THURSDAY, 15TH JUNE.

[1916.]

Prime Minister's Department,
Melbourne, 14th June, 1916.

THE following copy of The Declaration of London Order in Council, 1916, is published for general information.

G. F. PEARCE,
Acting Prime Minister.

AT THE COURT AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

THE 30TH DAY OF MARCH, 1916.

Present:

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the Declaration of London Order in Council No. 2, 1914, His Majesty was pleased to direct that during the present hostilities the provisions of the Convention known as the Declaration of London should, subject to certain omissions and modifications therein set out, be adopted and put in force by His Majesty's Government; and

Whereas doubts have arisen as to the effect of Article 1 (iii) of the said Order in Council on the right to effect the capture of conditional contraband on board a vessel bound for a neutral port; and

Whereas it is expedient to put an end to such doubts and otherwise to amend the said Order in Council in the manner hereinafter appearing; and

Whereas by Article 19 of the said Declaration it is provided that whatever may be the ulterior destination of a vessel or of her cargo, she cannot be captured for breach of blockade if, at the moment, she is on her way to a non-blockaded port; and

Whereas it is no longer expedient to adopt Article 19 of the said Declaration;

C.7038.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to Order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The provisions of the Declaration of London Order in Council No. 2, 1914, shall not be deemed to limit or to have limited in any way the right of His Majesty, in accordance with the law of nations, to capture goods upon the ground that they are conditional contraband, nor to affect or to have affected the liability of conditional contraband to capture, whether the carriage of the goods to their destination be direct or entail transshipment or a subsequent transport by land.

2. The provisions of Article 1 (ii) and (iii) of the said Order in Council shall apply to absolute contraband as well as to conditional contraband.

3. The destinations referred to in Article 30 and in Article 33 of the said Declaration shall (in addition to any presumptions laid down in the said Order in Council) be presumed to exist, if the goods are consigned to or for a person who, during the present hostilities, has forwarded imported contraband goods to territory belonging to or occupied by the enemy.

4. In the cases covered by Articles 2 and 3 of this Order, it shall lie upon the owner of the goods to prove that their destination was innocent.

5. From and after the date of this Order, Article 19 of the Declaration of London shall cease to be adopted and put in force. Neither a vessel nor her cargo shall be immune from capture for breach of blockade upon the sole ground that she is at the moment on her way to a non-blockaded port.

6. This Order may be cited as "The Declaration of London Order in Council, 1916."

And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and each of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the President of the Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division of the High Court of Justice, all other Judges of His Majesty's Prize Courts, and all Governors, Officers and Authorities whom it may concern, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

WHEREAS by a Proclamation dated the seventh day of July, One thousand nine hundred and fifteen, made under the Trading with the Enemy Act 1914, and published in the Gazette of the seventh day of July, the Governor-General proclaimed that any transaction with or for the benefit of a company to which the Proclamation applies is thereby declared to be trading with the enemy, and is prohibited, and that the Proclamation applies (inter alia) to any company, whether incorporated in any enemy country or not, which the Attorney-General, by notice published in the Gazette, declares to be, in his opinion, managed or controlled, directly or indirectly, by or under the influence of, or carried on wholly or mainly for the benefit or on behalf of, persons of enemy nationality, or resident or carrying on business in an enemy country:

And whereas by a Proclamation dated the twenty-second day of December, One thousand nine hundred and fifteen, made under the said Act and published in the Gazette of the twenty-third day of December, One thousand nine hundred and fifteen, the Governor-General proclaimed that any transaction with or for the benefit of—

- (a) any firm carrying on business in the Commonwealth or elsewhere which the Attorney-General, by notice published in the Gazette, declares to be, in his opinion, managed or controlled, directly or indirectly, by or under the influence of, or carried on wholly or mainly for the benefit or on behalf of, persons of enemy nationality, or resident or carrying on business in an enemy country; or
- (b) any person carrying on business in the Commonwealth or elsewhere whom the Attorney-General, by notice published in the Gazette, declares to be, in his opinion—
  - (i) a person who is or has at any time been a subject of a State which is now at war with the King; or
  - (ii) a person, whether a British subject or not, who is carrying on business on behalf or in the interests of a company, firm, or person with which or with whom trading is prohibited, is thereby declared to be trading with the enemy, and is prohibited:

