CANBERRA, THURSDAY, 31ST AUGUST.

[1933.]

THE NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA.

PROCLAMATION.

Commonwealth of
Australia to wit.
ISAAC A. ISAACS
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-
General in and over the Commonwealth of Australia.

WHEREAS by section 103 of the Crown Lands Ordinance 1931-1933, it is, amongst other things, provided that the Governor-General may, by Proclamation, reserve for certain public purposes specified therein or for any other public purpose which he thinks fit, any unalienated Crown lands not subject to any right of, or contract for, purchase:

And whereas it is desirable to reserve for the purposes of a Slaughtering Reserve the Crown lands described in the Schedule hereto being lands which are unalienated and not subject to any right of, or contract for, purchase:

Now therefore I, Sir Isaac Alfred Isaacs, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, do hereby reserve the Crown lands described in the Schedule hereto for the purposes of a Slaughtering Reserve.

SCHEDULE.

All that piece or parcel of land in the Northern Territory near the Town of Stuart, containing an area of 50 acres or thereabouts; commencing at a point on the East bank of the Todd River and situate about 120 chains South South-easterly from Heavitree Gap; thence East about 35 chains; thence South about 20 chains; thence West about 15 chains to the East bank of the Todd River; thence North-westerly along the East bank of the Todd River to the point of commencement.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth, this thirtieth day of August, in the year of Our (L.S.) Lord, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and in the twenty-fourth year of His Majesty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

J. A. PERKINS

Minister of State for the Interior.

GOD SAVE THE KING!

THE NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA.

PROCLAMATION.

Commonwealth of
Australia to wit.
ISAAC A. ISAACS
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-
General in and over the Commonwealth of Australia.

WHEREAS by Section III. of the Crown Lands Ordinance 1931-1933, it is, amongst other things, provided that the Governor-General may, by Proclamation, alter the name of any Town.

And whereas it is desirable to alter the name of the Town of Stuart in the Northern Territory to Alice Springs.

Now Therefore I, Sir Isaac Alfred Isaacs, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council do hereby alter the name of the Town of Stuart in the Northern Territory to Alice Springs.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth this thirtieth day of August, in the year of Our (L.S.) Lord, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and in the twenty-fourth year of His Majesty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

J. A. PERKINS

Minister of State for the Interior.

GOD SAVE THE KING!

ORDER.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 37 of the Naval Defence Act 1910-1918 that where any arrangement has been made between the Government of the Commonwealth and the Government of the United Kingdom in relation to any joint action or mutual action in relation to training or service by the Naval Forces of the Commonwealth and the Naval Forces of the King, the Governor-General may by order published in the Gazette give such directions or instructions as he thinks fit to carry out the arrangement:

And whereas an arrangement has been made between the Government of the Commonwealth and the Government of the United Kingdom for H.M.A.S. Stuart to be attached to the British Naval Command at the Nore:

Now therefore I, Sir Isaac Alfred Isaacs, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, do hereby order and direct that H.M.A.S. Stuart be attached to the said Command from the thirty-first day of August, 1933, until further order, or until attached by order of the British Admiralty or of the Senior Officer of the said Command to any other Command of the King's Navy, and that during the time she is so attached to the said Command or to any other Command of the King's Navy, or is within the limits of any other Command, the Captain Officers and Men borne on the books of H.M.A.S. Stuart shall be subject to the orders of the British Admiralty and of the Senior Officer of the Command to which H.M.A.S. Stuart is for the time being attached or of the Command within the limits of which the ship is at the time, and other their superior Officers for His Majesty's Service, and to the laws and regulations of the King's Naval Forces so far as they are applicable.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth this twenty-sixth day of August, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and in the twenty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign.

ISAAC A. ISAACS

Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command,

G. F. PEARCE,

Minister of State for Defence.

Commonwealth of Australia.

By His Excellency the Right Honorable Sir Isaac Alfred Isaacs, a Member of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Commonwealth of Australia:

To—

THOMAS ALEXANDER WELLS, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law.

