADF Officer at the establishment.
 - c. If the member was occupying a Service residence immediately before an evacuation order is issued, the day all of the following apply.
 - i. The member is eligible for temporary accommodation allowance under Chapter 7 Part 5.
 - ii. The member is able to occupy the accommodation provided under Chapter 7 Part 5.

7.11.4 Accommodation assistance

1. A member is not eligible for a benefit under this section if an evacuation centre has been established for the member to evacuate to, unless one of the following apply.
 - a. The evacuation centre is full.
 - b. The member was occupying living-in accommodation immediately before the evacuation order was issued and other living-in accommodation is made available for them to occupy.

- c. The Senior ADF Officer at the establishment is satisfied that there are special circumstances for the member, their accompanied resident family or recognised other persons not to go to the evacuation centre.

Note: An evacuation centre includes a centre established by civilian authorities or Defence.

- 2. A member occupying a Service residence immediately before an evacuation order is issued is eligible for the reasonable costs of accommodation for all of the following persons.
 - a. The member.
 - b. Each of their resident family and recognised other person who was occupying the Service residence with the member immediately before the evacuation order was issued.
- 3. A member who was occupying living-in accommodation immediately before the evacuation order was issued is eligible for one the following.
 - a. Living-in accommodation at another Defence establishment within 50 km of the establishment from which the member was evacuated.
 - b. If living-in accommodation under paragraph a. is not available — the reasonable costs of other forms of accommodation.

Note: The Acts Interpretation Act 1901 applies to the measurement of distance in this section.

- 4. In this section, accommodation means the following.
 - a. If the member was occupying living-in accommodation — accommodation that is suitable for the member on a short term basis having regard to the nature of the emergency and the availability of accommodation, including shared accommodation.
 - b. If the person was occupying a Service residence — accommodation that is suitable for the occupants to occupy on a short term basis having regard to the nature of the emergency and the availability of accommodation.
- 5. A benefit provided under this section may be paid to the member by way of reimbursement or to the service provider.

7.11.5 Meals assistance

- 1. Subsection 2 applies to a member eligible to receive the reasonable costs of accommodation under section 7.11.4.
- 2. For each occurrence of a meal in an item in column A of the table in section 7.5.24 during the evacuation period, the member is eligible for the costs of meals up to the following amount.
 - a. If the member is in a Capital city or high-cost country centre, the sum of the following.
 - i. For the member and any resident family and recognised other persons who are 10 years old or older and occupying the accommodation with the member — the amount specified in column B of the same item for each person.
 - ii. For any resident family who are less than 10 years old and occupying the accommodation with the member — 50% of the amount specified in column B of the same item.

- b. If the member is in another location, the sum of the following.
 - i. For the member and any resident family and recognised other persons who are 10 years old or older and occupying the accommodation with the member — the amount specified in column C of the same item for each person.
 - ii. For any resident family who are less than 10 years old and occupying the accommodation with the member — 50% of the amount specified in column C of the same item.

7.11.6 Transport assistance

A member who is required to drive more than 50 km to occupy accommodation under section 7.11.4 is eligible for vehicle allowance at the rate provided in section 9.6.25.

Note: The Acts Interpretation Act 1901 applies to the measurement of distance in this section.

7.11.7 Additional funds

1. Subject to subsection 2, a member is eligible for a reimbursement of up to $500.00 for additional costs if the Senior ADF Officer is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances for making the payment that arose in connection with the evacuation.
2. A reimbursement cannot be made under this section for costs relating to accommodation, meals or vehicle allowance.

Chapter 8: Assistance for recognised family

Part 4: Education assistance

Division 1: General information on education assistance

8.4.4 Purpose

Education assistance helps members pay for additional education costs for their children caused by a posting to a location within Australia.

8.4.5 Definitions

In this Part, the following apply.

Compulsory tuition fees means compulsory amounts levied by a child's school for educating the child, including compulsory sports levies.

Note: Boarding fees are not included.

8.4.6 Changes to eligibility periods

The CDF may bring forward or extend periods of eligibility outlined in this Part. Before approving, the CDF must consider all these factors.

- a. The child's age, school history, educational needs, family circumstances and general welfare.
- b. Facilities offered by schools and educational institutions in the former and gaining locations.
- c. The nature of the education system in the gaining location.
- d. Staff advice from schools and educational institutions in the former and gaining locations.
- e. The circumstances of the member's posting and the likely location of future postings.
- f. Any other assistance available from Defence Member and Family Support to support resident family with special needs.
- g. Any other disabilities of the child.
- h. The interests of Defence.
- i. Any other factor relevant to the child's educational progress.

8.4.7 Assistance in special circumstances

1. A member is eligible for education assistance if they have not received a benefit for education assistance under this Part for the child and the CDF is satisfied of all of the following.
 - a. The reasons for the member not being eligible for education assistance are beyond the member's control.

- b. There are special reasons for providing education assistance.
- 2. Before approving, the CDF must consider both these factors.
 - a. The special circumstances are reasonable and consistent with the purposes of education assistance.
 - b. The member cannot be provided with any other type of education assistance outlined in this Part.

Note: The amount of assistance approved must not exceed the amount outlined in this Part for eligible members in similar circumstances.

Division 2: School students at the gaining location

8.4.8 Purpose

1. If a member's child changes schools due to posting in Australia, their education may be disrupted. This Division assists with the cost of additional educational services. These services help the child meet and maintain their academic standards at the new school so that they don't fall behind academically due to posting.
3. Education assistance in this Division is designed to overcome immediate difficulties as a result of posting. Assistance is limited. If the child continues to experience education difficulties beyond the limits, any further costs are the member's responsibility.

8.4.8A School changes that apply to this Division

This Division applies to a child who moves between the following schools.

- a. The first year of compulsory schooling — primary school.
- b. Primary school — primary school.
- c. Primary school — secondary school.
- d. Secondary school — secondary school.

8.4.9 Member this Division applies to

For this Division, all these conditions must be met.

- a. The member is granted a removal to a new housing benefit location.
- b. The member's child meets all of the following.
 - i. They are the member's resident family.
 - ii. They are changing school to the new housing benefit location or family benefit location.
 - iii. They are enrolled full-time in a registered primary or secondary school.
- i. They are under 20 years old.
- ii. They normally live with the member or an adult who is resident family of the member.
- iii. They are enrolled in a registered primary or secondary school full-time.
- c. The principal or the child's teacher at the new school provides evidence on the approved form of at least one of the following.
 - i. The child has not reached, or is unlikely to maintain, a sufficient standard in a subject. They require additional tuition that the school cannot provide.
 - ii. The school cannot provide a subject. This must be critical to the child's educational progress or career-choice.
 - iii. The school cannot provide a therapy service. This must be critical to the child's educational progress.

- iv. The child needs to have a special need assessed to develop a suitable educational program. A government agency is not able to do this within 6 months of the child's arrival at the new housing benefit location or family benefit location.
- v. A child with a special need critically needs a program or service. A government school at the location cannot provide it. A non-government school at the location can provide it, or another directly related program or service.
- vi. The child is academically gifted and needs a special education program. A government school at the location cannot provide it.

Note: Section 1.6.1 applies to this section and may affect the reimbursement provided if a member and their partner, who is also a member, are both eligible for education costs for the same child.

8.4.10 One-on-one tutoring

- 1. This section applies to a member whose child is resident family and receives tutoring that is conducted in person between the child and the tutor.
- 2. A member who has a child who meets a condition in column A of the following table is eligible for assistance with tuition up to the number of hours under column B of the same item.

Item	Column A Conditions	Column B Maximum hours
1.	The child has studied the subject before and the subject is offered at the new school.	14 hours
2.	The child has not studied the subject before and the subject is offered at the new school.	26 hours
3.	The child meets both of the following and the subject is not offered at the new school. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. The child is in Year 10, 11 or 12. b. The child needs to study the subject, as it is essential to their career aims. 	40 hours

- 3. For the purpose of subsection 2, the maximum amount a member can be reimbursed is $118 an hour for each subject.
- 4. The benefit under this section may be paid directly to the tutor if the CDF is satisfied that the member is unavailable due to service requirements.

8.4.11 Web-based tutoring

- 1. Subject to subsection 3, a member is eligible to be reimbursed the cost of a subscription to a web-based tutoring service if the child's teacher or school principal recommends that a child receive tutoring.
- 2. A member may not be reimbursed any of the following costs.
 - a. Computer software costs.
 - b. Computer hardware costs.

- c. Internet access costs.
3. A reimbursement under this section is calculated using the following formula.

$$\text{reimbursement amount} = (A \times B) - C$$

Where:

A is for a condition in an item in column A of the following table — the amount in column B of the same item.

Item	Column A Condition	Column B Maximum limit
1.	The child has studied the subject before and the subject is offered at the new school.	$1,644
2.	The child has not studied the subject before and the subject is offered at the new school.	$3,052
3.	The child meets both of the following and the subject is not offered at the new school. a. The child is in Year 10, 11 or 12. b. The child needs to study the subject, as it is essential to their career aims.	$6,105

B is the number of subjects that meet all of the following.

- i. The subject was referred to in evidence provided by the child's new school under paragraph 8.4.9.c.
- ii. The child is provided with online tuition on the subject.

C is the amount reimbursed to the member for any one-on-one tutoring under section 8.4.10.

8.4.12 Conditions for reimbursement to member

For a member to be reimbursed their costs, the educational services must meet both these conditions.

- a. They must be provided within 18 months of the child starting study at the new school.
- b. They must be provided by a qualified person or accredited organisation.

8.4.13 Payments to tutor

A member who meets both the following conditions may elect to have payments made directly to the body that supplied the tutoring, instead of by reimbursement.

- a. The member is away for Service reasons.
- b. It is not practical for the member to apply for a reimbursement.

8.4.14 Children with special needs

1. Education assistance also covers members' children with special needs. It supports access to programs or services not available in the new school or other Government agencies.
2. A member who has a child with special needs is eligible for up to 14 hours of a therapy service if all of the following apply.
 - a. The therapy service is not provided by the school.
 - b. The therapy service is critical to the educational progress of the child.
 - c. The therapy service was provided to the child at the previous location.
 - d. The therapy service is provided within 18 months of the child starting at the new school.
 - e. The therapy service is provided by a qualified person or accredited organisation.
3. If subsection 2 applies, the maximum benefit payable for a therapy service is $118 an hour for each service.
4. A member who has a child with special needs is eligible for the reimbursement of up to $864 for the cost of an assessment of their needs if all of the following apply.
 - a. The assessment is critical to the development of an educational program for the child.
 - b. The assessment is undertaken by a non-government service provider.
5. A member is eligible for the cost of compulsory tuition fees up to $33,683 a year for a child with special needs to attend a private school with access to a special program if the CDF decides it is reasonable.
- 5A. A member who receives a benefit under subsection 5 must pay a contribution of $422 a year.
6. For approval under subsection 5, all these conditions must be met.
 - a. The program or service must have been provided to the child by a government school at the losing location.
 - b. The program or service cannot be provided by an accessible government school at the gaining location.
 - c. The program or service can be provided by a private school.
 - d. It is critical that the child attends the private school for educational progress.
7. For subsection 5, the CDF must also consider all these factors.
 - a. The child's age, school history, educational needs, family circumstances and general welfare.
 - b. Facilities offered by schools and educational institutions in the former and gaining locations.
 - c. The nature of the education system in the gaining location.
 - d. Staff advice from schools and educational institutions in the former and gaining locations.
 - e. The circumstances of the member's posting and the likely location of future postings.

- f. Any other assistance available from Defence Member and Family Support to support resident family with special needs.
- g. Any other disabilities of the child.
- h. The interests of Defence.
- i. Any other factor relevant to the child's educational progress.

8.4.15 Education assistance extension

The maximum number of hours of education assistance benefits can be extended by up to 14 hours for each subject or therapy service if the CDF is satisfied of all of the following.

- a. The child requires further tuition or therapy to sustain academic performance.
- b. The principal of, or the child's teacher at, the new school has provided evidence that an extension is required because the child has not reached their academic standards.
- c. The benefit to be extended was provided under one of the following.
 - i. Subsection 8.4.10.2 table item 1.
 - ii. Subsection 8.4.14.2.

Division 3: Loss of scholarship

8.4.16 Purpose

Education assistance in this Division assists a member with educational costs that would have been covered by a scholarship that their child can no longer access as a result of changing schools due to the member's posting.

8.4.17 Member this Division applies to

For this Division, the member must meet all these conditions.

- a. The member is posted to another location.
- b. The member's child meets all of the following.
 - i. They are the member's resident family.
 - ii. They held a scholarship for education at a school in the losing location.
 - iii. They could not use the scholarship because they changed schools to the gaining location.
- c. The member is not eligible for any other education assistance outlined in this Part.

Note: Section 1.6.1 applies to this section and may affect the reimbursement provided if a member and their partner, who is also a member, are both eligible for reimbursement for loss of a scholarship for the same child.

8.4.18 Loss of scholarship

1. The member is eligible for reimbursement of any of the following educational costs incurred at the gaining location.
 - a. Compulsory tuition fees.
 - b. Textbooks.
2. The costs incurred by the member under subsection 1 must be for education of a kind that the child would have received under the scholarship.
3. The total amount of reimbursement must not exceed any of the following.
 - a. The unused part of the scholarship.
 - b. If a sublimit applies to a specified type of expense — the maximum for that sublimit.

Division 4: School students not at a housing benefit location or family benefit location

8.4.19 Purpose

Sometimes a member's child does not accompany them to the gaining location. This Division assists the member with compulsory tuition fees and accommodation costs in some circumstances.

8.4.20 Member this Division applies to

1. For this Division, the member must meet all the following conditions.
 - a. Any of the following applies.
 - i. The member is granted a removal to a housing benefit location within Australia.
 - ii. If the member is posted to a new location, the member is granted a removal for their resident family to a family benefit location within Australia.
 - b. The member has a child who meets all the following conditions.
 - i. They are the member's resident family.
 - iii. They are in an Australian school in Year 9, 10, 11 or 12, or an earlier year that the CDF decides is critical to the child's education.
 - iv. They are not repeating a school year to improve results.
 - c. The member elects for the child to attend school at one of these locations in Australia.
 - i. The losing location.
 - ii. A location where benefits are not provided which has been approved by the CDF.
2. For subparagraphs 1.b.iii and 1.c.ii, the CDF must consider all these factors.
 - a. The child's age, school history, educational needs, family circumstances and general welfare.
 - b. Facilities offered by schools and educational institutions in the former and gaining locations.
 - c. The nature of the education system in the gaining location.
 - d. Staff advice from schools and educational institutions in the former and gaining locations.
 - e. The circumstances of the member's posting and the likely location of future postings.
 - f. Any other assistance available from Defence Member and Family Support to support resident family who has special needs.
 - g. Any other disabilities of the child.
 - h. The interests of Defence.

