PROCLAMATION.

Commonwealth of Australia to wit.
STONEHAVEN
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-
General of the Commonwealth of Australia.

WHEREAS by Section 4 of the Importation of Plants Ordinance 1915-1917 of the Territory of Norfolk Island it is enacted that the Governor-General may, by proclamation exhibited at or near the Court House, Norfolk Island, prohibit, either absolutely or subject to any specified condition or restriction, the importation of any plant or declare any disease affecting plants to be a disease to which this Ordinance applies:

And whereas the word "plants" is defined in the Ordinance to include the seeds, or any parts, of plants:

Now therefore I, John Lawrence, Baron Stonehaven, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, do hereby declare that the importation of Passion Fruit plants into Norfolk Island is absolutely prohibited.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth, at Melbourne, this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, and in the nineteenth year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

C. W. C. MARR,

for Minister of State for Home and Territories.

GOD SAVE THE KING!

DIRECTION

Commonwealth of Australia to wit.
STONEHAVEN
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-
General of the Commonwealth
of Australia.

WHEREAS by sub-section (3.) of section thirty-eight of the Northern Australia Act 1926 it is, inter alia, enacted that where any law which is continued in force in North Australia by virtue of this section is a law of the State of South Australia, any power or function, which by that law is vested in the Governor of the State of South Australia, shall, in relation to North Australia, be vested in and exercised or performed by the Governor-General, or as the Governor-General directs:

Now therefore I, John Lawrence, Baron Stonehaven, the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, do hereby direct that the powers and functions in relation to North Australia vested in the Governor of South Australia under section seven of the Prison Act 1869, shall be vested in and exercised or performed by the Government Resident for North Australia.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth, at Melbourne, this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, and in the nineteenth year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

C. W. C. MARR,

for Minister of State for Home and Territories.

DIRECTION

Commonwealth of Australia to wit
STONEHAVEN
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-
General of the Commonwealth
of Australia.

WHEREAS by sub-section (3.) of section thirty-eight of the Northern Australia Act 1926 it is, inter alia, enacted that where any law which is continued in force in Central Australia by virtue of this section is a law of the State of South Australia, any power or function, which by that law is vested in the Governor of the State of South Australia, shall, in relation to Central Australia, be vested in and exercised or performed by the Governor-General, or as the Governor-General directs:

Now therefore I, John Lawrence, Baron Stonehaven, the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, do hereby direct that the powers and functions in relation to Central Australia vested in the Governor of South Australia under section seven of the Prison Act 1869, shall be vested in and exercised or performed by the Government Resident for Central Australia.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth, at Melbourne, this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, and in the nineteenth year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

C. W. C. MARR,

for Minister of State for Home and Territories.

THE TERRITORY FOR THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.

No. 21 of 1928.

AN ORDINANCE

Relating to Public Health.

BE it ordained by the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Seat of Government Acceptance Act 1909 and the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Public Health Ordinance 1928.

Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command,

C. W. C. MARR

for Minister of State for Home and Territories.

THE TERRITORY OF CENTRAL AUSTRALIA.

No. 20 of 1928.

AN ORDINANCE

Relating to the exercise of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and to provide for the service and execution throughout the Northern Territory of the civil and criminal process and the judgments of the Courts of Record of Central Australia.

BE it ordained by the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Northern Australia Act 1926, as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Service and Execution of Process Ordinance 1928. Short title.

2.—(1.) The Supreme Court may, for the purpose of exercising its jurisdiction, sit at such places in North Australia and at such times and for such purposes as the Government Resident thinks fit by commission under his hand to direct. Sittings of Court in North Australia.

(2.) Anything done by, to or before the Supreme Court when so sitting in North Australia shall be as valid and have the same force and effect as if the Court were sitting in Central Australia.

3.—(1.) A writ of summons issued out of or requiring the defendant to appear at any Court of Record may be served on the defendant as well in North Australia as in Central Australia. Writ of summons may be served in any part of the Northern Territory.

(2.) That service may, subject to any rules of court which may be made under this Ordinance or under the Supreme Court Ordinance 1911-1927, be effected in the same manner as if the writ were served on the defendant in Central Australia.

4. When a judgment is given or made against a defendant who has been served with a writ of summons under this Ordinance the judgment shall have the same force and effect as if the writ had been served on the defendant in Central Australia. Effect of judgment.

5.—(1.) A subpoena or summons issued by any court, judge or magistrate requiring any person to appear and give evidence or to produce books or documents in any civil or criminal trial or proceeding may be served on that person in North Australia. Subpoena or summons to witness may be served in North Australia.

(2.) If that person fails to attend at the time and place mentioned in the subpoena or summons, the court, judge or magistrate, or any other magistrate having jurisdiction in Central Australia may, on proof that the subpoena or summons was duly served on that person and that a reasonable sum was tendered to him for his expenses, issue such warrant for the apprehension of that person as the court, judge or magistrate might have issued if the subpoena or summons had been served in Central Australia.

(3.) The warrant may be executed in North Australia in the manner provided in this Ordinance in the case of warrants issued for the apprehension of persons charged with an offence.

6. Any warrant issued by any court, judge, magistrate or justice for the apprehension or commitment of any person shall be sufficient authority to the person bearing the warrant and also to all constables and persons to whom the warrant was originally directed and also to all constables or other peace officers in North Execution of warrants.

Australia to execute the warrant in North Australia and to apprehend the person against whom the warrant was issued and bring him, as soon as may be, before a court of competent jurisdiction to answer the charge or complaint or be dealt with according to law.

Execution of writ of attachment.

7. When a writ of attachment has been issued against any person by a court of record or a judge thereof for a contempt of the court or disobedience of an order thereof, the writ may be executed in North Australia and the Sheriff of Central Australia or the Sheriff of North Australia or any other officer named in the writ may apprehend the person and bring him before the court out of which the writ was issued.

Enforcement of judgments.

8. Any judgment given or made in any court of record may be enforced in North Australia as fully and effectually as it may be enforced in Central Australia.

Officers.

9. Every officer of the Supreme Court of North Australia shall also be an officer of the Supreme Court of Central Australia and shall, when acting as an officer of the Supreme Court of Central Australia—

- (a) be deemed to hold a similar office in relation to that Court as he holds in relation to the Supreme Court of North Australia, or, if some other person holds such a similar office, to be the deputy of that person; and
- (b) have the same powers and functions in relation to that Court as he has in relation to the Supreme Court of North Australia when acting as an officer of that Court.

Rules of Court.

10. The Judge or Acting Judge of the Northern Territory may make rules—

- (a) for prescribing the practice and procedure in connexion with the service of process of courts under this Ordinance; and
- (b) for prescribing the fees to be paid in connexion with the service of that process.

Dated this fifth day of November, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight.

- (b) that she is the holder of a certificate of training as a midwife awarded by an institution or body approved by the Board for the purposes of this Part: Provided that the Board shall not approve of any institution or body for such purposes unless the standard of training and of examination required by the institution or body for the awarding of a certificate is considered by the Board equal to the standard of training and of examination prescribed by the Board; or
- (c) that she possesses the necessary competence, skill, and fitness for the practice of a midwife's calling, has attended, under supervision approved by the Board, at least twenty cases of confinement, including the lying-in period, and has passed the examination directed by the Board in the case of such persons.

