COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA—MISCELLANEOUS.

Department of External Affairs, Melbourne, 27th October, 1908.

My Lord,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of Lord Northcote's dispatch No. 194 of the 22nd July proposing an alteration in the design of the Commonwealth Flag, by the substitution of a star with seven points for the six pointed star which now appears beneath the Union Jack.

This dispatch was laid before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and I have now to transmit to Your Lordship, for communication to your Government, a Warrant issued by Their Lordships authorizing the flag, amended as desired, to be flown by vessels registered in the Commonwealth.

The design of the corresponding star on the Commonwealth Blue Ensign, and of the star in the Badge of the Governor-General, will be similarly amended; and copies of each of the three amended designs, as they will eventually appear in the Admiralty Flag Book, will be transmitted to you in due course.

In consequence of the issue of the enclosed Warrant, the Flag, as transmitted the 4th June, 1903, and enclosed in Mr. Chamberlain's despatch "Miscellaneous" No. 194 of the 24th of that month, becomes obsolete; and I should be glad if you would be good enough to forward it to me in order that it may be returned to the Admiralty for cancelation.

I have the honour to be,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble servant,

(Sgd.) CREWE.
