TENDERS FOR THE CONVEYANCE OF MAILS.

SEALED Tenders, indorsed "Tender for Conveyance of Mails," are invited, and will be received at the office of the Acting Deputy Postmaster-General, Perth, until Noon on Tuesday, the 11th September, 1906, for the Conveyance of Mails, as under, for a term of one, two, or three years, at the option of the Postmaster-General, viz.:—

From and to, and to and from, the Post Office, Karri-dale to Cape Leeuwin Light House, via Government School, the settlers' homesteads, and Flinders Bay (Augusta), once a week, on horseback.

The contractor will be required to convey, without extra cost to the Department, Parcels Post parcels up to three (3) pounds each in weight.

The arrival and departure of mails will be subject to instructions from the Deputy Postmaster-General, Perth, and liable to alteration at any time during the period of contract.

Every tender must bear the bona fide signatures, duly witnessed, of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the due fulfilment of the contract in a sum not exceeding the gross amount of the tender, for the whole period over which it extends.

Every tender must be accompanied by the written consent, duly witnessed, of persons proposed as bondsmen, to execute the necessary bond for the due performance of the contract in the event of such tender being accepted.

The successful tenderer must, if the amount of his tender exceeds £25, within seven days after the acceptance thereof, deposit with the Receiver, General Post Office, Perth, a sum equal to 5 per centum of the annual amount of his tender up to £1,000, and 2½ per centum on any further amount beyond £1,000.

White labour only must be employed in the conveyance of mails.

The rate of wages paid by the contractor and the working conditions shall be those recognised in the locality in which the work is performed.

The Postmaster-General reserves the right of terminating the contract at any time by giving three months' notice to the contractor.

Special forms of tender, with conditions attached, may be obtained gratuitously upon application to the Acting Deputy Postmaster-General, Perth, or at any Post Office in the State, and no tender will be entertained unless on the prescribed form.

The Postmaster-General does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any tender.

Where tenders are submitted through the post, they should be sent under registered cover.

AUSTIN CHAPMAN,
Postmaster-General.

Postmaster-General's Department,
1st August, 1906.

CONVEYANCE OF MAILS—1907, 1908, AND 1909.

SEPARATE Tenders are invited, and will be received at the offices of the Deputy Postmaster-General, Hobart, until Noon on Monday, the 1st October, 1906, for the Conveyance of Mails (including parcels), for a period of three years from the 1st January, 1907, as specified hereunder:—

All tenders must be written on an approved form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously, on application, at any Post Office in the State, and must be sent under cover, addressed to the Deputy Postmaster-General, Hobart, with the words "Tender for Mail Service No. . . .," indorsed thereon. They may be placed in the Tender-box at the General Post Office, Hobart; if sent by post they must be prepaid and registered. Tenderers must send in a separate tender for each service as numbered in this advertisement.

Combined tenders for any services will not be accepted except in cases specifically stated.

Tenderers for horse services will be required to carry parcels up to 3 lbs. each in weight, and those who tender for services by coach, buggy, or other vehicle will be required to carry parcels up to 11 lbs. each in weight.

Tenderers must state in every case the means by which they propose to convey the mails (including parcels), whether by horse or by coach or other vehicle.

Every tender must be signed by the tenderer and his sureties, and attested by a Postmaster or Magistrate.

On every tender there must be indorsed a certificate by a Magistrate that the tenderer and his sureties are respectable and responsible persons.

All tenders which do not comply with the foregoing conditions or are not received before the time specified will be liable to be rejected as informal.

Tenders must be accompanied, in cases where the annual amount thereof exceeds £25 per annum, by a deposit equal to 5 per cent. on the annual amount of such tender up to £1,000, and 2½ per cent. on any further amount beyond £1,000, such deposit to be in cash or in the form of a cheque indorsed by the manager of the bank upon which it is drawn, or a bank draft made payable to the Receiver, Public Moneys, General Post Office, Hobart.

The amount deposited shall be absolutely forfeited to the Postmaster-General in case the person whose tender has been accepted and his sureties shall fail to complete the bond stipulated for within thirty days from the date of notice of the acceptance of his tender, and such acceptance may thereupon be cancelled.

The sum deposited by the successful tenderer in each case will not be returned until after he shall have performed the service for one calendar month to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General.

Every tender must state the names in full and the residences or business addresses and the occupations of the tenderer, and of two respectable and responsible persons willing to join with the tenderer in a bond in a form approved by the Postmaster-General, guaranteeing the safety of the mails and the due performance of the contract, the penal sum in which bond will be double the annual amount payable under the contract.

The Time Table and General Conditions may be seen at offices mentioned in service, or at the General Post Office, Hobart, where persons proposing to tender are invited to seek information.

The Postmaster-General does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any tender.

AUSTIN CHAPMAN,
Postmaster-General.
