Note 2: Rule 10.27 sets out the consequences of failing to comply with these Rules.

4.12 Withdrawal of offer

5.01 Effect of final orders on interlocutory orders

On the making of final orders in a proceeding, any interlocutory order made in the proceeding pending further order is automatically discharged and ceases to have continuing effect.

5.02 Restrictions on applications for interlocutory orders

- (1) Subject to subrule (2), a party may apply for an interlocutory order in a proceeding.
- (2) A person may apply for an interlocutory order only if the order sought relates to a current proceeding, unless the person is seeking:

- (2) The application must be filed before 4 pm on the second Friday in November of the application year.

Note: Except in cases of urgency (where the usual criteria for an urgent hearing will apply), an application filed after the deadline under subrule (2) will be allocated the next available hearing date in the usual way. That date may be after Christmas. In other words, if the deadline has passed, the fact that an application relates to the school holiday period will not of itself justify a listing before Christmas. In urgent cases, applications to abridge times and to list a matter on short notice may be made to the registry.

5.04 Supporting affidavit to be filed with application

- (1) A party who applies for one or more interlocutory orders must, at the same time, file and serve an affidavit stating the facts relied on in support of the orders sought.

5.06 When affidavit in reply to a response may be filed

- (1) If:
  - (a) a respondent files and serves a Response to an Application in a Proceeding seeking orders in a cause of action not referred to in the Application in a Proceeding; and
  - (b) the applicant opposes the orders sought in the Response to an Application in a Proceeding;the applicant may file and serve an affidavit in reply setting out the facts relied on.
- (2) In this rule:

cause of action includes a claim seeking an order for interlocutory relief.

5.07 Time for filing affidavits

Each affidavit in support of or in opposition to an interlocutory application must be filed and served at least 2 business days before the date fixed for the hearing.

5.08 Limit on number and length of affidavits

  - (a) subject to rule 5.06, one affidavit by each party;
  - (b) one affidavit by each witness, provided the evidence is relevant and cannot be given by a party.
- (2) Unless express leave is granted by the court, an affidavit filed and served in support of or in opposition to an application for interlocutory orders must not exceed 25 pages.
- (3) Unless express leave is granted by the court, an affidavit filed and served in support of or in opposition to an application for interlocutory orders must not contain more than 10 annexures.

5.09 Duration of hearing of interlocutory application

  - (e) be received by the Registry Manager no later than 12 noon on the day before the date fixed for the hearing.
- (3) If a request is made, the Registry Manager must tell the parties:
  - (a) whether the hearing has been postponed; and
  - (b) if applicable, the date to which the hearing has been postponed.

Rule 5.11

Part 5.2—Applications without notice

5.11 Applications without notice

An applicant seeking that an interlocutory order be made without notice to the respondent must:

- (a) satisfy the court about why:

  - (b) another document recording or relating to a protected confidence made by the person;the person may, before the day stated in the subpoena for production, notify the Registry Manager in writing that the person wants to inspect the records for the purpose of determining whether to object to the inspection or copying of the document by any other party.
- (3) If a person gives a notice under subrule (2):
  - (a) the person may inspect the medical records or other document and notify the Registry Manager in writing of an objection (including the grounds of the objection) within 7 days after the day stated in the subpoena for production; and
  - (b) unless otherwise ordered, no other person may inspect the medical records or other document until the later of the following:
    - (i) 7 days after the day stated in the subpoena for production;
    - (ii) the day of the hearing and determination of the objection (if any).
- (4) A subpoena that is the subject of a notice of objection under this rule must be referred to the court for the hearing and determination of the objection.
- (5) The court may compel a person to produce a document to the court for the purpose of ruling on an objection made under subrule (1) or paragraph (3)(a).

6.39 Subpoena for production of documents or things

  - (a) the person, or the person’s agent, must produce the documents or things described in the subpoena at the registry stated in the subpoena; and
  - (b) the Registry Manager must issue a receipt to the person producing the document or thing.
- (2) Unless the subpoena specifically requires the production of the original documents or things, the person, or the person’s agent, may produce a copy of the document or things.

Rule 6.40

- (3) The copy of the document or things may be:
  - (a) a photocopy; or
  - (b) in PDF format; or
  - (c) in any other electronic form that the issuing party has indicated is acceptable.
- (4) If an order has been made by the court that production of a document, or part of a document, would disclose:
  - (a) a protected confidence; or
  - (b) the contents of a document recording or relating to a protected confidence;the document, or part of the document, must not be produced.

Note: See section 102BD of the Family Law Act.

6.40 Return of documents produced

  - (b) to obtain permission from the person subpoenaed to destroy such a document, in an appropriate way, not earlier than 42 days after the final determination of the application or appeal.

Division 6.5.3—Non-compliance with subpoena

6.41 Failure to comply with subpoena

If:

- (a) a person subpoenaed does not comply with a subpoena; and
- (b) the court is satisfied that the person subpoenaed was served with the subpoena and given conduct money in compliance with rule 6.31;

the court may issue a warrant for the person's arrest and order the person to pay any costs caused by the non-compliance.

Note 1: A person who does not comply with a subpoena may be guilty of contempt (see section 112AP of the Family Law Act).

Note 2: A person does not need to comply with a subpoena if it was not served in compliance with rule 6.30 or the person serving the subpoena did not give the person subpoenaed conduct money in compliance with rule 6.31.

Note 3: A person does not need to comply with a subpoena to produce a document or part of a document if an order has been made, under section 102BD of the Family Law Act, that it not be produced.

Division 6.5.5—Protecting sensitive information

- (a) not be produced; or
- (b) not be inspected; or
- (c) not be copied;

by filing an application for an interlocutory order and an affidavit stating the facts relied on in support of the orders sought.

Note 1: See rule 2.01 for when an application for an interlocutory order may be included in an application for final orders.

Note 2: See rules 5.02 to 5.08 for the requirements for filing and responding to applications for interlocutory orders, including the limit on the length of affidavits.

Note 3: For the persons who may make an application for an order under section 102BD of the Family Law Act, see subsection 102BD(3) of that Act.

