

Protection of Movable Cultural Heritage Regulations 2018

made under the

Protection of Movable Cultural Heritage Act 1986

Compilation No. 2

Compilation date: 14 August 2025

Includes amendments: F2025L00934

Prepared by the Office of Parliamentary Counsel, Canberra

About this compilation

This compilation

This is a compilation of the Protection of Movable Cultural Heritage Regulations 2018 that shows the text of the law as amended and in force on 14 August 2025 (the compilation date).

The notes at the end of this compilation (the endnotes) include information about amending laws and the amendment history of provisions of the compiled law.

Uncommenced amendments

The effect of uncommenced amendments is not shown in the text of the compiled law. The details of amendments made up to, but not commenced at, the compilation date are underlined in the endnotes. Any uncommenced amendments affecting the law are accessible on the Register (www.legislation.gov.au).

Application, saving and transitional provisions

If the operation of a provision or amendment of the compiled law is affected by an application, saving or transitional provision that is not included in this compilation, details are included in the endnotes.

Editorial changes

For more information about any editorial changes made in this compilation, see the endnotes.

Presentational changes

The Legislation Act 2003 provides for First Parliamentary Counsel to make presentational changes to a compilation. Presentational changes are applied to give a more consistent look and feel to legislation published on the Register, and enable the user to more easily navigate those documents.

Modifications

If the compiled law is modified by another law, the compiled law operates as modified but the modification does not amend the text of the law. Accordingly, this compilation does not show the text of the compiled law as modified. Any modifications affecting the law are accessible on the Register.

Self-repealing provisions

If a provision of the compiled law has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law, details are included in the endnotes.

1 Name

This instrument is the Protection of Movable Cultural Heritage Regulations 2018.

3 Authority

This instrument is made under the Protection of Movable Cultural Heritage Act 1986.

5 Definitions

(1) In this instrument:

Act means the Protection of Movable Cultural Heritage Act 1986.

significance to Australia, for an object, means the object is of Australian origin, has substantial Australian content, or has been used in Australia, and:

- (a) is associated with a person, activity, event, place or business enterprise, notable in history; or
- (b) has received a national or international award or has a significant association with an international event; or
- (c) represents significant technological or social progress for its time; or
- (d) is an object of scientific or archaeological interest.

(2) If an object of a kind mentioned in Schedule 1 has been repaired, restored or reassembled, the age of the object is not affected by that action for any provision of Schedule 1 unless the action has substantially modified the object.

6 Categories of objects that are the movable cultural heritage of Australia

For the purposes of paragraph 7(1)(j) of the Act, the following categories are prescribed:

- (a) archaeological objects of non-Australian origin;
- (b) natural science objects;
- (c) numismatic objects;
- (d) objects of social history;
- (e) philatelic objects.

7 National Cultural Heritage Control List

For the purposes of subsection 8(1) of the Act, the list of categories set out in Schedule 1 is prescribed.

8 Period for giving notice of refusal to grant permit

For the purposes of subsection 10(7) of the Act, the period of 14 days is prescribed.

Section 9

9 Period for giving notice of refusal to grant certificate of exemption

For the purposes of subsection 12(6) of the Act, the period of 14 days is prescribed.

10 Register of expert examiners

For the purposes of section 22 of the Act, the register to be maintained by the Committee must set out the name of each person determined by the Committee to be an expert examiner.

Schedule 1—National cultural heritage control list

Note: See section 7.

Part 1—Objects of Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander heritage

- 1.1 This Part lists objects of the category “Objects of Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander heritage”.
- 1.2 An object is in this category if:
- (a) it is an object:
 - (i) of cultural significance to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people; or
 - (ii) made by Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people; and
 - (b) it is not an object created specifically for sale; and
 - (c) for an object mentioned in clause 1.4—it:
 - (i) is at least 30 years old; and
 - (ii) is not adequately represented in Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community collections, or public collections in Australia.
- 1.3 The following objects of this category are Class A objects:
- (a) sacred and secret ritual objects;
 - (b) bark and log coffins used as traditional burial objects;
 - (c) human remains;
 - (d) rock art;
 - (e) dendroglyphs.
- 1.4 All objects in this category, other than objects mentioned in clause 1.3, are Class B objects, and include:
- (a) objects relating to famous and important Aborigines or Torres Strait Islanders, or to other persons significant in Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander history; and
 - (b) objects made on missions or reserves; and
 - (c) objects relating to the development of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander protest and self-help movements; and
 - (d) original documents, photographs, drawings, sound recordings, film and video recordings and any similar records relating to objects included in this category.

Note: Objects of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander fine or decorative arts are dealt with in Part 5 of this Schedule.

