(2.) The Acts of the State of New South Wales specified in the First Schedule to this Ordinance shall cease to apply to the Territory.

(3.) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, any bill of sale, agreement or mortgage which at the commencement of this Ordinance is registered under any law referred to in this section, shall continue to be as valid and effectual, and the law under which it was registered shall continue to apply thereto, as if this Ordinance were not in force.

Parts.

4. This Ordinance is divided into Parts, as follows:—

Part I.—Preliminary.

Part II.—Administration.

Part III.—Bills of Sale.

Part IV.—Liens on Crops.

Part V.—Liens on Wool and Stock Mortgages.

Part VI.—Miscellaneous.

Definitions.

5. In this Ordinance, unless the contrary intention appears—“Registrar” means the Registrar of Securities and includes any Deputy Registrar of Securities appointed under this Ordinance.

PART II.—ADMINISTRATION.

Administration.

6. The Attorney-General shall be charged with the administration of this Ordinance.

Registrar and Deputy Registrars.

7.—(1.) For the purposes of this Ordinance, there shall be—

(a) a Registrar of Securities; and

(b) such Deputy Registrars of Securities and other officers as are necessary for carrying out this Ordinance.

(2.) The Attorney-General may appoint any person to be a Registrar of Securities or a Deputy Registrar of Securities and, during any temporary vacancy in the office of Registrar, the Attorney-General may appoint any person to be an Acting Registrar of Securities.

(3.) Any Acting Registrar so appointed shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the Registrar.

PART III.—BILLS OF SALE.

Definitions.
N.S.W. No. 10,
1898, s. 3.

8.—(1.) In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears—

“Bill of sale” includes bills of sale, assignments, transfers, declarations of trusts without transfer, and other assurances of personal chattels, and also powers of attorney, authorities, and licences to take possession of personal chattels as security for any debt, but does not include the following documents, that is to say:—Assignments for the benefit of the creditors of the person making or giving the assignments; marriage settlements; transfers or assignments of any ship or vessel, or any share thereof; transfers of goods in the ordinary course of business of any trade or calling; bills of sale of goods in foreign parts or at sea; bills of lading; India warrants; warehouse-keeper's certificates, warrants, or orders for the delivery of goods; or any other documents used in the ordinary course of business as proof of the possession or control of goods, or authorizing, or purporting to authorize, either by indorsement or by delivery, the possessor of the document to transfer or receive goods thereby represented;

“Personal chattels” means goods, furniture, fixtures and other articles capable of complete transfer by delivery; but does not include chattel interests in real estate, or shares or interests in the stock, funds or securities of any Government, or in the capital or property of any incorporated or joint stock company, or choses in action, or any stock or produce upon any farm or lands which by virtue of any covenant or agreement, or of the custom of the country, ought not to be removed from any farm or lands where the stock or produce are at the time of making or giving of the bill of sale.

(2.) For the purposes of this Part, unless the contrary intention appears, personal chattels shall be deemed to be in the "apparent possession" of the person making or giving a bill of sale, so long as they remain or are in or upon any house, mill, warehouse, building, works, yard, land or other premises occupied by him, or as they are used and enjoyed by him in any place whatsoever, notwithstanding that formal possession thereof has been taken by or given to any other person.

9.—(1.) Within thirty days after the making or giving of every bill of sale of personal chattels made after the commencement of this Ordinance, either absolutely or conditionally, whether subject or not to any trusts, and whereby the grantee or holder has power either with or without notice, and either immediately or at any future time, to seize and take possession of any property and effects comprised in or made subject to the bill of sale, the bill of sale shall be registered by leaving in the office of the Registrar—

Bills of sale to be void unless lodged for registration within thirty days.
16. s. 4.

- (a) the bill of sale and every schedule or inventory which is thereto annexed or therein referred to, or a true copy thereof, and of every attestation of the execution thereof;
- (b) a statutory declaration of the time of the bill of sale being made or given;
- (c) a description of the residence and occupation of the person making or giving the bill of sale, or a description of the residence and occupation of the person against whom the process has issued in case the bill of sale is made or given by any person under or in the execution of any process; and
- (d) a description of the residence and occupation of every attesting witness to the bill of sale.