Greeting:

WHEREAS by section three of the Supreme Court Ordinance 1911-1933 of the Northern Territory of Australia it is provided that there shall be a Supreme Court of the Northern Territory which Court shall be constituted in the manner provided by the said Ordinance:

And Whereas by section six of the said Ordinance it is further provided that the Supreme Court shall be constituted by the Judge or Acting Judge of the Northern Territory sitting as such Supreme Court:

And Whereas by section eight of the said Ordinance it is among other things provided that the Judge of the Northern Territory shall be appointed by the Governor-General by commission:

Now therefore know you that, confiding in your loyalty, integrity, and ability, I, Sir Isaac Alfred Isaacs, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, in pursuance of the Supreme Court Ordinance 1911-1933 of the Northern Territory, do hereby appoint you, the said Thomas Alexander Wells, to be the Judge of the Northern Territory, to have, hold, exercise, and enjoy the said office and the rights and privileges appertaining thereto during good behaviour until you attain the age of seventy years, unless you are sooner removed from office by the Governor-General on the ground of misbehaviour or incapacity.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia, this twenty-eighth day of August in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and in the twenty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign.

ISAAC A. ISAACS

Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command,

J. A. PERKINS

Minister of State for the Interior.

Entered on Record by me, in Registrar of Patents, No. 60, Page 114, this twenty-eighth day of August, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

J. H. STARLING.

NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA.

LAND AVAILABLE FOR LEASING, IN TERMS OF THE CROWN LANDS ORDINANCE 1931, AS AN AGRICULTURAL (MIXED FARMING AND GRAZING) LEASE.

APPPLICATIONS for an agricultural lease of the land described in the schedule hereunder will be received at the Lands Department, Darwin, or the Department of the Interior, Canberra, F.C.T., on or before the 2nd day of December, 1933.

Agricultural leases are granted in perpetuity, and may be converted to freehold at any time after the commencement of the lease, subject to the Minister being satisfied that the lessee has:—

- complied with the reservations, covenants, conditions, and provisions of the lease;
- fenced securely the whole of the land the subject of the application;
- cultivated in accordance with the provisions of the lease not less than one-tenth of the land;
- stocked the land, and kept it stocked, in accordance with the directions of the Northern Territory Land Board;
- erected on the land a residence and buildings of a value of at least Fifty pounds; and
- paid the purchase moneys and all moneys due in respect of the land.

If the land be not applied for on the 2nd day of December, 1933, it shall remain open to application as advertised and may be allotted by the Northern Territory Land Board to any person who applies, at the rental, and on the conditions as set out hereunder.

Conditions under which the land will be leased:—

All applications shall be accompanied by the first year's rent, and a lease and registration fee of Thirty shillings.

The successful applicant will be required to pay to the Crown the appraised value, One hundred and forty-two pounds (£142), of the improvements thereon, viz.:—three-roomed bungalow in dilapidated condition, £20; bore with mill and equipment near homestead in practically unserviceable condition, £30; bore with mill and equipment about one and a half miles north-west of homestead, £50; piping between bore and homestead, £20; fencing, £20; miscellaneous troughing, &c., £2.

The rent shall be subject to reappraisal every 21 years, and during the first 21 years of the lease, shall be at the rate of Thirteen pounds (£13) per annum.