Now therefore I, Hugh Mahon, Acting Attorney-General of the Commonwealth, do hereby declare the companies and firms mentioned in the Schedule hereto to be, in my opinion, managed or controlled, directly or indirectly, by or under the influence of, or carried on wholly or mainly for the benefit or on behalf of, persons of enemy nationality, or resident or carrying on business in an enemy country, and the persons mentioned in the said Schedule to be, in my opinion, persons who are or have at any time been subjects of a State which is now at war with the King; or persons, whether British subjects or not, who are carrying on business on behalf or in the interests of a company, firm, or person with which or with whom trading is prohibited.

Dated this sixth day of June, 1916.

H. MAHON,

Acting Attorney-General of the Commonwealth.

EXAMINATION FEE.—Each application must be accompanied by a crossed postal note for 5s.

VACANCIES.—Successful candidates will be eligible for appointment, in their order of merit, to existing vacancies at the centre at which they are examined only, and also to vacancies arising at such centre during the period of eighteen months ensuing the date of the entry of their names on the Register of Qualified Candidates. A successful candidate will, however, cease to be eligible for appointment upon attaining his seventeenth birthday.

SALARY.—The salary attached to the position is—1st year, £39; 2nd year, £52; with an increase, after a further twelve months, to £60 per annum conditional on passing a test in sending and receiving telegraph messages at the rate of twenty words a minute.

On reaching the age of 21 years, officers in the General Division may be paid a salary of £132 per annum.

(c) Arithmetic—First four rules, simple and money. (Maximum marks, 200.)

GENERAL PARTICULARS.—Candidates will pass this examination if they secure half marks in Handwriting and in Spelling; but those who also gain half marks in Arithmetic will be eligible for promotion to a higher position in the General Division. Those who do not secure half marks in Arithmetic will be required to pass a further examination, after appointment, in that subject in order to become qualified for promotion. A Telegraph Messenger on attaining the age of 18 years must retire unless he has qualified for promotion. Promotion examinations are held half-yearly.

Telegraph Messengers, upon being qualified for promotion, may be appointed to higher positions in the General Division, such as Telephonist, Postman, Assistant, Mail Driver, and Indoor Messenger. Officers may advance from these positions to other and higher positions in the General Division. Telegraph Messengers may also be appointed as Postal Assistants on passing an examination in Telegraphy.

Telegraph Messengers and other General Division officers may qualify for transfer to the Clerical Division by passing competitive examinations that are held for that purpose from time to time as the requirements of the Service demand.

NAVAL OR MILITARY TRAINING.—Before any successful candidate, who is liable for training under the compulsory clauses of the Defence Act 1903-15, can receive appointment, he must produce evidence from his Area Officer that he has rendered the personal service required or has been granted a temporary exemption.

A successful candidate should not undergo medical examination until instructed by the Commissioner to do so.

Candidates who elect to be examined in optional subjects will undergo examination in those subjects at centres where there are technical colleges or junior technical schools which will provide facilities for the examination.

Persons Eligible to Enter.—The examination will be open to males who, at date of examination, will have reached the age of fourteen years and six months, but will not have attained their sixteenth birthday; but a successful candidate cannot be appointed until he reaches his sixteenth birthday. An officer on the permanent staff will be exempt from payment of fee if, as an officer of the Commonwealth Public Service, he paid an entrance fee at an examination, held under the Commonwealth Public Service Act or Regulations, at which he was not successful; but, if, at the last examination of the kind for which he entered, and at which a fee was payable, he was admitted without payment of fee, he will be required to lodge a fee of 5s. with his application.

It should be noted that Telegraph Messengers cannot be exempted from entrance fee by reason of the fee paid by them at their entrance examination.

An officer who claims to be exempt from payment of fee should indicate in his application (a) the number of the examination for which he entered and paid a fee; (b) the year (and, if possible, the date) in which it was held; and (c) the position for which he competed.

Salary.—The minimum salary to be paid appointees will be £54 per annum, and appointees may advance by annual increments to £144 per annum. Upon attaining the age of 21 years, and passing the prescribed examination, a Junior Mechanic will be promoted to the position of Mechanic.