- (2) If:

- (a) a person is required by a subpoena to produce a document, or part of a document, that may disclose:

Chapter 7—Experts and assessors

Part 7.1—Experts

Division 7.1.1—Introduction

7.01 Application of Part 7.1

- (1) This Part (other than rule 7.14) does not apply to any of the following:
- (a) evidence from a medical practitioner or other person who has provided, or is providing, treatment for a party or child if the evidence relates only to any or all of the following:
    - (i) the results of an examination, investigation or observation made;
    - (ii) a description of any treatment carried out or recommended;
    - (iii) expressions of opinion limited to the reasons for carrying out or recommending treatment and the consequences of the treatment, including a prognosis;
  - (b) evidence from an expert who has been retained for a purpose other than the giving of advice or evidence, or the preparation of a report for a proceeding or anticipated proceeding, being evidence:
    - (i) about that expert's involvement with a party, child or subject matter of a proceeding; and
    - (ii) describing the reasons for the expert's involvement and the results of that involvement;
  - (c) evidence from an expert who has been associated, involved or had contact with a party, child or subject matter of a proceeding for a purpose other than the giving of advice or evidence, or the preparation of a report for a proceeding or anticipated proceeding, being evidence about that expert's association, involvement or contact with that party, child or subject matter;
  - (d) evidence from a family consultant employed or engaged by the Federal Circuit and Family Court or the Family Court of a State.

Example: An example of evidence excluded from the requirements of this Part (other than rule 7.14) is evidence from a treating doctor or a teacher in relation to the doctor's or teacher's involvement with a party or child.

- (2) Nothing in this Part prevents an independent children's lawyer communicating with a single expert witness.

7.02 Purpose of Part 7.1

The purpose of this Part is as follows:

- (a) to ensure that parties obtain expert evidence only in relation to a significant issue in dispute;
- (b) to restrict expert evidence to that which is necessary to resolve or determine a proceeding;
- (c) to ensure that, if practicable and without compromising the interests of justice, expert evidence is given on an issue by a single expert witness;

Rule 7.02

- (d) to avoid unnecessary costs arising from the appointment of more than one expert witness;
- (e) to enable a party to apply for permission to tender a report or adduce evidence from an expert witness appointed by that party, if that is necessary in the interests of justice.

Division 7.1.2—Single expert witness

7.03 Appointment of single expert witness by parties jointly

- (1) If the parties agree that expert evidence may help to resolve a substantial issue in a proceeding, they may agree to jointly appoint a single expert witness to prepare a report in relation to the issue.

Note: Subrules 7.13(3) to (5) set out the requirements that apply to instructions to a single expert witness appointed by agreement between the parties.

- (2) A party does not need the court's permission to tender a report or adduce evidence from a single expert witness appointed under subrule (1).
- (3) A party must not communicate unilaterally with a single expert witness, except as permitted by these Rules.
- (4) Any communication between a party and a single expert witness must, at the same time, also be provided to all other parties engaging that single expert witness, except as permitted by these Rules.

7.04 Order for single expert witness

- (1) The court may, on application or on its own initiative, order that expert evidence be given by a single expert witness.
- (2) When considering whether to make an order under subrule (1), the court may take into account any matters relevant to making the order, which may include the following (without limiting the matters which may be relevant):
  - (a) the overarching purpose of these Rules (see rule 1.04) and the purpose of this Part (see rule 7.02);
  - (b) whether expert evidence on a particular issue is necessary;
  - (c) the nature of the issue in dispute;
  - (d) whether the issue falls within a substantially established area of knowledge;
  - (e) whether it is necessary for the court to have a range of opinion.
- (3) The court may appoint a person as a single expert witness only if the person consents to the appointment.
- (4) A party does not need the court's permission to tender a report or adduce evidence from a single expert witness appointed under subrule (1).

7.05 Orders the court may make

The court may, in relation to the appointment of, instruction of, or conduct of a proceeding involving, a single expert witness make an order, including an order:

- (a) requiring the parties to confer for the purpose of agreeing on the person to be appointed as a single expert witness; or

Rule 7.06

- (b) that, if the parties cannot agree on who should be the single expert witness, the parties give the court a list stating:
  - (i) the names of people who are experts on the relevant issue and have consented to being appointed as an expert witness; and
  - (ii) the fee each expert will accept for preparing a report and attending court to give evidence; or
- (c) appointing a single expert witness from the list prepared by the parties or in some other way; or
- (d) determining any issue in dispute between the parties to ensure that clear instructions are given to the expert; or
- (e) that the parties:
  - (i) confer for the purpose of preparing an agreed letter of instructions to the expert; and
  - (ii) submit a draft letter of instructions for settling by the court; or
- (f) settling the instructions to be given to the expert; or
- (g) authorising and giving instructions about any inspection, test or experiment to be carried out for the purposes of the report; or
- (h) that a report not be released to a person or that access to the report be restricted.

7.06 Single expert witness's fees and expenses

- (1) Unless the parties agree otherwise or the court otherwise orders, the parties (but not an independent children's lawyer) are equally liable to pay a single expert witness's reasonable fees and expenses incurred in preparing a report.

Note: Rule 12.32 sets out the circumstances in which an amount paid to an expert for preparation of a report is a disbursement properly incurred in a proceeding.

- (2) A single expert witness is not required to undertake any work in relation to the expert witness's appointment until the fees and expenses are paid or secured.

7.07 Single expert witness's report

- (1) A single expert witness must prepare a written report.
- (2) If the single expert witness was appointed by the parties, the expert witness must give each party a copy of the report at the same time.
- (3) If the single expert witness was appointed by the court, unless otherwise ordered, the expert witness must give the report to the Registry Manager.

Note 1: An expert witness may seek procedural orders from the court under rule 7.19 if the expert witness considers that it would not be in the best interests of a child or a party to give a copy of a report to each party.

Note 2: The delivery of an expert's report may occur by electronic means, if appropriate.

- (4) An applicant who has been given a copy of a report under subrule (2) must file the copy but does not need to serve it.

