In the matter of the Patents, Trade Marks, and Designs Act 1914-1915

In the matter of the Patents (Temporary) Regulations 1914 (being Statutory Rules 1914, No. 174, as amended by Statutory Rules 1916, Nos. 66 and 220).

WHEREAS under and by virtue of the provisions of the above-mentioned Act and Regulations the Minister is empowered at any time if in his absolute discretion he deems it expedient in the public interest so to do, to order the avoidance or suspension, in whole or in part, of any Patent or Licence the person entitled to the benefit of which is the subject of any State at war with the King, upon such terms and conditions (if any) as he thinks fit:

And whereas the Minister is further empowered, in any case in which he makes an order in pursuance of the above-mentioned Act and Regulations avoiding or suspending a Patent in whole or in part, to grant, in his discretion, in favour of persons other than the subject of any State at war with the King licences to make use exercise or vend the patented invention so avoided or suspended upon such terms and conditions and either for the whole term of the Patent or for such less period as the Minister thinks fit:

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the provisions of the above-mentioned Act and Regulations and of all other powers him thereto enabling, the Minister has from time to time ordered the suspension in whole or in part, of certain Patents and has granted, in his discretion, in favour of certain persons licences to make use exercise or vend the patented inventions so suspended:

And whereas under and by virtue of the provisions of the above-mentioned Act and Regulations the Minister is empowered, at any time in his absolute discretion, to revoke any avoidance or suspension ordered by him:

And whereas it is provided by the above-mentioned Act that the said Act and the Regulations made thereunder shall continue in force during the continuance of the then present state of war in Europe and for a period of six months thereafter and no longer, but that nothing in the Act shall affect the duration of any licence granted by the Minister in pursuance of the Act:

And whereas by a proclamation made under the Termination of the Present War (Definition) Act 1919 the Governor-General declared that the thirty-first day of August, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-one should be deemed to be the date of the termination of the then present war:

And whereas it is desirable that the suspension so ordered should be revoked as from the twenty-eighth day of February, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, but so as not to affect the validity continuance and conditions of any licence granted by the Minister as aforesaid nor any liability thereunder on the part of the licensee which may at such date be subsisting or have accrued:

Now therefore in exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the provisions of the above-mentioned Act and Regulations and of all other powers me thereto enabling, I, Littleton Ernest Groom, the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth, do hereby revoke, as from the twenty-eighth day of February, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, all the suspensions so ordered, provided that such revocation shall not affect the validity continuance and conditions of any licence granted by the Minister under the said Act nor any liability thereunder on the part of the licensee which may at such date be subsisting or have accrued.

Dated this twenty-seventh day of February, 1922.

LITTLETON E. GROOM,
Attorney-General of the Commonwealth.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of the provisions of the above-mentioned Act and Regulations the Minister is empowered at any time if in his absolute discretion he deems it expedient in the public interest so to do, to order the avoidance or suspension in whole or in part of the registration, and all or any rights conferred by the registration, of a trade mark, the proprietor whereof is a subject of a State at war with the King, upon such terms and conditions (if any) as he thinks fit:

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the provisions of the above-mentioned Act and Regulations and of all other powers him thereto enabling the Minister has from time to time ordered the suspension, in whole or in part, of the registration and all the rights conferred by the registration of certain trade marks:
