No. 3.]

THURSDAY, 24 JANUARY.

[1901.

Prime Minister's Office,

Sydney, 24th January, 1901.

IN consequence of the melancholy intelligence announced in the Gazette Extraordinary of yesterday, that it hath pleased Almighty God to call to His mercy our late Sovereign Lady QUEEN VICTORIA, of blessed and glorious memory, His Excellency the Governor-General directs it to be notified that the King will be proclaimed this day at His Majesty's Palace of St. James, in London. He further directs that the Colours be hoisted at the mast-head, and that a Royal Salute be fired at 3 o'clock.

The Colours will remain hoisted until sunset, and they will be again hoisted half-mast on the 25th instant, and daily thereafter until the day of interment, of which official notice will be given.

Regulation mourning is to be worn.

By His Excellency's Command,

EDMUND BARTON.
