CANBERRA, THURSDAY, 2ND JUNE.

[1938.

PROCLAMATION.

Commonwealth of Australia to wit.
HUNTINGFIELD Administrator.

By His Excellency the Administrator of the Government of the Commonwealth of Australia.

WHEREAS it is provided by section eleven of the Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Ordinance 1927 of the Territory for the Seat of Government that where the Governor-General is satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by the Legislature or other competent authority of any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside England and Ireland for the enforcement within that part of maintenance orders made by Courts within the Territory, the Governor-General may by Proclamation published in the Gazette declare that part to be a reciprocating State for the purposes of that Ordinance:

And whereas it is provided by section seventeen of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901-1937, as applied to the said Territory by section six of the Interpretation Ordinance 1937, that in any Ordinance "the Governor-General" means the Governor-General of the Commonwealth, or the person for the time being administering the Government of the Commonwealth, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council:

Now therefore I, William Charles Arcedeckne, Baron Huntingfield, the Administrator aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, being satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by the Legislature and the Governor in Council of the State of Queensland for the enforcement within the said State of maintenance orders made by Courts within the Territory, do hereby declare the State of Queensland to be a reciprocating State for the purposes of the said Ordinance.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth at Canberra this first day of June in the year of (L.S.) Our Lord One thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight and in the second year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

A. J. McLACHLAN

Acting Attorney-General.

GOD SAVE THE KING!

THE TERRITORY FOR THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.

No. 20 of 1938.

AN ORDINANCE

To make provision for the Control and Management of the Canberra Community Hospital, and for other purposes.

BE it ordained by the Administrator of the Government of the Commonwealth of Australia, with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Seat of Government Acceptance Act 1909 and the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910-1933, as follows:—

PART I.—PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Canberra Community Hospital Ordinance 1938.

Parts.

2. This Ordinance is divided into Parts, as follows:—

Part I.—Preliminary.

Part II.—The Canberra Community Hospital Board.

PART II.—THE CANBERRA COMMUNITY HOSPITAL BOARD.

6.—(1.) For the purposes of this Ordinance, there shall be a Board, to be known as the Canberra Community Hospital Board, consisting of six members, who shall be elected or appointed in the prescribed manner. Constitution of Board.

(2.) The Board shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, and may acquire, hold and dispose of real and personal property and shall be capable of suing and being sued in its corporate name.

(3.) All Courts, Judges and persons acting judicially shall take judicial notice of the seal of the Board affixed to any document or notice and shall presume that it was duly affixed.

(4.) Upon the constitution of the Board in accordance with this Ordinance, the members of the Canberra Community Hospital Board constituted under the Ordinances repealed by this Ordinance shall cease to hold office, and all property vested in that Board shall become vested in the Board so constituted.

7.—(1.) For the purpose of each election, the Chief Electoral Officer shall be the Returning Officer, and shall prepare a roll of persons entitled to vote, and shall give effect to the provisions of this Ordinance in so far as it relates to the election. Roll to be prepared.

(2.) The Returning Officer may appoint a Deputy Returning Officer, who may, subject to the control of the Returning Officer, exercise all the powers of the Returning Officer.

8. All persons who, within the period of twelve months ending on the last Saturday in May in any year, have paid Hospital Tax in respect of a period of not less than twenty-six weeks shall be entitled to enrolment and to vote at the election of members of the Board in that year. Persons qualified for enrolment.

9. For the purposes of the preparation of the roll, within fourteen days after the last Saturday in May in each year— Preparation of Roll.

(a) the Authorizing Officer of each Commonwealth Department shall furnish to the Chief Electoral Officer a list containing the names and addresses of all employees of that Department from whose salary or wages Hospital Tax has been deducted in pursuance of section eight of the Hospital Tax Ordinance in respect of a period of not less than twenty-six weeks within the period of twelve months ending on that day; and

(b) the Commissioner of Taxation shall furnish to the Chief Electoral Officer a list containing the names and addresses of all persons by whom Hospital Tax has been paid in pursuance of section nine or ten of the Hospital Tax Ordinance or of section thirty-four of this Ordinance in respect of a period of not less than twenty-six weeks within the period of twelve months ending on that day.