(2.) Application for registration by persons entitled to registration by virtue only of paragraph (c) of sub-section (1) of this section shall be made within twelve months from the commencement of this Ordinance.

14. Subject to section fifteen of this Ordinance, every person shall be qualified to be registered as a nurse or midwife who proves to the satisfaction of the Board that she—

Persons qualified in other countries may be registered.

- (a) has passed through a course of training and has passed an examination for qualification as a nurse or as a midwife, as the case may be, in some other part of the British Empire or in some other country, such course of training and examination being recognized by the Board as not lower in standard than that required in Central Australia ; and
- (b) is by law entitled to be registered, or to practise as a nurse or as a midwife, as the case may be, in that part or country.

15. A person shall not be registered under this Ordinance unless she proves to the satisfaction of the Board that she—

Qualifications as to health.

- (a) is of good character ;
- (b) is over twenty-one years of age ; and
- (c) is of sound health, or of such a state of health that no danger would be involved to her patients.

16.—(1.) Any person desiring to be registered under this Ordinance shall submit to the Board proof of the qualifications upon which she relies.

Proof to be submitted to Board.

(2.) The Board may require the attendance before it of the person applying to be registered, and may require the attendance of any other person.

(3.) The Board may examine any person upon oath, affirmation or declaration, and for such purpose any member may administer an oath, affirmation or declaration.

(4.) A summons issued by the Board requiring the attendance of any person or the production of any documents, and signed by the Registrar, shall have the same effect as a subpoena ad testificandum or duces tecum, as the case may be, issued out of the Supreme Court in a civil action ; and obedience thereto, or non-observance thereof, or refusal to give evidence, shall be enforced or punished by a Judge of the Supreme Court in chambers, in the same manner as in the case of disobedience or non-observance of a subpoena issued out of the said Court, or refusal to give evidence before the said Court.

(5.) If not satisfied that the applicant is qualified to be registered, the Board may refuse the application or adjourn the application for further consideration.

17.—(1.) If a person who applies for registration is dissatisfied with the decision of the Board, she may, by motion to the Supreme Court, within three months of the giving of the decision, apply to that Court for an order directing the Board to register her.

Appeal to Supreme Court.

(2.) The Court, or a Judge thereof, may order that the applicant for registration be registered, or that she be registered conditionally or upon terms, or may decline to make any order.

18. When any person has paid the registration fee and become registered as a nurse, or as a midwife, the Registrar shall issue to such person a certificate of registration as a nurse or as a midwife, as the case may be.

Certificate of registration.

19. There shall be payable to the Board by every person registered a fee of One Pound One shilling.

Fee for registration.

20.—(1.) When a person has applied to be registered, the Chairman or, in his absence, any other member of the Board, upon being satisfied that the person is qualified to be registered, and upon payment of the registration fee, may grant to the person a provisional certificate of registration.

Provisional registration.

(2.) When a person has obtained a provisional certificate, she shall be deemed to be registered until—

- (a) the date stated in the certificate ; or
- (b) such later date as is fixed by the Board ;

which in no case shall be later than three months from the granting of the certificate :

Provided that if the Board, before the date so stated or fixed has reason to believe that the person is not qualified to be registered, it may, without prejudice to her application to be registered, cancel provisional certificate, and the person shall thereupon cease to be deemed to be registered.

Suspension and cancellation of
registration.

21.—(1.) The registration of any person as a nurse or as a midwife—

- (a) whose registration has been obtained by fraud or misrepresentation ; or
- (b) whose qualifications for registration, or any part thereof, have been withdrawn or cancelled by the institution at which they were acquired or by the institution or body by which they were awarded ; or
- (c) who, either before or after such registration, has been convicted of any felony or misdemeanor, or of any offence which, if committed in Central Australia, would be a felony or misdemeanor ; or
- (d) who is deemed by the Board to have been guilty of disgraceful conduct in any professional respect ; or
- (e) who has been convicted of any offence against any regulation made by the Board with respect to the practice of nurses or midwives ; or
- (f) who is an habitual drunkard ; or
- (g) who has been adjudged insane ;

may be cancelled or suspended by order of the Board, and upon the making of the order of cancellation, or during the period specified in the order of suspension, the person shall cease to be registered as a nurse or as a midwife, as the case may be.

(2.) In this section the term "disgraceful conduct in any professional respect" does not include any conduct which, either from its trivial nature or from the surrounding circumstances, does not in the public interest disqualify a person from practising her profession.

(3.) The Chief Medical Officer may investigate any charge of malpractice, negligence or misconduct on the part of any nurse or midwife and report thereon to the Board.

(4.) The cancellation or suspension of the registration of any person whose registration has been cancelled or suspended may, at any time, and for such reason as the Board thinks fit, by order of the Board, be annulled, and the effect of such annulment shall be as the Board determines.

(5.) Before cancelling or suspending the registration of any person the Board shall—

- (a) give to the person, or post to her by registered letter, notice in writing of the complaint against her ; and
- (b) hold full inquiry into the matter of the complaint and afford the person an opportunity of giving an explanation personally or in writing.

(6.) The provision of section sixteen of this Ordinance shall apply to the holding of an inquiry under this section in the same manner as if the inquiry were the hearing of an application for registration under that section.

(7.) If any person is dissatisfied with any decision of the Board under this section, the person may, by motion made within three months of the giving of the decision, apply to the Supreme Court for an order directing the Board to rescind or vary the decision, and on such motion the Court may make such order as it thinks just or may decline to make any order. Any order made by the Court on the appeal shall be final and conclusive.

Surrender of certificates of
registration.

22.—(1.) Any person whose registration as a nurse or as a midwife is ordered by the Board to be cancelled shall, within fourteen days of the notification to such person of the order, surrender to the Board every certificate of such registration issued to her under this Ordinance.

Penalty : Twenty pounds.

(2.) The cancellation of the registration of any person as a nurse or as a midwife shall be effectual notwithstanding the failure of that person to surrender the said certificates.

23.—(1.) The Registrar shall from time to time erase from the Nurses Register or the Midwives Register, as the case may be, the names of any nurses or any midwives who have died, and shall make such alterations and amendments in those registers as the Board from time to time directs for the purpose of making them an accurate record of the names, addresses and qualifications of the nurses and midwives entitled to practise in Central Australia.

Names to be erased from register in case of death, &c.

(2.) For the purposes of this section, the Registrar may post a notice to any nurse or midwife, addressed to her according to her address in the register, inquiring whether she has changed her place of address, and, if no answer is returned within six months after the posting thereof, the Board may cause the name of the person to be erased from the register.

24. The Nurses Register and the Midwives Register shall be kept in the office of the Registrar, and shall at all times be open to inspection by any person on payment of the fee fixed by the Board.

Inspection of registers.

PART IV.—MISCELLANEOUS.

25. A person registered under this Ordinance shall be entitled to sue in any Court of competent jurisdiction for the recovery of her fees or other remuneration for professional services of any kind; and no person other than a person so registered shall be entitled to sue or counter claim for or to set off or otherwise recover any charge or remuneration for any professional attendance or service as a nurse or midwife:

&c.

30.—(1.) No person shall exhibit, or publish, or cause, permit, or suffer to be exhibited or published, any letter, or any circular, handbill, placard, card, letter paper, bill-head, receipt form, or invoice, or any document or paper to be used in connexion with any business, practice, or profession, or other advertisement of any kind whereby any person advertises or holds herself out contrary to the provisions of section twenty-nine of this Ordinance.