(2.) In default of registration in accordance with the provisions of this section, the bill of sale shall, as against—

- (a) the official receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, where a sequestration order is made against the grantor in pursuance of the Bankruptcy Act 1924-1932, and all assignees or trustees of the estate and effects of the person whose goods or any of them are comprised in the bill of sale, under any assignment for the benefit of the creditors of that person; and
- (b) all sheriff's officers and other persons seizing any property or effects comprised in the bill of sale, in the execution of the process of any court authorizing the seizure of the goods of the person by whom or of whose goods the bill of sale has been made; and
- (c) every person on whose behalf the process has been issued, be null and void, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, so far as regards the property in, or right to the possession of, any personal chattels comprised in the bill of sale, which at or after the date of the sequestration order, or the time of the execution by the debtor of the assignment for the benefit of his creditors, or of executing the process (as the case may be), and after the expiration of the period of thirty days referred to in the last preceding sub-section are in the possession or apparent possession of the person making the bill of sale, or of any person against whom the process has issued under or in the execution of which the bill of sale has been made or given, as the case may be.

10. If the bill of sale is made or given, subject to any defeasance or condition or declaration of trust not contained in the body thereof, the defeasance or condition or declaration of trust shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, be taken as part of the bill of sale, and shall be written on the same paper on which the bill of sale is written before the time when the bill of sale is registered, otherwise the bill of sale shall be null and void to all intents and purposes as against the same persons, and as regards the same property and effects, as if the bill of sale had not been registered according to the provisions of this Ordinance.

Defeasance or condition of every bill of sale to be written on the same paper.
N.S.W. No. 10,
1898, s. 9.

Registrar to keep a book containing particulars of each bill of sale.
Ib. s. 10.

11.—(1.) The Registrar shall cause every bill of sale, and every schedule and inventory and every copy of a bill of sale, schedule or inventory left in his office under the provisions of this Ordinance to be numbered.

(2.) The Registrar shall keep a book or index, in which he shall cause to be inserted as and when any bill of sale or copy thereof is left for registration, the name, addition, and description of the person making or giving the bill of sale, or, in case the bill of sale is made or given by any person under or in the execution of any process, the name, addition and description of the person against whom the process has issued, as the case may be, and also of the persons to whom or in whose favour the bill of sale has been given or transferred, but containing no further particulars thereof.

A bill of sale to have no effect as to certain household furniture unless consent of wife or husband of maker or giver endorsed thereon.
N.S.W. No. 12, 1903, s. 2.

12. Where, at the time any person makes or gives a bill of sale, that person is married and living with his or her wife or husband, and the bill of sale comprises any household furniture, the bill of sale shall not be enforced by seizure or sale of any such furniture as then is actually in use by the person making or giving the bill of sale or his or her wife or husband, as the case may be, unless at the time of execution it is endorsed in the manner and according to the form contained in the Second Schedule to this Ordinance by the wife or husband of the maker or giver of the bill of sale, and the endorsement is attested by the Registrar, a solicitor of the High Court, a Justice of the Peace or a Commissioner for Declarations appointed under the Statutory Declarations Act 1911-1922.

Provided that this section shall have no effect after the death of the wife or husband, or if, after the making or giving of the bill, the husband and wife live apart pursuant to a decree, order, or deed of separation, or if a decree for the dissolution or nullity of their marriage has been made.

Bill of sale transferable by writing.
Vic. No. 3706, ss. 62, 74.

13.—(1.) A bill of sale shall be transferable by writing, and every transferee thereof may bring every such action thereupon or in respect thereof in his own name, and shall have and may exercise the same right, title and interest, powers and authorities as the original grantee could have brought, would have had or might have exercised if no transfer had been made by him.

(2.) The Registrar, if required so to do, shall register any such transfer by noting in the book or index kept in pursuance of section eleven of this Ordinance the name, addition and description of the transferee, and the date of the execution of the transfer.

Discharge of bill of sale.
N.S.W. No. 17, 1919, s. 2.

14.—(1.) A bill of sale may be discharged, or partly discharged, by a receipt indorsed on the bill of sale, or copy thereof, held by the grantee or person claiming through him, in accordance with the form set out in Part I. of the Third Schedule to this Ordinance, or to the like effect.

(2.) If the Registrar is satisfied that a bill of sale, or copy, held by the grantee or person claiming through him, for some good reason cannot be produced, the bill of sale may be discharged or partly discharged by a receipt in accordance with the form in Part II. of the Fourth Schedule to this Ordinance.

(3.) The signature to any such receipt shall be witnessed by a solicitor of the High Court or by a Justice of the Peace, or by a Commissioner for Declarations appointed under the Statutory Declarations Act 1911-1922.

(4.) The Registrar, if required so to do, and if satisfied that the receipt for the money is duly acknowledged, shall register any such discharge or part discharge by noting the receipt upon the bill of sale or copy registered.

Not to affect liens on crops, wool, &c.
N.S.W. No. 10, 1898, s. 14.