10. Any person qualified to vote at the election who is not—

- (a) a medical practitioner;
- (b) an employee of the Hospital;
- (c) a person under contract to supply goods or services to the Hospital; or
- (d) the spouse of a person specified in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of this section, shall be qualified to be nominated and elected as a member of the Board. Qualification for election as member of the Board.

Nominations.

11.—(1.) Nominations of persons for election as members of the Board shall—

- (a) state the name of the candidate, his place of residence and occupation;
- (b) be signed by not less than six persons qualified to vote at the election;
- (c) be lodged with the Returning Officer not later than twelve o'clock noon on the fifteenth day of June in the year in which the election is to be held; and
- (d) contain a statement signed by the person nominated that he is willing to act as a member of the Board if elected.

(2.) Retiring members of the Board shall be eligible for nomination and re-election.

(3.) As soon as practicable after the close of nominations the Returning Officer shall publish in the Gazette the name, place of residence and occupation of each person nominated.

(4.) If the number of candidates nominated is the same as the number of vacancies to be filled, the Returning Officer shall declare the candidates nominated duly elected,

(5.) If the number of candidates nominated is less than the number of vacancies to be filled, the candidates nominated shall be declared elected in accordance with the last preceding sub-section, and the Minister may appoint such additional members as are required.

(6.) The Returning Officer shall publish in the Gazette the names of the persons elected or appointed in pursuance of either of the last two preceding sub-sections.

(7.) If the number of candidates nominated is greater than the number of vacancies to be filled, the Returning Officer shall make all necessary arrangements for holding the election.

Board to convene public
election.

12.—(1.) In the case of any election after the first election the Board shall, by notice in a newspaper published in the Territory, convene meetings at not less than two places in Canberra of persons entitled to vote at the election.

(2.) Each meeting shall be held on a date between the last day for the receipt of nominations and the day on which the election will be held.

(3.) Each member of the Board shall attend at least one of the meetings.

(4.) The Chairman of the Board, or a member of the Board nominated by him, shall preside at each meeting, and shall permit a reasonable discussion of matters relating to the Hospital and shall answer any questions relevant to such matters as, in his opinion, are reasonable.

Election of
the Board.

13.—(1.) The first election shall be held on the thirtieth day of June, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight, and at that election six members shall be elected or appointed.

(2.) Subsequent elections shall be held on the thirtieth day of June in each year (or, if that day is a Sunday, on the preceding day) and at each of those elections three members shall, subject to sub-section (7.) of this section, be elected or appointed.

(3.) Where more than three members are to be elected at any election, three of the members elected or appointed (who shall be determined in accordance with the next succeeding sub-section) shall hold office for a period of two years from the date of the election and the remainder shall hold office for a period of one year from that date.

(4.) If the number of candidates nominated for an election at which more than three members are to be elected—

- (a) is more than the number of members to be elected, the members to hold office for the period of two years shall be the three candidates who have the greatest number of votes to their credit at the conclusion of the count:

Provided that, if at the conclusion of the count it is not possible, by reason of an equality of votes, to decide which of two or more candidates shall hold office for the period of two years, the Returning Officer shall determine by lot which of the candidates having the equality of votes shall hold office for that period;

- (b) is more than three but not more than the number of members to be elected, the members to hold office for the period of two years shall be determined by the Returning Officer from among those candidates by lot, and the remaining members and any member appointed by the Minister shall hold office for the period of one year;
- (c) is three, the members to hold office for the period of two years shall be the candidates so nominated and any member appointed by the Minister shall hold office for the period of one year; and
- (d) is less than three, the members to hold office for the period of two years shall include the members so nominated and the Minister shall determine which of the members appointed by him shall hold office for the period of two years and which shall hold office for the period of one year.

(5.) Where three members are to be elected at any election, the members elected or appointed by the Minister shall hold office for a period of two years.

(6.) If the place of a member becomes vacant before the expiration of his term of office, the Minister may appoint a person who has paid Hospital Tax in respect of a period of not less than twenty-six weeks within the year preceding the date of the appointment to be a member to hold the place until the expiration of the term, or the date of the next election, whichever is the earlier:

Provided that, before making any such appointment, the Minister shall invite the Board to submit the names of three persons so qualified whom the Board deems to be suitable for appointment, and if the Board, within such time as is fixed by the Minister, submits the names of three persons so qualified accordingly, the person appointed by the Minister shall be one of those persons.