The lease will contain the following reservations and conditions:—

- (a) a reservation of a right of entry and inspection;
- (b) a reservation of all minerals;
- (c) a reservation of a power of resumption (if the land be required for any public purpose, the power of resumption can be exercised on six months' notice, and on two years' notice where the land is required for any other purpose);
- (d) a covenant to pay the rent annually in advance;
- (e) a covenant to use the land only for the purpose for which it is leased;
- (f) a covenant that the lease shall, subject to the regulations, be liable to forfeiture for non-compliance on the part of the lessee with any covenant or condition of the lease;
- (g) a covenant that the lessee will enter into occupation of the land within twelve months from the date of notification of the approval of the lease, and will establish a home within two years after such date, and thereafter reside on the leased land for a period of at least six months in each year;
- (h) a covenant that the lessee will, within two years from the date of notification of the approval of the lease, clear and cultivate at least 20 acres of the land and will during the succeeding three years clear and cultivate at least an additional 30 acres and thereafter keep the land cultivated;
- (i) a covenant that the lessee will:—
 - (1) within the first three years of the lease—stock the land with not less than two head of cattle or ten head of sheep per square mile;
 - (2) within the first seven years of the lease—stock the land with not less than four head of cattle or twenty head of sheep per square mile;
 - (3) within the first fourteen years of the lease—stock the land with not less than six head of cattle or thirty head of sheep per square mile; and
 - (4) for the remainder of the term of the lease after the fourteenth year—keep the land stocked to the extent specified in the last preceding paragraph.
- (j) a covenant that the lessee shall, within the first four years of the lease, enclose the land with a substantial fence;
- (k) a covenant that the lessee will observe and comply with the regulations under the said Ordinance for the time being in force;
- (l) a covenant that the lessee will pay the cost of survey, at such time and under such terms as the Northern Territory Land Board shall direct;
- (m) a provision that the lessee, having paid all rent due by him may at any time, in manner prescribed, surrender the lease;
- (n) a provision that if the rent is not paid on or before the expiry of three months from the date on which it becomes due an addition of 5 per cent. per annum may be made in respect of the rent overdue;
- (o) a provision that the lease shall be liable to forfeiture if the rent is unpaid for six months or more;
- (p) a covenant by the lessee that he will comply with the laws in force relating to the destruction of vermin and noxious weeds.

Forms of application and plans of the block can be obtained at the Lands Department, Darwin, and the Department of the Interior, Canberra, F.C.T.

SCHEDULE.

All that piece or parcel of land, formerly known as Batchelor Demonstration Farm, containing an area of 2,553 acres or thereabouts in the Hundred of Goyder, adjacent to Batchelor Siding distant 60 miles from Darwin on the Darwin-Birdum railway line. (The emergency landing ground for aircraft adjoining railway line and close to siding is not included in the area hereby offered for leasing.)

R. H. WEDDELL, Chairman,
Northern Territory Land Board.

NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA.

PASTORAL LANDS WITHDRAWN FROM LEASING.

IT is hereby notified, in pursuance of the provisions of the Crown Lands Ordinance 1931-1933, that all existing notifications of lands open to pastoral leasing are hereby cancelled and that the lands embraced thereby are no longer available for leasing as pastoral leases.

R. H. WEDDELL, Chairman,

AUSTRALIAN MILITARY FORCES.

THE Governor-General in Council has approved, under the powers conferred by section 69 of the Defence Act 1903-1932, of the Australian Military Forces being authorized to enter upon and use for training, manœuvres, or other military purposes, between 1st and 30th November, 1933, both dates inclusive, all those pieces or parcels of land being private property, Crown lands, roads or otherwise, in the State of New South Wales within the boundaries of the Parishes of Camden, Narellan, and Menangle, County of Cumberland, bounded on the north by a line commencing at the intersection of the Main Southern-road and Druitt-street, Parish of Camden, bearing generally east to Mt. Annan; thence bounded on the east by the water supply channel bearing in a southerly direction to Leaf's Creek; thence bounded on the south by a line bearing generally west to road junction at "Reeds Corner" (approximately 2 miles S.S.W. of Menangle); thence in a north-westerly direction to road junction of the Main Southern-road and a public road; thence bounded on the west by the Main Southern-road, bearing generally north to the point of commencement; and that the owners or occupiers of any such land who claim that they have sustained any damage or loss by reason of such entry or use be required to submit their claims for such damage or loss to the Base Commandant, Victoria Barracks, Sydney, within seventy-two hours of such entry or use. Such claims will be submitted to a Board of three officers, and compensation as approved by the Minister for Defence may be paid to the said owners or occupiers.—(Ex. Min. No. 172.)

G. F. PEARCE, Minister for Defence.

COMMISSIONS IN THE BRITISH ARMY.

TWO (2) cadetships at the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, for commissions in the Royal Artillery, Royal Engineers and Royal Corps of Signals, and four (4) cadetships at the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, for commissions in the Cavalry, Infantry and Royal Tank Corps are available for nominated Australians.

Excepting in special circumstances candidates must be between 18 and 19 years of age on 1st January, 1934.

