ORDER.

Australia to wit.

BY His Excellency the Right Honorable Hallam, Baron Tennyson, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of the Commonwealth of Australia.

WHEREAS by the Post and Telegraph Act 1901, it is enacted that where any State Act, whether passed before or after the commencement of that Act, purports to confer or impose upon postmasters any powers or duties—

(a) with respect to the preparation of lists or rolls of electors for parliamentary or other elections; or

(b) for the purpose of facilitating the voting at such elections, the Governor-General may, at the request of the Governor of the State, direct, by Order under his hand, that postmasters may exercise such powers and shall perform such duties accordingly: And whereas a State Act of the State of Queensland, called The Local Authorities Act of 1902, purports to confer and impose upon postmasters powers and duties for the purpose of facilitating the voting at elections under that Act: And whereas the Governor of the State of Queensland has requested me to direct that postmasters may exercise such powers and shall perform such duties accordingly: Now, therefore, I, Hallam, Baron Tennyson, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, in exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the Post and Telegraph Act 1901, do hereby direct that postmasters in the State of Queensland may exercise the powers and shall perform the duties purported to be conferred or imposed upon postmasters by the State Act called The Local Authorities Act of 1902 for the purpose of facilitating the voting at such elections under that Act.

Given at Melbourne, in the State of Victoria, this seventeenth day of April, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and three, and in the third year of His Majesty's reign.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

CONVEYANCE OF MAILS.

FRESH Tenders for the following Mail Service, for the period commencing on the 1st June, 1903, and terminating on the 31st December, 1904 or 1905, will be received at the Office of the Deputy Postmaster-General, Sydney, up to half-past Two p.m. on Wednesday, the 13th prox:—

To and from Guyra and Koala, via J. Collins's, 'Hegney's, Moorhead's, Whan's, Kemp's, Dawson's, Mulligan's, Balderslie, and the route at present followed to Koala, twice a week. Tenderers to specify a price to make Abingdon, instead of Koala, the terminus, if required.

Every tender must state the names in full and the residences or business addresses and the occupations of the tenderer and of two respectable and responsible persons willing to join with the tenderer in a bond in a form approved by the Postmaster-General, guaranteeing the safety of the mails and the due performance of the contract, the penal sum in which bond will be double the annual amount payable under the contract. Tenderers are requested, if possible, to state the name and address of some person or firm in Sydney to whom notices in connexion with the tender or contract may be sent.

Tenderers must in each case state how they propose to carry mails, and must furnish a description of the kind of vehicle (where such mode of conveyance is intended) which they propose to use; preference will, however, be given to tenders to convey mails by wheeled vehicle licensed to carry passengers.

Every tender must be signed by the tenderer and sureties, and attested by a magistrate or postmaster.

Tenders must be addressed to the Deputy Postmaster-General, Sydney, and indorsed "Tender for Conveyance of Mails."

On every tender there must be indorsed a certificate by a magistrate that the tenderer and his sureties are respectable and responsible persons.

All tenders which do not comply with the foregoing conditions, or are not received before the time specified, will be liable to be rejected as informal.

Unless Contractors and their sureties sign the bonds within twenty-one days after a notice signed by the Deputy Postmaster-General, Sydney, requesting them so to do, shall have been posted to the Contractor, the Postmaster-General may cancel the acceptance of tenders.

The present hours of starting from each post-office or stage, and other particulars, may be ascertained at the General Post Office, Sydney, where parties proposing to tender are invited to seek information.

Printed forms of tender may be obtained on application at the General and other post-offices throughout the State, and persons tendering are requested to fill up such forms with great care.

The Postmaster-General does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any tender.

The conditions will be the same as those in the advertisement dated the 5th September, 1902, and published in the Commonwealth Gazette of 12th September, 1902, and tenders will not be considered unless in accordance therewith.