(2.) This section shall not apply to any newspaper or magazine proprietor or printer publishing any advertisement before the receipt of written notice from the Registrar that the publication of the advertisement is contrary to this section.

False statements.

31. No person shall—

- (a) make or cause to be made any falsification in the Nurses Register or the Midwives Register, or in any matter relating to any of the said Registers; or
- (b) knowingly make any false statement upon any examination before the Board, or in any document to be used in evidence before, or to be submitted to, the Board; or
- (c) utter or put off, or attempt to utter or put off, as true before the Board any false, forged, or counterfeit certificate or other document or writing; or
- (d) procure or attempt to procure herself or any other person to be registered by making or producing, or causing to be made or produced, any false or fraudulent statement, declaration, or representation, either verbal or in writing; or
- (e) falsely personate or represent herself as being the person referred to in any certificate, document, or writing presented to the Board, or in any certificate granted under this Ordinance.

Penalty : Imprisonment for three years.

Forgery, &c. of certificates.

32. No person shall—

- (a) fraudulently or by false representation obtain any certificate or registration under this Ordinance; or
- (b) forge, alter, or counterfeit any such certificate; or
- (c) utter or use, or attempt to utter or use, any such forged certificate knowing the same to have been forged; or
- (d) falsely advertise or publish herself as having obtained any such certificate, or as being registered under this Ordinance or permit any such advertisement or publication.

Penalty : Imprisonment for three years.

Institution of proceedings.

33.—(1.) No proceedings in respect of any offence against this Ordinance, not being an indictable offence, shall be taken without the consent in writing of the Board.

(2.) The consent of the Board may be proved by the production of a notice in the prescribed form to that effect, purporting to be signed by the Chairman or the Registrar, or the person for the time being discharging the duties of the Chairman or the Registrar.

34. In any proceedings in respect of any offence against this Ordinance, not being an indictable offence, the defendant shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed not to be registered. Onus of proof of registration.

35. The Government Resident may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Ordinance, prescribing all matters which, by this Ordinance, are required or permitted to be prescribed, or which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Ordinance and in particular for— Regulations.

Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command,

C. W. C. MARR

for Minister of State for Home and Territories.

THE TERRITORY OF NORTH AUSTRALIA.

No. 22 of 1928.

AN ORDINANCE

Relating to the exercise of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and to provide for the service and execution throughout the Northern Territory of the civil and criminal process and the judgments of the Courts of Record of North Australia.

BE it ordained by the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Northern Australia Act 1926, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Service and Execution of Process Ordinance 1928.

Sittings of Court in Central Australia.

2.—(1.) The Supreme Court may, for the purpose of exercising its jurisdiction, sit at such places in Central Australia and at such times and for such purposes as the Government Resident thinks fit by commission under his hand to direct.

(2.) Anything done by, to or before the Supreme Court when so sitting in Central Australia shall be as valid and have the same force and effect as if the Court were sitting in North Australia.

3.—(1.) A writ of summons issued out of or requiring the defendant to appear at any Court of Record may be served on the defendant as well in Central Australia as in North Australia.

Writ of summons may be served in any part of the Northern Territory.

(2.) That service may, subject to any rules of court which may be made under this Ordinance or under the Supreme Court Ordinance 1911-1927, be effected in the same manner as if the writ were served on the defendant in North Australia.

4. When a judgment is given or made against a defendant who has been served with a writ of summons under this Ordinance the judgment shall have the same force and effect as if the writ had been served on the defendant in North Australia.

Effect of judgment.

5.—(1.) A subpoena or summons issued by any court, judge or magistrate requiring any person to appear and give evidence or to produce books or documents in any civil or criminal trial or proceeding may be served on that person in Central Australia.

Subpoena or summons to witness may be served in Central Australia.

(2.) If that person fails to attend at the time and place mentioned in the subpoena or summons, the court, judge or magistrate or any other magistrate having jurisdiction in North Australia may on proof that the subpoena or summons was duly served on that person and that a reasonable sum was tendered to him for his expenses, issue such warrant for the apprehension of that person as the court, judge or magistrate might have issued if the subpoena or summons had been served in North Australia.

(3.) The warrant may be executed in Central Australia in the manner provided in this Ordinance in the case of warrants issued for the apprehension of persons charged with an offence.

6. Any warrant issued by any court, judge, magistrate or justice for the apprehension or commitment of any person shall be sufficient authority to the person bearing the warrant and also to all constables and persons to whom the warrant was originally directed and also to all constables or other peace officers in Central Australia to execute the warrant in Central Australia and to apprehend the person against whom the warrant was issued and bring him, as soon as may be, before a court of competent jurisdiction to answer the charge or complaint or be dealt with according to law.

Execution of warrants.

7. When a writ of attachment has been issued against any person by a court of record or a judge thereof for a contempt of the court or disobedience of an order, thereof, the writ may be executed in Central Australia and the Sheriff of North Australia or the Sheriff of Central Australia or any other officer named in the writ may apprehend the person and bring him before the court out of which the writ was issued.

Execution of writ of attachment.

8. Any judgment given or made in any court of record may be enforced in Central Australia as fully and effectually as it may be enforced in North Australia.

Enforcement of judgments.

9. Every officer of the Supreme Court of Central Australia shall also be an officer of the Supreme Court of North Australia and shall, when acting as an officer of the Supreme Court of North Australia—

Officers.

(a) be deemed to hold a similar office in relation to that Court as he holds in relation to the Supreme Court of Central Australia, or, if some other person holds such a similar office, to be the deputy of that person; and

(b) have the same powers and functions in relation to that Court as he has in relation to the Supreme Court of Central Australia when acting as an officer of that Court.

Rules of Court.

10. The Judge or Acting Judge of the Northern Territory may make rules—

- (a) for prescribing the practice and procedure in connexion with the service of process of courts under this Ordinance; and may be registered.
- (b) for prescribing the fees to be paid in connexion with the service of that process.

Dated this fifth day of November, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight.

- (a) has passed through a course of training and has passed an examination for qualification as a nurse or as a midwife, as the case may be, in some other part of the British Empire or in some other country, such course of training and examination being recognized by the Board as not lower in standard than that required in North Australia; and
- (b) is by law entitled to be registered, or to practise as a nurse or as a midwife, as the case may be, in that part or country.

15. A person shall not be registered under this Ordinance unless she proves to the satisfaction of the Board that she—

Qualifications
as to health.

- (a) is of good character;
- (b) is over twenty-one years of age; and
- (c) is of sound health, or of such a state of health that no danger would be involved to her patients.

Proof to be submitted to Board.

16.—(1.) Any person desiring to be registered under this Ordinance shall submit to the Board proof of the qualifications upon which she relies.

(2.) The Board may require the attendance before it of the person applying to be registered, and may require the attendance of any other person.

(3.) The Board may examine any person upon oath, affirmation or declaration, and for such purpose any member may administer an oath, affirmation or declaration.

(4.) A summons issued by the Board requiring the attendance of any person or the production of any documents, and signed by the Registrar, shall have the same effect as a subpoena ad testificandum or duces tecum, as the case may be, issued out of the Supreme Court in a civil action; and obedience thereto, or non-observance thereof, or refusal to give evidence, shall be enforced or punished by a Judge of the Supreme Court in chambers, in the same manner as in the case of disobedience or non-observance of a subpoena issued out of the said Court, or refusal to give evidence before the said Court.