Part 2—Archaeological objects

- 2.1 This Part lists objects of the category “Archaeological objects”.
- 2.2 An object is in this category if it:
- (a) is of significance to Australia; and
 - (b) is an Indigenous or non-Indigenous object that was recovered, as mentioned in paragraph 7(1)(a) of the Act, after remaining for at least 50 years in the place from which it was removed; and
 - (c) is not represented in at least 2 public collections in Australia by an object of equivalent quality.
- 2.3 Objects in this category are Class B objects, and include:
- (a) objects relating to seagoing exploration, transportation, supply and commerce, including ordnance, coins, ships’ gear, anchors, cargo and personal items from shipwrecks, sunken ships and landfalls, ships’ logbooks and other documentation; and
 - (b) objects relating to military activity; and
 - (c) objects relating to the exploration of Australia and to the colonisation and development of Australia by non-Indigenous peoples; and
 - (d) objects relating to convict transportation and settlement; and
 - (e) objects relating to relations between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples; and
 - (f) objects relating to missionary activity; and
 - (g) objects (including documentation) relating to the history of mining, processing, industry, technology and manufacture in Australia; and
 - (h) objects relating to the development of the pastoral industry and other land industries; and
 - (i) objects relating to whaling and sealing; and
 - (j) objects relating to visits to, or settlement in, Australia of identifiable cultural minorities; and
 - (k) biological or ethnographic objects or collections; and
 - (l) human remains, other than remains mentioned in Part 1 of this Schedule; and
 - (m) organic remains associated with, or representative of, a prehistoric or historic culture; and
 - (n) archaeological objects not mentioned in this clause relating to persons, places or events significant in the history of Australia; and
 - (o) unclassified material recovered, as mentioned in paragraph 7(1)(a) of the Act, for archaeological study; and
 - (p) material related to any object mentioned in this clause that adds significantly to Australian historical or scientific information.

Part 3—Natural science objects

- 3.1 This Part lists objects of the category “Natural science objects”.
- 3.2 An object is in this category if it:
- (a) is of significance to Australia; and
 - (b) is an object of the kind mentioned in clause 3.4; and
 - (c) is not adequately represented in public collections in Australia.
- 3.3 For the purposes of paragraph 3.2(c), an object of a kind well represented in public collections in Australia may nevertheless not be adequately represented because of the object’s quality or because of the place where the object was collected.
- 3.4 Objects in this category are Class B objects, and include:
- (a) any palaeontological object; and
 - (b) any mineral object not otherwise mentioned in this clause having a current Australian market value of at least $10,000; and
 - (c) any gold nugget having a current Australian market value of at least $250,000; and
 - (d) any diamond or sapphire having a current Australian market value of at least $250,000; and
 - (e) any opal having a current Australian market value of at least $100,000; and
 - (f) any other gemstone having a current Australian market value of at least $25,000; and
 - (g) any meteorite; and
 - (h) any type specimen of present-day flora or fauna, a palaeontological object or a mineral if:
 - (i) the type specimen is not lodged in an overseas collecting institution; or
 - (ii) a permit under Part 13A of the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999 is not in force for the type specimen.

- 3.5 In this Part:

holotype means the original specimen from which the description of a new species is made.

lectotype means a specimen selected as the type of a species or subspecies if the type was not designated by the author of the original description.

mineral includes a carving or sculpture created from any mineral, including a polished gemstone, but does not include any ore or concentrate used industrially or intended for industrial use.

neotype means a specimen chosen to act as a type material subsequent to a published original description if a holotype has been lost or destroyed.

palaeontological object means:

- (a) a vertebrate or invertebrate fossil or plant fossil or a trace fossil specimen, not being a fossil fuel or fossiliferous rock used or intended for any use relating to industry; or
- (b) a sculpture or other object made from fossiliferous or fossilised matter; or
- (c) a precious or non-precious opal replacement fossil of a vertebrate or invertebrate animal or of a plant.

paratype means a specimen other than a holotype, used at the time of original description, and designated as a paratype by the author of the original description, or clearly indicated as being one of the specimens on the basis of which the original description was made.

syntype means any specimen of a series in which no specimen is designated as the holotype.

type specimen means holotype, lectotype, neotype, paratype or syntype, as appropriate.

Part 4—Objects of applied science or technology

4.1 This Part lists objects of the category “Objects of applied science or technology”.

4.2 The objects in this category relate to human enterprise and activity, other than artistic activity, such as:

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

The endnotes provide information about this compilation and the compiled law.

The following endnotes are included in every compilation:

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

Endnote 2—Abbreviation key

Endnote 3—Legislation history

Endnote 4—Amendment history

Abbreviation key—Endnote 2

The abbreviation key sets out abbreviations that may be used in the endnotes.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe how an amendment is to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, then the misdescribed amendment can be incorporated through an editorial change made under section 15V of the Legislation Act 2003.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the amendment is not incorporated and “(md not incorp)” is added to the amendment history.