The fee in ordinary circumstances is at the rate of £200 per annum for eighteen (18) months, plus an amount of approximately £100 spread over the course for uniform, books, &c. Lesser fees are payable for the sons of officers or soldiers of the British Regular Army. Other expenses, including fares, are required to be borne by successful candidates. Cadets receive an allowance of 3s. 6d. per diem for messing, washing, &c.

Applications for nomination close on 1st October, 1933, for the course commencing in February, 1934, and further particulars may be obtained from the District Base Commandants, Brisbane, Sydney, Melbourne, Adelaide, Perth, and Hobart.

COMMONWEALTH PUBLIC SERVICE.

PROMOTIONS—SECTION 50 AND REGULATION 109.

THE following promotions are provisional and subject to appeal by officers to the Public Service Board, and, where consequent upon another provisional promotion, shall be dependent upon the latter being confirmed. Appeals should be lodged, either by letter or telegram, with the Inspector in the State in which the promotion is to be made, or, if the promotion is to be made in the Federal Capital Territory, with the Inspector at Canberra, within fourteen days of the date of this notification. An appellant shall forward his appeal direct to the Public Service Inspector and shall without delay forward a copy of the appeal to the Chief Officer of the Department in which the vacancy exists.

The grounds of appeal must be as prescribed in Section 50 of the Commonwealth Public Service Act, viz.:—

- Superior efficiency; or
- Equal efficiency combined with seniority.

EXAMINATIONS.Examination No. 1866.

FOR APPOINTMENT AS TELEPHONIST (FEMALE), AT TELEPHONE EXCHANGES IN THE METROPOLITAN AREAS OF SYDNEY, MELBOURNE AND PERTH.

A COMPETITIVE Examination for appointment as above will be held as under, and subject to the following conditions:—

Date of Examination.—Saturday, 28th October, 1933.

Application Forms.—All applications must be submitted on printed forms, which may be obtained, upon either written or personal request, from the Commonwealth Public Service Inspectors at the following addresses:—Commonwealth Bank Building, Martin-place, Sydney, New South Wales; 315 Post Office-place, Melbourne, Victoria; and G.P.O. Buildings, Perth, Western Australia.

Applications Close.—Applications which must be addressed to the Commonwealth Public Service Inspector in the State in which the applicant wishes to be examined, will be received up to Thursday, 5th October, 1933.

In no case will an application be accepted after the closing date. Where, owing to unforeseen circumstances, an application cannot be lodged on or before the closing date, the candidate should submit her nomination by telegraph on or before such closing date, and forward her written application at the earliest possible moment.

The receipt of applications will be acknowledged. Applicants who do not receive an acknowledgment within fourteen days should communicate with the Commonwealth Public Service Inspector.

Change of Address.—Any candidate who changes her address after forwarding her application should at once advise the Commonwealth Public Service Inspector of her new address.

Persons Eligible to Enter.—Females (unmarried) who, at date of examination, have attained the sixteenth, but not the nineteenth, anniversary of their birth, are not on the permanent staff of the Commonwealth Public Service, and are natural-born or naturalized British subjects.

Rates of Pay.—The annual salaries payable are as follow:—

Age.	Salary.
Under 17 years	69
At 17	80
At 18	89
At 19	104
At 20	124
At 21	141

Subject to good conduct, diligence and efficiency, every adult will be entitled to annual increments until a maximum salary of £162 is reached. These salaries are subject to variation under the Financial Emergency Act 1931-1933 or Public Service Regulation 106A.

An officer required to live away from home will be paid a minimum remuneration of £96 per annum.

Examination Centres.—The examination will be held in Sydney, Melbourne and Perth.

Examination Fee.—A postal note for 5s., made payable to the Collector of Public Moneys, must accompany each application.

Subjects of Examination.—The subjects of examination will be—

	Full Marks.
(a) Handwriting. —To be judged for legibility, neatness and simplicity from the candidate's paper in spelling	50
(b) Spelling. —To be judged from the candidate's transcription of a misspelled paper	150
(c) Arithmetic. —First four rules, including British standard weights, measures and money	200

A candidate shall not be regarded as having passed the examination unless she obtains at least half of the full marks in each of the subjects of Spelling and Arithmetic.