- i. Any other factor relevant to the child's educational progress.
3. For subparagraph 1.c.ii, the CDF must additionally consider any family support available to the child in the location.

8.4.21 Tuition and accommodation costs

1. Subject to subsection 3 and section 8.4.22, a member who incurs a cost for a purpose in column A in a year is eligible for a reimbursement of the cost incurred up to the amount specified in column B and must pay the contribution specified in column C of the following table.

Item	Column A Purpose	Column B Maximum reimbursement	Column C Contribution
1.	Compulsory tuition fees.	$33,683	The higher of the following. a. $422. b. The amount equal to the contribution they would normally have incurred for their child's continued attendance at that school.
2.	If in boarding school or a commercial establishment, the cost of board.	$29,375	Either of the following. a. For the first year of boarding — $3,191. b. For every other year of boarding — $3,606.
3.	If accommodated privately, the cost of board	$17,650

- 1A. For the purpose of subsection 1, all of the following apply.
 - a. Boarding arrangements do not include supervision of the child in a member's home.
 - b. Private accommodation does not include a home owned by the member or their resident family.
2. The school may be paid directly the amount the member would otherwise be reimbursed under column B of the table in subsection 1 if the CDF is satisfied that the member is experiencing financial hardship.

Note: The member will still be responsible for the contribution under column C of the table in subsection 1.
3. If the member receives other assistance for school tuition and accommodation, the reimbursement or payment under this section must be reduced by the following.
 - a. If other government assistance is being provided to the member for the cost of attendance at school — the total value of the assistance.
 - b. If assistance for the purchase of textbooks and equipment is being provided to the member — half the value of the assistance.

8.4.22 Period of reimbursement

1. For this Division, the period of reimbursement to a member begins on the later of these days.
 - i. The first day of the child's next school term, after the member is notified of posting.
 - ii. The day the child begins to board at the other location.
2. The reimbursement period ends on the earlier of these days.
 - i. The last day of the child's attendance at the school.
 - ii. The day the member ceases continuous full-time service.
3. If a child is absent from school for 12 weeks or more, the member is not eligible for education assistance for the period.
4. In certain cases, a child may stop attending the school for reasons beyond the control of the child or member. This includes Service, medical or other compassionate reasons. If the member has paid school fees or accommodation in advance, the member will be reimbursed for the period they have paid for.

Note: This subsection only applies to a member who cannot be refunded costs by the school.
5. A member receiving education assistance may become ineligible during the reimbursement period.
6. A member is not eligible to be reimbursed boarding costs if any of the following apply unless the CDF is satisfied special circumstances apply.
 - a. While the child is on school holidays.
 - b. While the member or an adult who is resident family of the member lives within the child's location.
7. For the purpose of deciding whether there are special circumstances in subsection 6, the CDF must consider all of the following.
 - a. If there is any family support available to the child in the location where the child will attend school.
 - b. The child's age, school history, educational needs, family circumstances and general welfare.
 - c. Staff advice from schools and educational institutions in the former and gaining locations.
 - d. The circumstances of the member's posting and the likely location of future postings.
 - e. Any other assistance available from Defence Member and Family Support to support resident family who has special needs.
 - f. Any other disabilities of the child.
 - g. Where it is in the interest of Defence.
 - h. Any other factor relevant to the child's educational progress.

Division 5: Tertiary students not at the housing benefit location or the family benefit location

8.4.23 Purpose

This Division assists members with the accommodation costs of a child or adult child in tertiary education when they are living away from home.

8.4.24 Member this Division applies to

1. This Division applies to a member who meets all these conditions.
 - a. The member has a child or adult child who meets all these conditions.
 - i. They are the member's resident family.
 - ii. They are doing a full-time undergraduate course at a tertiary institution within Australia.
 - iii. Their selected course is not offered at an institution within the housing benefit location or the family benefit location.
 - iv. They are not eligible for Youth Allowance as an independent full-time student living away from home.
 - b. The member incurs costs for the child's or adult child's accommodation and the member does not own the accommodation.
2. Despite subsection 1, a member is eligible for benefits under this Division if all the following apply.
 - a. The member's child or adult child can attend an equivalent course in the housing benefit location or the family benefit location but needs to study elsewhere.
 - b. The CDF is satisfied that it is reasonable in the circumstances.
3. For the purpose of subsection 2, the CDF must consider all the following.
 - a. If family members can provide support to the student.
 - b. Factors relevant to the course of study or research, including the availability of specialist academic staff.
 - c. The age of the child or adult child, school history, educational needs, family circumstances and general welfare.
 - d. The circumstances of the member's posting and the likely location of future postings.
 - e. Any other assistance available from the Defence Member and Family Support to support resident family who has special needs.
 - f. Any other disabilities of the child or adult child.
 - g. The interests of Defence.

- h. Any other factor relevant to the child's or adult child's educational progress.
- i. If the need has arisen as a consequence of the member being posted to a new location — all of the following.
 - i. The facilities offered by educational institutions in the former and gaining locations.
 - ii. Staff advice from educational institutions in the former and gaining locations.
 - iii. The nature of the education system in the gaining location.

8.4.25 Rate and period of assistance

1. The member is eligible to be reimbursed up to $467 a fortnight for accommodation costs.
2. The period for reimbursement of these costs begins on the day the child or adult child begins tertiary education. The period ends on the earliest of these events.
 - a. The day the child or adult child fulfils the minimum requirements to complete the course.
 - b. After a total of 3 years' assistance.
 - c. If any change in circumstances make the child or adult child ineligible for assistance under this Division.
 - d. The day the member ceases to be eligible under this Division, for any other reason.
3. A member cannot be reimbursed for any of the following during the period of eligibility in subsection 2.
 - a. Accommodation costs during course breaks that occur at the end of a semester or academic year, unless the student has a fixed term lease arrangement that requires the student to pay rent during such course breaks.
 - b. Accommodation costs while the member or resident family lives in the student's location.
 - c. Forgone rent.
 - d. Rates.
 - e. Mortgage payments.
4. The CDF may approve accommodation costs in special circumstances. The CDF must consider any relevant factors in the following list.
 - a. The age of the child or adult child, school history, educational needs, family circumstances and general welfare.
 - b. Staff advice from educational institutions in the former and gaining locations.
 - c. The circumstances of the member's posting and the likely location of future postings.
 - d. Any other assistance available from Defence Member and Family Support to support resident family who has special needs.

- e. Any other disabilities of the child or adult child.
- f. The interests of Defence.
- g. Any other factor relevant to the child's or adult child's educational progress.
- h. The student's accommodation lease arrangements.

Part 5: Emergency Support for Families Scheme

8.5.1 Purpose

The purpose of this section is to support the well-being of a member's resident family while the member is absent on duty and during an emergency situation.

8.5.2 Definitions

1. Emergency situation means an event meets any of the following.
 - a. It is unforeseen.
 - b. It is sudden.
 - c. It exceeds the coping mechanisms of the member's resident family.
2. An emergency situation is not an event that occurs due to a member's ordinary work situation.

8.5.3 Emergency support

A member is eligible for emergency support for their resident family in an emergency situation if all of the following apply.

- a. The member is in one of the following situations.
 - i. They are absent from home for Service reasons.
 - ii. They are required to perform duty outside their working hours with less than 48 hours' notice.
 - iii. They are in hospital or unable to provide care to their resident family for a medical reason.
- b. An application for emergency support has been made through one of the following.
 - i. The Defence Member and Family Helpline.
 - ii. The member's local Defence Member and Family Support office.
- c. The CDF is satisfied that the grant of emergency support is appropriate, having regard to the following.
 - i. Whether the member's resident family have insufficient immediate family or local support.
 - ii. The recommendations made by a Defence Member and Family Support social worker.
 - iii. The needs of the member's resident family.
 - iv. Whether the member's resident family have experienced an emergency situation.

8.5.4 Emergency support

For the purpose of section 8.5.3, any of the following persons may apply for emergency support.

- a. The member.
- b. The member's resident family.
- c. The member's recognised other persons.
- d. The unit commander if any of the following agree to receive the support.
 - i. The member.
 - ii. The member's resident family.
 - iii. The resident family's authorised representative.

8.5.5 When emergency support has been approved

Emergency support includes the following.

- a. Organisation of professional care and emotional support for the family.
- b. Case management services to the family throughout the emergency, with regular feedback to the people who have been agreed upon in the support plan.

1. Persons this Part applies to are eligible for counselling sessions with a Defence contracted service provider.
2. No more than four sessions may be claimed for each issue the person wishes to address.
3. The CDF may grant the person up to four additional sessions for an issue. The CDF must consider the contracted service provider's recommendation about whether more sessions are needed to resolve the issue.
4. The CDF may make the decision in subsection 3 without knowing the identity of the person.
5. If more than one person attends the same session, that session is still only counted once. It is counted against the limit of the person who requested the session.

8.10.4 Multiple benefits

A person's number of sessions under this Part is reduced by any Employee Assistance Program benefit that they are provided with because they are an APS employee employed in the Department of Defence.

8.10.5 Benefits

The only other benefit a member may get under this Determination for attendance at the session is set out in section 3.2.15.

Chapter 9: ADF travel in Australia

9.0.1 Overview

This Chapter sets out a member's travel, baggage, meal and accommodation benefits when they travel in Australia.

9.0.3 Definitions

This table defines terms used in this Chapter.

Term	Definition in this Chapter
Air travel for travel on duty	Air travel booked under the Department of Defence travel contract.
Allowable travel time	Is worked out on the basis of the actual distance in kilometres for the shortest practicable route, divided by one of the following. a. If the member is towing a towable item — 360. b. If a member, resident family or recognised other person has a special need — the number of kilometres the CDF believes the person with special needs can travel in a day. c. In all other cases — 480.
Contracted service provider	The service provider contracted to provide the Commonwealth with accommodation services for its employees and members of the ADF. It is the AOT Group (ABN No. 23 106 495 498).
Most economical means of travel	The means of travel the Commonwealth considers most efficient, practical or appropriate in terms a range of factors. These factors include – but are not limited to – cost to the Commonwealth, availability of transport and time taken to travel.
Normal departmental liability	The amount the Commonwealth would pay for a journey made by a member, their resident family and recognised other persons authorised to travel to a place at Commonwealth expense. It includes the following costs. a. The cost of travel to the place by the most economical means. b. The cost of travel to and from the relevant airports, railway stations and coach terminals. c. Any taxes or levies on the travel. It does not include goods and services tax (GST) on the fare.
Travel document	A travel document means a ticket (including a Miscellaneous Charges Order, travel warrant, movement requisition or other document) that gives a person who holds it travel at Commonwealth expense.

Part 1: Basic travel benefits

9.1.1 Purpose

This Part provides a member's basic benefits for the following aspects of travel.

- a. The means of travel.
- b. The class of travel.
- c. Travel by own means.
- d. Baggage allowance.

9.1.3 Most economical means of travel

1. The member is eligible for travel by the most economical means of public transport available to the Commonwealth.
2. The CDF will determine the most economical means of travel after considering all these criteria.
 - a. The availability of various means of travel.
 - b. The fares and allowances for the member, their resident family and recognised other persons.
 - c. The estimated value of the member's salary and DFRT allowances for the travel time.
3. This value is worked out in this way.

$$\frac{\textit{Fortnightly salary + allowances}}{80}$$

where 80 is the number of hours worked in a fortnight (8 hours a day x 10 days). This formula applies whether travel occurs in or out of working hours.

4. A member is not eligible for the costs of coach travel for themselves, their resident family or recognised other persons if air or rail travel is available unless the CDF is satisfied of all the following.
 - a. The cost is the same or less.
 - b. The time taken would not involve extra short absence for travel.
5. If the travel is leave travel, salary and DFRT allowances means all salary and allowances payable for recreation leave. These allowances are not included.
 - a. Rent allowance.
 - b. Hardship allowance.
 - c. Overseas living allowances.

9.1.4 Air as the most economical means of travel

1. Air travel is the most economical means for any of these journeys.
 - a. To or from Darwin (except RAAF Base Tindal to or from Darwin).
 - b. To or from Tasmania.
 - c. Between a remote location and the nearest capital city.
 - d. To or from Canberra when travelling on temporary duty.

Exception: Travel between Canberra and Nowra or Jervis Bay. For these trips, self-drive hire car is the most economical means of travel. This is because there is no economical air or rail service.
 - e. Between a place in an external territory and a place in Australia.
 - f. If surface transport would involve an overnight journey and resident family or recognised other persons include either of the following.
 - i. A child under 3 years old.
 - ii. Two children under 7 years old.
 - g. If surface transport would involve a journey of at least 2 nights and resident family or recognised other persons include either of the following.
 - i. A child under 7 years old.
 - ii. Two children under 10 years old.
2. The CDF may decide that air travel is the most economical means of travel if any of these criteria are met.
 - a. The difference in the cost of travel is small and there is a saving in travelling time.
 - b. Air travel is justified given the official duties and expenses of the member travelling.
 - c. Medical or compassionate reasons mean that travel by surface transport would be inefficient.

9.1.5 Lowest practical fare

1. Lowest practical fare is the lowest fare for the day of travel when the travel is booked, having regard to whether all of the following conditions are met.
 - a. It meets the business needs of the member.
 - b. It is for a regular scheduled flight.
 - c. It is for travel that is scheduled to leave within 45 minutes of either of the following times.

Note: The times do not include travel time to and from the airports, check-in times or security checks.

 - i. The latest possible departure flight time for departure flights.
 - ii. The earliest possible return flight time for return flights.

2. A person who travels by air must travel using the lowest practical fare at the class of travel for which they are eligible.
3. Flexible fares may only be used when either of the following could occur.
 - a. The scheduled meeting or event may not go ahead.
 - b. The meeting or event times are likely to change.
4. The following may not be considered when looking for the lowest practical fare.
 - a. The airline.
 - b. Type of aircraft.
 - c. The provision of in-flight meals.
 - d. Access to airline flight lounges.
 - e. Airline reward, frequent flyer or loyalty points.
5. A member who travels by a fare that is not the lowest practical fare must provide their reasons in writing.