7.08 Appointing another expert witness

- (1) If a single expert witness has been appointed to prepare a report or give evidence in relation to an issue, a party must not tender a report or adduce evidence from another expert witness on the same issue without the court's permission.
- (2) The court may allow a party to tender a report or adduce evidence from another expert witness on the same issue if it is satisfied that:
  - (a) there is a substantial body of opinion contrary to any opinion given by the single expert witness and the contrary opinion is or may be necessary for determining the issue; or
  - (b) another expert witness knows of matters, not known to the single expert witness, that may be necessary for determining the issue; or
  - (c) there is another special reason for adducing evidence from another expert witness.

7.09 Cross-examination of single expert witness

- (1) A party wanting to cross-examine a single expert witness at a hearing or trial must inform the expert witness in writing, at least 14 days before the date fixed for the hearing or trial, that the expert witness is required to attend.
- (2) The court may limit the nature and length of cross-examination of a single expert witness.
- (3) Unless the court otherwise orders, a party who requires a single expert witness to attend court for cross-examination must pay the reasonable fees and expenses of the single expert witness's attendance.

Note: Rule 12.31 sets out the circumstances in which an amount paid for attendance by an expert at a hearing is a disbursement properly incurred in a proceeding.

Rule 7.10

Division 7.1.3—Permission for expert's evidence

7.10 Permission for expert's reports and evidence

- (1) A party must apply for the court's permission to tender a report or adduce evidence at a hearing or trial from an expert witness, other than a single expert witness.
- (2) An independent children's lawyer may tender a report or adduce evidence at a hearing or trial from one expert witness on an issue without the court's permission.

7.11 Application for permission for expert witness

- (1) A party may seek permission to tender a report or adduce evidence from an expert witness by filing an Application in a Proceeding.
- (2) The affidavit filed with the application must state the following:
  - (a) whether the party has attempted to agree on the appointment of a single expert witness with the other party and, if not, why not;
  - (b) the name of the expert witness;
  - (c) the issue about which the expert witness's evidence is to be given;
  - (d) the reason the expert evidence is necessary in relation to that issue;
  - (e) the field in which the expert witness is expert;
  - (f) the expert witness's training, study or experience that qualifies the expert witness as having specialised knowledge on the issue;
  - (g) whether there is any previous connection between the expert witness and the party.
- (3) When considering whether to permit a party to tender a report or adduce evidence from an expert witness, the court may take into account the following:
  - (a) the purpose of this Part (see rule 7.02);
  - (b) the impact of the appointment of an expert witness on the costs of the proceeding;
  - (c) the likelihood of the appointment expediting or delaying the proceeding;
  - (d) the complexity of the issues in the proceeding;
  - (e) whether the evidence should be given by a single expert witness rather than an expert witness appointed by one party only;
  - (f) whether the expert witness has specialised knowledge, based on the person's training, study or experience:
    - (i) relevant to the issue on which evidence is to be given; and
    - (ii) appropriate to the value, complexity and importance of the proceeding.
- (4) If the court grants a party permission to tender a report or adduce evidence from an expert witness, the permission is limited to the expert witness named, and the field of expertise stated, in the order.

Rule 7.11

Note: Despite an order under this rule, a party is not entitled to adduce evidence from an expert witness if the expert's report has not been disclosed or a copy has not been given to the other party (see rule 7.17).

Division 7.1.4—Instructions and disclosure of expert's report

7.12 Application of Division 7.1.4

This Division does not apply to a market appraisal or an opinion as to value in relation to property obtained by a party for the purposes of a procedural hearing or conference.

7.13 Instructions to expert witness

- (1) This rule applies to any expert witness, whether a single expert witness or an expert witness engaged by only one party or some parties.
- (2) A party who instructs an expert witness to give an opinion for a proceeding or an anticipated proceeding must:
  - (a) ensure the expert witness has a copy of the most recent version of, and has read, Divisions 7.1.4, 7.1.5 and 7.1.6 of these Rules; and
  - (b) obtain a written report from the expert witness.
- (3) All instructions to an expert witness must be in writing and must include:
  - (a) a request for a written report; and
  - (b) advice that the report may be used in an anticipated or actual proceeding; and
  - (c) the issues about which the opinion is sought; and
  - (d) a description of any matter to be investigated, or any experiment to be undertaken or issue to be reported on; and
  - (e) full and frank disclosure of information and documents that will help the expert witness to perform the expert witness's function.
- (4) If a single expert witness is appointed, the parties must give the expert an agreed statement of facts on which to base the report.
- (5) However, if a single expert witness is appointed and the parties do not agree on a statement of facts:
  - (a) unless the court directs otherwise, each of the parties must give to the expert a statement of facts on which to base the report; and
  - (b) the court may give directions about the form and content of the statement of facts to be given to the expert.

7.14 Mandatory disclosure of expert's report

- (1) A party who has obtained an expert's report for a parenting proceeding, whether before or after the start of the proceeding, must give each other party a copy of the report:
  - (a) if the report is obtained before the proceeding starts—at least 2 days before the first court date; or

- (b) if the report is obtained after the proceeding starts—within 7 days after the party obtains the report.
- (2) The party who discloses an expert's report must disclose any supplementary report and any notice amending the report under subrule 7.18(5).
- (3) If an expert's report has been disclosed under this rule, any party may seek to tender the report as evidence.
- (4) Legal professional privilege does not apply in relation to an expert's report that must be disclosed under this rule.

7.15 Provision of information about fees

A party who has instructed an expert witness must, if requested by another party, give each other party details of any fee or benefit received, or receivable, by or for the expert witness, for the preparation of the report and for services provided, or to be provided, by or for the expert witness in connection with the expert witness giving evidence for the party to the proceeding.

7.16 Application for provision of information

- (1) This rule applies if the court is satisfied that:
  - (a) a party (the disclosing party) has access to information or a document that is not reasonably available to the other party (the requesting party); and
  - (b) the provision of the information or a copy of the document is necessary to allow an expert witness to carry out the expert witness's function properly.
- (2) The requesting party may apply for an order that the disclosing party:
  - (a) file and serve a document specifying the information in enough detail to allow the expert witness to properly assess its value and significance; and
  - (b) give a copy of the document to the expert witness.