15. Nothing in this Part shall affect or apply to any liens on crops, liens on wool or mortgages on sheep, cattle, and horses registered in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

PART IV.—LIENS ON CROPS.

16. In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears—

“agricultural produce” includes wheat, maize, sorghum, barley, oats, lucerne, and grass, whether for hay or grain, and other agricultural produce; Definitions.
N.S.W. No. 7,
1898, s. 3.

“horticultural produce” means fruit of any kind.

17. In all cases where any person makes any bona fide advance of money or goods to any holder of land on condition of receiving as security for the advance the growing crop or crops of agricultural or horticultural produce on any such land, and where the agreement relating to the security is made in accordance with or to the effect of the form in the Fourth Schedule to this Ordinance, and purports on the face of it to have been made as security for the advance, and is duly registered within thirty days after the date of the agreement, by leaving in the office of the Registrar a true copy thereof duly verified by statutory declaration, the person making the advance, whether before, at, or after the date of the agreement, shall have a preferable lien upon, and be entitled to the whole of the crop and the whole produce thereof, and the possession thereof by the lienor shall be to all intents and purposes in the law the possession of the lienee, and when the advance is repaid with interest specified in the agreement the possession and property of the crop shall revert to and vest in the lienor. Lien on yearly crops.
Ib. s. 4.

18. No such lien duly made and registered shall be extinguished or otherwise prejudicially affected by the death of the lienor, or by any sale or mortgage of, or other incumbrance upon the land on which any such crop is growing; and if the lienor, his executors, administrators, or assigns, neglects or refuses either to pay off the whole of the advance with interest as agreed upon, or to give up the crop to the lienee thereof in pursuance of the agreement, the lienee, his executors, administrators, or assigns, may enter into possession of the crop, and may gather, and carry away and sell the crop, and may apply the proceeds in paying himself the advance, with interest as agreed upon, and all expenses of gathering, carrying away, making marketable, and selling any such crop, and shall pay the balance to the lienor, his executors, administrators, or assigns. Lien not affected by sale, &c., of land.
Ib. s. 5.

19.—(1.) If the lienor be a leaseholder then the lienee shall, before selling any such crop, pay to the landlord of the land whereon the crop is growing such sum of money not exceeding one year's rent as is due to him for rent at the time of carrying away the crop, and the lienee may repay himself the sum so paid out of the proceeds of the sale of the crop before paying over the balance to the lienor. Lienee to pay rent of leased land before selling crop.
N.S.W. No. 7,
1898, s. 6.

(2.) For the purposes of this section—

“leaseholder” includes a person holding land under a lease from the Commonwealth, and a person to whom land is sub-let;

“landlord of the land”, where the leaseholder holds the land under a lease from the Commonwealth, means the Commonwealth, and, where he is a sub-lessee, means the person by whom the land is sub-let.

20. If at the time of making any such lien there is in force a mortgage of the land whereon the crop subject to the lien is growing, and the land is at the time of harvesting the crop in the occupation of the mortgagee, the lienee shall, before selling any such crop, pay to the mortgagee the amount of interest (not exceeding twelve months' interest) due upon the mortgage at the time of carrying away or selling the crop; and the lienee may repay himself the sum so paid for interest out of the proceeds of the sale of the crop before paying over the balance to the lienor. Lienee to pay interest to mortgagee of land before selling crop.
Ib. s. 7.

Lien on crops
transferable
by writing.
Vic. No. 3706,
s. 62.

21.—(1.) A lien under this Part shall be transferable by writing, and every transferee thereof may bring every such action thereupon or in respect thereof in his own name, and shall have and may exercise the same right, title and interest, powers and authorities as the original lienee could have brought, would have had or might have exercised if no transfer had been made by him.

(2.) The Registrar, if required so to do, shall register any such transfer by noting in the register kept in pursuance of the next succeeding section the name, addition and description of the transferee, and the date of the execution of the transfer.

List in registry open to inspection.
N.S.W. No. 7,
1898, s. 8.

22. The Registrar shall keep a separate alphabetical register of all agreements referred to in section seventeen of this Ordinance.

Duration of lien.
Ib. s. 9.

23. A lien under this Part shall not continue in force for more than one year from the date thereof, and the Registrar, at the request of both parties, shall at any time enter satisfaction thereon.

Penalties for frauds on lienees.
Ib. s. 10.