(5.) If not satisfied that the applicant is qualified to be registered, the Board may refuse the application or adjourn the application for further consideration.

Appeal to Supreme Court.

17.—(1.) If a person who applies for registration is dissatisfied with the decision of the Board, she may, by motion to the Supreme Court, within three months of the giving of the decision, apply to that Court for an order directing the Board to register her.

(2.) The Court, or a Judge thereof, may order that the applicant for registration be registered, or that she be registered conditionally or upon terms, or may decline to make any order.

Certificate of
registration.

18. When any person has paid the registration fee and become registered as a nurse, or as a midwife, the Registrar shall issue to such person a certificate of registration as a nurse or as a midwife, as the case may be.

Fee for registration.

19. There shall be payable to the Board by every person registered a fee of One Pound One shilling.

Provisional
registration.

20.—(1.) When a person has applied to be registered, the Chairman or, in his absence, any other member of the Board, upon being satisfied that the person is qualified to be registered, and upon payment of the registration fee, may grant to the person a provisional certificate of registration.

(2.) When a person has obtained a provisional certificate, she shall be deemed to be registered until—

(a) the date stated in the certificate; or

(b) such later date as is fixed by the Board;

which in no case shall be later than three months from the granting of the certificate:

Provided that if the Board, before the date so stated or fixed has reason to believe that the person is not qualified to be registered, it may, without prejudice to her application to be registered, cancel her provisional certificate, and the person shall thereupon cease to be deemed to be registered.

Suspension and cancellation of
registration.

21.—(1.) The registration of any person as a nurse or as a midwife—

(a) whose registration has been obtained by fraud or misrepresentation; or

(b) whose qualifications for registration, or any part thereof, have been withdrawn or cancelled by the institution at which they were acquired or by the institution or body by which they were awarded; or

(c) who, either before or after such registration, has been convicted of any felony or misdemeanor, or of any offence which, if committed in North Australia, would be a felony or misdemeanor; or

(d) who is deemed by the Board to have been guilty of disgraceful conduct in any professional respect; or

- (e) who has been convicted of any offence against any regulation made by the Board with respect to the practice of nurses or midwives ; or
- (f) who is an habitual drunkard ; or
- (g) who has been adjudged insane ;

may be cancelled or suspended by order of the Board, and upon the making of the order of cancellation, or during the period specified in the order of suspension, the person shall cease to be registered as a nurse or as a midwife, as the case may be.

(2.) In this section the term "disgraceful conduct in any professional respect" does not include any conduct which, either from its trivial nature or from the surrounding circumstances, does not in the public interest disqualify a person from practising her profession.

(3.) The Chief Medical Officer may investigate any charge of malpractice, negligence or misconduct on the part of any nurse or midwife and report thereon to the Board.

(4.) The cancellation or suspension of the registration of any person whose registration has been cancelled or suspended may, at any time, and for such reason as the Board thinks fit, by order of the Board, be annulled, and the effect of such annulment shall be as the Board determines.

(5.) Before cancelling or suspending the registration of any person the Board shall—

- (a) give to the person, or post to her by registered letter, notice in writing of the complaint against her : and
- (b) hold full inquiry into the matter of the complaint and afford the person an opportunity of giving an explanation personally or in writing.

(6.) The provision of section sixteen of this Ordinance shall apply to the holding of an inquiry under this section in the same manner as if the inquiry were the hearing of an application for registration under that section.

(7.) If any person is dissatisfied with any decision of the Board under this section, the person may, by motion made within three months of the giving of the decision, apply to the Supreme Court for an order directing the Board to rescind or vary the decision, and on such motion the Court may make such order as it thinks just or may decline to make any order. Any order made by the Court on the appeal shall be final and conclusive.

22.—(1.) Any person whose registration as a nurse or as a midwife is ordered by the Board to be cancelled shall, within fourteen days of the notification to such person of the order, surrender to the Board every certificate of such registration issued to her under this Ordinance.

Surrender of certificates of registration.

Penalty : Twenty pounds.

(2.) The cancellation of the registration of any person as a nurse or as a midwife shall be effectual notwithstanding the failure of that person to surrender the said certificates.

23.—(1.) The Registrar shall from time to time erase from the Nurses Register or the Midwives Register, as the case may be, the names of any nurses or any midwives who have died, and shall make such alterations and amendments in those registers as the Board from time to time directs for the purpose of making them an accurate record of the names, addresses and qualifications of the nurses and midwives entitled to practise in North Australia.

Names to be erased from register in case of death, &c.

(2.) For the purposes of this section, the Registrar may post a notice to any nurse or midwife, addressed to her according to her address in the register, inquiring whether she has changed her place of address, and, if no answer is returned within six months after the posting thereof, the Board may cause the name of the person to be erased from the register.

24. The Nurses Register and the Midwives Register shall be kept in the office of the Registrar, and shall at all times be open to inspection by any person on payment of the fee fixed by the Board.

Inspection of registers.

PART IV.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Recovery of fees.

25. A person registered under this Ordinance shall be entitled to sue in any Court of competent jurisdiction for the recovery of her fees or other remuneration for professional services of any kind; and no person other than a person so registered shall be entitled to sue or counter claim for or to set off or otherwise recover any charge or remuneration for any professional attendance or service as a nurse or midwife:

Provided that this section shall not apply to—

- (a) any legally qualified medical practitioner; or
- (b) any woman lawfully acting as a midwife in any case where there is no legally qualified medical practitioner or registered midwife, able and willing to act if requested, residing within a distance of ten miles of the place where the woman so acts.

Unregistered
nurses, &c., not to hold positions in certain institutions.

26. No person shall, without the authority in writing of the Minister, be competent to hold, or shall hold, in any institution in receipt of a grant or subsidy or other aid from the Government or in any training school, any permanent appointment (whether honorary or otherwise)—

- (a) as the matron, sister, or nurse in charge of the nursing of patients in the institution or school, unless the person is registered as a nurse; or
- (b) as a midwife, unless the person is registered as a midwife.

Penalty: Twenty pounds.

Unregistered
persons not to act as midwives.

27. A person who is not registered as a midwife shall not practise or attempt to practise as a midwife or practise midwifery:

Provided that this section shall not apply to—

- (a) a legally qualified medical practitioner; or
- (b) any person rendering assistance in a case of emergency; or
- (c) any woman acting as a midwife, whether for reward or not, in any case where there is no legally qualified medical practitioner or registered midwife, able and willing so to act if requested, residing within a distance of ten miles of the place where the woman so acts.

Penalty: Twenty pounds or imprisonment for three months.

Use of letters or words implying
registration.

28. No person shall be entitled to take or use the name or title of registered nurse, or midwife (either alone or in combination with any other word or words or letters) or any name, title, addition, or description implying that the person is a registered nurse or midwife or is recognized by law as a registered nurse or midwife unless the person is registered as a nurse or midwife.

Penalty: Twenty pounds.

Persons advertising holding themselves as being registered.

