THURSDAY, 2ND DECEMBER.

[1920.]

IMPORTATION OF CARBIDE OF CALCIUM.

PROCLAMATION

Australia to wit.
FORSTER,
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-
General of the Commonwealth
of Australia.

WHEREAS by the Customs Act 1901-1920 it is enacted that all goods the importation of which may be prohibited by Proclamation are prohibited imports:

And whereas it is desirable to prohibit the importation of carbide of calcium into the Commonwealth of Australia unless the consent in writing of the Minister of State for Trade and Customs has first been obtained:

Now therefore I, Henry William, Baron Forster, Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, do hereby prohibit the importation of carbide of calcium into the Commonwealth of Australia unless the consent in writing of the Minister of State for Trade and Customs has first been obtained.

This Proclamation may be cited as Customs Proclamation No. 18. (T. & C. 20/C.9634.)

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth, at Melbourne, this second day of December, (L.S.) in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twenty, and in the eleventh year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

W. MASSY GREENE,
Minister of State for Trade and Customs.
GOD SAVE THE KING!

REVOCATION OF PROCLAMATION RELATING TO THE EXPORTATION OF GOODS TO GERMANY, AUSTRIA-HUNGARY, TURKEY, AND BULGARIA.

PROCLAMATION

Australia to wit.
FORSTER,
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-
General of the Commonwealth
of Australia.

WHEREAS by the Customs Act 1901-1920 it is among other things enacted that the Governor-General may, by Proclamation, prohibit the exportation of any goods the exportation of which would, in his opinion, be harmful to the Commonwealth, and that the power above-mentioned extends to authorize the prohibition of the exportation of goods generally, or to any specified place, and either absolutely or so as to allow of the exportation of the goods subject to any condition or restriction:

C.20267.

And whereas by a Proclamation issued on the fourteenth day of January, 1920, and published in the Commonwealth Gazette of the fourteenth day of January, 1920, the exportation of goods to Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey, and Bulgaria was prohibited unless the consent in writing of the Minister of State for Trade and Customs to such exportation had first been obtained:

And whereas it is desirable to revoke the said Proclamation:

Now therefore I, Henry William, Baron Forster, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, do hereby revoke the said Proclamation.

This Proclamation may be cited as Customs Proclamation No. 19.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth, at Melbourne, this second day of December, (L.S.) in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twenty, and in the eleventh year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

W. MASSY GREENE,
Minister of State for Trade and Customs.
GOD SAVE THE KING!

ORDER

Australia to wit.
FORSTER,
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-
General of the Commonwealth
of Australia.

WHEREAS by the Trading with the Enemy Act 1914-1916, it is enacted that the Governor-General may, for the purposes of the Act, appoint a person to act as custodian of enemy property, and that that person is referred to in that Act as the Public Trustee:

And whereas by Order dated the twenty-eighth July, 1920, the Acting Deputy Comptroller-General of Customs was appointed to act as custodian of enemy property for the purposes of the Trading with the Enemy Act 1914-1916 and to be the Public Trustee:

And whereas it is desirable that the said appointment should be cancelled as on the first December, 1920:

Now therefore I, Henry William, Baron Forster, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, do hereby cancel the said appointment as on the first December, 1920.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth, at Melbourne, this first day of December, (L.S.) in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twenty, and in the eleventh year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

W. MASSY GREENE, Minister for Trade and Customs.

ORDER

Australia to wit.
FORSTER,
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia.

WHEREAS by the Trading with the Enemy Act 1914-1916, it is enacted that the Governor-General may, for the purposes of the Act, appoint a person to act as custodian of enemy property, and that that person is referred to in that Act as the Public Trustee:

Now therefore I, Henry William, Baron Forster, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, do hereby appoint the Acting Comptroller-General of Customs to act as custodian of enemy property for the purposes of the Trading with the Enemy Act 1914-1916, and to be the Public Trustee, such appointment to take effect on and from the 2nd December, 1920.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth, at Melbourne, this first day of December, in (L.S.) the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twenty, and in the eleventh year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

W. MASSY GREENE, Minister for Trade and Customs.

ORDER

Australia to wit.
FORSTER,
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia.

WHEREAS by Regulation 4 of the Treaty of Peace Regulations made under the Treaty of Peace Act 1919 it is provided for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the Treaty of Peace with Germany in relation to the collection and payment of enemy debts there shall be a Clearing Office which shall be controlled and managed by the Controller who shall be appointed by the Governor-General:

And whereas by Order dated the eleventh August, 1920, the Acting Deputy Comptroller-General of Customs was appointed to act as Controller of the Clearing Office:

And whereas it is desirable that the said appointment should be cancelled as on the first December, 1920:

Now therefore I, Henry William, Baron Forster, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, do hereby cancel the said appointment as on the first December, 1920.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth, at Melbourne, this first day of December, in (L.S.) the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twenty, and in the eleventh year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

W. MASSY GREENE, Minister for Trade and Customs.

ORDER

Australia to wit.
FORSTER,
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia.

WHEREAS by Regulation 4 of the Treaty of Peace Regulations made under the Treaty of Peace Act 1919 it is provided for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the Treaty of Peace with Germany in relation to the collection and payment of enemy debts there shall be a Clearing Office which shall be controlled and managed by the Controller who shall be appointed by the Governor-General:

Now therefore I, Henry William, Baron Forster, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, do hereby appoint the Acting Comptroller-General of Customs as the Controller of the Clearing Office established for the collection and payment of enemy debts in pursuance of the said Treaty, such appointment to take effect on and from the second December, 1920.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth, at Melbourne, this first day of December, in (L.S.) the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twenty, and in the eleventh year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

W. MASSY GREENE, Minister for Trade and Customs.