(7.) Where the term of office of a member to whose vacant place a person has, or might have, been appointed by the Minister under the last preceding sub-section would, but for the vacancy, have extended beyond the date of the next election, a member shall be elected or appointed at that election to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term, in addition to the three members referred to in sub-section (2.) of this section.

14.—(1.) In any election under this Ordinance the voting shall be by post. The voting.

(2.) The Returning Officer shall, as soon as practicable after the last day for lodging nominations, send by post to each person whose name appears on the roll prepared for the purposes of the election a ballot paper initialled by the Returning Officer, together with an envelope addressed to the Returning Officer for the return thereof.

(3.) The names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballot paper in alphabetical order and each name shall be preceded by a square.

(4.) It shall be the duty of each person who receives a ballot paper from the Returning Officer to record personally his vote on the ballot paper by placing the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes as his first preference and the numbers 2, 3, 4 (and so on as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of his preference for them, and to fold the ballot paper and return it to the Returning Officer in the envelope supplied for the purpose.

(5.) No person other than the person to whom the ballot paper has been sent shall mark a vote upon a ballot paper.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

(6.) The poll shall close at twelve o'clock noon on the date of the election, and only those ballot papers received by the Returning Officer prior to that time shall be admitted to the scrutiny.

(7.) The Returning Officer shall keep a locked and sealed ballot-box having marked thereon the words "Canberra Community Hospital Board Election—Ballot papers received from Voters" and shall place and keep in that ballot-box until the scrutiny all envelopes containing ballot papers which are received by him prior to twelve o'clock noon on the date of the election.

Scrutineers.

15. Each candidate may, by notice in writing signed by the candidate and addressed to the Returning Officer setting out the name and address of the scrutineer, appoint one scrutineer to represent him at the scrutiny.

The scrutiny.

16. Immediately after the close of the poll, the Returning Officer shall, in the presence of such duly appointed scrutineers as are in attendance—

- (a) open the ballot-box and produce unopened all envelopes containing ballot papers contained therein;
- (b) extract the ballot papers from the envelopes in which they are enclosed;
- (c) after rejecting all informal ballot papers, count the number of first preference votes recorded for each candidate;
- (d) exclude the candidate who has the fewest votes and transfer each ballot paper counted to him to the candidate next in order of the voter's preference, and if the number of remaining candidates is greater than the number required to be elected, continue the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and transferring each of his ballot papers to the unexcluded candidate next in order of the voter's preference until the number of remaining candidates is equal to the number to be elected:

Provided that if at any time two or more candidates have an equal number of votes and one of them has to be excluded the candidate to be excluded shall be determined by the Returning Officer by lot; and

- (e) when the number of remaining candidates is equal to the number of candidates to be elected, declare those candidates elected.

Result of election.

17.—(1.) Upon the conclusion of the scrutiny the Returning Officer shall make out a statement showing the result of the election and the names of the candidates elected and shall publish notice of the result in the Gazette.

(2.) A notice published in the Gazette in pursuance of the last preceding sub-section or in pursuance of sub-section (6.) of section eleven of this Ordinance, shall, subject to this Ordinance, be conclusive evidence of the result of the election.

Re-count of votes.

18.—(1.) At any time before the publication in the Gazette of the result of an election, the Returning Officer may, if he thinks fit, on the written request of any candidate setting forth the reasons for the request, or of his own motion, conduct a re-count of the ballot papers.

(2.) If the Returning Officer refuses, on the request of a candidate, to conduct a re-count of the ballot papers, the candidate may, in writing, request the Minister to direct a re-count of the ballot papers and the Minister may, as he thinks fit, either direct a re-count of the ballot papers or refuse to direct a re-count.

(3.) The Returning Officer shall, when conducting a re-count, have the same powers as if the re-count were the scrutiny, and may reverse any decision in relation to the scrutiny as to the allowance and admission or disallowance and rejection of any ballot paper.

19. A ballot paper shall be informal if—Informal ballot papers.

- (a) it is not initialled by the Returning Officer; or
- (b) it has no vote indicated on it, or it does not indicate the voters first preference for one candidate and the order of his preference for all the remaining candidates.

20. The Returning Officer shall place in separate parcels—Ballot papers to be parcelled.

- (a) all the ballot papers received by the Returning Officer which have been rejected as informal;
- (b) all the unrejected ballot papers received by the Returning Officer; and
- (c) the copy of the roll used for the election, and shall endorse on each parcel a description of the contents, add his signature and the date, and retain the parcels for a period of one year, after which they shall be destroyed.

