

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Health Insurance Act 1973

Health Insurance (Section 3C General Medical Services – Allied Health Services) Amendment (Eligible Providers No. 2) Determination 2025

Subsection 3C(1) of the Health Insurance Act 1973 (the Act) provides that the Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine that a health service not specified in an item in the general medical services table (the GMST) shall, in specified circumstances and for specified statutory provisions, be treated as if it were specified in the GMST.

The GMST is set out in the regulations made under subsection 4(1) of the Act. The most recent version of the regulations is the Health Insurance (General Medical Services Table) Regulations 2021.

This instrument relies on subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 (AIA). Subsection 33(3) of the AIA provides that where an Act confers a power to make, grant or issue any instrument of a legislative or administrative character (including rules, regulations or by-laws), the power shall be construed as including a power exercisable in the like manner and subject to the like conditions (if any) to repeal, rescind, revoke, amend, or vary any such instrument.

Purpose

The purpose of the Health Insurance (Section 3C General Medical Services – Allied Health Services) Amendment (Eligible Providers No. 2) Determination 2025 (the Amendment Determination) is to amend the Health Insurance (Section 3C General Medical Services – Telehealth and Telephone Attendances) Determination 2021 (the Principal Determination) to address an administrative error from 1 July 2025.

The Amendment Determination will reinsert reference to occupational therapist in para (d) to Medicare Benefits Schedule (MBS) item 93044, as per the original policy intent for the item. The reference to ‘occupational therapist’ was inadvertently omitted in the Health Insurance (Section 3C General Medical Services – Allied Health Services) Amendment (Eligible Providers) Determination 2025.

Consultation

No consultation was undertaken for the Amendment Determination as it is administrative in nature and intended to align item 93044 with original policy intent.

The Amendment Determination is a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislation Act 2003.

The Amendment Determination will commence immediately after the commencement of the Health Insurance (Section 3C General Medical Services – Allied Health Services) Amendment (Eligible Providers) Determination 2025.

Details of the Amendment Determination are set out in the Attachment.

Authority: Subsection 3C(1) of the Human rights implications

This instrument engages Articles 9 and 12 of the International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR), specifically the rights to health and social security.

The Right to Health

The right to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health is contained in Article 12(1) of the ICESCR. The UN Committee on Economic Social and Cultural Rights (the Committee) has stated that the right to health is not a right for each individual to be healthy but is a right to a system of health protection which provides equality of opportunity for people to enjoy the highest attainable level of health.

The Committee reports that the ‘highest attainable standard of health’ takes into account the country’s available resources. This right may be understood as a right of access to a variety of public health and health care facilities, goods, services, programs, and conditions necessary for the realisation of the highest attainable standard of health.

The Right to Social Security

The right to social security is contained in Article 9 of the ICESCR. It requires that a country must, within its maximum available resources, ensure access to a social security scheme that provides a minimum essential level of benefits to all individuals and families that will enable them to acquire at least essential health care. Countries are obliged to demonstrate that every effort has been made to use all resources that are at their disposal in an effort to satisfy, as a matter of priority, this minimum obligation.

The Committee reports that there is a strong presumption that retrogressive measures taken in relation to the right to social security are prohibited under ICESCR. In this context, a retrogressive measure would be one taken without adequate justification that had the effect of reducing existing levels of social security benefits, or of denying benefits to persons or groups previously entitled to them. However, it is legitimate for a Government to re-direct its limited resources in ways that it considers to be more effective at meeting the general health needs of all society, particularly the needs of the more disadvantaged members of society.

The right of equality and non-discrimination

The rights of equality and non-discrimination are contained in articles 2, 16 and 26 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR). Article 26 of the ICCPR requires that all persons are equal before the law, are entitled without any discrimination to the equal protection of the law and in this respect, the law shall prohibit any discrimination and guarantee to all persons equal and effective protection against discrimination on any ground such as race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status.

Analysis

This instrument maintains the rights to health and social security and the right of equality and non-discrimination. This instrument makes an administrative amendment and has no impact on existing Medicare arrangements for patients or health providers.

Conclusion

This instrument is compatible with human rights as it maintains the right to health and the right to social security and the right of equality and non-discrimination.
