

Remuneration Tribunal

Explanatory Statement: Remuneration Tribunal (Remuneration and Allowances for Holders of Part-time Public Office) Determination (No.1) 2023

1. The Remuneration Tribunal Act 1973 (the Act) establishes the Remuneration Tribunal (the Tribunal) as an independent statutory authority responsible for reporting on and determining the remuneration, allowances and entitlements of key Commonwealth office holders. These include Judges of Federal Courts and most full-time and part-time holders of public offices, including Specified Statutory Offices. An additional function of the Tribunal is to determine a classification structure for Principal Executive Offices and the terms and conditions applicable to each classification within the structure.

Consultation

2. Section 11 of the Act advises that in the performance of its functions the Tribunal:
 - may inform itself in such manner as it thinks fit;
 - may receive written or oral statements;
 - is not required to conduct any proceeding in a formal manner; and
 - is not bound by the rules of evidence.
3. The Tribunal normally receives submissions on remuneration from a portfolio minister, or a secretary, program manager or employing body (in respect of a Principal Executive Office) with responsibility for the relevant office(s). The Tribunal will normally seek the views of the relevant portfolio minister prior to determining remuneration for an office.
4. The Tribunal may reach a decision based on the information provided in the submission and other publicly available information such as portfolio budget statements, annual reports, corporate plans, legislation and media releases. On occasion it may wish to meet with relevant parties or seek further information from the relevant minister or person making the submission.
5. Amongst other relevant matters in deliberating on appropriate remuneration for an office the Tribunal informs itself on:
 - the main functions, responsibilities and accountabilities of the office;
 - the organisational structure, budget and workforce;
 - the requisite characteristics, skills or qualifications required of the office holder(s); and
 - the remuneration of similar, comparator, offices within its jurisdiction.

Review of Remuneration for Holders of Public Office

6. The Tribunal's obligations, under sub-sections 7(3) and 8(1)(b) of the Act are to make determinations in respect of remuneration for various offices within its jurisdiction at periods of not more than one year. To meet these obligations, the Tribunal issued determinations on 13 June 2022 and at that time determined a 2.75 per cent adjustment to remuneration for all offices in its jurisdiction.
7. In complying with its obligations to make new determinations the Tribunal takes the opportunity to consider whether any general increase to remuneration for offices might be warranted. In conducting this review the Tribunal takes account of economic conditions in Australia, past and projected movements in remuneration in the public and private sectors (including the Australian Public Service), as well as the outcomes of reviews of public offices completed by the Tribunal. In order to inform its conclusions the Tribunal draws upon authoritative external sources such as the published material available from the Government, the Reserve Bank of Australia and the Australian Bureau of Statistics as well as trends in public and private sector remuneration. The Tribunal is also obliged by the Act to consider the Annual Wage Reviews of the Fair Work Commission.
8. The Tribunal did not receive any submissions on this matter.
9. In order to meet its legislative obligations to make a decision by 12 June 2023, the Tribunal met on 8 June 2023 and decided to defer any adjustment in remuneration for offices in its jurisdiction. The Tribunal has agreed to meet again in August 2023 to consider further data, and to determine whether any adjustment is appropriate for offices within its jurisdiction. A statement setting out the Tribunal's reasons for decision is available at www.remtribunal.gov.au Remuneration Tribunal (Remuneration and Allowances for Holders of Part-time Public Office) Determination (No.1) 2023 formalises the Tribunal's decision for Part-time Public Offices.
10. Consultation on this outcome was considered unnecessary given the matters considered by the Tribunal in making its decision.

Tax Practitioners Board

11. On 16 December 2022, the Hon Stephen Jones MP, Assistant Treasurer and Minister for Financial Services, wrote to the Tribunal seeking a review of remuneration for the part-time office of the Chair of the Tax Practitioners Board.

National Reconstruction Fund Corporation

12. On 11 April 2023, Senator the Hon Katy Gallagher, Minister for Finance, and the Hon Ed Husic MP, Minister for Industry and Science wrote to the Tribunal seeking a determination of remuneration for the part-time offices of Chair and Member of the National Reconstruction Fund Corporation.

Australian Pesticides and Veterinary Medicines Authority Board

13. There was no consultation on this matter. The amendment removes a special provision for the offices of Chair and Member of the Australian Pesticides and Veterinary Medicines Authority Board which expired on 3 March 2023.

Retrospectivity

14. Any retrospective application of this determination is in accordance with subsection 12(2) of the Legislation Act 2003 as it does not affect the rights of a person (other than the Commonwealth or an authority of the Commonwealth) to that person's disadvantage, nor does it impose any liability on such a person.
15. With respect to the Chair, Tax Practitioners Board, the retrospective application does not disadvantage any person as it establishes more generous entitlements than would otherwise apply.

Exemption from sunseting

16. Under section 12, item 56 of the Legislation (Exemptions and Other Matters) Regulation 2015, an instrument required to be laid before the Parliament under subsection 7(7) of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1973 is exempt from the provisions of paragraph 54(2)(b) of the Legislation Act 2003.
17. This exemption has been granted by the Attorney-General because the Remuneration Tribunal has a statutory role independent of government.
18. As the Remuneration Tribunal makes new principal determinations annually, this principal determination is unlikely to have any practical effect beyond the usual 10 year sunseting period. As such, the exemption from sunseting will not have a practical impact on parliamentary oversight of the relevant measures.

The power to repeal, rescind and revoke, amend and vary

19. Under subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, where an Act confers a power to make, grant or issue any instrument of a legislative or administrative character (including rules, regulations or by-laws), the power shall be construed as including a power exercisable in the like manner and subject to the like conditions (if any) to repeal, rescind, revoke, amend, or vary any such instrument.

Statement of Compatibility with Human Rights

Prepared in accordance with Part 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011

Remuneration Tribunal (Remuneration and Allowances for Holders of Part-time Public Office) Determination (No.1) 2023

This legislative instrument is compatible with the human rights and freedoms recognised or declared in the international instruments listed in section 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011

Overview of the Legislative Instrument

The legislative instrument, or determination, formalises the Tribunal's review decision to defer any adjustment in remuneration for Part-time Public Offices.

The determination supersedes the previous Remuneration Tribunal (Remuneration and Allowances for Holders of Part-time Public Office) Determination 2022 (as amended).

The decision follows a review of remuneration (and significantly related matters) carried out by the Tribunal consistent with sub-section 7(3) of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1973.

In addition to formalising the Tribunal's review decision, the determination:

- increases remuneration for the office of Chair, Tax Practitioners Board with effect from 29 May 2023;
- sets remuneration and travel tier for the offices of Chair and Member of the National Reconstruction Fund Corporation; and
- removes a special provision for the offices of Chair and Member Australian Pesticides and Veterinary Medicines Authority Board which applied until 3 March 2023.

Human rights implications

This Legislative Instrument does not engage any of the applicable rights or freedoms.

Conclusion

This Legislative Instrument is compatible with human rights as it does not raise any human rights issues.