21.—(1.) The first meeting of the Board after each election shall be held within fourteen days after the date of that election, and shall be convened by the Minister by notice in writing to each member of the Board. Meetings of the Board.

(2.) At that meeting, and at the first meeting after the occurrence of any vacancy in the office of Chairman, the members shall elect a Chairman, who shall, subject to his continuing to be a member, hold office until the thirtieth day of June next ensuing.

(3.) The Chairman may resign his office by writing addressed to the Minister.

(4.) After the first meeting, the Board shall hold such meetings as, in the opinion of the Chairman or of at least three other members, are necessary for the efficient conduct of its affairs, but so that an interval greater than one month shall not occur between any two consecutive meetings.

(5.) Notice in writing of each meeting shall be given to each member by the Chairman or by the members convening the meeting, as the case may be.

(6.) In the case of the illness or absence of the Chairman, the members present shall appoint one of their number to act as Chairman.

(7.) At meetings of the Board, four members shall form a quorum, and the Chairman, or person acting as Chairman, shall have a deliberative vote, but shall not have a casting vote. If the voting is equal the question shall be deemed to have been decided in the negative.

(8.) The absence of any member from a meeting of the Board shall be reported by the Chairman to the Minister.

(9.) Every member present at any meeting of the Board shall vote on all questions put to the meeting:

Provided that if all the members are not present at the meeting, any two members may request that the question be deferred for determination by a full meeting of the Board and the question shall then be deferred until the next full meeting of the Board.

(10.) Where any question has been so deferred, a notification of the fact shall be sent to each member, and every member who has received the notification shall attend the next meeting or submit to the Board a reasonable explanation of his failure to attend.

(11.) Minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the Board shall be kept by the Secretary to the Board, and copies of the minutes relating to each meeting shall be transmitted by the Chairman to the Minister as soon as practicable after the meeting is held.

22. The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Board, dispense with the services of any member for misbehaviour or for neglect or failure to carry out any of the provisions of this Ordinance. Dismissal of members of the Board.

23. A member shall be deemed to have vacated his office—Vacation of office as member of the Board.

- (a) if his services are dispensed with in pursuance of the last preceding section;
- (b) if he becomes bankrupt or takes advantage of any provision of any Act relating to bankruptcy;

- (c) if he becomes of unsound mind;
- (d) if he resigns his office by writing addressed to the Minister and the resignation is accepted by the Minister;
- (e) if he absents himself (except on leave granted by the Board) from two consecutive meetings of the Board; or
- (f) if he, in any way, otherwise than as a member, and in common with the other members, of an incorporated company consisting of more than twenty-five members—
 - (i) becomes concerned or interested in any contract or agreement made by or on behalf of the Board; or
 - (ii) participates, or claims to participate, in the profits of any such contract or agreement or in any benefit or emolument arising therefrom.

PART III.—ADMINISTRATION OF THE HOSPITAL.

General powers and duties of Board.

24.—(1.) The Board shall, subject to the directions of the Minister—

- (a) determine matters concerning the general policy to be adopted by the Medical Superintendent in the administration of the Hospital; and
- (b) arrange for the purchase of supplies, equipment and any other things necessary for the efficient operation of the hospital.

(2.) The Board may, from time to time, confer with representatives of the medical profession on matters of interest to the Hospital and the profession.

(3.) The Board shall have no power to borrow money.

(4.) The powers conferred on the Board by this Ordinance shall not be affected by reason only of there being a vacancy in the membership of the Board.

Medical Superintendent

25.—(1.) The Minister shall appoint a Medical Superintendent of the Hospital, who shall hold office for such period and on such terms and conditions as the Minister determines.

(2.) Subject to this Ordinance, the Medical Superintendent shall be responsible for the general administration of the Hospital.

Appointment of officers and servants.

26.—(1.) The Board may, from time to time—

- (a) appoint a Secretary to the Board and such clerical and other officers as are necessary to assist him; and
- (b) upon the recommendation of the Medical Superintendent, engage or discharge other members of the staff of the Hospital.

(2.) Persons so appointed or engaged shall not be subject to the Commonwealth Public Service Act 1922-1937, but shall be engaged for such periods and be subject to such conditions as are determined by the Board.