29. No person shall either directly or indirectly, by any name, or word or letter, or by any title or designation, whether expressed in words or by letters, or partly in one and partly in the other, or by any sign, device, article, or other thing whatsoever, or by any other means whatsoever, whether—

- (a) by having the same attached to or exhibited on, in, at, or near the person's place of business or residence, or any other place whatsoever; or
- (b) in any letter, newspaper, magazine, book, programme, circular, handbill, placard, card, letter paper, bill-head, receipt form, or invoice, or any document or paper used in connexion with any business, practice, or profession; or
- (c) in any other way whatsoever—advertise or hold herself out as being, or pretend to be—

- (i) a registered nurse, unless the person is registered as a nurse;
- (ii) a midwife or a registered midwife, or a person qualified to practise as a midwife or practising midwifery, unless the person is registered as a midwife.

Penalty: Twenty pounds or imprisonment for three months.

30.—(1.) No person shall exhibit, or publish, or cause, permit, or suffer to be exhibited or published, any letter, or any circular, handbill, placard, card, letter paper, bill-head, receipt form, or invoice, or any document or paper to be used in connexion with any business, practice, or profession, or other advertisement of any kind whereby any person advertises or holds herself out contrary to the provisions of section twenty-nine of this Ordinance. Exhibition or publication of advertisements, &c.

(2.) This section shall not apply to any newspaper or magazine proprietor or printer publishing any advertisement before the receipt of written notice from the Registrar that the publication of the advertisement is contrary to this section.

31. No person shall—

- (a) make or cause to be made any falsification in the Nurses Register or the Midwives Register, or in any matter relating to any of the said Registers; or False statements.
- (b) knowingly make any false statement upon any examination before the Board, or in any document to be used in evidence before, or to be submitted to, the Board; or
- (c) utter or put off, or attempt to utter or put off, as true before the Board any false, forged, or counterfeit certificate or other document or writing; or
- (d) procure or attempt to procure herself or any other person to be registered by making or producing, or causing to be made or produced, any false or fraudulent statement, declaration, or representation, either verbal or in writing; or
- (e) falsely personate or represent herself as being the person referred to in any certificate, document, or writing presented to the Board, or in any certificate granted under this Ordinance.

Penalty : Imprisonment for three years.

32. No person shall—

- (a) fraudulently or by false representation obtain any certificate or registration under this Ordinance; or Forgery, &c., certificates.
- (b) forge, alter, or counterfeit any such certificate; or
- (c) utter or use, or attempt to utter or use, any such forged certificate knowing the same to have been forged; or
- (d) falsely advertise or publish herself as having obtained any such certificate, or as being registered under this Ordinance or permit any such advertisement or publication.

Penalty : Imprisonment for three years.

33.—(1.) No proceedings in respect of any offence against this Ordinance, not being an indictable offence, shall be taken without the consent in writing of the Board. Institution of proceedings.

(2.) The consent of the Board may be proved by the production of a notice in the prescribed form to that effect, purporting to be signed by the Chairman or the Registrar, or the person for the time being discharging the duties of the Chairman or the Registrar.

34. In any proceedings in respect of any offence against this Ordinance, not being an indictable offence, the defendant shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed not to be registered. Onus of proof of registration.

35. The Government Resident may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Ordinance, prescribing all matters which, by this Ordinance, are required or permitted to be prescribed, or which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Ordinance and in particular for— Regulations.

- (a) prescribing fees payable under this Ordinance;

* Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command,

C. W. C. MARR

for Minister of State for Home and Territories.

RULES OF COURT—NORFOLK ISLAND.

HIS Excellency the Governor-General, with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, has been pleased to approve of the following Rules of Court made by the Chief Magistrate of Norfolk Island under the provisions of the Administration Law 1913.

C. W. C. MARR,

for Minister of State for Home and Territories.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT OF THE TERRITORY OF NORFOLK ISLAND.

RULES OF COURT.

Made this twenty-first day of September, 1928.

In pursuance of the authority and powers vested in me and under and in accordance with Section 37 of the Administration Law 1913, I Charles Edward Herbert, Chief Magistrate of the Territory of Norfolk Island, do hereby make the following Rules of Court for regulating the practice and procedure of the Magistrate's Court in respect to the service of documents and the examination of witnesses in foreign countries with which a Convention in that behalf has been or shall be made and the service of the Territory of Norfolk Island of the documents of such foreign countries:—

Citation.

1. These Rules may be cited as the Rules of Court (Foreign Conventions) 1928.

Service of documents abroad.

2. Where leave is given in a civil or commercial cause or matter to serve any writ or summons, originating summons, notice or other document in France, or in any other foreign country with which a Convention in that behalf has been or shall be made, the following procedure shall, subject to any special provisions contained in the Convention, be adopted:—

(1) The party bespeaking such service shall file with the Registrar of the Magistrate's Court a Request in the Form No. 1 in the Schedule which form may be varied as may be necessary to meet the circumstances of the particular case in which it is used. Such Request shall state the medium through which it is desired the service shall be effected, i.e., whether (a) directly through the British Consul or (b) through the foreign judicial authority, and shall be accompanied by the original document and a translation thereof in the language of the country in which service is to be effected, certified by or on behalf of the person making the request and a copy of each for every person to be served and any further copies which the Convention may require, unless the service is required to be made on a British subject directly through the British Consul in which case the translation and copies thereof need not accompany the Request unless the Convention expressly requires that they should do so.

- (2) The documents to be served shall be sealed with the seal of the Magistrate's Court for use out of the jurisdiction and shall be forwarded by the Registrar of the Magistrate's Court to the Administrator for transmission to the foreign country.
- (3) An official certificate, transmitted through the diplomatic channel by the foreign judicial authority, or by a British Consular authority, to the Magistrate's Court, establishing the fact and the date of the service of the document, shall be deemed to be sufficient proof of such service, and shall be filed of record as, and be equivalent to, an Affidavit of Service within the requirements of the Rules in that behalf.
- (4) In cases where a Writ of Summons or notice thereof is served pursuant to this Rule and an official certificate of service is produced, no endorsement or other proof of service under any Rule in force and governing civil proceedings in the Magistrate's Court shall be required.

3. Rule 2 shall not apply to or render invalid or insufficient any mode of service in any foreign country with which a Convention has been or shall be made which is otherwise valid, or sufficient according to the procedure of the Magistrate's Court, and which is not expressly excluded by the Convention made with such foreign country.

Service of Foreign Documents in the Territory of Norfolk Island.

4. Where in any civil or commercial cause or matter pending before a Court or Tribunal in France, or in any foreign country with which a Convention in that behalf has been or shall be made, a Request for service of any document on a person in the Territory of Norfolk Island is received by the Registrar of the Magistrate's Court from the Consular or other authority of such country, the following procedure shall, subject to any special provisions contained in the Convention, be adopted:—

- (1) The service shall be effected by the delivery of the original or a copy of the document, as indicated in the Request, and the copy of the translation, to the party or person to be served in person by the person whom the Chief Magistrate may from time to time appoint for the purpose, or by the authorized agent of such person.
- (2) No Court fees shall be charged in respect of the service. The particulars of the charges of the person or agent employed to effect service shall be submitted to the Registrar of the Magistrate's Court who shall certify the amount properly payable in respect thereof.
- (3) The Registrar of the Magistrate's Court shall transmit to the Consular or other authority making the Request a certificate establishing the fact and the date of the service in person, or indicating the reasons for which it has not been possible to effect it, and at the same time shall notify to the said Consular or other authority the amount of the charges certified under Paragraph (2) hereof.

Examination of witnesses abroad.