24. Any lienor, whether principal or agent, who, by sale or delivery of any crop affected by the lien, or of any part thereof, without the written consent of the lienee, or by any other means defrauds the lienee of the crop or the value thereof, or any part thereof, and thus or by any means directly or indirectly defeats, invalidates, or impairs his right of property in the crop, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding three times the amount of the loss thereby sustained, or to imprisonment for any period not exceeding three years.

PART V.—LIENS ON WOOL AND STOCK MORTGAGES.

Right of lienee to wool as security or in payment.
Ib. s. 11.

25. In all cases where any person makes any bona fide advance of money or goods, or gives any valid promissory note or bill to any proprietor of sheep on condition of receiving in payment or as security only for the money, goods, promissory note, or bill, as the case may be, the wool of the then next ensuing clip of the proprietor, and where the agreement relating to the purchase or security is made in accordance with or to the effect of the form in the Fifth Schedule to this Ordinance, and purports on the face of it to have been made in payment or as security for the advance, and is duly registered within thirty days after the date of the agreement by leaving in the office of the Registrar a true copy thereof, duly verified by statutory declaration, the person making the purchase or advance shall be entitled to the whole of the wool mentioned in the agreement, whether the advance of money or goods, or of the note or bill is made before, at, or after the granting of any such preferable lien; and the possession of the wool by the proprietor shall be, to all intents and purposes in the law, the possession of the person making the purchase or advance; and when the advance is repaid, with such interest and commission as is specified in any such agreement, the possession and property of the wool shall revert in the proprietor.

lienee to ensuing clip
of wool.
N.S.W. No. 7,
1898, s. 12.

26.—(1.) Where any person makes any bona fide purchase or advance, as mentioned in the last preceding section, the preferable lien of the lienee making the purchase or advance on the wool of the next ensuing clip of the proprietor shall not be in any way extinguished, suspended, impaired, or otherwise prejudicially affected by any subsequent sale, mortgage, or other incumbrance whatsoever of the sheep mentioned and described in the registered agreement relating to any such preferable lien, but shall be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes whatsoever against any such subsequent purchaser, mortgagee, incumbrancer, or other claimant or possessor of the sheep, as against the original proprietor thereof who granted the preferable lien.

(2.) If any such lienor, subsequent mortgagee, or incumbrancer, or other claimant or possessor of the sheep neglects or refuses to shear and deliver the wool of any sheep for which any such preferable lien has been granted in pursuance of the provisions in that behalf contained in the registered agreement, the lienee, his executors, administrators, or assigns may take possession of the sheep bearing the wool, for the purpose of washing and shearing the sheep; and all expenses attending the washing and shearing and conveyance of the wool to the place of abode of the lienee shall be incorporated with and be deemed in law part of the amount secured by the lien.

27. Any mortgage of sheep, cattle, and horses, which, after the commencement of this Ordinance, is made bona fide and for valuable consideration, and the names of the parties to which and the particulars of which are duly registered within thirty days after the date thereof in the office of the Registrar in accordance with the form in the Sixth Schedule to this Ordinance shall be valid in the law to all intents and purposes whether the money secured by the mortgage is payable presently or not, and notwithstanding that the mortgaged live-stock are not delivered over to the mortgagee but remain and continue in every respect, as theretofore, in the possession, order, and disposition of the mortgagor.

Right of mortgagee although possession in mortgagor.
Ib. s. 13.

28. Any mortgagor of sheep may, with the consent in writing of the mortgagee thereof, but not without that consent, make and give a valid lien on the next ensuing clip of the wool of those sheep.

Mortgagor of sheep may with consent of mortgagee give lien.
Ib. s. 14.

29.—(1.) A lien on wool or a mortgage of sheep, cattle, or horses shall be transferable by writing, and every transferee thereof may bring every such action thereupon or in respect thereof in his own name, and shall have and may exercise the same right, title and interest, powers and authorities as the original lienee or mortgagee could have brought, would have had or might have exercised if no transfer had been made by him.

Liens on wool and stock mortgages transferable by writing.
Vic. No. 3706, s. 74.

(2.) The Registrar, if required so to do, shall register any such transfer by noting in the appropriate registry kept in pursuance of the next succeeding section the name, addition and description of the transferee, and the date of the execution of the transfer.

30. The Registrar shall keep a separate and distinct registry from year to year of all agreements for purchases of wool or advances thereon as mentioned in section twenty-five of this Ordinance, and shall also keep a separate and distinct registry of the particulars of all mortgages of sheep, cattle, and horses, as mentioned in section twenty-seven of this Ordinance.

Particulars of registration by Registrar.
N.S.W. No. 7, 1898, s. 16.

