CANBERRA, WEDNESDAY, 8TH DECEMBER.

[1937.

PROCLAMATION.

Commonwealth of Australia to wit.
GOWRIE
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-
General in and over the Commonwealth of Australia.

WHEREAS by Customs Tariff (Primage Duties) 1934 ad valorem duties of Customs (in the said Act referred to as Primage Duties) were imposed at the rates specified in the said Act:

And whereas by the said Act it is provided that such goods should be exempted from primage duty as are from time to time so exempted by Proclamation made by the Governor-General with the advice of the Federal Executive Council and published in the Gazette:

And whereas it is desirable to exempt the goods hereinafter referred to from primage duty:

Now therefore, I, Alexander Gore Arkwright, Baron Gowrie, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council do hereby exempt from primage duty, as from nine o'clock in the forenoon, reckoned according to standard time in the Territory for the seat of Government, on the ninth day of December, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, the following goods the produce or manufacture of Japan:—

Goods covered by Item 105(B) in the Customs Tariff Proposals introduced into the House of Representatives on the eighth day of December, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven.

This Proclamation may be cited as Customs Proclamation No. 365.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia this eighth day of December, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven and in the first year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

T. W. WHITE

Minister of State for Trade and Customs.