Note: An expert witness may request that the court make an order under this rule (see rule 7.19).

7.17 Failure to disclose report

A party who fails to give a copy of an expert's report to another party or the independent children's lawyer (if any) must not use the report or call the expert witness to give evidence at a hearing or trial, unless the other party and the independent children's lawyer (if any) consent to the report being used or the expert witness being called, or the court orders otherwise.

Division 7.1.5—Expert witness's duties and rights

7.18 Expert witness's duty to the court

- (1) An expert witness has a duty to assist the court with matters that are within the expert witness's knowledge and capability.
- (2) The expert witness's duty to the court prevails over the obligation of the expert witness to the person instructing, or paying the fees and expenses of, the expert witness.
- (3) The expert witness has the following duties:
  - (a) to give an objective and unbiased opinion that is also independent and impartial on matters that are within the expert witness's knowledge and capability;
  - (b) to conduct the expert witness's functions in a timely way;
  - (c) to avoid acting on an instruction or request to withhold or avoid agreement when attending a conference of experts;
  - (d) to consider all material facts, including those that may detract from the expert witness's opinion;
  - (e) to tell the court:
    - (i) if a particular question or issue falls outside the expert witness's expertise; and
    - (ii) if the expert witness believes that the report prepared by the expert witness is based on incomplete research or inaccurate or incomplete information, or is incomplete or may be inaccurate, for any reason;
  - (f) to produce a written report that complies with rules 7.21 and 7.22.
- (4) The expert witness's duty to the court arises when the expert witness:
  - (a) receives instructions under rule 7.13; or
  - (b) is informed by a party that the expert witness may be called to give evidence in a proceeding.
- (5) An expert witness who changes an opinion after the preparation of a report must give written notice to that effect:
  - (a) if the expert witness is appointed by a party—to the instructing party; or
  - (b) if the expert witness is appointed by the court—to the Registry Manager and each party.
- (6) A notice under subrule (5) is taken to be part of the expert's report.

7.19 Expert witness's right to seek orders

- (1) Before final orders are made, a single expert witness may, by written request to the court, seek a procedural order to assist in carrying out the expert witness's function.

Note: The written request may be by letter and may, for example:

- (a) ask for clarification of instructions; or
  - (b) relate to questions referred to in Division 7.1.6; or
  - (c) relate to a dispute about fees.
- (2) The request must:
  - (a) comply with rule 2.14; and
  - (b) set out the procedural orders sought and the reason the orders are sought.
- (3) The expert witness must serve a copy of the request on each party and satisfy the court that the copy has been served.
- (4) The court may determine the request in chambers unless:
  - (a) within 7 days after being served with the request, a party makes a written objection to the request being determined in chambers; or
  - (b) the court decides that an oral hearing is necessary.

7.20 Expert witness's evidence in chief

- (1) An expert witness's evidence in chief comprises:
  - (a) the expert's report; and
  - (b) any changes to that report in a notice under subrule 7.18(5); and
  - (c) any answers to questions under rule 7.27.
- (2) An expert witness has the same protection and immunity in relation to the contents of a report disclosed under these Rules or an order as the expert witness could claim if the contents of the report were given by the expert witness orally at a hearing or trial.

7.21 Form of expert's report

- (1) An expert's report must:
  - (a) be addressed to the court and the party or parties instructing the expert witness; and
  - (b) have attached to it a summary of the instructions given to the expert witness and a list of any documents relied on in preparing the report; and
  - (c) be verified by an affidavit of the expert witness.
- (2) The affidavit verifying the expert's report must state the following:

I have made all the inquiries I believe are necessary and appropriate and to my knowledge there have not been any relevant matters omitted from this report, except as otherwise specifically stated in this report.

I believe that the facts within my knowledge that have been stated in this report are true.

The opinions I have expressed in this report are independent and impartial.

Rule 7.22

  - (g) a summary of the conclusions reached;
  - (h) if necessary, a disclosure that:
    - (i) a particular question or issue falls outside the expert witness's expertise; or
    - (ii) the report may be incomplete or inaccurate without some qualification and the details of any qualification; or
    - (iii) the expert witness's opinion is not a concluded opinion because further research or data is required or because of any other reason.

7.23 Consequences of non-compliance

If an expert witness does not comply with these Rules, the court may do any of the following:

- (a) order the expert witness to attend court;

- (b) refuse to allow the expert's report or any answers to questions to be relied on;
- (c) allow the report to be relied on but take the non-compliance into account when considering the weight to be given to the expert witness's evidence;
- (d) take the non-compliance into account when making orders for:
  - (i) an extension or abridgment of a time limit; or
  - (ii) a stay of the proceeding; or
  - (iii) interest payable on a sum ordered to be paid; or
  - (iv) costs.

Note: For the court's power to order costs, see subsection 114UB(2) of the Family Law Act.

Division 7.1.6—Clarification of single expert witness reports

7.24 Purpose of Division 7.1.6

- (1) The purpose of this Division is to provide ways of clarifying a report prepared by a single expert witness.
- (2) Clarification about a report may be obtained at a conference under rule 7.25 or by means of questions under rule 7.26.

7.25 Conference

- (1) Within 21 days after receiving the report of a single expert witness, the parties may enter into a written agreement about conferring with the expert witness for the purpose of clarifying the report.
- (2) The agreement may provide for the parties, or for one or more of them, to confer with the expert witness.
- (3) Without limiting the scope of the conference, the parties must agree on arrangements for the conference.
- (4) It is intended that the parties should be free to make any arrangements for the conference that are consistent with this Division.

Note: For example, arrangements for a conference might include the attendance of another expert, or the provision of a supplementary report.

- (5) Before participating in the conference, the expert witness must be informed of arrangements for the conference.
- (6) In seeking to clarify the report of the expert witness, the parties must not interrogate the expert witness.
- (7) If the parties do not agree about conferring with a single expert witness, the court, on application by a party, may order that a conference be held in accordance with any conditions the court determines.