9.1.6 Travel by own means

1. If a member has been approved to travel by their own means, the member is eligible for the lesser of the following amounts.
 - a. The normal departmental liability.
 - b. The actual cost of travel.
2. For paragraph 1.b, if a part of the travel is by a vehicle, the actual cost of travel for that part of the travel is calculated in accordance with Chapter 9 Part 6 Division 5, Vehicle allowance amounts and limits.
3. If a member is directed to travel by a specified route in conjunction with the approval to travel by their own means, the member ceases to be eligible for the amount payable under subsection 1 if they do not follow the specified route unless the CDF is satisfied there are exceptional circumstances for not following the route.

9.1.7 Normal departmental liability

1. Normal departmental liability is what the Commonwealth would pay for a journey made by a member, their resident family and recognised other persons authorised to travel to a place at Commonwealth expense. It includes these costs.
 - a. The cost of travel to the place by the most economical means.
 - b. The costs of travel to and from the relevant airports, railway stations and coach terminals.
 - c. Any taxes or levies on the travel.
2. This table shows what happens when a member travels by means that are not the most economical means.

Item	If the member travels by means that are...	then the Commonwealth will pay...
1.	cheaper than the most economical means	only the actual cost of their journey.
2.	more expensive than the most economical means	up to the amount of the normal departmental liability.

3. A member may travel as a passenger in a private vehicle or non-commercial aircraft when they are eligible for travel at Commonwealth expense. In this case, they are only eligible for meal and travel allowance up to what the Commonwealth would have paid for a journey by the most economical means.

Note: The passenger may be travelling in a private vehicle belonging to another member. In this case, the member may have the rate of vehicle allowance increased for the distance they carry the passenger.
4. A member who travels on personal frequent flyer points will not be reimbursed the cost of their fare.
5. The Commonwealth will not pay any amount based on normal departmental liability for a child under 2 years old who is transported by private vehicle.
6. A member might choose to travel by a less direct route than the most direct route available. In this case, they must pay any excess costs to the Collector of Relevant Money in the Department of Defence.
7. The following conditions apply to travel documents.
 - a. The Commonwealth may give a travel document to a specific person and permit them to use it for travel.
 - b. If a travel document is used by a person who has not been permitted to use it under paragraph a, the person must repay the Commonwealth for any travel they have taken using the travel document.
 - c. The Commonwealth may seek to recover the cost of any travel taken without its permission under paragraph b.
8. The Commonwealth will not pay for an escort that a carrier requires to accompany a member's child.

9.1.8 Cost of air travel for working out normal departmental liability

1. The cost of air travel for working out normal departmental liability is the fare that meets both these conditions.
 - a. It is the fare quoted in the domestic fare matrix ('NDL column') issued to the Department of Defence by Qantas.
 - b. It is at the class of travel that the member, their resident family and recognised other persons are eligible to for the journey.
2. For a child under 2 years old, a normal departmental liability will not apply unless the child is required to occupy an individual airline seat.

9.1.9 Class of travel

1. If a member is approved to travel by air, the class of travel is economy class air travel unless one of the following applies.

Item	If the member...	the class of travel is business class when...
1.	holds the rank of Brigadier or higher	a. they are accompanying a Minister, senior Government official or foreign delegation and collaborative work is required during the flight. b. the flight is part of a connecting flight for a longer domestic journey. c. they have a recognised medical condition which precludes them from travelling in economy class. d. the scheduled flight time is for longer than 90 minutes at the time of booking.
2.	holds the rank of Regimental Sergeant Major of the Army	a. they are travelling on Defence business and accompanying a Minister, senior Government official or foreign delegation and collaborative work is required during the flight. b. they are travelling on Defence business and the flight is part of a connecting flight for a longer domestic journey. c. they have a recognised medical condition which precludes them from travelling in economy class. d. they are travelling on Defence business and the scheduled flight time for longer than 90 minutes at the time of booking.
3.	is a staff officer	they are required to travel with a member who holds the rank of Lieutenant General or higher who is travelling business class.

- 1A. If resident family or recognised other persons are approved to travel by air, the class of travel is the same as the member.
2. A member, their resident family and recognised other persons may be provided with travel at the class listed in the table for the member's rank, duties and flight when travelling by coach or rail.

Item	A member who is eligible for travel by...	and who holds the rank or duties of...	is eligible for travel by...
1.	coach	any rank	highest class available.

2.	rail	any rank	first class. If first class is not available the member, their resident family and recognised other persons are eligible for travel by the highest class available. Exception: This exception applies if any part of the travel during a night is expected to be after midnight. The member, their resident family and recognised other persons are eligible for a sleeping berth, if available.
----	------	----------	--

3. A member who travels at a lower class than one listed in the table above is not eligible for any difference in cost between the fares.
4. A member's resident family or recognised other persons who is eligible for travel within Australia under this Determination is eligible for travel by the same means and at the same class as the member.

9.1.10 Baggage – general

1. A member travelling by the most economical means may take baggage up to a maximum weight. This table shows the baggage limits.

Item	If a member travels on...	and their rank is...	then their maximum baggage limit is...
1.	temporary duty of less than 6 weeks	any rank	78 kg.
2.	a. temporary duty of more than 6 weeks, or b. posting, or c. ceasing continuous full-time service	officer or warrant officer	260 kg.
		any other rank	156 kg.

2. The maximum limit includes the baggage the carrier lets the member take on board as part of the fare.
3. If only part of the baggage limit is carried free of charge by the carrier the member is eligible to have the rest of the baggage sent by one of the following methods.
 - a. If the member does not need access to the baggage during the journey or immediately after it — the most economical of the following.
 - i. With the member's furniture and effects.
 - ii. As unaccompanied baggage.
 - b. If the member needs access to the baggage during the journey or immediately after it — as excess accompanied baggage.
4. If the member chooses to travel by means that are not the most economical, the overall baggage limits in the table above will apply. The Commonwealth will pay no more for baggage than it would have paid for the most economical means and class of travel. The cost of any approved excess baggage will be included in working out the cost of travel by the most economical means.

5. A member is not eligible for the cost of insuring baggage.
6. If a member's partner is also a member, the family unit has only one benefit each time they are posted.

9.1.11 Extra baggage

1. Extra baggage may be taken on removal and posting journeys as set out in this Chapter at the following.
 - a. Part 2 Division 2, Travel on temporary duty.
 - b. Part 2 Division 4, Travel on posting.
2. The member is eligible for the cost of transporting Service property or other documents the member is required to carry during travel.
3. Extra baggage does not include transportation of a pet.

9.1.12 Door-to-door travel

1. Door-to-door travel includes the reasonable cost of transport to and from airports, railway stations and coach terminals.
2. To avoid doubt, door-to-door travel does not apply to remote location leave travel.

9.1.13 Travel costs not otherwise payable under this Chapter

1. The CDF may approve payment of the reasonable costs of travel and related expenses, of the kind provided for in Parts 1 to 4 of this Chapter, for a person in any of these classes who would not otherwise be eligible for those benefits.
 - a. A member, including a member of the Reserves and a former member.
 - b. An applicant for appointment or engagement as a member, in respect of attendance at an enlistment centre or attendance for interview or examination.
 - c. A close relative of a member.
2. For subsection 1, the CDF must consider these matters.
 - a. Any relevant Accountable Authority Instructions made under the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013.
 - b. Any other relevant matter.

1. Commonwealth assistance may be limited when a member travels on removal to either of the following destinations.
 - a. A seagoing ship or a seagoing submarine.
 - b. A family benefit location.
2. If removal costs are limited, then related travel costs are limited in the same way.
3. The removal and travel costs will be combined in assessing any excess costs.
4. The member must pay for any excess costs.

Division 5: Travel in particular situations

9.2.22 Purpose

This Division sets out conditions and benefits for travel in these situations.

- a. Rejoining a ship that has sailed.
- b. On recall for emergency duty.
- c. On convalescence.
- d. Getting specialist medical or dental treatment.

9.2.23 Rejoining a ship that has sailed

1. A member is eligible for travel to rejoin a seagoing ship they have missed on sailing. There must be a need for the member to travel to rejoin the ship at another port.
2. The member may apply to the Commanding Officer of the nearest ADF establishment for a duty travel warrant to enable them to rejoin the ship.
3. If the member cannot get a duty travel warrant, they are eligible for a reimbursement of the actual amount they had to spend on fares to rejoin the ship.
4. Travel under this section is limited to the cost of the member's transport from the port the ship sailed from to the port where they are to re-join their ship.

9.2.24 Recall for emergency duty

1. A member who has left their primary service location after working a normal day may be reimbursed the cost of their travel if they are later recalled to duty.
2. The CDF may approve reimbursement of costs if satisfied on both these criteria.
 - a. The member has paid for travel fares or use of a private vehicle that they would not normally have to pay for.
 - b. The member could not reasonably have used an alternative means to go back to the place of duty.
3. The amount of reimbursement is limited to whichever of these costs is relevant.
 - a. For travel by public transport, including taxi — the cost of the fares beyond what the member would usually pay to attend work.
 - b. For travel by private vehicle — vehicle allowance worked out for the journey under Part 6 of this Chapter.

9.2.25 Travel during a medical absence

1. The CDF may approve travel at Commonwealth expense for any of the following purposes.
 - a. To assist a member to leave hospital to recover.

- b. To assist the member to reach a location where they are able to wait to go back to hospital.
 - c. To assist the member to reach a location which the senior medical advisor in the member's region has recommended as most likely to assist the member's recovery.
- 2. In making a decision under subsection 1, the CDF must be satisfied that the following conditions are met.
 - a. The travel is to the member's home or, if care is not available at their home, an alternative location. The CDF must have regard to any senior medical advisor recommendation about whether the care at the location is adequate for the member's needs.
 - b. The senior medical advisor for the location has recommended both the following.
 - i. That the member should undertake the travel.
 - ii. That the means of travel is safest for the member.
- 3. The CDF may approve the travel at a higher class or by means that are not the most economical, if satisfied it is necessary for the member's safety and consistent with the recommendation under subsection 2.
- 4. A member may apply to travel at Commonwealth expense, including travel costs for meals, incidentals and accommodation on the journey. The member can be provided assistance up to the amount that would be payable if they were eligible for travel costs on Defence business for the same period.
- 5. The member may be approved to travel at Commonwealth expense but pay for it themselves. In this case, the CDF may reimburse up to a maximum of what the Commonwealth would have paid under subsections 3 and 4.

9.2.26 Specialist medical or dental treatment for resident family in remote locations

- 1. A member is eligible for travel for their accompanied resident family from their housing benefit location to the location of a registered specialist medical or dental practitioner if all of the following are met.
 - a. The member is performing duty in a remote location listed in Annex 4.4.A.
 - b. A doctor or dentist has certified on both these matters.
 - i. Specialist treatment is necessary.
 - ii. The necessary treatment cannot be provided in the housing benefit location or the family benefit location.
- 2. The travel benefit is limited to travel by the most economical means as defined in section 9.0.3.
- 3. A member's resident family may be approved to travel by private vehicle, unless a doctor has provided a certificate to state that they are not fit for travel by this means.
- 4. For the purpose of subsection 3, vehicle allowance may be payable up to the cost of travel by the most economical means.
- 5. The baggage benefit is limited to what is included for free as part of the travel fare.

6. The member or another person is eligible for travel if the CDF is satisfied that the member's resident family needs to be accompanied.
7. If the resident family needs to stay overnight at the treatment location, they are eligible for the reimbursement of the cost of the accommodation and meals up to the maximum amount that would be payable for that location if they were eligible for travelling allowance for the journey under Part 5.

Division 6: Travel on ceasing continuous full-time service – general

9.2.27 Purpose

This Division sets out a member's travel, baggage and accommodation benefits when they travel in Australia on ceasing continuous full-time service.

9.2.28 Members this Division applies to

A member, their resident family and recognised other persons may be eligible for travel to a location they are removed to in any of these circumstances.

- a. On ceasing continuous full-time service for any reason.

Note: Eligibility is limited for a member whose service is terminated through their own fault and who is not eligible for a removal.

- b. In advance of ceasing continuous full-time service.
- c. In anticipation of ceasing continuous full-time service for compassionate reasons.

9.2.29 Members this Division does not apply to

This Division does not apply to members, their resident family or recognised other persons if they are eligible for any of the following benefits.

- a. Travel for candidates for election.
- b. Travel on death of a member under Part 3 Division 10.

9.2.30 Additional baggage for travel on ceasing continuous full-time service

1. If a member's resident family or recognised other persons travel by rail, they must take no more baggage than the railway authority carries for free.
2. If the member, their resident family and recognised other persons travel by air as the most economical means, they may take additional baggage up to these limits.
 - a. For these journeys, up to 3 more pieces of baggage for the member and 2 more for each adult who is resident family or as a recognised other person.
 - i. To or from Darwin.
 - ii. To or from Tasmania.
 - iii. To or from a remote location and the nearest capital city.
 - iv. Between a place in an external territory and a place in Australia.
 - b. For journeys to other places, one more piece of luggage for the member and one more piece for each adult who is resident family or as a recognised other person.
3. The member is not eligible for insurance costs relating to additional baggage under this section.

9.2.31 Meals and accommodation

1. A member, their resident family and recognised other persons will be reimbursed the cost of their meals and accommodation during their journey up to the maximum amount that they would have received if they were eligible for travel costs under Annex 9.5.A.
2. For the purpose of section 1, if the journey includes an isolation period the member, their resident family or recognised other persons are required to complete before they arrive at the location where they receive a removal to.
3. If the member, their resident family and recognised other persons choose not to travel by the most economical means, they will be reimbursed only up to the amount payable under subsection 1 for travel by the most economical means.
4. If the member, their resident family or recognised other persons are required to isolate in a place that is not their residence, subsection 3 does not apply to the isolation period.
5. If the member, their resident family or recognised other persons are eligible for travelling allowance for the journey, they are not eligible for the reimbursement of their costs.

9.2.32 Travel by private vehicle

1. This section applies to a member who chooses to travel by private vehicle from a. to b. below.
 - a. From one of the following.
 - i. Their housing benefit location.
 - ii. Their family benefit location.
 - iii. Their transition centre.
 - b. To the location they are removed to on ceasing continuous full-time service.
2. The member is eligible for the sum of the following amounts (up to the limit in subsection 3). It is worked out as if they were travelling on posting from one location to the other.
 - a. Vehicle allowance.
 - b. If the vehicle is transported for part of the travel, the cost of transport for all the following.
 - i. The vehicle.
 - ii. Any trailer towed by the vehicle.
 - iii. The member and any resident family and recognised other persons.
 - c. Travelling allowance for the member as if the travel were a relevant journey for Part 5 of this Chapter.
 - d. Accommodation and meal costs of any resident family and recognised other persons to the amount worked out under Part 5 Division 3.
3. The amount of the benefit cannot exceed what the member would have been paid under paragraphs a. to d. if the member and any resident family and recognised other persons travelled by the most economical means.

