21 Insert:

22 Division 2—Unfair terms in certain contracts of general
23 insurance

24 14B Unfair terms in standard form consumer contracts of general
25 insurance

26 (1) An insurer under a standard form consumer contract of general 27 insurance fails to comply with the duty of the utmost good faith in 28 relation to the contract if:

29 (a) a term of the contract has been declared to be an unfair term
30 under section 12GND of the applied enforcement provisions
31 of the ASIC Act; or

32 (b) the insurer relies on, or purports to rely on, such a term.

- 1 Note 1: The insurer may not rely on the unfair term (see subsection 14(1)).
2 Note 2: A failure to comply with the duty of the utmost good faith is a breach 3 of the requirements of this Act (see subsection 13(2)).

- 4 (2) The contract continues to bind the parties if it is capable of 5 operating without the unfair term being relied on.

6 Definitions

- 7 (3) A standard form consumer contract of general insurance is a 8 consumer contract that is:
9 (a) a standard form contract; and 10 (b) a contract of general insurance.
- 11 (4) A consumer contract is a contract at least one of the parties to 12 which is an individual whose acquisition of what is supplied under 13 the contract is wholly or predominantly an acquisition for personal, 14 domestic or household use or consumption.

15 14C Meaning of *unfair

- 16 (1) A term of a standard form consumer contract of general insurance 17 is unfair if:
18 (a) it would cause a significant imbalance in the parties' rights 19 and obligations arising under the contract; and 20 (b) it is not reasonably necessary in order to protect the 21 legitimate interests of the party who would be advantaged by 22 the term; and
23 (c) it would cause detriment (whether financial or otherwise) to a 24 party if it were to be applied or relied on.
- 25 (2) In determining whether a term of a standard form consumer 26 contract of general insurance is unfair under subsection (1), a court 27 may take into account such matters as it thinks relevant, but must 28 take into account the following:
29 (a) the extent to which the term is transparent;
30 (b) the contract as a whole.
- 31 (3) A term of a standard form consumer contract of general insurance 32 is transparent if:
33 (a) the insurer under the contract clearly informed the other party 34 (or parties) to the contract of the effect of the term; and

- 1 (b) the term is presented clearly; and 2 (c) the term is readily available to any party affected by the term.
- 3 (4) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), a term of a standard form 4 consumer contract of general insurance is presumed not to be 5 reasonably necessary in order to protect the legitimate interests of 6 the party who would be advantaged by the term, unless that party
7 proves otherwise.
- 8 (5) An insurer under a particular standard form consumer contract of 9 general insurance is taken to have proved that a term of the 10 contract is reasonably necessary in order to protect the legitimate 11 interests of the insurer, if the insurer proves that the term 12 reasonably reflects the underwriting risk accepted by the insurer in 13 relation to that contract.

14 14D Examples of unfair terms

- 15 (1) Without limiting section 14C, the following are examples of the 16 kinds of terms of a standard form consumer contract of general 17 insurance that may be unfair:
- 18 (a) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party 19 (but not another party) to avoid or limit performance of the 20 contract;
- 21 (b) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party 22 (but not another party) to terminate the contract;
- 23 (c) a term that penalises, or has the effect of penalising, one 24 party (but not another party) for a breach or termination of 25 the contract;
- 26 (d) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party 27 (but not another party) to vary the terms of the contract;
- 28 (e) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party 29 (but not another party) to renew or not renew the contract;
- 30 (f) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party 31 to vary the upfront price payable under the contract without 32 the right of another party to terminate the contract;
- 33 (g) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party 34 unilaterally to vary financial services to be supplied under the 35 contract;

- 1 (h) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party 2 unilaterally to determine whether the contract has been 3 breached or to interpret its meaning;
- 4 (i) a term that limits, or has the effect of limiting, one party's 5 vicarious liability for its agents;
- 6 (j) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party 7 to assign the contract to the detriment of another party 8 without that other party's consent;
- 9 (k) a term that limits, or has the effect of limiting, one party's 10 right to sue another party;
- 11 (l) a term that limits, or has the effect of limiting, the evidence 12 one party can adduce in proceedings relating to the contract;
- 13 (m) a term that imposes, or has the effect of imposing, the 14 evidential burden on one party in proceedings relating to the 15 contract;
- 16 (n) a term of a kind, or a term that has an effect of a kind, 17 prescribed by the regulations.
- 18 (2) Before the Governor-General makes a regulation for the purposes 19 of paragraph (1)(n) prescribing a kind of term, or a kind of effect 20 that a term has, the Minister must take into consideration:
- 21 (a) the detriment that a term of that kind would cause to 22 consumers; and
- 23 (b) the impact on business generally of prescribing that kind of 24 term or effect; and
- 25 (c) the public interest.

26 14E Terms that define main subject-matter of standard form 27 consumer contracts of general insurance etc. are 28 unaffected

- 29 (1) Section 14B does not apply to a term of a standard form consumer 30 contract of general insurance to the extent that, but only to the 31 extent that, the term:
- 32 (a) defines the main subject-matter of the contract; or 33 (b) sets the upfront price payable under the contract; or 34 (c) is a term required, or expressly permitted, by a law of the 35 Commonwealth or a State or Territory.

- 1 (2) The upfront price payable under a standard form consumer 2 contract of general insurance is the consideration that:
3 (a) is provided, or is to be provided, for the supply under the 4 contract; and
5 (b) is disclosed at or before the time the contract is entered into; 6 but does not include any other consideration that is contingent on 7 the occurrence or non-occurrence of a particular event.

8 14F Standard form contracts

- 9 (1) If a party to a proceeding alleges that a contract of general 10 insurance is a standard form contract, it is presumed to be a 11 standard form contract unless another party to the proceeding
12 proves otherwise.
- 13 (2) In determining whether a contract of general insurance is a 14 standard form contract, a court may take into account such matters 15 as it thinks relevant, but must take into account the following:
16 (a) whether one of the parties has all or most of the bargaining
17 power relating to the transaction;
18 (b) whether the contract was prepared by one party before any 19 discussion relating to the transaction occurred between the 20 parties;
21 (c) whether another party was, in effect, required either to accept 22 or reject the terms of the contract (other than the terms 23 referred to in subsection 14E(1)) in the form in which they 24 were presented;
25 (d) whether another party was given an effective opportunity to 26 negotiate the terms of the contract that were not the terms
27 referred to in subsection 14E(1);
28 (e) whether the terms of the contract (other than the terms 29 referred to in subsection 14E(1)) take into account the 30 specific characteristics of another party or the particular 31 transaction;
32 (f) any other matter prescribed by the regulations.

33 14G Contracts to which this Division does not apply

34 This Division does not apply to a standard form consumer contract 35 of general insurance that is the constitution of a company, managed 36 investment scheme or other kind of body.