7.26 Questions to single expert witness

- (1) A party seeking to clarify the report of a single expert witness may ask questions of the single expert witness under this rule:
  - (a) within 7 days after a conference (if any) is held under rule 7.25; or
  - (b) if no conference is held under that rule—within 21 days after the party received the single expert witness's report.
- (2) The questions must:
  - (a) be in writing and be put once only; and

Division 11.2.2—Contempt

11.70 Contempt in the face or hearing of court

- (1) If it appears to the court that a person is guilty of contempt in the face of or in the hearing of the court, the court may:
  - (a) order that the person attend before the court; or

- (2) When the person attends before the court, the court must:
  - (a) tell the person of the contempt with which the person is charged; and
  - (b) allow the person to state the person's defence to the charge; and
  - (c) after hearing the defence, determine the charge; and
  - (d) make an order for the punishment or discharge of the person.
- (3) The court may direct that the person be kept in custody or released until the charge is determined.
- (4) The court may direct that the person give security for the person's attendance before the court to answer the charge.

Note: Contempt in the court room interferes with the administration of justice. Examples of actions that may be contempt include:

- (a) assaulting or threatening a Judge or another person; and
- (b) insulting the court; and
- (c) disrupting court proceedings; and
- (d) disrespect or other misbehaviour in court.

11.71 Contempt applications

- (1) If it is alleged that a person has committed a contempt of the court (whether or not the contempt occurred in the face or hearing of the court), an application may be made to the court for the person to be dealt with for the contempt.
- (2) An application must:
  - (a) be in accordance with the approved form; and
  - (b) state the contempt alleged; and
  - (c) be supported by an affidavit setting out the facts relied on.

Note: An application under this rule and its supporting affidavit must be served personally on the respondent (see Table 2.2).

- (3) An application may be made:

  - (a) attends before the court to answer the charge; or
  - (b) gives security, as directed by the court, for the person's attendance before the court to answer the charge.
- (6) When the person attends before the court, the court must:

  - (a) if the court decides there is no prima facie case—dismiss the application; or
  - (b) if the court decides there is a prima facie case:
    - (i) invite the person to state the person's defence to the allegation; and
    - (ii) after hearing any defence, determine the charge.

Note: If a maintenance order is complied with before an Application—Contempt is heard by the court, the failure to comply with the order that led to the Application—Contempt being filed does not constitute a contempt of court (see subsection 112AP(1A) of the Family Law Act).

- (8) If the court finds the charge proved, the court may make an order for the punishment of the person.

Note: Part XIIIIB of the Family Law Act sets out the punishment the court may impose on a person found to be in contempt of court.

Part 12.8—Claiming and disputing costs

Division 12.8.1—Itemised costs account

Note: This Division provides that, if an account payable by a person is not in an itemised form, the person has the right to request an itemised costs account. The person may then dispute the itemised costs account by following the procedures set out in this Division. A person may apply to extend the time for taking any action required under these Rules (see rule 15.06).

12.33 Request for itemised costs account

A person who has received an account (other than an itemised costs account) and wants to dispute the account, or any part of it, must, within 28 days after receiving the account, request the lawyer who sent it to serve an itemised costs account for the whole or part of the account disputed.

12.34 Service of lawyer's itemised costs account

- (1) A person entitled to party and party costs must serve an itemised costs account on the person liable to pay the costs within 4 months after the end of the proceeding.

Note: A person entitled to costs may serve an itemised costs account even if the person liable to pay the costs has not requested it.

- (2) For party and party costs, the person entitled to costs must serve a costs brochure at the same time as the itemised costs account is served under subrule (1).

12.36 Disputing itemised costs account

A person served with an itemised costs account may dispute it by serving on the person entitled to the costs a Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account within 28 days after the account was served.

Note 1: If no Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account is received and the costs are not paid, the person entitled to the costs may seek a costs assessment order (see rule 12.50).

Note 2: If the parties agree on the amount to be paid for costs, they may lodge a draft consent order (see Part 10.2 for consent orders).

12.37 Assessment of disputed costs

- (1) This rule applies if a Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account has been served under rule 12.36.

- (4) The court may take into account any failure to comply with subrule (2) when considering any order for costs.

12.38 Amendment of itemised costs account or Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account

A party may amend an itemised costs account or a Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account by filing the amended document with the amendments clearly marked:

- (a) at least 14 days before the date fixed for the assessment hearing; or
- (b) after that time with the consent of the other party; or

- (3) At the end of the assessment hearing, the Judicial Registrar must:
  - (a) make a costs assessment order; and
  - (b) give a copy of the order to each party.

Note 1: At an assessment hearing, the onus of proof is on the person entitled to costs. That person should bring to the hearing all documents supporting the items claimed.

Schedule 1—Pre-action procedures

Note 1: See rule 1.05 (definition of pre-action procedures).

Note 2: Part 1 of this Schedule sets out the pre-action procedures for financial or property proceedings. Part 2 of this Schedule sets out the pre-action procedures for parenting proceedings. If a proceeding involves financial or property matters and parenting matters, both Parts must be complied with.

Part 1—Financial or property proceedings

1 General

- (1) Each prospective party to a proceeding in the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia must make a genuine effort to resolve the dispute before filing an application to start proceedings by following the pre-action procedures outlined in clause 3 of this Part.
- (2) There may be serious consequences for non-compliance with the pre-action procedures, including costs penalties or a stay of proceedings pending compliance.
- (3) The circumstances in which the court may accept that it was not possible or appropriate for a party to follow the pre-action procedures are outlined in subrule 4.01(2).
- (4) The objectives of the pre-action procedures are as follows:
  - (a) to encourage early and full disclosure in appropriate proceedings by the exchange of information and documents about the prospective proceeding;
  - (b) to provide parties with a process to avoid legal action by reaching a settlement of the dispute before starting a proceeding;
  - (c) to provide parties with a procedure to resolve the proceeding quickly and limit costs;
  - (d) to ensure the efficient management of proceedings in the court, if proceedings become necessary;
  - (e) to encourage parties, if proceedings become necessary, to seek only those orders that are reasonably achievable on the evidence;
  - (f) to give effect to the overarching purpose of the family law practice and procedure provisions as provided by section 95 of the Family Law Act 1975.
- (5) At all stages during the pre-action procedures and, if a proceeding is started, during the conduct of the proceedings, the parties must have regard to the following:
  - (a) the best interests of any child, including the need to protect and safeguard the child against risk or harm;
  - (b) the developmental, psychological, emotional and cultural needs of the child, the capacity of each person who is proposed to have parental responsibility for the child to provide for those needs, and the benefit to the child of being able to have a relationship with people who are significant to them, where it is safe to do so;

