TERRITORY OF NEW GUINEA.

No. 2 of 1922-23.

AN ORDINANCE

To amend the Judiciary Ordinance 1921.

BE it ordained by the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the New Guinea Act 1920, as follows :—

Short title and citation.

1.—(1.) This Ordinance may be cited as the Judiciary Ordinance 1922 (No. 2).

(2.) Sub-section (3.) of section one of the Judiciary Ordinance 1922 is repealed.

(3.) The Judiciary Ordinance 1921, as amended by the Judiciary Ordinance 1922 and by this Ordinance, may be cited as the Judiciary Ordinance 1921-1922.

Appeal to High Court of Australia.

2. Sections twenty-two to thirty-one (inclusive) of the Judiciary Ordinance 1921 are repealed and the following section is inserted in their stead :—

“24.—(1.) The Full Court of the High Court of Australia, consisting of at least two Judges, may grant leave to appeal to the High Court of Australia from any conviction, sentence, judgment, decree or order of the Central Court.

“(2.) When an order granting leave to appeal is made, certified copies of the proceedings and evidence in the case shall be forwarded to the proper officer of the High Court.

“(3.) The High Court sitting as a Full Court (constituted by at least two Judges) may hear the appeal, and may make such order therein as it thinks just.

“(4.) If the High Court sees fit to permit it, an appeal under this section may be by case stated, with the legal argument (if any) attached thereto in writing, and in that case it shall not be necessary for the parties to appear on the hearing of the appeal either personally or by counsel.

“(5.) The order of the Court on appeal shall have effect in the Territory as if it were a judgment of the Central Court of the Territory, and may be enforced by the Central Court accordingly.

“(6.) The Justices of the High Court or a majority of them may make Rules of Court for regulating the practice and procedure in regard to appeals under this section.”

Dated, this fifth day of July, 1922.

FORSTER,
Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command.

J. EARLE,
for Prime Minister.