- 3A. If the member, their resident family or recognised other persons are required to isolate in a place that is not their residence, subsection 3 does not apply to the isolation period.
4. The CDF may grant the member an additional amount. Approval may only be given if the CDF is satisfied that the member reasonably spent more than they were eligible for under this Part. The CDF must consider all these criteria.
- a. The distance the member, their resident family or recognised other persons had to travel.
 - b. The actual cost of accommodation and meals.
 - c. The available standard of accommodation in relation to the member's status.
 - d. The amount of unavoidable incidental costs the travel made necessary.
 - e. Any other factor relevant to what was spent.
5. If the member has died, their benefit under this section is payable to the person recognised as resident family or as a recognised other person who pays the travel costs. They will be paid as if the member had completed the journey.

9.2.33 Dual benefit

If a member's partner is also a member, the family unit has only one benefit on each occasion of a posting.

Division 7: Travel on ceasing continuous full-time service – specific circumstances

9.2.34 Travel in advance of ceasing continuous full-time service

1. A member may take up their travel benefit up to 12 months before they cease continuous full-time service.
2. The member must sign an undertaking to refund the cost of the travel if they do not complete their service within the 12 months. This is unless the travel corresponds with a posting during the final 12 months of service.

9.2.35 Limits to travel on leaving a family benefit location

1. This section applies to a member who meets both the following.
 - a. The member was granted a removal for their resident family or recognised other persons under Chapter 6 Part 5 Division 3.
 - b. The member is ceasing continuous full-time service.
2. If there are cost limits on the removal to the family benefit location, the travel benefit for travel from the family benefit location is also limited.
3. The member is eligible to receive an amount up to the cost of their travel between the following locations.
 - a. The current housing benefit location or ship's home port (whichever is applicable).
 - b. The location to which the member is eligible for a removal to on ceasing continuous full-time service under section 6.5.46.

9.2.36 Involuntary separation through member's fault

1. This section applies to a member who ceased continuous full-time service for one of the following reasons and is not eligible for a removal.
 - a. Medical unfitness through their own fault.
 - b. Disciplinary reasons.
2. The member is eligible for travel to one of the following locations.
 - a. For a member who is a member who has accompanied resident family and no unaccompanied resident family — the place where their resident family live in Australia.
 - b. For a member who has no resident family — the location where they were last provided a permanent home.
3. The member is not eligible for assistance for travel by private vehicle.

9.2.37 Recruit who chooses free discharge

A recruit who takes up their option to a free discharge is eligible for travel under the basic benefit in Part 1 for one of the following periods.

- a. Within 6 months of the date they entered as an apprentice.
- b. Within 12 weeks of the date they entered as an adult recruit.

9.2.38 Deferral of travel benefit

- 1. This section applies to a member who has deferred their removal on ceasing continuous full-time service.
- 2. The member and their resident family's eligibility for travel on ceasing continuous full-time service is deferred for the same period as the removal.

9.2.39 Failure to complete service

- 1. A member travelling for ceasing continuous full-time service under this Division who does not complete their service must repay the cost of any assistance they received for the travel.
- 2. The member does not have to repay the costs if they meet all these conditions.
 - a. They took the travel in advance of ceasing continuous full-time service.
 - b. They were then posted to another location:
 - i. after they travelled, but
 - ii. before the date that their discharge order took effect.
 - c. They completed service in accordance with the discharge order.
- 3. The member and any resident family have a limited travel benefit for their next posting. The limit is the cost of travel to the new posting from where they were before they took the travel on ceasing continuous full-time service. That may be any one of these places.
 - a. The place they were posted to.
 - b. A personal location the member was granted a removal to under section 6.5.21.
 - c. Their naval air squadron base.
- 4. This limit does not apply to a member who had been granted a removal to a personal location where benefits are provided under Chapter 6 Part 5 Division 3.

Division 8: Members of the Reserves – duty travel

9.2.40 Purpose

This Division sets out the benefits for a member of the Reserves travelling on duty.

9.2.41 Benefits under this Division

1. A member on Reserve service who must travel for duty purposes has the basic benefits set out in Part 1 of this Chapter.
2. The CDF may approve a member's travel by means that are not the most economical. The CDF must consider the interests of the ADF and the member.

9.2.42 Limit on Commonwealth expense

1. A member of the Reserves who is eligible for travel may choose to pay for the travel themselves. In this case, they may be reimbursed the cost of any part of the journey they take by public transport. They can be reimbursed an amount up to what the Commonwealth would have paid for the journey.
2. The member is not eligible for the reimbursement of their costs if they are eligible for vehicle allowance or any other form of allowance or reimbursement.

Part 3: Travel and resident family

Division 1: Travel on marriage or ADF recognition of partnership

9.3.3 Purpose

This Division sets out a member's travel benefits when they have a partner recognised under section 1.3.38, while serving on a long-term posting in Australia.

9.3.4 Overview

1. A member's marriage or partnership does not create a travel benefit for the member personally.
2. The member may be eligible for assistance for the member's partner and any other resident family to travel within Australia, subject to these limits.
 - a. The benefit arises on marriage or ADF recognition of a partnership.
 - b. The travel is for the journey from where they normally lived at the time of the marriage or ADF recognition of a partnership, to the member's housing benefit location.
3. If a member's resident family travel, their travel benefit is one of the following.
 - a. If travel is by the most economical means — a one-way ticket.
 - b. If travel is by private vehicle — vehicle allowance for the trip up to the amount of the normal departmental liability.

Note: The increased rate for passengers is not payable under Part 6 Division 5 section 9.6.26.

Note: Any allowances for the resident family's travel are paid to the member.

9.3.5 Basic benefits

1. Members and their resident family authorised to travel under this Division have the basic benefits set out in Part 1 of this Chapter.
2. A member may choose a means of travel for their resident family that is not the most economical. In this case, the Commonwealth will pay only up to the cost of travel by the most economical means.
3. The member may travel by a means that is not the most economical if the CDF approves.
4. If subsection 3 applies, the member must pay the difference between the amount they would have been paid under subsection 2 and the cost of the travel under subsection 3 before commencing the travel.

9.3.6 When a member travels at their own expense

1. A member eligible to travel on marriage or on ADF recognition of a partnership may choose to pay for the travel themselves.
2. The member will be reimbursed in line with the basic benefits in Part 1 of this Chapter if they meet both of the following conditions.

- a. The means of travel under subsection 1 is authorised.
 - b. They have no eligibility for vehicle allowance or other forms of reimbursement for the travel.
3. A member and their resident family who are authorised to travel in a private vehicle may be eligible for vehicle allowance up to the cost of travel by the most economical means.

9.3.7 Member's partner also a member

When a member's partner is also a member, the family unit has one benefit only.

9.3.8 Marriage planned or common household started before posting

1. A member is eligible for travel for their partner if they provide documentation under subsection 2 and either of these circumstances applies to them.
 - a. They have planned to be married but are posted before their planned marriage happens.
 - b. They have planned to apply for ADF recognition of a partnership but are posted before the application is granted.
2. To qualify, the member must provide documentary evidence that they had completed arrangements for the marriage or had started maintaining a common household before they received the posting authority.
3. The travel is for the journey from the place of the marriage or common household to the new housing benefit location.

9.3.9 Travel from other location in Australia

1. This section applies to a member if all the following apply.
 - a. The person became the member's partner in Australia.
 - b. At the time the event in paragraph a. occurs, one of the following applies.
 - i. They are away from their housing benefit location.
 - ii. Their primary service location was a seagoing ship or seagoing submarine.
 - c. The marriage or the application for recognition or registration of the partner was not arranged before the start of the member's posting period.
 - d. They have at least 12 months left to serve on continuous full-time service when the benefit under this section is approved.
 - e. They would have been eligible for travel benefits if they had a partner before they commenced their posting period.
2. The member is eligible for their resident family to travel from the place where the partner lived when they became the member's resident family to the member's housing benefit location.
3. For the purpose of this section a town includes a city, suburb or other distinct residential area.

9.3.10 Travel from outside Australia

1. If a member serving in Australia marries or has an ADF recognised partnership in a location outside Australia, section 9.3.9 applies. This includes a member serving in a seagoing ship or seagoing submarine deployed outside Australia.
2. The point of entry into Australia will be taken as whichever of these places is applicable.
 - a. The place of the member's marriage.
 - b. The place where the member were recognised by the ADF as having a partner.

9.3.11 Change of family status in special circumstances

A member may change their family status in circumstances other than those in the sections above. In this case, the CDF may approve travel benefits and reimbursements for them or their resident family. The CDF must consider these factors.

- a. Any compassionate grounds.
- b. The nature of the person's relationship to the member.
- c. Whether it is practical for the member to make private arrangements for the travel.

9.3.12 Travel for a child

If the member's partner has a child at the time the relationship is recognised, and the child is resident family for travel purposes, the member is eligible for the cost of a fare for the child.

9.3.13 Special baggage arrangements for travel

When their partner and any other resident family travels from where they were married or where their partnership was recognised by the ADF to the member's housing benefit location, baggage limits apply. Any baggage over the transport operator's free limit must be included in personal effects to be removed at Commonwealth expense.

9.3.14 Travel on next posting

1. This section applies to a member who becomes a member who has resident family before commencing a new posting period.
2. On their next posting, the member is eligible for their resident family to travel from a location in paragraph a to the location in paragraph b.
 - a. A location from which the member is eligible for a removal under section 6.5.71.
 - b. The member's new housing benefit location.
3. If a member is removed from a location under section 6.5.71 table item 1.f or table item 2.b, the benefit is limited to the lesser of the following amounts.
 - a. The cost of the travel.
 - b. The cost of a travel from the member's housing benefit location or ship's home port at the time the person was recognised as resident family.

Division 2: Travel on breakdown of relationship

9.3.15 Purpose

This Division provides travel benefits for a non-Service partner following the breakdown of their relationship with a member posted to a location within Australia.

9.3.17 Members this Division does not apply to

1. A member is not eligible for travel under this Division when they cease to have any resident family or recognised other persons.
2. This Division does not apply to travel benefits for resident family or recognised other persons on death of a member.

9.3.18 Travel on breakdown of relationship

1. On breakdown of a relationship, a non-Service partner and their resident family are eligible for travel to the same location for which they are eligible for a removal under Chapter 6 Part 5 Division 10.
- 1A. A recognised other person is eligible for travel to the same location for which they are eligible for a removal under Chapter 6 Part 5 Division 10 if the CDF approves it after considering the individual circumstances of the recognised other person.
2. The cost of travel is limited to the cost of travel by the most economical means determined by the CDF under the basic benefit in Part 1 of this Chapter.
3. The non-Service partner is eligible only once to travel assistance on the breakdown of a relationship.
4. The non-Service partner is eligible for travel costs if they travel by air for reasons other than those provided in section 9.1.4 if all the following apply.
 - a. The CDF approves the travel by air.
 - b. Both the following apply.
 - i. The non-Service partner pays any additional costs of travelling by air rather than rail.
 - ii. The non-Service partner pays any excess baggage costs.
5. The non-Service partner may require a child to travel by themselves. If the carrier requires the child to be escorted, the non-Service partner must pay for an adult to accompany them.

9.3.19 Accommodation during travel

This table sets out how much a non-Service partner may be reimbursed for reasonable overnight accommodation costs.

Item	If the person is...	then the most they will be reimbursed is...
1.	the non-Service partner	the amount payable for accommodation at the location to a Colonel or lower under Annex 9.5.A.

2.	resident family or a recognised other person of a non-Service partner who is: a. more than 5 years old, and b. occupies a separate room	the amount payable for accommodation at the location to a Colonel or lower under Annex 9.5.A.
3.	resident family or a recognised other person of a non-Service partner who is less than 5 years old	10% of the amount worked out under item 1.
4.	other resident family or recognised other persons of the non-Service partner who share a separate room with a person described in item 2	20% of the amount worked out under item 1.

9.3.20 Meals during travel

1. A non-Service partner who is recognised family of a member is eligible to be reimbursed the cost of meals for themselves and the member's resident family or recognised other persons travelling with them during travel up to the following amounts.
 - a. If the person is aged 10 or more — the amount payable for meals under Part 5, Payment of travel costs.
 - b. If the person is aged under 10 — 50% of the amount payable for meals under Part 5, Payment of travel costs.
2. In all cases, the person will be paid at the rate payable for the relevant location below.
 - a. Where they began the journey, if it takes less than a day.
 - b. Where they stay overnight, if the journey takes more than a day.
3. The non-Service partner may be reimbursed for each meal period that begins at these times during the journey.
 - a. Breakfast: 0700 hours
 - b. Lunch: 1300 hours
 - c. Dinner: 1900 hours.
4. If the journey begins after the start of a meal period, the non-Service partner is not eligible for reimbursement for that meal period.

9.3.21 Travel by private vehicle

1. A non-Service partner, resident family and recognised other persons who are authorised to travel by private vehicle may be reimbursed the cost of travel. This also applies if they tow a towable item.
2. The amount they may be reimbursed is the lesser of the two amounts at a. and b.
 - a. The sum of these three amounts (if they apply).
 - i. Vehicle allowance worked out under Part 6 of this Chapter as if the non-Service partner were an eligible member for the purposes of that Part.

- ii. Accommodation and meal costs worked out under sections 9.3.19 and 9.3.20.
- iii. If it has been approved that the vehicle can be transported for a part of the journey:
 - A. the cost of transporting the vehicle and towable item (if that applies), plus
 - B. the fares for the non-Service partner, resident family and recognised other persons for that part of the journey.
- b. The sum of these three amounts (if they apply).
 - i. The fares of the non-Service partner, resident family and recognised other persons for travel by the most economical means.
 - ii. The cost of removing the vehicle and a towable item if the removal has been approved under Chapter 6 Part 5 Division 5.
 - iii. Accommodation and meal costs for travel by the most economical means, worked out under sections 9.3.19 and 9.3.20.
- 3. It is expected that a person will complete the journey at a daily driving rate of:
 - a. 480 km, or
 - b. 360 km if towing a towable item under a removal benefit.

9.3.22 Baggage

- 1. A non-Service partner is eligible for the cost of carrying up to 156 kilograms of baggage that cannot be removed with furniture and effects.
- 1A. Baggage benefits under this section are subject to the same conditions that apply under sections 9.1.10 and 9.1.11.
- 2. The baggage must be transported by the most economical means. However, the non-Service partner can carry some baggage with them as accompanied baggage. In this case, it does not matter if it is excess accompanied baggage or included in the fare. This table sets out the amount of baggage they can carry in this way.