- (c) the potential damage to a child involved in a dispute between the parents, particularly if the child is encouraged to take sides or take part in the dispute;
- (d) the best way of exploring options for settlement, identifying the issues as soon as possible, and seeking resolution of them;
- (e) the need to avoid protracted, unnecessary, hostile and inflammatory exchanges;
- (f) the impact of correspondence on the intended reader (in particular, on the parties);
- (g) the need to seek only orders that are reasonably achievable on the evidence and that are consistent with the current law;
- (h) the principle of proportionality and the need to control costs because it is unacceptable for the costs of any proceeding to be disproportionate to the financial value of the subject matter of the dispute;
- (i) the duty to make full and frank disclosure of all material facts, documents and other information relevant to the dispute.

Note        The duty of disclosure extends to the requirement to disclose any significant changes (see clause 4 of this Part).

- (6) Parties must not:
  - (a) use the pre-action procedures for an improper purpose (for example, to harass the other party or cause unnecessary cost or delay); or
  - (b) in correspondence, raise irrelevant issues or issues that may cause the other party to adopt an entrenched, polarised or hostile position.
- (7) The court expects parties to take a sensible and responsible approach to the pre-action procedures.
- (8) The parties are not expected to continue to follow the pre-action procedures if it is not safe to do so, or if reasonable attempts to follow the pre-action procedures have not achieved a satisfactory solution.
- (9) At the time of filing an application to start a proceeding or a response to that application, a party must file a Genuine Steps Certificate outlining:
  - (a) both:
    - (i) the party's compliance with the pre-action procedures; and
    - (ii) the genuine steps taken by the party to resolve the dispute; or
  - (b) the basis of any claim for an exemption from compliance with either or both the requirements referred to in subparagraphs (a)(i) and (ii).

2 Compliance

- (1) The court regards the requirements set out in these pre-action procedures as the standard and appropriate approach for a person to take before filing an application in a court.

- (2) If a proceeding is subsequently started, the court may consider whether these requirements have been met and, if not, any consequences for non-compliance.
- (3) The court may take into account compliance and non-compliance with the pre-action procedures when it is making orders about case management and considering orders for costs (see rule 10.27 and paragraphs 1.34(2)(b) and 12.15(1)(b)).
- (4) Unreasonable non-compliance may result in the court staying the proceeding pending compliance, or ordering the non-complying party to pay all or part of the costs of the other party or parties in the proceeding.
- (5) In situations of non-compliance, the court may ensure that the complying party is in no worse position than the party would have been in had the pre-action procedures been complied with.

Note: Examples of non-compliance with the pre-action procedures include the following:

- (a) not sending a written notice of proposed application;
- (b) not providing sufficient information or documents to the other party;
- (c) not following a procedure required by the procedures;
- (d) not responding appropriately within the nominated time to the written notice of proposed application;
- (e) not responding appropriately within a reasonable time to any reasonable request for information, documents or other requirement of the procedures.

3 Pre-action procedures

- (1) A person who is considering filing an application to start a proceeding must, before filing the application, and only if it is safe to do so:
  - (a) give a copy of these pre-action procedures to the other prospective parties to the proceeding; and
  - (b) make inquiries about the dispute resolution services available; and
  - (c) invite the other parties to participate in dispute resolution with an identified person or organisation or other person or organisation to be agreed.
- (2) To the extent that it is safe to do so, each prospective party must:
  - (a) cooperate for the purpose of agreeing on an appropriate dispute resolution service; and
  - (b) make a genuine effort to resolve the dispute by participating in dispute resolution.
- (3) If the prospective parties reach agreement, they may arrange to formalise the agreement by filing an Application for Consent Orders.
- (4) Before filing an application, the proposed applicant must give to the other party (the proposed respondent) written notice (notice of intention to start a proceeding) of the proposed applicant's intention to start a proceeding if:
  - (a) there is no appropriate dispute resolution service available to the parties; or
  - (b) a party fails or refuses to participate in dispute resolution; or
  - (c) the parties are unable to reach agreement by dispute resolution.

- (5) A notice of intention to start a proceeding must set out:
  - (a) the issues in dispute; and
  - (b) the orders to be sought if proceedings are started; and
  - (c) a genuine offer to resolve the issues; and
  - (d) a time (the nominated time) that is at least 14 days after the date of the notice within which the proposed respondent must reply to the notice.
- (6) The proposed respondent must, within the nominated time, reply in writing to the notice under subclause (4), stating whether the offer is accepted and, if not, setting out:
  - (a) the issues in dispute; and
  - (b) the orders to be sought if proceedings are started; and
  - (c) a genuine counter-offer to resolve the issues; and
  - (d) a time that is at least 14 days after the date of the proposed respondent's reply within which the proposed applicant must reply.
- (7) It is expected that a person will not start a proceeding by filing an application in a court unless:
  - (a) the proposed respondent does not respond to a notice of intention to start a proceeding; or
  - (b) agreement between the proposed parties is unable to be reached after a reasonable attempt to settle by correspondence under this clause.

4 Disclosure and exchange of correspondence

- (1) Parties preparing for a financial or property proceeding have a duty to make full and frank disclosure of all information relevant to the issues in dispute in a timely manner (see rule 6.01).
- (2) As soon as practicable on learning of the dispute and in the course of exchanging correspondence under clause 3 of this Part, parties must exchange the following:
  - (a) a schedule of assets, income and liabilities;
  - (b) a list of documents in the party's possession or control that are relevant to the dispute;
  - (c) a copy of any document required by the other party, identified by reference to the list of documents.
- (3) Parties must refer to the Financial Statement and rule 6.06 of these Rules as a guide for the information to provide and documents to exchange.
- (4) The documents that the court considers appropriate to include in the list of documents and to exchange include:
  - (a) in financial or property proceedings (other than an application for maintenance only)—those listed in subrule 6.06(7); and
  - (b) in an application for maintenance only—those listed in subrule 6.06(8).
- (5) It is reasonable to require a party who is unable to produce a document for inspection to provide a written authority addressed to a third party authorising the third party to provide a copy of the document in question to the other party, if this is practicable.