31. At the end of twelve months next after the expiration of the year for which any preferable lien on wool has been given in pursuance of this Ordinance, the Registrar may remove from the records of his office that preferable lien, and may destroy or cancel the lien, or at any time, at the request of both parties to any such preferable lien, may enter satisfaction on the lien.

Cancelling of liens.
N.S.W. No. 7, 1898, s. 17.

32. In every case where the amount of principal and interest, or of the balance of principal and interest due upon any mortgage of sheep, cattle, or horses is paid to the person entitled to receive it, or his agent in that behalf, and a receipt in writing for the amount so paid is given, signed by the person so entitled, or by his agent acknowledging the payment to be in satisfaction of the mortgage, the mortgagor, his executors, administrators, or assigns may cause a copy of the receipt, duly verified by affidavit, to be registered in the office of the Registrar, on production to him of the original receipt and of the mortgage deed to which the receipt relates; and from and after the time of the registration of the verified receipt the payment shall operate as an extinction of the mortgage, and of the right and interest thereby created, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, but without prejudice to any previous sale, or any conveyance in pursuance thereof, under the mortgage deed, and without prejudice to any second or subsequent mortgage affecting the same stock or any part thereof then duly registered, unless every party thereto, by writing under his hand at the foot of the receipt, has signified his assent to the registration of the receipt.

Registration of satisfaction of mortgage.
Ib. s. 18.

Saving of rights of the Commonwealth.
Ib. s. 19.

33. Nothing in this Part shall be construed to affect in any way the rights of the Commonwealth as to any of the lands of the Commonwealth described in any such lien or mortgage to which this Part relates as the lands or stations where any sheep, horses, or cattle, the subject of the lien or mortgage, are depasturing.

Frauds by lienor, mortgagor or other person.
Ib. s. 20.

34.—(1.) Any grantor of any preferable lien on wool under this Part, whether the grantor is principal or agent, who afterwards sells or delivers to any purchaser, pawnee, or other person, the wool under any such lien without the written consent of the lienee, or sells, steams, or boils down, or causes to be sold, steamed, or boiled down, without that written consent, the sheep whereon the wool is growing, with a view to defraud the lienee of the wool or the value thereof, shall be guilty of an offence.

(2.) Any mortgagor of sheep, cattle, or horses, and their increase and progeny under this Part, whether the mortgagor is principal or agent, who, after the due execution and registry of any such mortgage, without the written consent of the mortgagee, sells and disposes of, or steams or boils down, or causes to be sold and disposed of, or to be steamed or boiled down, any sheep, cattle, or horses, or their increase or progeny, mentioned or described in any such mortgage, shall be guilty of an offence.

(3.) Any grantor of any preferable lien under this Part, or any mortgagor of sheep, cattle, or horses, and their increase and progeny under this Part, whether principal or agent, who in any way, or by any means whatever or howsoever, directly or indirectly, destroys, defeats, invalidates, or impairs, or any other person who wilfully and knowingly incites, aids, or abets any such grantor or mortgagor, directly or indirectly, to defeat, destroy, invalidate or impair the right of property of any lienee in the wool of any sheep mentioned and described in any agreement registered under this Part, or the right of property of any such mortgagee in any sheep, cattle, or horses, or their increase and progeny, mentioned in any mortgage duly executed and registered under this Part, shall be guilty of an offence.

(4.) The penalty for any offence under this section shall be a fine not exceeding three times the amount of the loss thereby sustained, or imprisonment for any period not exceeding five years, or both such fine and imprisonment.

PART VI.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Index of bills of sale, &c., registered under State Acts.

35. The Registrar may keep a book or index in which he shall cause to be inserted such particulars as are prescribed of all bills of sale, agreements and mortgages referred to in sub-section (3.) of section three of this Ordinance.

Search of registers, &c.

36.—(1.) Any person shall have access to any book, index or register kept in pursuance of this Ordinance, and may search any such book, index or register during the usual hours of business upon paying the prescribed fee for each search.

(2.) Any person shall, upon paying the prescribed fee for each office copy or extract, be entitled to have an office copy or extract of any instrument or document lodged or left in the office of the Registrar in pursuance of this Ordinance.

Fees.

37.—(1.) There shall be paid to the Registrar in respect of the several matters specified in the Seventh Schedule to this Ordinance the fees in that Schedule mentioned or such other fees in substitution therefor as are prescribed.

(2.) The registration of any bill of sale, lien or mortgage, or of any transfer, discharge, or satisfaction thereof shall not be completed or effectual unless and until the prescribed fees respectively payable in respect of the registration have been paid.

Regulations.