Item	If the person travels by...	then the amount of baggage they can carry is...
1.	rail	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. one piece of baggage per family unit, and b. one additional piece of baggage each for the non-Service partner and any adults who are recognised as resident family or as a recognised other person.
2.	air	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. up to 2 pieces of baggage per family unit, and b. one additional piece of baggage each for the non-Service partner and any adults who are recognised as resident family or as a recognised other person.

9.3.23 Pet relocation costs

A non-Service partner given a removal is eligible for reimbursement of pet relocation costs. They are eligible as if they were an eligible member under Chapter 6 Part 1 Division 3.

Division 3: Travel on maternity leave

9.3.24 Purpose

This Division provides a travel benefit for a member who travels to access extended family support during a period of maternity leave.

9.3.25 Member this Division applies to

1. This Division applies to a member who has no resident family who is pregnant.
2. For the purpose of the return trip, this Division continues to apply to the member after the pregnancy ends.

9.3.26 Travel on maternity leave

1. A member this Division applies to is eligible for a return trip to a location in Australia. The trip must be in connection with the member's maternity leave.
2. Maternity leave travel is limited to both the following amounts.
 - a. The cost of travel by the most economical means.
 - b. Door-to-door travel costs.

9.3.27 Transfer of benefit

1. The pregnant member may choose to transfer their benefit to their nominated family. This is to allow one or more of the nominated family to travel from their home to the member's housing benefit location, and back again.
2. The maximum benefit under this section is the value of the benefit that the member is eligible for under section 9.3.26.

Division 4: Reunion travel

Subdivision 1: General provisions

9.3.28 Purpose

The purpose of reunion travel is to reunite a member with resident family or non-resident family who do not reside in the member's housing benefit location.

Note: The travel may be used for the member to visit their family, or for the family to visit the member.

9.3.29 Limits on reunion travel within a 12-month period

The combined maximum number of reunion travel credits a member can use under this Division within a 12-month period is one of the following.

- a. If the member has unaccompanied resident family only — 6 credits.

- e. If the member has accompanied resident family and non-resident family — 2 credits.
- f. If the member has non-resident family only — 1 credit.

Note: Recreation leave travel is also provided to members who have no resident family.

Note: The number of reunion travel credits a member is eligible for is provided under the following:

- a. For reunion travel to see resident family, one of the following.
 - i. For a member on a flexible service determination — section 9.3.33E.
 - ii. For any other member — section 9.3.33D.
- b. For reunion travel to see non-resident family, section 9.3.39J.

9.3.31 Using reunion travel credits

1. A member's reunion travel credits may be used by the member or one of the following.
 - a. If using a reunion travel credit under subdivision 2 — the member's resident family.
 - b. If using a reunion travel credit under subdivision 3 — any of the following.
 - i. The member's resident family.
 - ii. The member's non-resident family.
2. A reunion travel credit cannot be used for a member's resident family or non-resident family to travel if all of the following apply.

- a. The resident family or non-resident family will travel to or from a location that will result in them being required to isolate.
- b. The requirement to isolate is known before the travel commences.
- 3. If the member is to be absent from duty on the days they travel using a reunion travel credit, the member must be on one of the following to use a reunion travel credit.
 - a. A type of leave.
 - b. A type of short absence.
 - c. A nonworking period.

9.3.32 How reunion travel credits are reduced

- 1. A member's reunion travel credits are reduced by all the following.
 - a. If the benefit is taken using subsection 9.3.33.1 — one credit for each person who travels using the member's reunion travel credits.
 - b. If the benefit is taken using subsection 9.3.33.3 — the number of credits used.
 - c. If all of the following apply — one credit.
 - i. The member serves on temporary duty in the same location as their resident family.
 - ii. The member is not required for duty for 2 or more days in a row.
- 2. For the purpose of paragraph 1.c, location means the location that would be the member's housing benefit location if the temporary duty location was the member's primary service location.

9.3.33 Benefit for each reunion travel credit

- 1. If the travel is booked by Defence, the reunion travel credit is all the following between the locations specified in subsection 2.
 - a. Door-to-door travel.
 - b. A return economy class airfare.
- 2. Travel under subsection 1 or 3 is to be between a location in paragraph a. and a location in paragraph b.
 - a. One of the following.
 - i. The location the member is performing duty.
 - ii. If the member's primary service location is a seagoing ship, seagoing submarine or seagoing flight — the port in Australia where the member is.
 - b. One of the following.
 - i. If the resident family or non-resident family live in Australia, the location of their home.
 - ii. If the resident family or non-resident family do not live in Australia, the nearest international terminal in Australia to the member's primary service location that has flights to or from the country where the resident family or non-resident family live.

3. If travel is not booked by Defence, a reunion travel credit is the lesser of the following.
 - a. The value of the benefit provided is one of the following.
 - i. If the travel includes air travel — the value of the benefit provided under subsection 1 and calculated under section 9.1.8.
 - ii. If the travel does not include air travel — an amount up to the normal departmental liability under section 9.1.7 that would have been payable.
 - b. The actual total cost of door-to-door travel and airfares for the person travelling on the reunion travel credit.

Note 1: A member may use one reunion travel credit under this subsection for multiple people to travel if it does not exceed the value of the benefit that would be provided for one person to travel under section 9.1.8.

Note 2: The benefit under this subsection is paid by reimbursement.

9.3.33A Using multiple reunion travel credits

A member may use more than one reunion travel credit under this Division at the same time if all the following apply.

- a. The CDF is satisfied that the use of more than one reunion travel credit at a time is reasonable.
- b. Two or more of the member's resident or non-resident family are travelling to the member's duty location.
- c. The member has the required number of reunion travel credits.

9.3.33B Additional benefits for each reunion travel credit – COVID-19

1. This section applies to a member if they use a reunion travel credit under this Division and are required to isolate as a consequence of being in a place that is in connection with the reunion travel.

Note: This section does not apply to resident family or non-resident family travelling on a member's reunion travel credit.
2. A member is eligible for additional benefits if they have not used a reunion travel credit under section 9.3.31 in the lesser of the following periods.
 - a. The period 6 months before the reunion travel credit is to be used.
 - b. If the CDF is satisfied there are exceptional circumstances — a period less than 6 months before the reunion travel credit is to be used.
3. A member cannot receive additional benefits under this section more than twice within a 12-month period.
4. The member is not eligible for a payment for a meal that has been provided to the person at no cost.
5. In this section, additional benefits means any of the following.

- a. If the place of isolation is directed by State or Territory authorities and is not the member's usual residence — the cost of the accommodation in which the member is required to isolate.
- b. If the place of isolation is not directed by State or Territory authorities and it is not practical for the person to complete the isolation period at their usual residence, one of the following.
 - i. If available — access to a quarantine residence.
 - ii. If a quarantine residence is not available — travelling allowance payable under section 9.5.35.
- c. Subject to subsection 5, if a member is occupying a quarantine residence, the sum of the amounts for the following meals that corresponds with the location of the member in column A of the table in Annex 9.5.A Part 4 that the member is eligible to receive meal supplement allowance for.

 - b. The amount that would have been incurred if the travel had been taken by a member and the travel had been arranged by Defence Member and Family Support.
5. Multiple visits to and from the approved visitor's home location during the approved period may not be reimbursed or paid for.

Exception: In exceptional circumstances, the CDF may approve the reimbursement of travel costs incurred if the approved visitor is required to return to their home location during the approved period.

6. The approved visitor may choose to stay beyond the approved period. The costs that may be reimbursed for travel after the approved period are limited. The CDF may only approve the lesser of the following costs.
 - a. The cost of the return journey incurred by the approved visitor. The approved visitor must produce receipts for the travel to allow for reimbursement.
 - b. The cost that would have been incurred if the travel had been taken by a member and if the return journey had been arranged by Defence Member and Family Support.

9.3.72 Travel by private vehicle

1. The CDF may approve travel by private vehicle when both the following conditions are met.
 - a. The approved visitor wishes to travel by private vehicle.
 - b. The duration of the journey is considered reasonable. To determine if the journey is reasonable the CDF must consider the following factors.
 - i. The distance to be travelled.
 - ii. The time it would take to travel the distance.
2. The CDF may approve the reimbursement of the lesser of the following costs when the approved visitor travels by private vehicle approved under subsection 1.
 - a. The amount for fuel incurred by the approved visitor during the approved period. The approved visitor must produce receipts for the fuel to allow for reimbursement.
 - b. The vehicle allowance payable under section 9.6.25 for the distance travelled.

Note: This does not include the cost of tolls, parking fees, traffic fines or parking tickets.

9.3.73 Assistance with accommodation

1. The CDF may approve commercial accommodation up to the relevant rate in Annex 9.5.A Part 1 column C.
2. The accommodation must be within a reasonable distance from the hospital where the eligible person is located, having regard to the circumstances.
3. The CDF may approve accommodation at a higher rate than set under subsection 1 when both the following criteria are met.
 - a. The accommodation is located near the member's hospital.
 - b. The cost of travel to and from the closest hotel within the allowable cost would exceed the savings of staying in that hotel.
4. If the approved visitor arranges their own accommodation prior to the visit being approved, the CDF may approve the reimbursement of the lesser of the following costs.
 - a. The cost of the accommodation incurred by the approved visitor. The approved visitor must produce receipts for the accommodation to allow for reimbursement.
 - b. The cost of the accommodation that would have been incurred if the visit has been arranged by Defence Member and Family Support.

9.3.74 Assistance with meals

1. The CDF may approve the reimbursement of the lesser of the following meal costs.
 - a. The cost of meals incurred by the approved visitor. The approved visitor must produce receipts for the meals to allow for reimbursement.

Exception: The approved visitor is not eligible for reimbursement for any alcoholic beverages purchased.
 - b. The meal costs that would have been paid under Annex 9.5.A Part 4.

9.3.75 When the member's condition changes

1. If the member's condition improves and their condition is no longer classified by a medical authority as very seriously ill or seriously ill, the benefits provided under this Division ceases 24 hours after the approved person is informed of the member's reclassification.

3.	the location where the member lived immediately before starting full-time service	—
4.	any other location in Australia	the cost of the travel is no more than the benefit in item 1.

9.3.77A Recognised other persons

A recognised other person is eligible for the travel benefits under this Division that would apply if they were resident family if the CDF approves it after considering the individual circumstances of the recognised other person.

9.3.78 Member not living with their resident family at time of death

If a member is not living with their resident family at the time of death, the basic travel benefits in Part 1 of this Chapter apply to the resident family.

9.3.79 Deceased member's partner also a member

The travel benefits in this Division apply when the deceased member's partner is a member.

9.3.80 Means of travel

1. Resident family travelling on the death of a member are eligible for travel by the most economical and practical means.
2. If the member's resident family travel by means that are not the most economical both the following apply.
 - a. The maximum benefit is the cost of travel by the most economical means.
 - b. The member must pay any costs in excess of the amount in paragraph a. before the travel is undertaken.

9.3.81 Travel by coach

1. Travel by coach may only be approved as the most economical means for one of these reasons.
 - a. It is the only means available.
 - b. The resident family request it as the most appropriate.
2. In all other instances travel by coach should be limited. It can be used if it is the only way resident family can be taken to or from the transport used for the major part of the journey.

9.3.82 Class of travel

Resident family may upgrade their class of travel. If they do, the Commonwealth will pay only for the cost of travel by the most economical means and class set out in Part 1 of this Chapter.

9.3.83 Baggage

If baggage is included with furniture and effects, the insurance provisions for removal on death of a member under Chapter 6 Part 5 Division 11 will apply.

9.3.84 Deferral of a resident family's travel

Resident family may defer travel for no more than 12 months from the date of the member's death.

Division 11: Travel for representational purposes

9.3.85 Member accompanied on business travel within Australia

1. A member is not eligible to have their partner accompany them on Defence business travel within Australia using a benefit provided under this Determination unless the CDF is satisfied that, considering the purpose of the travel, it is demonstrably in the interests of the Commonwealth.
2. If the CDF approves accompanied travel on Defence business within Australia, the member is eligible for all the following, as applicable.
 - a. The reasonable additional cost of accommodation.
 - b. The partner's transportation cost by the same mode and class of travel as the member. This is the only transportation cost payable for the member's partner.
 - c. Costs incurred for meals, up to the same daily limit as the member's eligibility for meals under Annex 9.5.A Part 4 for travel on Defence business within Australia.

Part 4: Leave travel

9.4.1 Overview

This Part details the travel benefits that a member can use with their leave.

2.	has no partner but has children who are resident family living with them	the member is not eligible for recreation leave travel.
3.	has no partner, and has children not living with them	their nominated family is their children, or another person the CDF approves under section 9.4.4 as their closest relative.
4.	has a partner, but has no resident family because the couple do not live together	their nominated family is their partner.

3. If the member's nominated family normally live at separate locations, the member may alternate between those locations.
4. The member must notify any relevant change in family circumstances. A relevant change is one which could affect their eligibility for recreation leave travel.

9.4.4 CDF approval of closest relative

1. This section applies to a member whose nominated family would be a parent or child under table item 1 or 3 of the table in subsection 9.4.3.2. It applies only if the CDF is satisfied on either of these two grounds.
- It is not practical for the member to visit the relative, or the member is estranged from the relative.
 - The member has closer ties to a person other than the relative.
2. The CDF may approve a person as the member's closest relative. The CDF must consider the nature and length of their relationship. Any of these relationships could apply.
- Blood.
 - Law.
 - Traditional kinship.

Note: An approval under this section is expected to apply long-term. The member should only seek a new approval after a significant change in family circumstances.

9.4.4A Interaction with other travel and reunion benefits

The combined total number of the following types of travel must not exceed 7 in the same 12-month period.

- a. Recreation leave travel under Division 1.
- b. Remote location leave travel under Division 4.
- c. Reunion travel for members under Part 3 Division 4.

Note: For the purpose of counting the number of trips, one reunion travel credit is equal to one trip.

Division 1: Recreation leave travel

9.4.5 Purpose

This Division enables a member who has no resident family, including a trainee, to travel away from their housing benefit location while on leave or during course breaks to visit their nominated family, or in limited circumstances, another location.

9.4.5A Members this Division applies to

This Division applies to a member who meets the following.

- a. They are a member who has no resident family.
- b. They are on recreation leave or a course break.
- c. They are not on one of the following.
 - i. A long-term posting overseas.
 - ii. Short-term duty overseas.