- (6) Parties must agree to a reasonable place and time for the documents to be inspected and copied at the cost of the person requesting the copies.

Note: The court will refer to Chapter 6 of these Rules as a guide for what is regarded as reasonable conduct by the parties in making these arrangements.

- (7) Parties must not use a document disclosed by another party for a purpose other than the resolution or determination of the dispute to which the disclosure of the document relates, unless an exception applies under subrule 6.04(2).
- (8) Documents produced by a person to another person in compliance with the pre-action procedures are taken to have been produced on the basis of an undertaking from the party receiving the documents that the documents will be used for the purpose of the proceeding only.
- (9) Parties must bear in mind that an object of the pre-action procedures is to control costs and, if possible, resolve the dispute quickly.
- (10) Parties must also file an undertaking as to disclosure that states that the party is aware of the ongoing duty of disclosure and has complied with this duty, to the best of the party's knowledge and ability, before the first court date (see rule 6.02).

5 Expert witnesses

- (1) There are strict rules about instructing and obtaining reports from an expert witness (see Part 7.1 of these Rules).
- (2) In summary:
- (a) an expert witness must be instructed in writing and must be fully informed of the obligations as an expert witness (see rule 7.13); and
  - (b) parties should obtain expert evidence only in relation to a significant issue in dispute; and
  - (c) if practicable, parties should agree to obtain a report from a single expert witness instructed by both parties (see rule 7.03); and
  - (d) the court must grant permission to a party to adduce evidence from another expert witness on the same issue (see rule 7.08).

6 Lawyers' obligations

- (1) Lawyers must, as early as practicable:
- (a) advise clients of ways of resolving the dispute without starting legal action; and
  - (b) advise clients of their duty to make full and frank disclosure, and of the possible consequences of breaching that duty; and
  - (c) endeavour to reach a solution by settlement rather than start or continue legal action, subject to this being in the best interests of the client and any child; and

- (d) notify the client if, in the lawyer's opinion, it is in the client's best interests to accept a compromise or settlement that, in the lawyer's opinion, is a reasonable one; and
  - (e) in cases of unexpected delay, explain the delay and whether or not the client may assist to resolve the delay; and
  - (f) advise clients of the estimated costs of legal action (see rule 12.05); and
  - (g) advise clients about the factors that may affect the court in considering costs orders; and
  - (h) give clients documents prepared by the court about:
    - (i) the legal aid services and dispute resolution services available to them; and
    - (ii) the legal and social effects and the possible consequences for children of proposed litigation; and
  - (i) actively discourage clients from making ambit claims or seeking orders that the evidence and established principles, including recent case law, indicate is not reasonably achievable.
- (2) The court recognises that the pre-action procedures cannot override a lawyer's duty to the lawyer's client.
- (3) It is accepted that it is sometimes difficult to comply with a pre-action procedure because a client may refuse to take advice; however, a lawyer has a duty as an officer of the court and must not mislead the court.
- (4) On application, the court may make an order for costs against a lawyer if the lawyer has failed to comply with pre-action procedures (see rule 12.15).
- (5) If a client wishes not to disclose a fact or document that is relevant to the proceeding, a lawyer has an obligation to take the appropriate action; that is, to cease acting for the client.

Part 2—Parenting proceedings

1 General

- (1) Each prospective party to a proceeding in the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia is required to make a genuine effort to resolve the dispute before filing an application to start proceedings by following the pre-action procedures outlined in clause 3 of this Part. This accords with section 60I of the Family Law Act 1975.
- (2) There may be serious consequences for non-compliance with the pre-action procedures, including costs penalties or a stay of proceedings pending compliance.
- (3) The circumstances in which the court may accept that it was not possible or appropriate for a party to follow the pre-action procedures are outlined in subrule 4.01(2).
- (4) The objectives of the pre-action procedures are as follows:
  - (a) to encourage early and full disclosure in appropriate proceedings by the exchange of information and documents about the prospective proceeding;
  - (b) to provide parties with a process to avoid legal action by reaching a settlement of the dispute before starting a proceeding;
  - (c) to provide parties with a procedure to resolve the proceeding quickly and limit costs;
  - (d) to ensure the efficient management of proceedings in the court, if proceedings become necessary;
  - (e) to encourage parties, if proceedings become necessary, to seek only those orders that are reasonably achievable on the evidence;
  - (f) to give effect to the overarching purpose of the family law practice and procedure provisions as provided by section 95 of the Family Law Act 1975.
- (5) At all stages during the pre-action procedures and, if a proceeding is started, during the conduct of the proceedings, the parties must have regard to the following:
  - (a) the best interests of any child, including the need to protect and safeguard them against risk or harm;
  - (b) the developmental, psychological, emotional and cultural needs of the child, the capacity of each person who is proposed to have parental responsibility for the child to provide for those needs, and the benefit to the child of being able to have a relationship with people who are significant to them, where it is safe to do so;
  - (c) the potential damage to a child involved in a dispute between the parents, particularly if the child is encouraged to take sides or take part in the dispute;

- (d) the impact of parenting applications that may be motivated by intentions other than the best interests of the child;
- (e) the best way of exploring options for settlement, identifying the issues as soon as possible, and seeking resolution of them;
- (f) the need to avoid protracted, unnecessary, hostile and inflammatory exchanges;
- (g) the impact of correspondence on the intended reader (in particular, on the parties);
- (h) the need to seek only orders that are reasonably achievable on the evidence and that are consistent with the current law;
- (i) the duty to make full and frank disclosure of all material facts, documents and other information relevant to the dispute.

Note: The duty of disclosure extends to the requirement to disclose any significant changes (see clause 4 of this Part).