Revenue of the Board.

27. The revenue of the Board shall consist of—

- (a) all amounts received—
 - (i) as Hospital Tax and applied, in accordance with appropriations made by the Parliament, for or towards the maintenance of the Hospital; and
 - (ii) by the Commissioner of Taxation in pursuance of section thirty-four of this Ordinance;
- (b) such other amounts as are appropriated by the Parliament for the purposes of the Hospital;
- (c) all payments received from in-patients or out-patients, and all payments received in respect of any services rendered by the Hospital or for the hire of plant or equipment of the Hospital; and
- (d) all donations contributed for the purposes of the Hospital and any other money received by the Board for the purposes thereof.

28.—(1.) Subject to sub-section (2.) of this section, the Board may apply any moneys in its hands, in such proportions and in such manner as it thinks fit, for any of the following purposes:—

Expenditure
by the Board.

- (a) payment of expenses in connexion with the conduct of elections, and in connexion with the convening of public meetings in accordance with the provisions of section twelve of this Ordinance;
- (b) the maintenance of the Hospital;
- (c) the provision of medicines, disinfectants, surgical requisites, and medical, surgical and nursing attendance for sick or infirm persons who are not inmates of the Hospital;
- (d) making such provision as, in the opinion of the Board, is necessary for the isolation of persons who are suffering from any infectious disease or have been in contact with persons suffering from any such disease;
- (e) payment of the salaries or wages of all persons employed in pursuance of this Ordinance; and
- (f) payment of all other expenses necessarily incurred in carrying this Ordinance into effect, or in doing or performing any acts or things which the Board is empowered or required to do or perform by this Ordinance or by any law of the Territory.

(2.) The Board may, with the consent of the Minister, pay the cost of any necessary treatment of residents of the Territory in sanatoria or State institutions outside the Territory.

(3.) The Board shall exercise the powers and functions conferred and imposed upon it by this Ordinance or by any other law of the Territory in such manner that its operations will be financially self-supporting and no expenditure in any financial year shall, except with the consent of the Minister, exceed the revenue of the Board for that year.

29. All revenue received by the Board shall be paid into an account opened by the Board at the Commonwealth Bank of Australia or the Commonwealth Savings Bank of Australia, and that account shall be operated upon only in the manner directed by the Board by resolution

received by Board.

30.—(1.) The Board shall keep full and particular accounts of all moneys received and expended by it. The accounts of moneys received shall be so kept that the revenue derived from—

Board to keep accounts and furnish reports.

- (a) persons paying Hospital Tax;
- (b) dependants of such persons; and
- (c) other persons, shall be separately shown.

(2.) The Board shall, in the month of April in each year, prepare and furnish to the Minister a report on the condition of the Hospital as to works, repairs, alterations, furniture and fittings, and shall submit any proposals as to any new works, repairs, alterations, furniture, fittings or equipment which, in the opinion of the Board, will be required during the ensuing financial year.

(3.) The Board shall, in addition to the report referred to in the last preceding sub-section, prepare and furnish to the Minister, not later than the thirty-first day of July in each year, a statement setting out in respect of the current financial year—

- (a) the estimated income of the Board;
- (b) the estimated expenditure of the Board;
- (c) the estimated deficit or surplus; and
- (d) the amounts (if any) by which in the opinion of the Board, the rates of Hospital Tax should be increased or decreased, having regard to the estimated deficit or surplus.

31. All books and accounts kept by the Board shall be audited at least once in each financial year by the Auditor-General for the Commonwealth who shall make a report of each audit to the Minister.

Audit.

Liability
of patients.

32.—(1.) Where a person or any dependant of a person is admitted to the Hospital as an in-patient or an out-patient, and that person has for a period of three months immediately prior to that admission—

- (a) been resident within the Territory; or
- (b) paid Hospital Tax, the person or the dependant shall, in respect of that admission, be entitled to receive from the Board without charge—

- (c) if an in-patient, such accommodation, attendance or treatment in a General Ward of the Hospital as is prescribed; or
- (d) if an out-patient, such attendance, treatment or services as, subject to the direction of the Board, the Medical Officer in charge of the Hospital considers necessary.