38. The Attorney-General may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Ordinance, prescribing all matters which by this Ordinance are required or permitted to be prescribed, or which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed, for giving effect to this Ordinance, and in particular for prescribing matters providing for and in relation to—

- (a) the fees payable for the registration under this Ordinance of any instrument, or document or of any particulars;
- (b) the fees payable for any search made in any book, index or register kept in pursuance of this Ordinance; and
- (c) the fees payable for any office copy or extract of any instrument or document lodged or left in the office of the Registrar in pursuance of this Ordinance.

THE TERRITORY FOR THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.

No. 26 of 1933.

AN ORDINANCE

To amend the Real Property Ordinance 1925-1930.

BE it ordained by the Governor-General in and over the Commonwealth of Australia, with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, pursuant to the powers conferred by the Seat of Government Acceptance Act 1909 and the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910-1933, as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1.—(1.) This Ordinance may be cited as the Real Property Ordinance 1933.

(2.) The Real Property Ordinance 1925-1930 is in this Ordinance referred to as the Principal Ordinance.

(3.) The Principal Ordinance, as amended by this Ordinance, may be cited as the Real Property Ordinance 1925-1933.

Repeal.

2.—(1.) Section three of the Principal Ordinance is amended by inserting, after the word "Act," (last occurring), the words "or which is deemed to be under the provisions of that Act,"

(2.) This section shall be deemed to have commenced on the date of the commencement of the Real Property Ordinance 1925.

Land registered under Real Property Act 1900 of New South Wales brought under Ordinance.

3. Section thirty-eight of the Principal Ordinance is amended by inserting, after the word "is" the words "or is deemed to be".

Registrar to carry out order of Court vesting trust estate.

4. Section one hundred and twenty-eight of the Principal Ordinance is amended by omitting the word "Act" and inserting in its stead the word "law".

5. After section one hundred and thirty-eight of the Principal Ordinance the following section is inserted in Part XIV. :—

"138A.—(1.) Where any land, estate or interest under the provisions of this Ordinance is held by a trustee, either solely or jointly with other trustees, and—

Appointment of new or additional trustees.

(a) the trustee vacates his office and a new trustee is appointed in his place or the vacancy is not filled; or

(b) an additional trustee is appointed to hold the land, estate or interest jointly with the existing trustees, the Registrar, upon receipt of the instrument effecting the vacancy or appointing the new or additional trustee, or of an office copy thereof, or of a copy thereof verified by affidavit, or upon production of such other evidence as the Registrar thinks sufficient, and upon being satisfied that the vacation of office or the new or additional appointment, as the case may be, is in accordance with law, shall, subject to this Ordinance, enter in the Register Book upon the folium constituted by the grant or certificate of title of the land effected and on such instruments as he thinks fit, a memorandum setting forth the fact of the vacation of the office or of the new or additional appointment, as the case may require.

"(2.) Upon the entry being made the continuing trustees, or the continuing trustees and the new or additional trustee, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be the registered proprietors of the land, estate or interest, and as such to be subject to the provisions of this Ordinance as if they were the trustees originally registered as proprietors of the land, estate or interest.

"(3.) For the purposes of this section 'trustee' includes an assignee or trustee of a bankrupt or insolvent registered proprietor, and an executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased proprietor."

6. Section one hundred and forty-one of the Principal Ordinance is amended by adding at the end of sub-section (1.) the following proviso:—

Percentage to be levied for the registration of a transfer.

"Provided that in the case of—

(a) a transfer not made for valuable consideration and made to a beneficiary by a trustee in conformity with the trusts contained in a memorandum of transfer, or a declaration of trust executed in conjunction with a memorandum of transfer, in respect of which such fees have been paid as would have been payable if the transfer had been made direct to the beneficiary;

(b) a transfer made or executed bona fide by way of completion or confirmation of title whereby no greater benefit, legal or equitable, accrues to the person in whose favour the transfer is made or executed than he originally had or was entitled to have by virtue of some other instrument in respect to which the fees payable under this Ordinance have been paid;

(c) an instrument of appointment made in favour of persons specially named or described as the objects of a power of appointment contained in a memorandum of transfer in respect of which the fees payable under this Ordinance have been paid; or

(d) a transfer whereby the apparent purchaser of property that is vested in him upon trust for the person who was the real purchaser, and who has actually paid the purchase money therefor, transfers the same to the real purchaser, the fee payable for the registration of the memorandum of transfer or instrument of appointment shall be One pound."

7. The Eighteenth Schedule to the Principal Ordinance is amended by adding at the end thereof the words—

Eighteenth Schedule.