5. Where an order is made for the issue of a Request to examine a witness or witnesses in France, or in any other foreign country with which a Convention in that behalf has been or shall be made, the following procedure shall be adopted:—

- (1) The party obtaining such order shall file with the Registrar of the Magistrate's Court an undertaking in the Form No. 3 in the Schedule which form may be varied as may be necessary to meet the circumstances of the particular case in which it is used.

(2) Such undertaking shall be accompanied by—

- (a) a Request in Form No. 4 in the Schedule with such variation as may be directed in the order for the issue thereof, together with a translation of such Request in the language of the country in which the same is to be executed;
- (b) a copy of the interrogatories (if any) to accompany the Request, and a translation thereof;
- (c) a copy of the cross-interrogatories (if any), and a translation thereof.

6. Where an order is made for the examination of a witness or witnesses before the British Consular authority in France, or in any other foreign country with which a Convention in that behalf has been or shall be made, such order shall be in the Form No. 2 in the Schedule which form of order may be varied as may be necessary to meet the circumstances of the particular case in which it is used.

VACANCIES FOR CADETSHIPS.

APPLICATIONS are invited from candidates desiring appointment to cadetships at No. 1 Flying Training School, Royal Australian Air Force, Point Cook, Victoria.

2. Candidates must be British subjects of pure European descent, not less than 18 and under 25 years of age as at the 15th April, 1929. They must be unmarried, and of an educational standard not below that of University Intermediate Examination or its equivalent.

3. Cadetships are available for candidates desiring subsequent appointment to Short Service Commissions of four years, in either—

- (a) The Royal Australian Air Force; or
- (b) The Royal Air Force (Imperial) for service in England, India, Iraq, Egypt, &c.

Selected candidates for (a) and (b) above undergo a course of flying training for a period of approximately seven months, commencing about April, 1929, and on taking up duty after graduation are appointed Pilot Officers in the General Duties Branch in the service chosen when making application.

4. Successful candidates will be allowed free travelling to No. 1 Flying Training School to take up cadetship. During the course an allowance of 10s. per diem is made, 1s. of which is deferred and payable at the conclusion. The salary of a single Pilot Officer in the Royal Australian Air Force is £450 per annum, inclusive of all allowances except travelling. Within three and a-half years after the appointment to commissions such officers would normally be receiving salary at the rate of £596 per annum after promotion to Flying Officer.

Successful candidates for the Royal Air Force will, on graduation, receive free first-class passages to take up appointments with units in England or abroad, and return passages to Australia at the termination of their Short Service Commissions.

5. Further particulars and the necessary application forms may be obtained from the Secretary, Air Board, Victoria Barracks, Melbourne, with whom applications close on the 31st December, 1928.

M. L. SHEPHERD, Secretary, Department of Defence.

COMMONWEALTH PUBLIC SERVICE.

PROMOTIONS—SECTION 50 AND REGULATION 109.

THE following promotions are provisional and subject to appeal by officers to the Public Service Board of Commissioners, and, where consequent upon another provisional promotion, shall be dependent upon the latter being confirmed. Appeals should be forwarded direct to the Public Service Inspector in the State in which the promotion is to be made, or if the promotion is to be made in the Federal Capital Territory, to the Public Service Inspector at Canberra, to reach him within fourteen days of the date of the notification. The ground of appeal must be as prescribed in Section 50 of the Commonwealth Public Service Act, viz.:—

(a) Superior efficiency; or

(b) equal efficiency combined with seniority.

Officers stationed in remote districts may forward appeals by telegraph. An appellant shall without delay forward a copy of his appeal to the Chief Officer of the Department in which the vacancy exists.

Examination No. 1591.

FOR APPOINTMENT AS TELEGRAPH MESSENGER.

Held 13th October, 1928.

THE candidates named hereunder were successful at the above examination, and have thereby qualified for appointment to the position of Telegraph Messenger at the places under which their names respectively appear.

Attention is directed to the conditions published in the Commonwealth Gazette, No. 112 of 11th October, 1928.

The following should be noted :—

(1) In order to qualify for appointment, it was necessary for a candidate to pass in Handwriting and to obtain half marks in Spelling.

(2) Successful candidates will be eligible for appointment for eighteen months, that is, until and including the 7th May, 1930, but if within that period a successful candidate reaches the age of 16 years, he will thereupon cease to be eligible for appointment, provided, however, that a successful candidate who has reached the age of 16 years may be appointed to a vacancy which occurred prior to his reaching that age.

(3) If a successful candidate changes his address, he should immediately notify the Commonwealth Public Service Inspector, Sydney, New South Wales.

Examination No. 1594.

FOR APPOINTMENT AS TELEGRAPH MESSENGER.

A COMPETITIVE Examination for appointment as above, of boys who are not officers of the permanent staff of the Commonwealth Public Service, and who, at the date of examination, will have reached their 14th but not the 16th anniversary of their birthday, will be held at the places named below, and subject to the following conditions:—

DATE OF EXAMINATION.—Saturday afternoon, 10th November, 1928.

EXAMINATION CENTRE.—

New South Wales.—Leeton.

Unless informed to the contrary, candidates should present themselves for examination at 1.45 p.m. on the date shown above, at the Post Office at which they desire appointment.

ENTRANCE FEE.—Each application must be accompanied by a postal note for 5s.

VACANCY.—One vacancy exists at present at the centre mentioned.

ELIGIBILITY.—Successful candidates will be eligible for appointment during the eighteen months following the date of the publication of the results in the Commonwealth Gazette. Successful candidates will, during the currency of the period of eligibility, be eligible for appointment in their order of merit to any other vacancy that may occur at the centre above mentioned, provided there are no Telegraph Messengers already in the Commonwealth Public Service available for transfer from other localities. A successful candidate will cease to be eligible for appointment upon reaching the age of sixteen years, provided, however, that a successful candidate who has reached the age of sixteen years may be appointed to a vacancy which occurred prior to his reaching that age.

SALARY.—The following are the annual salaries payable to Telegraph Messengers:—

Age	Salary.
Under 17	£ 87
At 17	91
At 18	109
At 19	133
At 20	163

An officer who is required to live away from home shall be paid a minimum remuneration of £106 per annum.

ALLOWANCE.—An allowance at the rate of £8 per annum will be paid to Telegraph Messengers receiving less than £218 per annum on passing the prescribed examination in telegraphy (sending and receiving).

SUBJECTS OF EXAMINATION.—The subjects of examination will be—

- Handwriting*.—To be judged from the candidates' papers in spelling.
- Spelling*.—To be tested by writing from dictation not less than 180 words. (Maximum marks, 150.)
- Arithmetic*.—First four rules, including British standard weights, measures, and money. (Maximum marks, 200.)

Where two or more candidates secure the same number of marks their order of merit shall be determined by the number of marks obtained for Arithmetic, and where these numbers are also equal, then by lot.

GENERAL PARTICULARS.—Candidates will pass this examination if they secure a pass in Handwriting and in Spelling; but those who also gain half marks in Arithmetic will be eligible for promotion to a higher position in the Fourth Division. Those who do not secure half marks in Arithmetic will be required to pass a further examination, after appointment, in that subject in order to become qualified for promotion. A Telegraph Messenger, on reaching the age of eighteen years, must retire unless he has qualified for promotion. Promotion examinations are held half-yearly.