(2.) Any person to whom the last preceding sub-section applies shall, in respect of—

- (a) any accommodation, attendance or treatment received by him or his dependant from the Board, in addition to the accommodation, attendance or treatment to which he or his dependant is entitled as an in-patient or as an out-patient, as the case may be, to receive in pursuance of the last preceding sub-section; or
- (b) his or his dependant's removal to or from the Hospital by or at the expense of the Board, be liable to pay to the Board such charges as are prescribed.

(3.) Where a person, not being a person to whom the last two preceding sub-sections apply, or any dependant of such a person, is admitted to the Hospital as an in-patient or an out-patient, that person shall, in respect of any accommodation, attendance or treatment received by him or his dependant from the Board, and, if he or the dependant were removed to or from the Hospital by or at the expense of the Board, in respect of that removal, be liable to pay to the Board such charges as are prescribed, but not exceeding, in any case, the actual cost of the accommodation, attendance, treatment and removal:

Provided that there shall be deducted from any sum due in respect of the liability of any person under this sub-section any amount paid by that person by way of Hospital Tax prior to admission to the Hospital of himself or his dependant.

(4.) Where any person or any dependant of a person is admitted to a hospital approved by the Board in any State, whether in a public, intermediate or private ward, and that person—

- (a) being a person specified in paragraph (a) of sub-section (1.) of section six of the Hospital Tax Ordinance, has paid Hospital Tax for a period of three months immediately prior to his or his dependant's admission to the hospital or temporary absence from the Territory; or
- (b) being a person specified in paragraph (c) of sub-section (1.) of section six of the Hospital Tax Ordinance—
 - (i) has paid Hospital Tax payable by him in respect of the financial year preceding the date of his or his dependant's admission to the hospital;
 - (ii) if no assessment has been issued in respect of that year, has paid the Hospital Tax payable by him in respect of the preceding financial year; or
 - (iii) has paid all instalments due under sub-section (3.) of section ten of the Hospital Tax Ordinance at the date of his or his dependants' admission to the hospital; or

- (c) being a person other than a person referred to in paragraph (a) or (c) of sub-section (1.) of section six of the Hospital Tax Ordinance, had, immediately prior to his or his dependant's admission to the hospital or temporary absence from the Territory, been resident in the Territory for a period of three months, the Board may, in its discretion, make a payment to the person concerned, or to that hospital, towards the cost of providing accommodation for the person or his dependant, at the rate of Six shillings for each day on which the person or his dependant is an in-patient in that hospital, but not exceeding a period of eight weeks in any twelve months:

Provided that, before any payment is made in pursuance of this sub-section, the Board shall be satisfied that, at the time of his admission to the other hospital—

- (d) effective treatment of the person or his dependant was not possible at the Hospital; or
- (e) the person or his dependant was temporarily absent from the Territory and had not left the Territory for the purpose of being admitted to hospital.

(5.) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, where any person who is resident within the Municipality of Queanbeyan, or any dependant of a person so resident, is admitted to the Queanbeyan District Hospital, and that person has, for a period of three months immediately preceding his or his dependant's admission to the hospital, been employed in the Territory and paid Hospital Tax, the Board may, in its discretion, make to the Queanbeyan District Hospital a payment towards the cost of providing accommodation for the person or his dependant, at the rate of Six shillings for each day on which that person or his dependant is an in-patient in the hospital, but not exceeding a period of eight weeks in any twelve months.

(6.) Where any person mentioned in the last preceding sub-section has not paid Hospital Tax for a period of three months immediately preceding the admission of that person or any of his dependants to the Queanbeyan District Hospital, the Board may, in its discretion, make to that hospital a payment towards the cost of providing accommodation for the person or his dependant in that hospital equivalent to the amount of Hospital Tax paid by that person—

- (a) during the period of twelve months immediately prior to such admission; or
- (b) since the date of the last payment to that hospital by the Board in respect of that person or any of his dependants, whichever is the shorter period.

(7.) Any person who is a financial member of a contributory fund of a public hospital in any State shall, on the production of a certificate from the Secretary of that public hospital, and subject to this Ordinance, be accepted as a patient in the Hospital and shall, to the extent to which payment in respect of his accommodation, attendance or treatment is made to the Hospital by the public hospital to whose fund the person is a contributor, be entitled to a remission of charges under this section.

