Commonwealth of Australia.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India:

To Our Trusty and Well-beloved

PHILLIP COHEN, Esquire, Police Magistrate of the State of Victoria.

Captain CHARLES RICHARD WYNN BREWIS, R.A.N.

Captain and Brevet Major HERBERT WILLIAM LLOYD, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O.

Know ye that We do by these Our Letters Patent, issued in Our name by Our Governor-General, of Our Commonwealth of Australia, acting with the advice of Our Federal Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Constitution of Our said Commonwealth, the Royal Commissions Act 1902-1912, and all other powers him thereunto enabling, appoint you to be Commissioners to inquire into and report upon the complaints made as to the treatment received by munition workers and their dependants whilst returning from the United Kingdom to Australia by the steam-ship Bahia Castillo, and particularly in regard to the accommodation and messing arrangements provided for them on that vessel:

And We appoint you, the said PHILLIP COHEN, Esquire, to be chairman of the said Commissioners:

And We require you to report, as soon as possible, to Our Governor-General in and over Our said Commonwealth the result of your inquiries into the matters intrusted to you by these Our Letters Patent:

In testimony whereof We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Seal of Our said Commonwealth to be thereunto affixed.

Witness Our Right Trusty and Well-beloved Sir Ronald Craufurd Munro Ferguson, a Member of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of the Commonwealth of Australia, this fifteenth day of October, in the year of Our Lord One thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and in the tenth year of Our Reign.

R. M. FERGUSON, Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command,

W. M. HUGHES, Prime Minister.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India:

To Our Trusty and Well-beloved

ALBERT BATHURST PIDDINGTON, Esquire, B.A., One of Our Counsellors Learned in the Law.

NICHOLAS COLSTON LOCKYER, Esquire, C.B.E., I.S.O.

STEPHEN MILLS, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law.

GREETING:

Whereas by Letters Patent (hereinafter referred to as "the first-mentioned Letters Patent") issued in Our name by Our Governor-General of Our Commonwealth of Australia on the thirty-first day of March, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and nineteen, We did, with the advice of Our Federal Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Constitution of Our said Commonwealth, the Royal Commissions Act 1902-1912, and all other powers Us thereunto enabling, appoint you to be Commissioners to inquire into and report upon the Sugar Industry in Australia and the other matters more particularly specified in the first-mentioned Letters Patent:

And whereas by Letters Patent issued in Our name by Our Governor-General of Our Commonwealth of Australia on the twentieth day of August, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and nineteen, We did, with the advice of Our Federal Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Constitution of Our said Commonwealth, the Royal Commissions Act 1902-1912, and all other powers Us thereunto enabling, extend, until the thirty-first day of August, One thousand nine hundred and nineteen, the period within which you are required to report to Our said Governor-General the result of your inquiries into the matters intrusted to you by the first-mentioned Letters Patent:

And whereas by Letters Patent (hereinafter referred to as "the said Letters Patent") issued in Our name by Our Governor-General of Our Commonwealth of Australia on the third day of September, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and nineteen, We did, with the advice of Our Federal Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Constitution of Our said Commonwealth, the Royal Commissions Act 1902-1912, and all other powers Us thereunto enabling, require you to further inquire into the Sugar Industry in Australia and the other matters more particularly specified in the first-mentioned Letters Patent and in the said Letters Patent, and to report to Our said Governor-General on or before the thirtieth day of September, One thousand nine hundred and nineteen, the result of your inquiries into the matters intrusted to you by the first-mentioned Letters Patent and by the said Letters Patent:

And whereas it is desirable to extend the time within which you are required to report upon the matters intrusted to you by the first-mentioned Letters Patent and by the said Letters Patent, and to require you to report upon those matters to Our said Governor-General with as little delay as possible:

Now therefore know ye that We do by these Our Letters Patent issued in Our name by Our said Governor-General, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Constitution of Our said Commonwealth, the Royal Commissions Act 1902-1912, and all other powers Us thereunto enabling, extend the time within which you are required to report upon the matters intrusted to you by the first-mentioned Letters Patent and by the said Letters Patent, and require you to report upon those matters to Our said Governor-General with as little delay as possible:

In testimony whereof We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Seal of Our said Commonwealth to be thereunto affixed.

Witness Our Right Trusty and Well-beloved Sir Ronald Craufurd Munro Ferguson, a Member of Our Most Honorable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Our Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over Our Commonwealth of Australia, this fifteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and in the tenth year of Our reign.

R. M. FERGUSON, Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command,

W. M. HUGHES, Prime Minister.
