6 the reviewing authority shall receive and consider that evidence
7 and, if the reviewing authority considers that the conviction cannot 8 be supported having regard to that evidence, the reviewing 9 authority shall quash the conviction.
- 10 (3) Subject to subsection (5), where in a review the reviewing 11 authority is satisfied that, at the time of the act or omission the 12 subject of the charge, the convicted person was suffering from such

25 quash the conviction and direct that the person be kept in strict 26 custody until the pleasure of the Governor-General is known.
- 27 (5) A reviewing authority shall not quash a conviction under 29 conviction under subsection (1) or (2).

30 159 Person deemed to have been acquitted

31 For the purposes of this Act, where a reviewing authority quashes a 32 conviction of a person of a service offence and does not order a 33 new trial of the person for the offence, the person shall be deemed 34 to have been acquitted of the offence.

1 160 New trial

- 2 (1) Where in a review the reviewing authority:
- 3 (a) quashes a conviction that was recorded within the preceding
- 4 6 months; and

- 9 offence.
- 10 (2) An order under subsection (1) for the new trial of a person lapses

- 18 (1) Where in a review the reviewing authority quashes the conviction
- 19 of a person of a service offence (in this section referred to as the

- 21 (a) that the service tribunal could in the proceedings have found
- 22 the person guilty of another offence, being:
- 23 (i) a service offence that is an alternative offence, within
- 24 the meaning of section 142, in relation to the original
- 25 offence; or
- 26 (ii) a service offence with which the person was charged in
- 27 the alternative and in respect of which the service
- 28 tribunal did not record a finding; and
- 29 (b) that the service tribunal, by reason of the finding of the
- 30 service tribunal finding that the person was guilty of the
- 31 original offence, must have been satisfied beyond reasonable
- 32 doubt of facts that prove that the person was guilty of the
- 33 other offence;
- 34 the reviewing authority may substitute for the conviction of the
- 35 original offence a conviction of the other offence.

- 1 (2) Where under subsection (1) a reviewing authority substitutes for 2 the conviction of the original offence a conviction of another
3 service offence, the reviewing authority may take such action in 4 relation to the convicted person as could have been taken under 5 Part IV by the service tribunal that convicted the convicted person 6 of the original offence if that service tribunal had convicted him or 7 her of that other service offence, but the reviewing authority:
8 (a) shall not impose a punishment for that other service offence
9 or make a reparation order with respect to that other service
10 offence unless a punishment was imposed for the original 11 offence or a reparation order was made with respect to the 12 original offence, as the case may be; and 13 (b) shall not impose a punishment for that other service offence 14 that is more severe than the punishment that was imposed for 15 the original offence and shall not make a reparation order 16 with respect to that other service offence that is for an 17 amount that exceeds the amount of the reparation order that 18 was made with respect to the original offence.

19 162 Review of action under Part IV

- 20 (1) Where in a review it appears to the reviewing authority that the 21 action taken by a service tribunal under Part IV (whether by the 22 imposition of a punishment or the making of an order or both) in 23 relation to a convicted person:
24 (a) is wrong in law; or
25 (b) is excessive;
26 the reviewing authority shall quash the punishment or revoke the 27 order or both quash the punishment and revoke the order, as the 28 case may be.
- 29 (2) Where:
30 (a) a court martial or a Defence Force magistrate has taken a
31 service offence into consideration in relation to a convicted
32 person under section 77 and the conviction of the convicted
33 person is quashed; or
