(INTERMEDIATE TARIFF.)

PROCLAMATION

Commonwealth of Australia to wit.
W. J. SLIM
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-General in and over the Commonwealth of Australia.

WHEREAS by paragraph 2 of Customs Tariff Proposals No. 7 introduced into the House of Representatives on the fifth day of March, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-three, it is provided that the Governor-General, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, may, from time to time, by proclamation, declare that, from a time and date specified in the proclamation, the Intermediate Tariff shall apply to such goods specified in the proclamation as are the produce or manufacture of any British or foreign country specified in the proclamation:

And whereas by paragraph 4 of the said Customs Tariff Proposals No. 7 it is provided that a proclamation issued in pursuance of paragraph 2 of the said Customs Tariff Proposals No. 7 may be revoked or varied by a further proclamation:

And whereas Customs Proclamation No. 831 made on the fifth day of March, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-three, and published in the Gazette, on the fifth day of March, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-three, was issued in pursuance of the said Customs Tariff Proposals No. 7:

And whereas by paragraph 2 of Customs Tariff Proposals No. 8 introduced into the House of Representatives on the ninth day of September, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-three, it is provided that the Governor-General, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, may, from time to time, by proclamation, declare that, from a time and date specified in the proclamation, the Intermediate Tariff shall apply to such goods specified in the proclamation as are the produce or manufacture of any British or foreign country specified in the proclamation:

And whereas by paragraph 4 of the said Customs Tariff Proposals No. 8 it is provided that a proclamation issued in pursuance of paragraph 2 of the said Customs Tariff Proposals No. 8 may be revoked or varied by a further proclamation:

And whereas Customs Proclamation No. 836 made on the ninth day of September, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-three, and published in the Gazette on the ninth day of September, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-three, was issued in pursuance of the said Customs Tariff Proposals No. 8:

And whereas it is desirable to revoke the said proclamations and make other provision in lieu thereof:

And whereas by Customs Tariff Proposals introduced into the House of Representatives on the twenty-fourth day of November, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-three, it is provided, inter alia, that the Governor-General, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, may, from time to time, by proclamation, declare that, from a time and date specified in the proclamation, the Intermediate Tariff shall apply to such goods specified in the proclamation as are the produce or manufacture of any British or foreign country specified in the proclamation:

And whereas it is desirable to specify a time and date from which rates of duty set out in the Schedule to the Customs Tariff Proposals introduced into the House of Representatives on the twenty-fourth day of November, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-three, in the column headed "Intermediate Tariff", shall apply to certain goods the produce or manufacture of certain British or foreign countries:

Now therefore I, Sir William Joseph Slim, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, do hereby revoke Customs Proclamations Nos. 831 and 836 as from nine o'clock in the forenoon, reckoned according to standard time in the Australian Capital Territory, on the twenty-fifth day of November, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-three, and do hereby declare that, from the said time on the said date, the Intermediate Tariff shall apply to such goods specified in the First Schedule to this proclamation as are the produce or manufacture of any British or foreign country specified in the Second Schedule to this proclamation.