9.4.6 Eligibility for recreation leave travel within Australia

1. Subject to subsection 2, a member is eligible for recreation leave travel if the CDF is satisfied of any of the following.
 - a. All of the following apply.
 - i. The member's nominated family is in Australia.
 - ii. The member's nominated family is not at the member's housing benefit location.
 - iii. The member is going to visit their nominated family during the period of leave.
 - b. The member has no nominated family.
2. A member must not knowingly use recreation leave travel to travel to a place that would require them to isolate on their return to their housing benefit location.

9.4.7 Recreation leave travel benefit

1. Recreation leave travel is the return travel for the member from the location they are performing duty to one of the following.
 - a. If the member's nominated family is in Australia — to the location where their nominated family live.
 - b. If the member has no nominated family — to the nearest capital city.
2. Despite subsection 1, a member who takes their recreation leave travel in connection with a removal under Division 4 of Part 5 to Chapter 6 can use their return travel to travel to one of the following.
 - a. The location they took the travel from.

- b. Their new housing benefit location.
- 3. Recreation leave travel is limited to the following costs.
 - a. The cost of travel by the most economical means.
 - b. Door-to-door travel costs.

9.4.8 Number of recreation leave travel trips

- 1. A trainee may be provided with up to 3 return trips in a financial year, including any graduation trip.
- 2. Any other eligible member, including a member undergoing training, may be provided with one return trip in a financial year.
- 3. If a member cannot be granted their recreation leave travel benefit for Service reasons, they may apply for the CDF to defer it once only, into the following financial year. They must still meet all the conditions for eligibility in that following year.
- 4. A member may be recalled from leave for Service reasons while using a recreation leave travel benefit. In this case, they are taken not to have used their travel benefit.

9.4.9 Travel in advance of eligibility

The CDF may grant a member recreation leave travel in advance of their next year's eligibility. They will lose that benefit for that next year.

Exception: This advance cannot be granted unless it is reasonable to expect that the member will be eligible in the next year.

9.4.10 Excess travel costs

A member who chooses to travel by means that are not the most economical must do both the following.

- a. Pay any travel costs above the normal departmental liability.
- b. Pay those excess costs before the booking is finalised. They pay them to the Collector of Relevant Money.

9.4.11 Offset of benefit for travel to alternative destination

- 1. A member can put the value of their benefit towards the cost of travel to meet their nominated family in a destination alternative to the place where the nominated family normally lives in Australia. One of these conditions must be met.
 - a. The CDF is satisfied that their nominated family is located at the alternative destination.
 - b. The member's benefit under section 9.4.3 is to the capital city nearest their housing benefit location, and they wish to go somewhere else.
- 2. The maximum benefit is the lesser of the following.
 - a. The cost of the actual travel.

- b. The cost of Defence travel to where the nominated family normally live, by the most economical means.

9.4.12 Vehicle allowance for trip to transport terminal

1. A member is eligible for vehicle allowance for the trip their vehicle makes from their residence to a transport terminal and back again. They do not have to be present for the whole of that journey. They could have been dropped off at the terminal to continue their journey on recreation leave travel at Commonwealth expense.
2. Payment of vehicle allowance under subsection 1 must not be more than the normal departmental liability.

9.4.13 Transfer of benefit

1. A member may choose to transfer their benefit to the nominated family. This is to allow one or more of the nominated family to travel from their home to where the member is serving, and back again.
2. If the member chooses to transfer travel, the Commonwealth will pay only up to what the member would have been eligible for under section 9.4.7, Recreation leave travel benefit.
3. A member cannot transfer a benefit under subsection 1 if the member's place of duty is in a location that the nominated family would be required to isolate on entering that location.

9.4.14 Member with family overseas

1. The CDF may grant recreation leave travel under this Division to a member whose nominated family is living overseas.
2. The member is eligible for return travel to an international terminal in Australia. The terminal must be the one nearest their housing benefit location from which a flight goes to where the nominated family lives. The travel must be by the most economical means.

9.4.15 Recreation leave travel – trainees

The CDF may approve recreation leave travel under this Division for a trainee on all the following conditions, in addition to relevant conditions in this Division.

- a. The travel is during a course break, or on graduation.
- b. Approval is subject to Service requirements and course structures.
- c. Travel may be refused for disciplinary reasons, or because of unsatisfactory academic progress, or for any other reason related to the member's training.

Division 2: Pre-deployment leave travel

9.4.16 Purpose

This Division allows a member to travel when a short absence – pre-deployment has been granted.

9.4.17 Benefit

1. A member is eligible for pre-deployment leave travel if all of the following apply.
 - a. The member has been granted a short absence – pre-deployment.
 - b. If the member has nominated family — the nominated family is not at the member's housing benefit location.
 - c. The member will not be going to a place that would require the member to isolate on their return to their housing benefit location.
- 1A. Pre-deployment leave travel is the cost of travel from the member's location in Australia to one of the following.
 - a. If the member's nominated family is in Australia — to the location of their nominated family.
 - b. If the member has no nominated family — to the nearest capital city.
2. Pre-deployment leave travel is provided on a door-to-door basis.

9.4.18 Member not eligible

If a member has a recreation leave travel benefit, it must be used instead of a pre-deployment leave travel benefit.

9.4.19 Offset of benefit

A member can put the cost of their benefit towards the cost of travel to somewhere other than their housing benefit location or family benefit location. Both these conditions must be met.

- a. The member pays any excess costs involved.
- b. The authorised person is satisfied on both these counts.
 - i. Special circumstances exist.
 - ii. The member's need for travel is consistent with purpose of a short absence – pre-deployment

Division 3: Post-deployment leave travel

9.4.20 Purpose

This Division provides a member with travel within Australia when leave has been granted on return from a deployment.

9.4.21 Benefit

1. A member is eligible for post-deployment leave travel if all of the following apply.
 - a. The member has returned to Australia from an area that attracted a short absence – pre-deployment.
 - b. If the member has nominated family — the nominated family is not at the member's housing benefit location.
 - c. The member will not be going to a place that would require the member to isolate on their return to their housing benefit location.

1. A member's eligibility under section 9.5.41 ends if they do any of the following.
 - a. Leave the location to perform duty somewhere else.
 - b. Take recreation leave.
 - c. Undertake reunion travel.
2. This table sets out the eligibility of the member when they return to the location after losing their eligibility under subsection 1.

Item	If the member...	then they are eligible for to the rate of travelling allowance that applies to them under...
1.	a. leaves the location to perform duty somewhere else, and b. returns to the location after more than 7 days	section 9.5.35 or section 9.5.39.
2.	returns to the location under any other circumstance	section 9.5.41 starting at midnight on the day they restart duty at the location.

3. A member to whom subsection 1 applies is eligible for an additional amount of allowance to pay to keep accommodation at the location for up to 1 week while they are absent from it.
4. The CDF may approve an additional amount of allowance to assist the member to keep the accommodation for longer than 1 week, after considering all of these factors.
 - a. The reason for and the length of the absence.
 - b. The expected period the member will stay at the location after their return.
 - c. The cost of keeping the accommodation during the absence.
 - d. If there is alternative accommodation at the location.
 - e. Any other factor relevant to the absence.

9.5.43 Accommodation and meals for resident family

1. This section applies to a member who has been directed to take resident family with them on a journey for representational purposes.
2. The member is eligible for the following for their resident family during the travel period.
 - a. For accommodation — one of the following.
 - i. If the member's resident family occupies a room as the sole or first occupant — travelling allowance at the rate that applies to the member under section 9.5.35.
 - ii. If the member's resident family occupies a room on a shared basis — travelling allowance at 20% of the rate that applies to the member under section 9.5.35.
 - iii. If the member's resident family is a child under 6 years old — travelling allowance at 10% of the rate that applies to the member under section 9.5.35 for accommodation.
 - b. For meals during the travel period — one of the following.
 - i. For resident family under 10 years old — travelling allowance at half the rate that applies to the member under section 9.5.35 for the meals.
 - ii. For any other resident family — travelling allowance at the rate that applies to the member under section 9.5.35 for the meals.

9.5.44 Overnight stay following a period of Reserve service

A member on Reserve service is eligible for travelling allowance under sections 9.5.35 or 9.5.39 for an overnight stay after a period of Reserve service if CDF is satisfied that the member should stay overnight on work health and safety grounds.

9.5.45 Eligibility for incidentals at annual Reserve camp

A member is eligible for incidentals under the table in section 9.5.35 if they are on Reserve service in either of these circumstances.

- a. During the period of a bivouac or camp of continuous training with their unit or sub-unit.

3.	no resident family or has accompanied resident family and no unaccompanied resident family and occupying living-in accommodation (contribution for accommodation and meals)	the cost of board less amount equal to appropriate contribution for accommodation and meals under Chapter 7 Parts 4 and 9.	rent plus any additional charge for utilities less amount equal to appropriate contribution for rent and meals under Chapter 7 Parts 8 and 9.

Part 2: Amounts for travel after 21 days – meals

The weekly maximum rate for a member who occupies a type of accommodation in column A that meets the condition in column B is the rate in column C of the following table.

Item	Column A Accommodation	Column B Condition	Column C Rate ($)
1.	A boarding house, hotel or motel where the tariff is not all inclusive	Cooking facilities are not provided	907.90
		Cooking facilities are provided	508.42
2.	Rental accommodation	-	508.42

Part 6: Vehicle allowance

Division 1: General

9.6.4 Purpose

Vehicle allowance assists a member with reasonable costs when they are authorised to use a private vehicle in Australia.

9.6.5 Member this Part applies to

This Part applies to a member, including a member on Reserve service, who undertakes an authorised journey of a kind mentioned in the sections in this table.

Item	Authorised journey	Reference
1.	Authorised travel – on duty	Division 2 section 9.6.11
2.	Conditions	Chapter 6 Part 5A
3.	Public transport stoppages	Division 4 section 9.6.19
4.	Recall outside normal working hours	Division 4 section 9.6.20
5.	Recreation leave travel by private vehicle	Division 4 section 9.6.21
6.	Marriage or ADF recognition of partnership	Division 4 section 9.6.22

9.6.6 Member this Part does not apply to

This Part does not apply to a member if they meet any of the following.

- a. They are eligible for travel on ceasing continuous full-time service.
- b. They hold a rank of Brigadier or higher, unless the CDF has approved private vehicle as the most economical means of travel for the member under section 9.1.3.

9.6.7 Definitions

In this Part, the following apply.

Additional costs means any of the following costs, excluding parking or traffic fines.

- a. Registration or insurance fees levied as a result of eligibility for vehicle allowance.
- b. Bridge, road and ferry tolls.
- c. Parking fees in a restricted parking area, if they are reasonable because of the distance from the place of duty to the nearest unrestricted parking area.

Authorised means authorised for an allowance under this Part by the CDF.

Greater efficiency means the use of a private vehicle results in greater efficiency if any of the following are met.

- a. Using the vehicle allows the member to perform duties more efficiently than the use of the normal means of travel.

- b. Using the vehicle enables the most effective use of Defence personnel and vehicle resources.
- c. The CDF is satisfied that the member's personal interests would be harmed if they used the normal means of travel.

Private vehicle means one of the following.

- a. For travel on removal by a member, their resident family or recognised other person — a motor vehicle owned by the member, their resident family or recognised other person that is to be removed.
- b. For other travel by a member — a motor vehicle they own, hire or borrow.

Saving to Defence means that Defence would pay less for a member to use a private vehicle than the normal means of travel.

9.6.8 Insurance

- 1. The Commonwealth will not pay for any financial liability or loss if a private vehicle on an authorised journey is involved in an accident.
- 2. The member is responsible for checking how their insurance company classifies a vehicle used to travel on duty. If they classify it as a business vehicle and charge an additional premium, the member must arrange insurance as necessary.
- 3. The member may be reimbursed any additional premium if they are eligible for additional costs under Division 5 section 9.6.27, Additional vehicle allowance.
- 4. If the Commonwealth is found liable for damage from an accident involving the private vehicle, it may claim against the member to recover any damages awarded against it.

9.6.9 Journey varied or not made

This table sets out what happens when a member's journey is varied or not made.

Item	If a member's authorised journey is...	then they...
1.	shortened	must repay any vehicle allowance they received that covered the part of the journey they did not make.
2.	extended	are eligible for an additional amount to cover the costs of the extended journey.
3.	not made	must repay all the vehicle allowance they received.

Division 2: Authorised travel on duty and recall to duty from paid leave

9.6.10 Purpose

This Division sets out a member's benefits when they travel by private vehicle.

- a. On duty.
- b. On recall to duty from recreation or long service leave.

9.6.11 Authorised travel – on duty

1. A member's travel on duty in a private vehicle may be authorised by the CDF if the use of the vehicle has any of these results.
 - a. Greater efficiency.
 - b. A saving to the Commonwealth.
 - c. No disadvantage to the ADF.
2. Travel by private vehicle during normal working hours may take longer than it would take by the normal means of travel. In this case, the additional time will be taken off the member's recreation leave. If the travel is to do with Reserve training, the additional time will not be part of the member's training commitment.
3. For a member on continuous full-time service who does not have to be absent overnight from their residence in their housing benefit location, the authorised travel includes any travel between any of these places.
 - a. Their residence in their housing benefit location.
 - b. Their primary service location.
 - c. The place where their duty is to be performed.

Note: The allowance may be reduced by the return cost of public transport from home to work in some cases.

9.6.12 Recall from leave

1. A member recalled to duty from recreation leave or long service leave is on duty between the following days.
 - a. The day they depart from the leave location.
 - b. The day they return to the duty location.
2. If the member is authorised to use a private vehicle for the journeys in subsection 1, they are eligible for vehicle allowance.
3. The member may have costs on those journeys they would not otherwise have paid. In this case, they may be reimbursed up to what they would have been paid if they had travelled on duty by the normal means.

Note: Payment is subject to the limits in Division 5 section 9.6.28, Limit to benefit.

9.6.13 Benefit – travel on duty

1. For authorised travel on duty, a member is eligible for these amounts.
 - a. Vehicle allowance at the rate worked out under Division 5 section 9.6.25.
 - b. Any increase that applies under Division 5 section 9.6.26.
 - c. Additional costs, if the use of the vehicle results in greater efficiency or a saving to Defence.
2. The member's benefit under subsection 1 must be reduced if all of the following apply.
 - a. The travel does not require an overnight absence.
 - b. The total distance travelled is more than the return journey from one of the following by the normal means of travel.
 - i. If the member is on continuous full-time service — the member's primary service location.
 - ii. If the member is providing Reserve service — the member's service location for the day.
3. The benefit must be reduced by the amount that the travel between the member's residence in their housing benefit location and primary service location would have cost by public transport.

