EDMUND BARTON.

[CIRCULAR.]

Downing-street,
14th June, 1901.

SIR,

I have the honour to transmit to you, for the information of your Government, copies (3) of the designs which His Majesty the King has selected as His Royal and Imperial Cyphers.

2. I have also to inform you that His Majesty has expressed his desire that the "Tudor" Crown may be substituted for any other pattern now in use as new articles become necessary; and I may add that the new design of the Royal Cypher, which was approved by His Majesty on the 4th ultimo, is to supersede any others which may be in use.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient, humble Servant,
(Signed) J. CHAMBERLAIN.

The Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia.

THE ROYAL CYPHER AND CROWN.

THE IMPERIAL CYPHER
AND CROWN.

THE BRITISH CROWN.