"For entering memorandum of fact of vacation of office of trustee or appointment of new or additional trustee .. .. . £ s. d.
1 0 0".

Dated the tenth day of November, 1933.

THE TERRITORY FOR THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.

No. 27 of 1933.

AN ORDINANCE

To amend the Leases Ordinance 1918-1927, as amended by the Leases Ordinance 1933, and to amend the Leases Ordinance 1933.

BE it ordained by the Governor-General in and over the Commonwealth of Australia, with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Seat of Government Acceptance Act 1909 and the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910-1933, as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1.—(1.) This Ordinance may be cited as the Leases Ordinance (No. 2) 1933.

(2.) The Leases Ordinance 1918-1927, as amended by the Leases Ordinance 1933, is in this Ordinance referred to as the Principal Ordinance.

(3.) Sub-section (3.) of section one of the Leases Ordinance 1933 is repealed.

(4.) The Principal Ordinance, as amended by this Ordinance, may be cited as the Leases Ordinance 1918-1933.

Determination of rent.

2. Section three AA of the Principal Ordinance is amended—

(a) by omitting sub-section (4.) and inserting in its stead the following sub-sections:—

“(4.) Where an objection is so forwarded, the Commissioner shall review the determination which, for the purposes of the review, shall be deemed to be a decision of the Minister within the meaning of section six of the Land Commissioner Ordinance 1933.

(b) by omitting from sub-section (5.) the words “, in pursuance of sub-section (4.) of section six of the Land Commissioner Ordinance 1933,”.

Reduction of rent and relief from conditions.

3. After section three AA of the Principal Ordinance the following section is inserted:—

“3AB.—(1.) The Minister may, in respect of any period, whether commencing before, at or after the commencement of this section, or whether commencing before, at or after the giving of the approval, approve of—

(a) the reduction of the rent payable under a lease or a tenancy, or of the amount payable in respect of any occupation of land; or

(b) the grant of relief, to a lessee, tenant or occupier of land, from compliance, wholly or in part, with any covenant or condition to which his lease, tenancy or occupation is subject, and thereupon the liability and obligation of the lessee, tenant or occupier under the lease or tenancy or in respect of his occupation shall, in respect of that period, be discharged to the extent of the reduction or grant of relief approved.

“(2.) Any grant of relief approved in pursuance of the last preceding sub-section may be absolute or subject to such conditions as the Minister thinks fit.

"(3.) Except in cases to which the next succeeding section applies, the Minister shall send by post or deliver or cause to be sent by post or delivered to the lessee, tenant or occupier, a memorandum specifying the reduction or the grant of relief approved by the Minister, and any such memorandum which purports to be signed by the Minister or by the Secretary to the Department of the Interior or by the Assistant Secretary, Property and Survey Branch, Department of the Interior, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated therein.

"3AC.—(1.) Where the Minister grants a lease he may, by the grant, and either absolutely or subject to such conditions as he thinks fit, fully discharge the lessee, from all liabilities and obligations which the lessee may have incurred in respect of any prior occupation of the leased land or portion of the leased land. Discharge from liabilities under prior lease.

"(2.) For the purposes of this section, the lessee shall be deemed to have been so discharged if the grant contains an acknowledgment by the lessee of his indebtedness in a specified sum in respect of the prior occupation, and an agreement or covenant by the lessee to pay the sum so specified, notwithstanding that that sum be less than the amount of his total liability, obligation or indebtedness in respect of the prior occupation.

4. Section four of the Leases Ordinance 1933 is amended—

(a) by omitting from sub-section (1.) all words after the words "that lease" and inserting in their stead the words "shall be deemed to be, and shall at all times be deemed to have been, as valid and effectual for all purposes as if this Ordinance had been in force at the time the Minister or the Federal Capital Commission, as the case may be, granted or purported to grant the lease, and the provisions of section three AA of the Leases Ordinance 1918-1933 shall, subject to this section, apply in relation to that lease and to any determination made or purporting to have been made under or by virtue of any such condition or agreement: Validation of prior leases.

Provided that with respect to any such determination made or purporting to have been made before the commencement of this section the proviso to sub-section (1.) and sub-sections (2.) and (3.) of section three AA of the Leases Ordinance 1918-1933 shall not apply, but the lessee may, within one month after the commencement of this Ordinance, or, with the approval of the Minister, at any time lodge with the Minister an objection in writing against any such determination."; and

(b) by omitting sub-section (2.) and inserting in its stead the following sub-sections:—

"(2.) The Minister shall forward the objection to the Commissioner appointed under the Land Commissioner Ordinance 1933 and the Commissioner shall review the determination which, for the purposes of the review, shall be deemed to be a decision of the Minister within the meaning of section six of the Land Commissioner Ordinance 1933.