Division 4: Authorised travel on other journeys

9.6.18 Purpose

This Division sets out a member's benefits when they travel by private vehicle in any of these circumstances.

- a. During a public transport stoppage.
- b. On recall to duty outside their normal working hours.
- c. For recreation leave travel to a specified destination.
- d. For travel on their marriage or ADF recognition of their partnership.

9.6.19 Public transport stoppages

1. This section applies to a member who is required to use a private vehicle to travel between their residence and one of the following locations on a day there is a public transport stoppage.
 - a. If the member is on continuous full-time service — the member's primary service location.
 - b. If the member is providing Reserve service — the member's service location for the day.
- 1A. The member is eligible for vehicle allowance for the travel between the locations if all of the following apply.
 - a. The member does not normally use a private vehicle for the travel.
 - b. Other means of public transport meets either of the following.
 - i. Not available in the area they live in.
 - ii. Available in the area they live in, but it is impractical to use them.
2. The vehicle allowance would include the increased rate under Division 5 section 9.6.26 for any other members who travel in the vehicle.

9.6.20 Recall outside normal working hours

1. This section applies to a member who is recalled to duty to one of the following locations outside their normal working hours and is required to travel between their residence and one of the following locations for the purpose of the recall.
 - a. If the member is on continuous full-time service — the member's primary service location.
 - b. If the member is providing Reserve service — the member's service location for the day.
- 1A. The member is eligible for vehicle allowance for the travel between the locations if any of the following apply.
 - a. They are on continuous full-time service.

- b. They are on Reserve service and travel on a separate and additional journey to their service location.
- 2. This subsection applies to a member who meets both of these criteria.
 - a. The member is on continuous full-time service.
 - b. Due to a recall the member does not need to make their usual journey to or from duty.

The member's benefit under subsection 1 must be reduced by the amount that the usual travel would have cost.

9.6.21 Recreation leave travel by private vehicle

If a member has been granted recreation leave travel under section 9.4.6, the CDF may authorise the member to travel in a private vehicle between the location of their nominated family and either of the following locations.

- a. The member's housing benefit location.
- b. A location where a member is performing temporary duty.

Note: Travel costs for accommodation, meals and incidentals are not payable.

9.6.22 Marriage or ADF recognition of partnership

- 1. Part 3 Division 1 provides for a travel benefit for a member's new partner, on the member's marriage or ADF recognition of partnership, in some circumstances.
- 2. The member's partner may be authorised to undertake this travel in a private vehicle.
- 3. The member is then eligible for vehicle allowance for the partner's travel. All these rules must be observed.
 - b. The amount of vehicle allowance paid must not be more than the cost of the partner's travel by the most economical means.
 - c. There is no eligibility for additional costs.

Note 1: There is no eligibility for an additional amount of allowance for transporting the member as a passenger.

Note 2: Other passengers may attract the passenger component of vehicle allowance under section 9.6.26 if they are eligible for travel.

9.6.23 Benefit

A member is eligible for the sum of the following amounts while undertaking travel authorised under this Division.

- a. Vehicle allowance at the rate worked out under section 9.6.25.
- b. Unless this Division specifically prevents it, the following.
 - i. Any increase to the allowance that applies under section 9.6.26.
 - ii. Any additional costs.

Division 5: Vehicle allowance amounts and limits

9.6.24 Purpose

This Division sets out how vehicle allowance is worked out. It also shows how it can be increased and the limits to the amount that will be paid.

9.6.25 Amount of allowance and calculation of distance

1. The amount of vehicle allowance is worked out using the following formula.

$$\text{vehicle allowance} = \frac{A \times B}{100}$$

Where:

A is one of the following.

- a. The number of whole kilometres for the shortest route it is reasonable to take.
- b. The number of whole kilometres for a longer route set by the CDF.

B is, for a vehicle with an engine type in column A that has a capacity in column B, the rate in column C of the same item.

Item	Column A Engine type	Column B Engine capacity	Column C Rate per km (cents)
1.	Non-rotary	1600cc or less	78
2.	Non-rotary	1601cc – 2600cc	99
3.	Non-rotary	More than 2600cc	101
4.	Rotary	800cc or less	78
5.	Rotary	801cc – 1300cc	99
6.	Rotary	More than 1300cc	101
7.	Electric	–	78

2. In setting a longer route for the purpose of subsection 1, the CDF must be satisfied that the shortest route was not reasonable for the travel.

9.6.26 Increased rate for passengers, equipment etc

1. The rate of allowance under section 9.6.25 is increased by 1.06 cents per kilometre if the member meets any of the following.
 - a. They carry a passenger in the vehicle who would otherwise be eligible for travel expenses for the journey under this Determination.
 - b. They carry Commonwealth-owned or hired equipment, tools or materials that weigh at least 100 kg.
 - c. They tow a Commonwealth-owned or hired caravan or trailer.

2. The amount paid under subsection 1 must not exceed what a member would have been paid had the travel been by the most economical means.

9.6.27 Additional vehicle allowance

1. The CDF may approve an additional amount of vehicle allowance. The CDF must be satisfied that a member pays reasonable costs above the amount they are eligible for.
2. Costs arising out of non-standard vehicle modifications will not be reimbursed under this section.
3. The member must provide the CDF with written relevant information to support a claim for an additional amount. The information must be about the running costs of the vehicle over 12 months or as close as reasonably practical to that period. This table sets out the kind of information that may be relevant to a claim.

Item	Information that may be relevant
1.	Vehicle make, model, year, engine capacity, automatic or manual transmission.
2.	The period over which the claim is made.
3.	Estimated distance travelled on duty and private business.
4.	The total amount of vehicle allowance received over the nominated period.
5.	Vehicle usage – for example, is it used regularly or intermittently? is it used in city conditions or away from sealed roads?
6.	Depreciation. This is worked out by: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. establishing a vehicle's market value at the beginning of a nominated period, then b. deducting from that amount the vehicle's market value at the end of that period.
7.	Interest – the amount paid over the nominated period on a loan taken out to buy the vehicle.
8.	Comprehensive insurance. This includes the amount of premium paid, stamp duty, no-claim bonuses and any payment for removal of excess.
9.	Third party insurance, registration, driver's licence and motoring organisation subscription. Fees associated with each of these costs must be provided.
10.	Petrol – grade used, total expenditure over nominated period, prices generally paid.
11.	Repairs and maintenance. This includes both of the following. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Preventive or corrective maintenance, such as regular grease and oil changes, and replacement of oil filters, air cleaners, spark plugs and battery. b. Repairs and maintenance arising out of normal wear and tear, for example, replacement of brake pads or shoes, or a muffler.
12.	Relevant costs associated with damage caused by accident, adverse road conditions, etc. The member should give details of both of the following. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Circumstances leading to damage. b. Details of any settlement arising out of a claim against a comprehensive insurance policy or other party.
13.	Tyres – brand, type and size specifications. Wear and tear should be worked out using the formula below. $\frac{\text{Distance travelled on duty in nominated period}}{\text{Actual or expected tyre life (km)}} \times \text{Original tyre price ($)}$

9.6.28 Limit to benefit

A member who is authorised to travel by private vehicle may also be eligible for travel costs. In this case, there is a limit to their total benefit. The maximum amount they are eligible for is the lesser of a. and b.

- a. The sum of these two amounts.
 - i. The vehicle allowance the member would get for the journey.
 - ii. Travel costs under Part 5 of this Chapter for the actual period of the journey or for the allowable travel time, whichever is the lesser.
- b. The sum of the following amounts had the member travelled by the most economical means.
 - i. The costs of the fares of the member and any resident family, recognised other persons or other passengers who would otherwise travel at public expense.
 - ii. Travel costs as worked out under the following table.

Item	For a member...	travel costs are paid...
1.	who uses accommodation supplied through the Commonwealth's contracted service provider, as defined in section 9.0.3	in accordance with Part 5 Division 2.
2.	who does not meet the requirements of item 1	in accordance with Annex 9.5.A.

- iii. Any other charge to do with the journey.

Part 7: Aircraft allowance

9.7.1 Purpose

1. Aircraft allowance assists a member with reasonable costs when the CDF authorises them to travel by flying a private aircraft in any of these circumstances.
 - a. On temporary duty.
 - b. On posting, commencing an approved alternate located work agreement or involuntary separation.
 - c. On recreation leave or recall from recreation leave.
2. The provisions authorising aircraft allowance are based on those in Part 6 of this Chapter authorising vehicle allowance. The criteria in section 9.6.7 apply.

9.7.2 Member this Part applies to

1. This Part applies to a member who undertakes authorised travel by flying a private aircraft. This includes a member on Reserve service.
2. To be eligible for aircraft allowance, a member must meet both of these criteria.
 - a. They must hold an appropriate pilot's licence in force under the Air Navigation Act 1920 and the Air Navigation Regulations 1947.
 - b. They must comply with both of the following.
 - i. The Air Navigation Regulations 1947.
 - ii. Any requirements of the Department of Transport and Regional Services and the Civil Aviation Safety Authority.

9.7.3 When this Part does not apply

A member is not eligible for payment under this Part in relation to a light aircraft hired by the ADF.

9.7.4 Definitions

In this Part, the following apply.

Authorised means authorised for an allowance under this Part by the CDF.

Private aircraft means an aircraft that is registered in Australia and that the member is licensed to fly.

9.7.5 Authorised travel by private aircraft

1. A member's travel by flying a private aircraft may be authorised in the same way as travel by a private vehicle is authorised under Part 6 of this Chapter. The same circumstances and conditions apply.
2. For subsection 1 above, both of these conditions must apply.

- a. A private aircraft is the same as a private vehicle in relation to 'greater efficiency' under section 9.6.7.
- b. Aircraft allowance is the same as vehicle allowance in relation to 'a saving to the Commonwealth' under subsection 9.6.7.

Note: Decisions are made in the same way as they are for deciding vehicle allowance. They may rely on the decision-maker being satisfied that the member's personal interests would be harmed if they used the normal means of travel.

9.7.6 Benefit

1. This section applies to a member authorised to travel by flying a private aircraft instead of travelling by the most economical means of travel.
2. Subject to section 9.7.8, the member has all of these benefits for the travel.
 - a. The allowance worked out under section 9.7.7.
 - b. Travel costs under Part 5 of this Chapter that they would otherwise be eligible for.
 - c. Any unavoidable costs or charges they pay for the use of the aircraft. To qualify, they must be eligible for the reimbursement of additional costs under Part 6 for use of a private vehicle in the same circumstances.

9.7.7 Amount of allowance

The amount of allowance is worked out using this formula.

$$\frac{\text{Distance} \times \text{Hourly cost}}{\text{Cruising speed}}$$

Term	Definition
Distance	The distance must take into account these factors. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. It must be measured in nautical miles. b. It must be based on the straight-line ground distance between the airfield where the travel begins and the airfield where the travel ends. c. It may be adjusted, to take into account necessary fuel stops, and to be consistent with safe air navigation.
Cruising speed	The cruising speed of the aircraft in nautical miles an hour.
Hourly cost	If...	the hourly cost is...
	the member owns the aircraft	the hourly cost of operating the aircraft. This is based on budgeting figures for the aircraft, taking all these factors into account. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. The aircraft type, model and engine capacity. b. The yearly cost of operating the aircraft. c. The average yearly flying time of the aircraft.
	the member hires the aircraft	the hourly hire charge for the aircraft.

9.7.8 Limit to benefit

The member's total benefit for the travel must not be more than the sum of these two amounts.

- a. Fares and travel costs under Part 5 of this Chapter, worked out as if they were travelling by the normal means of travel. This includes the benefit for any passenger they are authorised to carry and who would otherwise travel.
- b. Any other relevant charge. This includes the cost of transporting any goods owned or hired by the Commonwealth that they are authorised to carry.

9.7.9 Insurance

1. A member must provide the CDF with written evidence that the aircraft is insured before the CDF can authorise the travel. The aircraft must be covered by both comprehensive and third party insurance.
2. If a private aircraft is authorised for use on duty, the Commonwealth will not accept responsibility for any financial liability or loss arising from an accident it is involved in.
3. If the Commonwealth is found liable for damage from an accident involving the aircraft, it may claim against the member to recover any damages awarded against it.

 - b. The person is not ordinarily in employment or working on their own account.

11.2.5 Some aspects of dependency

1. A child of a member is taken to have been wholly or partly dependent on a member at a time if the child would have been so dependent at that time but for an incapacity of the member as the result of an injury.
2. A child of a member who, immediately before the occurrence of an event, lived with the member is taken to have been wholly dependent on the member at the time of the occurrence of that event.
3. A child of a member who was born alive after the member's death is taken to have been born immediately before the member's death and to have been wholly dependent on the member at the time of the member's death.
4. A child of a member who was conceived before the time of an assessment of the member's SRC compensation mentioned in subsection 11.2.11.2, and was born alive after that time, is taken to have been born immediately before that time and to have been wholly dependent on the member at that time.

5. In deciding whether a child is or was dependent on a member at a time, none of these amounts payable for the child under the Social Security Act 1991 are to be taken into account.
 - a. Family allowance.
 - b. Family allowance supplement.
 - c. Child disability allowance.
 - d. Double orphan pension.

11.2.6 Damages or compensation recovered or received for the benefit of a member's resident family

1. A reference in this Division to SIA, ADB, compensation or damages paid or payable to a member's resident family includes a reference to SIA, ADB, compensation or damages paid or payable to a person other than the member's resident family for the benefit of the resident family.
2. A reference in this Division to compensation or damages received or recovered by a member's resident family includes a reference to compensation or damages received or recovered by a person other than the resident family for the benefit of the resident family.

Division 2: Additional death benefit

11.2.7 Entitlement to additional death benefit

1. An additional death benefit is payable in relation to a member under this Division if all these conditions are met.
 - a. The member meets both of the following conditions.
 - i. On or after 10 June 1997, the member suffered an injury, being an injury or disease for the purpose of the SRC Act.
 - ii. The injury results in the member's death, regardless of the date of the death.
 - b. The member is survived by any of these sets of people.
 - i. A partner.
 - ii. One or more dependent children.
 - iii. Both a partner and one or more dependent children.
 - c. SRC compensation in respect of the injury is payable to, or for the benefit of, the partner or one or more dependent children.
2. The ADB in relation to a member is the total of the amounts payable in relation to the member under this Division.
3. The ADB is payable in addition to any SRC compensation that is payable in relation to the member.