Where two or more candidates secure the same total of marks, their order of merit shall be determined by marks obtained for (a) Arithmetic, and (b) Spelling, and where those marks are equal, then by lot.

Vacancies and Period of Eligibility.—It is estimated that the following vacancies will arise during the eighteen months for which successful candidates will be eligible for appointment:—Sydney, 35; Melbourne, 35; and Perth 15.

Appointment Subject to Certain Conditions.—A successful candidate must, upon appointment, produce evidence of the date of her birth and a medical certificate, satisfying the Board in such particulars as it may determine, of sound bodily health and freedom from physical defects, but she should not undergo medical examination until instructed to do so. Upon the confirmation of her appointment, an officer will also be required to contribute to the Commonwealth Superannuation Fund.

Qualified candidates who on appointment are already temporarily employed, or who take up duty within fourteen days of the date of notification by the Chief Officer of their appointment, will be regarded as having entered the Service on the date of the Public Service Inspector's appointment certificate. The latter date will then determine seniority, rate of pay, and length of service, but no pay will be allowed before duty actually commences.

Refusal of Appointment.—If a successful candidate declines to accept an appointment offered to her, or fails to reply within seven days to a communication from the Board or a Public Service Inspector, or the Chief Officer, respecting her nomination to the Public Service, her name may be removed from the "Register of Persons Qualified for Appointment."

Practical Tests Subsequent to Appointment.—Every person appointed to the position of Telephonist shall, after the expiration of three months from the date of appointment, be tested in clearness of speech and acuteness of hearing over a telephone line and in practical efficiency in the operation of a telephone switchboard. If an appointee fails to pass this test her appointment will be annulled.

Text Books.—No text books are prescribed, but a booklet containing sample examination questions may be obtained for 3d. (4d. by post) from the following:—Commonwealth Inquiry Office, Commonwealth Bank Building, Sydney; Government Printer, Melbourne; or the Commonwealth Public Service Inspector's Office, 6th Floor, G.P.O. Buildings, Perth.

DATE OF ADVANCEMENT.—Successful officers who on 1st April, 1933, were in receipt of salary of £260 (£210) per annum for twelve months will be advanced as from that date. Other successful officers will be advanced upon completion of twelve months' service at £260 (£210) per annum.

W. J. CLEMENS, Commissioner,
Public Service Board of Commissioners.

NOTIFICATION OF VACANCIES.

APPLICATIONS are invited from permanent officers of the Commonwealth Public Service for promotion or transfer to the positions named in the appended schedule. Where so indicated, applications will also be received from officers of the Public Services of the States and other persons.

Applicants should state fully their qualifications for the position sought, and must, to ensure consideration, forward their applications to the officer indicated in the last column in time to reach him not later than the appointed date.

In the case of applicants who are permanent officers of the Public Service of the Commonwealth or of a State, the following particulars should be set out at the foot of the application:—

Designation
Standard salary scale (i.e., 1.7.26 rate).....
Office or Branch.....
Age last birthday (in years).....
Length of service.....
Salary (per annum)*.....
Date granted last increment.....

* Exclusive of reduction under the Financial Emergency Act.

Other applicants should state full names, date, year and place of birth, and whether they are natural born or naturalized British subjects. Copies only of diplomas, references, testimonials, or certificates should be forwarded. If the originals are required they will be asked for.

The range of salary indicates the classified value of a position, but appointments may be made at any salary within such range.

Successful applicants must comply with the provisions of the Superannuation Act 1922-1931.

At offices where quarters are shown, a deduction at the rate of 10 per cent. of the minimum salary of the position will be made, unless otherwise stated. Particulars of existing quarters are furnished merely for the information of officers. It is not incumbent on Departments to provide quarters, which, if provided, may be wholly or partially withdrawn at any time.

Officers of the Commonwealth Public Service, who may be transferred without promotion, as the result of an application for an advertised vacancy, will be required to pay their own expenses of removal unless the transfer comes within the conditions prescribed in Public Service Regulation No. 119.

Fares to locality of appointment of appointees who are not permanent officers of the Commonwealth Public Service will not be paid by the Commonwealth unless such fares (including, if the applicant is married, those of his wife and family) exceed £3, when such allowance as the circumstances justify may be granted.