Conditions of Appointment.—Successful candidates will be appointed on six months' probation in their order of passing the Examination, subject to their having reached their sixteenth birthday. A successful candidate from outside the Service must, upon appointment, produce evidence of the date of his birth and a medical certificate, satisfying the Commissioner in such particulars as he may determine, of sound bodily health and freedom from physical defects. He will also be required to assure his life in accordance with the Regulations. A successful candidate should not undergo medical examination until he is instructed by the Commissioner to do so.

Appointees will be trained in the work of electrical mechanics in the telephone and telegraph sections of the Department.

Naval and Military Training.—Before a successful candidate, who is liable for training under the compulsory clauses of the Defence Act 1903-15, can receive appointment, he must produce evidence from his Area Officer that he has rendered the personal service required, or has been granted a temporary exemption.

Refusal of Appointment.—If a successful candidate decline to accept an appointment offered to him, or fail to reply within seven days to a communication from the Commissioner or a Public Service Inspector respecting his nomination to the Public Service, his name may be removed from the "Register of Qualified Candidates."

Text-books.—No text-books for the educational examination are prescribed, but the annual issues in book form or papers set at Commonwealth Public Service Examinations held during the years 1913, 1914, and 1915 (including examinations for appointment as Junior Mechanic in training) may be obtained from the Government Printer, Melbourne, for 1s. each (by post, 1s. 1d., for which a postal note must be remitted, as stamps alone will not be accepted).

NOTIFICATION OF VACANCIES.

APPPLICATIONS will be received by the Public Service Commissioner from persons qualified for appointment to the positions specified below.

Applicants outside the Public Service are eligible for appointment to the Administrative and Professional Divisions, but are not eligible for appointment to Clerical or General Division vacancies, unless they were in the service of a State on 1st January, 1901, or are at present permanent officers in the service of a State, or have retired from the service of the Commonwealth or of a State.

Applications must be in applicant's handwriting, and should show fully qualifications for the position sought.

In the case of applicants who are officers of the Public Service of the Commonwealth or of a State the following particulars should be set out at the foot of the application:—

Designation .....
Office or Branch .....
Age last birthday (in years) .....
Length of service (in years) .....
Salary (per annum) .....
Date of receipt of present salary .....

Applicants from outside the Service should state full name and date and year of birth. Copies only of diplomas, references, testimonials, or certificates should be forwarded. If the originals are required they will be asked for.

Applications should be addressed to the "Commonwealth Public Service Inspector" of the State in which the vacancy exists. If the applicant is an officer of the Commonwealth Public Service the application should be forwarded to the Inspector through the principal officer of the Department in the State in which the officer is located, except when the vacancy is in another State, when the application should be forwarded direct by the applicant to the Inspector, a copy at the same time being forwarded to the principal officer of the Department.

Minimum and maximum salaries where shown indicate the limits of the class or grade in which the position is classified. Subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act appointments may be made at any salary within those limits. Successful appointees must comply with the life assurance provisions of the Public Service Act and Regulations.

Officers of the Public Service should note that in any case where the minimum salary of a position in the Clerical Division is not the minimum salary of a Class, and the successful applicant is not eligible for the former by reason of not having received the salary of the next lower subdivision for twelve months, he will be granted an allowance equal to the difference between the salary for which he is eligible and the minimum salary of the position until he can be advanced by annual subdivisional increments to the latter salary.

Where vacancies are notified in positions which have been the subject of award, the minimum and maximum salaries shown are those prescribed by the award. If the officer appointed to any such position is eligible to become, but is not, a member of the organization which obtained the award, he can only be paid the rates of salary prescribed in the Public Service Act or Regulations for the position to which he has been appointed, unless and until he becomes a member of the organization, when the award rates shall apply.

Officers who may be transferred without promotion or increase of salary, as the result of an application for an advertised vacancy, will be required to pay their own expenses of removal unless the transfer comes within the conditions prescribed in Public Service Regulation No. 54.

Particulars of existing quarters are furnished merely for the information of officers. It is not incumbent on Departments to provide quarters, which, if provided, may be wholly or partially withdrawn at any time.