- (6) Parties must not:
  - (a) use the pre-action procedures for an improper purpose (for example, to harass the other party or to cause unnecessary cost or delay); or
  - (b) in correspondence, raise irrelevant issues or issues that may cause the other party to adopt an entrenched, polarised or hostile position.
- (7) The court expects parties to take a sensible and responsible approach to the pre-action procedures.
- (8) The parties are not expected to continue to follow the pre-action procedures if it is not safe to do so, or if reasonable attempts to follow the pre-action procedures have not achieved a satisfactory solution.
- (9) At the time an application to start a proceeding is filed:
  - (a) each party must file a Genuine Steps Certificate outlining:
    - (i) the party's compliance with the pre-action procedures and the genuine steps taken by them to resolve the dispute; or
    - (ii) the basis of any claim for an exemption from compliance with either or both the matters referred to in subparagraph (i); and
  - (b) the applicant must file a certificate given to the applicant by a family dispute resolution practitioner under subsection 60I(8) of the Family Law Act 1975, unless an exemption from having to file a certificate is sought under subsection 60I(8A) of that Act.

2 Compliance

- (1) The court regards the requirements set out in these pre-action procedures as the standard and appropriate approach for a person to take before filing an application in a court.
- (2) If a proceeding is subsequently started, the court may consider whether these requirements have been met and, if not, any consequences.

- (3) The court may take into account compliance and non-compliance with the pre-action procedures when it is making orders about case management and considering orders for costs (see rule 10.27 and paragraphs 1.34(2)(b) and 12.15(1)(b)).
- (4) Unreasonable non-compliance may result in the court staying the proceeding pending compliance, or ordering the non-complying party to pay all or part of the costs of the other party or parties in the proceeding.
- (5) In situations of non-compliance, the court may ensure that the complying party is in no worse position than the party would have been in had the pre-action procedures been complied with.

Note: Examples of non-compliance with the pre-action procedures include the following:

- (a) not sending a written notice of proposed application;
- (b) not providing sufficient information or documents to the other party;
- (c) not following a procedure required by the procedures;
- (d) not responding appropriately within the nominated time to the written notice of proposed application;
- (e) not responding appropriately within a reasonable time to any reasonable request for information, documents or other requirement of the procedures.

3 Pre-action procedures

- (1) A person who is considering filing an application to start a proceeding must, before filing the application and only if it is safe to do so:
  - (a) give a copy of these pre-action procedures to the other prospective parties to the proceeding; and
  - (b) make inquiries about the family dispute resolution services available; and
  - (c) invite the other parties to participate in family dispute resolution with an identified person or organisation or other person or organisation to be agreed.
- (2) To the extent that it is safe to do so, each prospective party must:
  - (a) cooperate for the purpose of agreeing on an appropriate family dispute resolution service; and
  - (b) make a genuine effort to resolve the dispute by participating in family dispute resolution (see section 60I of the Family Law Act 1975).
- (3) If the prospective parties reach agreement, they may arrange to formalise the agreement by filing an Application for Consent Orders.
- (4) Before filing an application, the proposed applicant must give to the other party (the proposed respondent) written notice (notice of intention to start a proceeding) of the proposed applicant's intention to start a proceeding if:
  - (a) there is no appropriate family dispute resolution service available to the parties; or
  - (b) a party fails or refuses to participate in family dispute resolution; or
  - (c) the parties are unable to reach agreement by family dispute resolution.
- (5) A notice of intention to start a proceeding must set out:

- (6) The proposed respondent must, within the nominated time, reply in writing to the notice under subclause (4), stating whether the offer is accepted and, if not, setting out:
- (a) the issues in dispute; and
  - (b) the orders to be sought if a proceeding is started; and
  - (c) a genuine counter-offer to resolve the issues; and
  - (d) the time that is at least 14 days after the date of the proposed respondent's reply within which the proposed applicant must reply.
- (7) It is expected that a party will not start a proceeding by filing an application in a court unless:
- (a) the proposed respondent does not respond to a notice of intention to start a proceeding; or
  - (b) agreement between the proposed parties is unable to be reached after a reasonable attempt to settle by correspondence under this clause.

4 Disclosure and exchange of correspondence

- (1) Parties to a proceeding have a duty to make full and frank disclosure of all information relevant to the issues in dispute in a timely manner (see rule 6.01).
- (2) As soon as practicable on learning of the dispute and in the course of exchanging correspondence under clause 3 of this Part, parties must exchange copies of documents in their possession or control relevant to an issue in dispute (for example, medical reports, school reports, letters, drawings, photographs).
- (3) Parties should refer to subrule 6.05(2) which lists relevant documents that must be disclosed in parenting proceedings.
- (4) Parties must not use a document disclosed by another party for a purpose other than the resolution or determination of the dispute to which the disclosure of the document relates, unless an exception applies under subrule 6.04(2).
- (5) Documents produced by a person to another person in compliance with the pre-action procedures are taken to have been produced on the basis of an undertaking from the party receiving the documents that the documents will be used for the purpose of the proceeding only.
- (6) Parties must also file an undertaking as to disclosure that states that the party is aware of the ongoing duty of disclosure and has complied with this duty, to the best of the party's knowledge and ability, before the first court date (see rule 6.02).

- (7) In complying with the duty of disclosure when preparing for proceedings, a party is not required to disclose a document, or part of a document, if the party reasonably asserts that it would disclose a protected confidence that is likely to cause harm to the protected confider or a child.

- (1) There are strict rules about instructing and obtaining reports from an expert witness (see Part 7.1).
- (2) In summary:

Endnotes

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

The endnotes provide information about this compilation and the compiled law.

The following endnotes are included in every compilation:

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

Endnote 2—Abbreviation key

Endnote 3—Legislation history

Endnote 4—Amendment history

Abbreviation key—Endnote 2

The abbreviation key sets out abbreviations that may be used in the endnotes.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe how an amendment is to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, then the misdescribed amendment can be incorporated through an editorial change made under section 15V of the Legislation Act 2003.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the amendment is not incorporated and “(md not incorp)” is added to the amendment history.