Telegraph Messengers, upon being qualified for promotion, may be promoted to higher positions in the Fourth Division, such as Telephonist, Postman, Assistant, and Postal Assistant. Officers may qualify by examination for transfer as Postal Clerk.

NAVAL OR MILITARY TRAINING.—Before any successful candidate, who is liable for training under the compulsory clauses of the Defence Act 1903-1927, can receive appointment, he must produce evidence from his Area Officer that he has rendered the personal service required or has been granted a temporary exemption.

APPOINTMENT SUBJECT TO CONDITIONS.—A successful candidate, upon appointment, must produce evidence of the date of his birth and a medical certificate, satisfying the Board in such particulars as it may determine, of sound bodily health and freedom from physical defects. A successful candidate should not undergo medical examination until instructed to do so. Upon the confirmation of his appointment, an officer will also be required to contribute to the Commonwealth Superannuation Fund.

Qualified candidates who on appointment are already temporarily employed, or who take up duty within fourteen days of the date of notification by the Chief Officer of their appointment, will be regarded as having entered the Service on the date of the Public Service Inspector's appointment certificate. The latter date will then determine seniority, rate of pay, and length of service, but no pay will be allowed before duty actually commences.

REFUSAL OF APPOINTMENT.—If a successful candidate declines to accept an appointment offered to him, or fails to reply within seven days to a communication from the Board or a Public Service Inspector, or the Chief Officer, respecting his nomination to the Public Service, his name may be removed from the "Register of Persons Qualified for Appointment."

TEXT BOOKS.—No text books are prescribed, but booklet containing papers set at a previous examination for appointment as Telegraph Messenger may be obtained from the officer in charge, Commonwealth Inquiry Office, Commonwealth Bank Buildings, Sydney, for 3d. (By post, 4d.)

W. J. SKEWES, Chairman,
Public Service Board of Commissioners.

Examination No. 1595.FOR APPOINTMENT AS TELEPHONIST (FEMALE).

A COMPETITIVE Examination for appointment as above will be held at the places named below on Saturday afternoon, 10th November, 1928, subject to the following conditions:—

EXAMINATION CENTRES.—

New South Wales.—Balranald, Blayney, Culcairn, Narrowmine, Ungarie, Wagga Wagga.

Victoria.—Horsham, Kyabram, Kyneton, Traralgon.

Unless informed to the contrary, candidates should present themselves for examination at 1.45 p.m. on the date shown above, at the Post Office at which they desire appointment.

PERSONS ELIGIBLE TO ENTER.—Females (unmarried) who, at date of examination, will have reached their 16th but not the 19th anniversary of their birthday.

Attention is directed to particulars printed on the back of application form.

RATES OF PAY.—The annual salaries payable to Telephonists are as follow:—

Age.	Salary. £
Under 17	87
At 17	99
At 18	111
At 19	129
At 20	153
At 21	170

Subject to good conduct, diligence, and efficiency, every adult will be entitled to annual increments of £6 until a maximum of £194 per annum is reached.

A candidate required to live away from home is paid a minimum remuneration of £106 per annum.

ENTRANCE FEE.—A postal note for 5s. must accompany each application.

VACANCIES.—One vacancy exists at present at each of the centres mentioned.

ELIGIBILITY.—Successful candidates will, during the period of eighteen months following upon the publication of the results of the examination in the Gazette, be eligible for appointment in their order of merit to any other vacancy that may occur at their respective centres, provided there is no Telephonist already in the Commonwealth Public Service available for transfer from another locality.

SUBJECTS OF EXAMINATION.—The subjects of examination will be—

- Handwriting.*—To be judged from the candidates' papers in spelling.
- Spelling.*—To be tested by writing, from dictation, not less than 180 words. (Maximum marks, 150.)
- Arithmetic.*—First four rules, including British standard weights, measures, and money. (Maximum marks, 200.)

In order to pass, a candidate must pass in Handwriting and secure at least half marks in Spelling and in Arithmetic.

Where two or more candidates secure the same number of marks, their order of merit shall be determined by the number of marks obtained for Arithmetic, and where these numbers are also equal, then by lot.

APPOINTMENT SUBJECT TO CERTAIN CONDITIONS.—A successful candidate must, upon appointment, produce evidence of the date of her birth and a medical certificate, satisfying the Board in such particulars as it may determine, of sound bodily health and freedom from physical defects. These certificates should not be obtained by a successful candidate until instructed. Upon the confirmation of her appointment, an officer will also be required to contribute to the Commonwealth Superannuation Fund.

Qualified candidates who on appointment are already temporarily employed, or who take up duty within fourteen days of the date of notification by the Chief Officer of their appointment, will be regarded as having entered the Service on the date of the Public Service Inspector's appointment certificate. The latter date will then determine seniority, rate of pay, and length of service, but no pay will be allowed before duty actually commences.

REFUSAL OF APPOINTMENT.—If a successful candidate declines to accept an appointment offered to her, or fails to reply within seven days to a communication from the Board or a Public Service Inspector, or the Chief Officer, respecting her nomination to the Public Service, her name may be removed from the "Register of Persons Qualified for Appointment."

PRACTICAL TESTS SUBSEQUENT TO APPOINTMENT.—Every person appointed to the position of Telephonist shall, after the expiration of three months from the date of appointment, be tested in clearness of speech and acuteness of hearing over a telephone line and in practical efficiency in the operation of a telephone switchboard. If an appointee fails to pass this test her appointment will be annulled.

TEXT BOOKS.—No text books are prescribed, but booklet containing papers set at a previous examination for appointment as Telephonist may be obtained from the Inquiry Officer, Commonwealth Bank Building, Martin-place, Sydney, and Government Printer, Melbourne, for 3d., 4d. by post.

Examination No. 1619.

FOR APPOINTMENT AS TELEGRAPHIST, FOURTH DIVISION, POSTMASTER-GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT, NEW SOUTH WALES, QUEENSLAND, AND SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

A COMPETITIVE Examination for appointment as above will be held on Saturday afternoon, the 9th March, 1929, and on subsequent dates, as may be found necessary.

Persons Eligible to Enter.—The examination will be open to males who will not have reached the 51st anniversary of their birthday on 9th March, 1929, are returned soldiers within the meaning of the Commonwealth Public Service Act 1922-1924, and are temporarily employed in the Postmaster-General's Department as telegraphists or postal clerks in the States above mentioned.

Examination Centres.—The examination will be arranged in Sydney, Brisbane, and Adelaide, and also at such other centres in New South Wales, Queensland, and South Australia as may be found necessary.

How to Make Application.—Applications must be made on printed forms, which may be obtained upon either written or personal request, from the Commonwealth Public Service Inspectors, Commonwealth Bank Buildings, Martin-place, Sydney; Union Bank Chambers, cr. Queen and Creek streets, Brisbane; and Post Office-place, Adelaide.

Applications Close.—Applications must be forwarded to reach the Secretary, Commonwealth Public Service Board, Canberra, Federal Capital Territory, not later than Saturday, 12th January, 1929.

The receipt of applications will be acknowledged. Applicants who do not receive such acknowledgement within fourteen days should communicate with the Secretary to the Board.

Applications received after date of closing will be liable to rejection. Where, owing to unforeseen circumstances, an application cannot reach the Secretary on or before the due date, an intending candidate should notify his candidature by telegraph on or before such closing date, and forward his written application.

