LICENCE

By His Excellency the Right Honorable Sir Ronald Craufurd Munro Ferguson, a Member of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of the Commonwealth of Australia.

Commonwealth of Australia to wit.

R. M. FERGUSON,
Governor-General.

WHEREAS by a Proclamation relating to Trading with the Enemy, issued by His Majesty the King in Council on the ninth day of September, One thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and published in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette of the twelfth day of September, One thousand nine hundred and fourteen, it is amongst other things declared that nothing in that Proclamation shall be taken to prohibit anything which shall be expressly permitted by licence given by His Majesty, or by the licence given on behalf of His Majesty, by a Secretary of State, or the Board of Trade, whether such licences be especially granted to individuals or be announced as applying to classes of persons:

And whereas by a further Proclamation issued by His Majesty the King in Council on the eighth day of October, One thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and published in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette on the twelfth day of October, One thousand nine hundred and fourteen, it is among other things provided that the power to grant licences on behalf of His Majesty, vested by the first recited Proclamation in a Secretary of State, may be exercised in Australia by the Governor-General:

And whereas prior to the commencement of the present state of war Robert M. Tritsch, of Melbourne, in the State of Victoria, booked orders on behalf of divers persons in Australia for, and remitted to Austria subscriptions and orders for, the supply to those persons of certain publications published in that country:

And whereas it is desirable that all publications for which orders were so booked and subscriptions and orders so remitted to Austria, but which have not yet been delivered, should be so delivered:

Now therefore I, Sir Ronald Craufurd Munro Ferguson, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, do hereby grant a licence permitting the delivery to the persons on whose behalf orders were booked, and subscriptions and orders remitted to Austria, before the commencement of the present state of war, of all publications in respect of which orders were so booked, and subscriptions and orders so remitted.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth, at Melbourne, this twenty-third day of April, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and in the fifth year of His Majesty's reign.

And whereas by the said Proclamation it is further provided that nothing in the Proclamation shall be taken to prohibit anything which shall be expressly permitted by the licence of a Secretary of State whether such licence be especially granted to individuals or be announced as applying to classes of persons:

And whereas by a further Proclamation issued by His Majesty the King in Council on the eighth day of October, One thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and published in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette on the twelfth day of October, One thousand nine hundred and fourteen, it is amongst other things provided that the power to grant licences on behalf of His Majesty, vested by the first recited Proclamation in a Secretary of State, may be exercised in Australia by the Governor-General:

Now, therefore, I, Sir Ronald Craufurd Munro Ferguson, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, do hereby authorize such persons as may be empowered by the Minister of State for Defence in that behalf to make such payments, for the benefit of British subjects resident in an enemy country, or of widows resident in an enemy country who before marriage were British subjects, of reasonable sums required for their maintenance, as the said Minister for Defence may from time to time sanction, or to receive payment of moneys from persons resident in an enemy country, for the benefit of enemy subjects, or of widows who before marriage were enemy subjects, of reasonable sums required for their maintenance, in such cases as the said Minister for Defence may from time to time sanction.