11.2.8 Calculation of the ADB

1. The partner of a deceased member is entitled to a payment of $47,395.78.
2. In addition to the partner amount (if any), an amount of $70,277.43 is payable for each person who was a dependent child of the member at the time of the member's death.

Note: The dollar amounts in this section are indexed.

11.2.9 Who the ADB is payable to

1. The ADB is payable to the partner.
2. Subsection 3 or 4 applies if the deceased member is survived by a dependent child and one of the following conditions is met.
 - a. The deceased member is not survived by a partner.
 - b. The partner does not have primary responsibility for the daily care of the child.
3. If the child is under 18 years old, the dependent child amount is payable to a person who has primary responsibility for the daily care of the child.
4. If the child is 18 or more years old, the dependent child amount is payable to the child.

Division 3: Severe injury adjustment

11.2.10 Entitlement to a severe injury adjustment

1. A severe injury adjustment is payable in relation to a member under this Division if the member meets all these conditions.
 - a. The member suffered a severe injury in relation to service in respect of which SRC Act compensation is payable.
 - b. The injury set out in paragraph a. of this subsection occurred on a date set out in the following table.

Item	If the claim was...	the severe injury must be...
1.	made in relation to an injury (other than a disease) for the purposes of the SRC Act	suffered on or after 10 June 1997 but before 1 July 2004.
2.	made in relation to an injury that is a disease for the purposes of the SRC Act	suffered on or after 10 June 1997.

- c. The degree of permanent impairment of the member as a result of the injury is finally determined, under section 24 of the SRC Act, to be not less than 80%.
2. The SIA in relation to the member is the total of the amounts payable in relation to the member under this Division.
3. The SIA is payable in addition to any SRC compensation that is payable in relation to the member in respect of the injury.
4. The SIA is payable whether or not the member makes a request, under section 43 of the SRC Act, that the SRC compensation in respect of the injury not be paid to, or for the benefit of, the member.
5. The SIA is payable whether or not the member chooses, under section 45 of the SRC Act, to begin proceedings in relation to damages.

11.2.11 Calculation of the SIA

1. The basic amount of SIA in relation to a member is this amount.

A - B

where:

- A is the total of the maximum amount of permanent impairment compensation payable under the SRC Act, plus $68,063.38.
 - B is the total amount of SRC Act compensation payable (or that would be payable but for a request under section 43 of the SRC Act or an election under section 45 of that Act) to the member in respect of the injury.
2. An amount of $70,277.43 is payable, in addition to the basic amount, for each person who was a dependent child of the member at the time of the assessment of the member's SRC compensation under section 24 of the SRC Act.

Note: The dollar amounts in this section are indexed.

11.2.12 Who the SIA is payable to

1. The SIA in relation to a member is payable to the member.
2. If an amount is payable under subsection 11.2.11.2 and the member does not have primary responsibility for the daily care of the child, the payment is payable to the person who has primary responsibility for the daily care of the child.

11.2.13 Interim payment of SIA

1. This section applies if, under section 25 of the SRC Act, both these conditions are met.
 - a. An interim payment of SRC compensation is made to the member in respect of the injury.
 - b. The amount has been assessed on an interim determination that the degree of permanent impairment of the member is not less than 80%.
2. An interim payment of SIA is payable to the member.
3. The interim payment amount is this amount.

A – B

where:

- A is the total of the maximum amount of permanent impairment compensation payable under the SRC Act, plus $68,063.38.
- B is the maximum total amount of SRC Act compensation payable (or that would be payable but for a request under section 43 of the SRC Act or an election under section 45 of that Act) to the member in respect of the injury.
4. When, under section 24 of the SRC Act, the degree of permanent impairment of the member as a result of the injury is finally determined, there is payable to the member an amount of SIA equal to the difference (if any) between the basic amount and the interim payment amount.

Note: The dollar amounts in this section are indexed.

Division 4: Avoidance of double benefits

11.2.14 Notice of proceedings against a third party

1. This section applies if all these conditions are met.
 - a. SIA or ADB is payable (or would be payable but for this Division) in relation to a member in respect of an injury.
 - b. The injury happened in circumstances that appear to create a legal liability in a person (other than the Commonwealth, a Commonwealth authority or an employee of the Commonwealth) to pay damages in respect of the injury.
 - c. After 9 February 1998, the member or their resident family begins proceedings to recover damages from the person.
2. The member or their resident family, as the case requires, must notify the Secretary in writing of the proceedings not later than 7 days after the day the member or their resident family begins the proceedings.

11.2.15 SIA or ADB not payable if damages are recovered

1. This section applies if both these conditions are met.
 - a. But for this section, SIA or ADB would be payable to a member or their resident family in respect of an injury suffered by the member.
 - b. The member or their resident family recovered, or recovers, damages in respect of the injury.
2. If the member or their resident family recovers damages on or after 9 February 1998, the member or their resident family, as the case requires, must notify the Secretary in writing, within 28 days after the day the damages are recovered, of the recovery of the damages and the amount of damages.
3. If SIA or ADB was paid to the member or their resident family before the damages are recovered, the member or their resident family, as the case requires, must repay an amount equal to the amount (if any) of SIA or ADB that, when added to the amount of SRC compensation (if any) paid to the member or their resident family, does not exceed the amount of the damages.
4. SIA or ADB is not payable to the member or their resident family after the day the member or their resident family recovered, or recovers, the damages.
5. Subsection 3 does not apply if the damages were recovered in proceedings instituted by the member under section 45 of the SRC Act, or by way of a settlement of the proceedings.
6. Subsection 4 does not apply if the damages were recovered in any of these ways.
 - a. As a result of proceedings begun by the member after making an election under section 45 of the SRC Act.
 - b. As a result of proceedings begun or taken over by the Commonwealth against a person (other than the Commonwealth, a Commonwealth authority or an employee of the Commonwealth).
 - c. In a settlement of those proceedings.

7. If a member or their resident family satisfies the Secretary that a part of the damages recovered by the member or their resident family was not in respect of death, permanent impairment or non-economic loss as a result of the injury, this section has effect in relation to that member or their resident family, as the case requires, as if the amount of the damages recovered by the member or their resident family were an amount equal to so much (if any) of the damages as was in respect of death, permanent impairment or non-economic loss as a result of the injury.
8. In this section, damages does not include an amount of damages paid under section 76 of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986.

11.2.16 No double benefit if State workers' compensation is received

1. This section applies if both these conditions are met.
 - a. But for this section, SIA or ADB would be payable in relation to a member or their resident family in respect of an injury suffered by the member.
 - b. The member or their resident family received, or receives, State workers' compensation in respect of the injury.
2. SIA or ADB is not payable in relation to the member or their resident family in respect of the injury.
3. If SIA or ADB is paid to the member or their resident family before the State workers' compensation is received, the member or their resident family, as the case requires, must pay back an amount equal to the amount of SIA or ADB so paid.

11.2.17 No double benefit if State compensation is received

1. This section applies if both these conditions are met.
 - a. But for this section, SIA or ADB would be payable in relation to a member or their resident family in respect of an injury suffered by the member.
 - b. The member or their resident family received, or receives, State compensation in respect of the injury.
2. The amount of SIA or ADB payable in relation to the member or their resident family in respect of the injury is so much (if any) of the amount that would be payable but for this section as, when added to the amount (if any) of SRC compensation determined in respect of the injury in relation to the member or their resident family, exceeds the amount of State compensation.
3. If SIA or ADB is paid to the member or their resident family before the State compensation is received, the member or their resident family, as the case requires, must repay an amount equal to the amount (if any) of the SIA or ADB that, when added to the amount of SRC compensation (if any) determined in respect of the injury in relation to the member or their resident family, does not exceed the amount of State compensation.
4. If a member or their resident family satisfies the Secretary that a part of the State compensation received by the member or their resident family was not in respect of death, permanent impairment or non-economic loss as a result of the injury, this section has effect in relation to that member or their resident family, as the case requires, as if the amount of the State compensation received by the member or their resident family were an amount equal to so much of the State compensation as was in respect of death, permanent impairment or non-economic loss as a result of the injury.

11.2.18 Statutory declaration as to State workers' compensation etc.

The Secretary may require a member or their resident family to give to the Secretary a statutory declaration stating whether any damages, State workers' compensation or State compensation has been paid to, or for the benefit of, the member or their resident family for an injury for which, but for section 11.2.15, 11.2.16, or 11.2.17, SIA or ADB would be payable.

11.2.19 Reduction of SIA or ADB if similar compensation received before commencement

1. Under this Division, a person is not required to repay an amount of compensation of the same kind as SIA or ADB that meets the following.
 - a. It was paid before 9 February 1998.
 - b. It was paid in respect of an injury for which SIA or ADB is payable under this Part.
2. The amount of SIA or ADB payable to a person under this Part is reduced by the amount of compensation a person has received under subsection 1.

11.2.20 Recovery of SIA or ADB that is repayable

The amount of SIA or ADB repayable under section 11.2.15, 11.2.16 or 11.2.17 is recoverable in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due to the Commonwealth.

Division 5: Authorisation of payment and review of decisions

11.2.21 Payment of SIA or ADB

1. The Secretary may authorise the payment to a person of an amount of SIA or ADB payable under this Part in relation to a member.
2. Without limiting the discretion of the Secretary under subsection 1, the Secretary may refuse to authorise a payment to a person if the person meets either of these conditions.
 - a. They failed, without reasonable excuse, to notify the Secretary under Division 4 section 11.2.14 of proceedings mentioned in that section.
 - b. They refused, or failed without reasonable excuse, to give a statutory declaration under Division 4 section 11.2.18.
3. If an amount is payable to a person who is under a legal disability, Chapter 1 Part 6 section 1.6.3 applies to the payment as if a reference to the CDF were a reference to the Secretary.

11.2.22 Notice of decisions

1. The Secretary must give notice of a decision to authorise, or not to authorise, a payment of an amount of SIA or ADB in relation to a member.
2. The notice must be given to each person who is, to the Secretary's knowledge, one of the member's resident family.
3. The notice must have with it a statement by the Secretary of the Secretary's reasons for making the decision.
4. The notice must include a statement to the effect that, if dissatisfied with the decision, the person may do these things.
 - a. In the case of notice of a decision (other than a decision made by the Secretary under section 11.2.23 confirming or varying an earlier reviewable decision of the Secretary) – request reconsideration of the decision under section 11.2.23.
 - b. In the case of notice of a decision made by the Secretary under section 11.2.23 confirming or varying an earlier reviewable decision of the Secretary – apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of the decision so confirmed or varied.
5. Failure to comply with subsection 4 in relation to a decision does not affect the validity of the decision.

11.2.23 Reconsideration of decisions

1. A person who is dissatisfied with a decision of the Secretary (other than a decision made under this section) may, by notice in writing to the Secretary, request the Secretary to reconsider the decision.
2. The notice must be given to the Secretary within either of these times.
 - a. 30 days after the day the person first receives notice of the decision.
 - b. Any further period that the Secretary allows.

3. The person must set out in the notice the reasons for the request.
4. The Secretary must reconsider the decision. The Secretary may do either of these things.
 - a. Confirm the decision.
 - b. Vary or revoke the decision.

11.2.24 Review by Tribunal of reconsidered decisions

An application may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of a decision of the Secretary to confirm or vary a decision under subsection 11.2.23.4.

Division 6: General

11.2.25 Reimbursement for cost of financial advice

1. If a person is paid an amount of SIA or ADB under this Determination and obtains professional financial advice about the investment of that amount, the person is entitled to be reimbursed up to $1,405.62 for the cost of that advice.
2. For subsection 1, an amount that is made up of an interim payment and a final payment is to be taken as one amount.

Note: The dollar amounts in this section are indexed.

11.2.26 Indexation of amounts

1. Section 13 of the SRC Act applies to the dollar amounts specified in subsections 11.2.11.1 and 11.2.11.2 and sections 11.2.13 and 11.2.25 as if both these conditions were met.
 - a. Those amounts were relevant amounts mentioned in subsection 13(1) of the SRC Act.
 - b. References in that section to the SRC Act were references to this Part.
2. Section 13AA of the SRC Act applies to the dollar amount specified in subsections 11.2.8.1 and 11.2.8.2 as if both these conditions were met.
 - a. That amount was a relevant amount mentioned in subsection 13AA(1) of the SRC Act.
 - b. References in that section to the SRC Act were references to this Part.

11.2.27 Exercise of powers by Secretary

In this Division, a reference to the Secretary includes a reference to another person authorised by the Secretary for the purpose of the provision in which the reference occurs.

Part 3: Payment of financial entitlements on death

11.3.1 Purpose

This Part sets out financial benefits that may be provided on the death of a member. They include payments for leave not taken, bereavement payments and reimbursement for financial or legal advice.

11.3.2 Entitlement for leave and other compensation

1. This section applies if a member, including a member of the Reserves, dies.
2. A person is eligible for the sum of what would have been payable to the member for the following if they had ceased to be a member on the day they died.
 - a. Recreation leave.
 - b. Long service leave.
 - c. War service leave.
 - d. Compensation for loss or damage to clothing or personal effects.
3. In this section, a person means a person who is eligible to receive a payment under section 1.6.4.

11.3.3 Bereavement payment

1. In this section the following apply.

Dependent person means a person who was financially dependent on the deceased member during the relevant pay period.

Gross fortnightly pay means the greater of the following amounts.

- a. The total amount of the fortnightly instalments of salary and allowances the member would have been entitled to for the relevant pay period, and includes amount payable for any of the following.
 - i. Income tax.
 - ii. Superannuation.
 - iii. A debt due to the Commonwealth.
- b. The average amount of gross fortnightly pay that the member was entitled to for each completed pay period in the last 3 months of service.

Relevant pay period means the fortnight that ends on the day immediately before the day the member died.

2. This section applies if all of the following have occurred.
 - a. The member has died.

- b. During all or part of the relevant pay period, the member met one of the following.
 - i. They were on continuous full-time service and salary was payable.
 - ii. They were on a flexible service determination.
- 3. This section does not apply if there is no dependent person.
- 4. A dependent person is eligible to receive four times the member's gross fortnightly pay as a bereavement payment.
- 5. Payment must be made in four equal fortnightly instalments, and begins on the first day of the pay period immediately after the member's death.

11.3.4 Payment for financial or legal advice

- 1. This payment assists persons with legal or financial responsibility upon a member's death to carry out their duties. It is intended to assist the person to make sound and rational decisions associated with their role.
- 2. This section applies to a person who meets both of the following conditions.
 - a. They must be a member of the family as defined under section 58A of Defence Act 1903.
