NOTICE OF DISQUALIFICATION – Lora Taha – 11 December 2023

Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993

To:

Lora Taha

PARRAMATTA NSW 2150

I, Emma Rosenzweig, a delegate of the Commissioner of Taxation, give you notice as required by subsection 126A(6) of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (SISA), that I have disqualified you under subsection 126A(1) of the SISA.

I've disqualified you as I'm satisfied that you've contravened the SISA on one or more occasions and the seriousness of the contraventions provides grounds for disqualifying you.

The disqualification takes effect on the day on which it is made.

Dated: 11 December 2023

Emma Rosenzweig

Deputy Commissioner of Taxation

Per Jennifer Burns

Note 1:

Under subsection 126A(7) of the SISA, details of this disqualification notice will be published as a Notifiable Instrument in the Federal Register of Legislation.

Note 2:

Under section 126K of the SISA, it is an offence for a disqualified person, who knows that he or she is a disqualified person, to be, or act as a:

- › trustee, investment manager or custodian of a superannuation entity
- › responsible officer or a body corporate that is a trustee, investment manager or custodian, of a superannuation entity

The maximum penalty for committing this offence is two years jail.

Note 3:

Under subsection 126A(5) of the SISA, we may revoke this disqualification on our own initiative or on your written application.

Note 4:

Under section 344 of the SISA, if you are affected by this decision and are not satisfied with it, you can ask the Commissioner to reconsider the decision. This request must be made in writing within 21 days of receiving notice of this decision and must give the reasons you think the decision is wrong.