"(2A.) The Commissioner, on review, shall make a recommendation to the Minister, and shall forward the recommendation, together with the evidence tendered at the hearing, to the Minister."; and

(c) by omitting from sub-section (3.) the words "in pursuance of sub-section (4.) of section six of the Land Commissioner Ordinance 1933."

Dated this fifteenth day of November, 1933.

NOTIFICATION OF VACANCIES.

APPLICATIONS are invited from permanent officers of the Commonwealth Public Service for promotion or transfer to the positions named in the appended schedule. Where so indicated, applications will also be received from officers of the Public Services of the States and other persons.

Applicants should state fully their qualifications for the position sought, and must, to ensure consideration, forward their applications to the officer indicated in the last column in time to reach him not later than the appointed date.

In the case of applicants who are permanent officers of the Public Service of the Commonwealth or of a State, the following particulars should be set out at the foot of the application:—

Designation.....
Standard salary scale (i.e., 1.7.26 rate).....
Office or Branch.....
Age last birthday (in years).....
Length of service.....
Salary (per annum)*.....
Date granted last increment.....

* Exclusive of reduction under the Financial Emergency Act.

Other applicants should state full names, date, year and place of birth, and whether they are natural born or naturalized British subjects. Copies only of diplomas, references, testimonials, or certificates should be forwarded. If the originals are required they will be asked for.

The range of salary indicates the classified value of a position, but appointments may be made at any salary within such range.

Successful applicants must comply with the provisions of the Superannuation Act 1922-1931.

At offices where quarters are shown, a deduction at the rate of 10 per cent. of the minimum salary of the position will be made, unless otherwise stated. Particulars of existing quarters are furnished merely for the information of officers. It is not incumbent on Departments to provide quarters, which, if provided, may be wholly or partially withdrawn at any time.

Officers of the Commonwealth Public Service, who may be transferred without promotion, as the result of an application for an advertised vacancy, will be required to pay their own expenses of removal unless the transfer comes within the conditions prescribed in Public Service Regulation No. 119.

Fares to locality of appointment of appointees who are not permanent officers of the Commonwealth Public Service will not be paid by the Commonwealth unless such fares (including, if the applicant is married, those of his wife and family) exceed £3, when such allowance as the circumstances justify may be granted.

Position, Salary Scale † and Division.	Locality.	Salary (exclusive of Child Endowment).‡	Closing Date for Receipt of Applications.	To whom Applications must be forwarded.

Applicants must be not less than 21 years of age nor have attained the thirty-fifth anniversary of their birth except in the case of the following who are exempted from the age limitations:—

(i) Returned Soldiers,

(ii) Officers at present classified in positions with maximum salary at least equal to that of the position of Locker, Grade 1.

Such a number of the senior applicants will be selected as will meet requirements for a period of two years. The officers so selected will be required to pass an examination in the subjects of English and Arithmetic unless they have passed a previous similar test or have passed an examination qualifying for appointment or transfer to the Third Division or an examination of a corresponding standard. The examination is for the purpose only of determining the possession of the requisite educational qualifications.

Selection for transfer or promotion as Locker, Grade 1, will be made upon general qualifications, in accordance with Section 50 of the Commonwealth Public Service Act, from among those who have passed the examination or are exempted from the examination.

Applicants should state fully their educational qualifications and whether they claim exemption from the examination. They will be eligible for transfer or promotion only in the State in which they are permanently stationed. Officers stationed at Canberra may apply, but will not be allowed to qualify for more than one State and in their applications should name the State for which they desire to qualify.

1. The first step in the process of the investigation is the identification of the problem. This is done by the investigator who is assigned to the case. The investigator must first determine the nature of the problem and the scope of the investigation. This is done by reviewing the available information and by conducting interviews with the relevant parties. The investigator must also determine the objectives of the investigation and the methods to be used to achieve these objectives.

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the situation.

2. Once the problem is identified, the next step is to define the objectives and goals of the project. This helps to clarify what needs to be achieved and provides a clear direction for the team.

3. The third step is to develop a plan or strategy to address the problem. This involves breaking down the problem into smaller, manageable tasks and determining the resources needed to complete them.

4. The fourth step is to implement the plan. This involves putting the strategy into action and monitoring progress to ensure that the project is on track.

5. The final step is to evaluate the results of the project. This involves assessing the outcomes against the objectives and goals and identifying any areas for improvement.