Change of Address.—Any candidate changing his address after forwarding his application should at once advise the Secretary, Commonwealth Public Service Board, Canberra, Federal Capital Territory.

Examination Fee.—Each application must be accompanied by a postal note for 5s., made payable to the Collector of Public Moneys, Commonwealth Public Service Board, Canberra, Federal Capital Territory.

Vacancies.—It is estimated that the following vacancies will arise during the next eighteen months:—New South Wales, 10; Queensland, 5; South Australia, 5.

Salary.—Adult Telegraphists, Fourth Division, are paid a minimum salary of £228 per annum, and a maximum of £312 per annum, the latter being attainable by annual increments of £12, subject to good conduct, diligence, and efficiency. Advancement beyond £312 per annum is secured by passing a prescribed examination, which is held annually.

Successful candidates who are in receipt of pay at or above the minimum will be appointed without diminution in that pay. In such cases, further incremental advancement will be determined by the Board upon the length of continuous, temporary and permanent service.

Appointees who are married or widowers, and who are the fathers or step-fathers of dependent children under the age of fourteen years, will be eligible for child endowment at the rate of £13 per annum in respect of each child so dependent.

Subjects of Examination.

The examination will comprise:—

1. An educational test in—

Handwriting.—To be judged for legibility, neatness, and simplicity, judged by the examination papers in spelling.

English—

(a) Spelling—To be judged by writing from dictation, a passage consisting of approximately 180 words.

(b) Correction of grammatical errors.

Geography—

(a) Names of towns (50 in number) to be selected from official post offices in the Commonwealth. Candidates will be required to name the State in which each of the towns is situated.

(b) Knowledge of the location of the physical features of Australia, including Tasmania.

Arithmetic.—Addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division, and an elementary knowledge of the following sections of arithmetic to be applied to easy examples, viz., reduction, vulgar and decimal fractions, proportion, percentages and mensuration.

2. Telegraphy—

Manipulative Test—

(a) Send ten typical sixteen-word messages by Morse key in fifteen minutes.*

(b) Receive on typewriter ten typical sixteen-word messages in fifteen minutes.*

* Typical messages will include all details associated with ordinary business.

Written Examination and Oral and Practical Tests—

General knowledge of working procedure on systems in use in the State; knowledge of principal Telegraph Rules and Regulations; rates; order of priority of messages; traffic routing to places within the State; knowledge and use of standard forms.

Adjustment of sounders, keys, relays (excluding Gulsstad), switches, &c., used in Morse telegraph equipment; connecting up primary cells; functioning of apparatus in simplex and duplex systems.

Elementary Knowledge of—

(a) Electricity—Conductors, insulators, condensers, E.M.F. current, resistance, Ohm's law and simple calculations, use of symbols.

(b) Magnetism—Permanent magnets and electromagnets.

(c) Telegraphy—Galvanometers; non-polarized relays; sounders; commutators and similar switches; lightning arrestors; main and local primary batteries—Meidinger, gravity, and Leclanche, component parts; path of current; circuits—earth return and metallic; induction; faults—caused by contacts, open circuits, earths, leakage.

(d) Telephony—Action of transmitter and receiver.

A candidate shall not be regarded as having passed the examination unless he passes in handwriting, and obtains 60 per cent. of marks in each of the following:—English, geography, arithmetic, sending, receiving, written telegraphy (technical), written telegraphy (traffic), and telegraphy (oral and practical).

Appointment Subject to Conditions.—Upon appointment, a successful candidate must produce evidence of the date of his birth, and a medical certificate, satisfying the Board, in whatever particulars it may determine, as to the appointee's sound bodily health, and freedom from physical defects. "Physical defects" in this connexion means such defects as would incapacitate a person from efficiently performing the duties of a Telegraphist. Upon confirmation, he will also be required to contribute to the Commonwealth Superannuation Fund.

Successful candidates, upon appointment, may be required to take up duty in any part of the State. Appointees to stations where either "Wheatstone" or "Murray," or both, are installed, may be required, before confirmation of appointment, to pass the tests in those systems of telegraphy to the standard prescribed for the appointment of Telegraphists, Fourth Division, in Commonwealth Gazette, No. 67, dated 16th June, 1927.

Appointees will be regarded as having entered the Service on the date of the Public Service Inspector's appointment certificate. The latter date will then determine seniority, salary, and length of service, but salary will be paid from date of commencement of duty.

An appointee will be required to defray the cost of fares to the place of appointment, but any expense on second class fares in excess of £3 incurred by him may be refunded by the Department upon the expiration of three months from date of commencing duty.

REFUSAL OF APPOINTMENT.—If a successful candidate declines to accept an appointment offered to him, or fails to reply within seven days to a communication from the Board, a Public Service Inspector, or a Chief Officer, addressed to him at his last known place of residence, respecting his nomination to the Public Service, his name may be removed from the "Register of Persons Qualified for Appointment."

Text Books.—No text books are prescribed, but a set of previous papers in the educational subjects applying to a past examination of the same standard may be obtained upon either written or personal request to the Secretary, Commonwealth Public Service Board, Canberra, Federal Capital Territory.

W. J. SKEWES, Chairman,
Public Service Board of Commissioners.

Examinations for Appointment as Telegraph Messenger and as Telephonist.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that persons desirous of obtaining information as to the holding of examination for appointment as Telegraph Messenger or Telephonist (Female) at towns other than those at which they are resident should make application to the Commonwealth Public Service Inspector in the capital city of the State concerned. The Inspector will upon application forward from time to time a list of the localities at which examinations for the positions mentioned are to be held.

W. J. SKEWES, Chairman,
Public Service Board of Commissioners.

NOTIFICATION OF VACANCIES.

APPLICATIONS are invited from permanent officers of the Commonwealth Public Service for promotion or transfer to the positions named in the appended schedule. Where so indicated, applications will also be received from officers of the Public Services of the States and other persons.

Applicants should state fully their qualifications for the position sought, and must, to ensure consideration, forward their applications to the officer indicated in the last column in time to reach him not later than the appointed date.

In the case of applicants who are permanent officers of the Public Service of the Commonwealth or of a State, the following particulars should be set out at the foot of the application:—

- Designation
- Office or Branch
- Age last birthday (in years)
- Length of service (in years)
- Salary (per annum)
- Date of receipt of present salary

Other applicants should state full names, date, year, and place of birth, and whether they are natural born or naturalized British subjects. Copies only of diplomas, references, testimonials, or certificates should be forwarded. If the originals are required they will be asked for.

The range of salary indicates the classified value of a position, but appointments may be made at any salary within such range.

Successful applicants must comply with the provisions of the Superannuation Act 1922-1924.

At offices where quarters are shown, a deduction at the rate of 10 per cent. of the minimum salary of the position will be made, unless otherwise stated. Particulars of existing quarters are furnished merely for the information of officers. It is not incumbent on Departments to provide quarters, which, if provided, may be wholly or partially withdrawn at any time.

Officers of the Commonwealth Public Service, who may be transferred without promotion, as the result of an application for an advertised vacancy, will be required to pay their own expenses of removal unless the transfer comes within the conditions prescribed in Public Service Regulation No. 119.

Fares to locality of appointment of appointees who are not permanent officers of the Commonwealth Public Service will not be paid by the Commonwealth unless such fares (including, if the applicant is married, those of his wife and family) exceed £3, when such allowance as the circumstances justify may be granted.