(8.) In this section—

“accommodation” includes maintenance and services;

"dependant", in relation to any person, means the wife of that person, or any child of that person who is under the age of seventeen years and is or has been, at any time within twelve months prior to the date of admission to the Hospital, wholly or partly dependent upon the earnings of that person;

"General Ward" means a ward determined by the Board to be a Public or General Ward and includes an Isolation Ward in the Infectious Diseases Block and a General Ward in the Obstetric Section of the Hospital;

"services" includes the provision of such drugs and dressings as are specified in the British Pharmacopœia, but does not include treatment;

"treatment" means medical treatment.

Recovery of amounts due to Board.

33.—(1.) The amount of the liability of any person under the last preceding section shall be a debt due to the Board and may be sued for and recovered by action instituted by any person authorized in writing by the Board in any Court of competent jurisdiction as a debt recoverable summarily.

(2.) Any person admitted to or treated at the Hospital, the wife or husband, as the case may be, of that person, and any children of that person who were over the age of twenty-one years at the time the liability was incurred, shall be jointly and severally liable for any sum payable under the last preceding section and, where that person is an infant, that sum may be recovered from his parent or guardian.

Members of the Defence Forces and the Hospital Staff and dependants.

34.—(1.) Notwithstanding anything contained in section thirty-two of this Ordinance—

(a) members of the Naval, Military or Air Forces of the Commonwealth who are entitled under the conditions of their engagement to free medical and hospital services and members of the Resident Staff of the Hospital shall be entitled to the benefits conferred by sub-section (1.) of that section; and

(b) the dependants of any such member shall not be entitled to any benefits under section thirty-two of this Ordinance unless, for a period of three months immediately prior to the admission of any such dependant to the Hospital or to any hospital referred to in sub-section (4.) of that section or to his temporary absence from the Territory, as the case may be, the member pays to the Commissioner of Taxation a voluntary contribution of Ninepence for every week in respect of which he receives income at a rate of not less than Two pounds per week, but if the member pays voluntary contributions in accordance with this paragraph his dependants shall be entitled to the same benefits as the dependants of a person referred to in that sub-section.

(2.) The voluntary contribution referred to in paragraph (b) of the last preceding sub-section may, with the consent of the member concerned, be deducted from his salary or wages by the Authorizing Officer of the Royal Military College or the Secretary of the Board, as the case may be, and the Authorizing Officer and the Secretary shall, within three days after each pay-day, pay to the Commissioner of Taxation the total amounts of all deductions made in pursuance of this section.

Funeral expenses.

35. If any person dies at the Hospital, the amount of any funeral expenses incurred by the Board in respect of that person shall be a debt due to the Board and may be recovered in like manner as if it were a liability incurred under section thirty-two of this Ordinance.

Statement of amount due.

36. A written statement of any amount due under section thirty-two, thirty-four or thirty-five of this Ordinance, purporting to be signed by a person thereto authorized in writing by the Board, shall be prima facie evidence of the amount being due.

37.—(1.) The Board may remit, wholly or in part, or postpone the payment of, all or any sums of money becoming due and payable under this Ordinance for accommodation, maintenance, services, attendance, treatment, removal or burial. Board may remit sums of money due.

(2.) For the purposes of the last preceding sub-section, the Chairman of the Board may require any person liable for any payment under this Ordinance to produce to the Board such documents and other information as, in the opinion of the Board, are necessary in order to ascertain the ability of that person to meet his liability in respect of any such accommodation, maintenance, services, attendance, treatment, removal or burial.

PART IV.—MISCELLANEOUS.

38.—(1.) The Minister or any person thereto authorized in writing by him, may, without previous notice, visit and inspect the Hospital at any time he thinks fit. Special powers of Minister.

(2.) The Minister may at any time call a special meeting of the Board, or require the Chairman of the Board or the Secretary to the Board to call such a meeting, and it shall be the duty of the Chairman or Secretary, as the case may be, to call a meeting accordingly.

(3.) The Minister, or any person thereto authorized in writing by him, shall be entitled to be present at any meeting of the Board and to speak at any such meeting but shall not take any other part in the proceedings thereof.

39.—(1.) The Minister may appoint for the Hospital two or more official visitors, at least one of whom shall be a woman. Official visitors.

(2.) An official visitor shall hold office during the pleasure of the Minister.

(3.) An official visitor shall report to the Minister at such times, in such manner and on such matters, as the Minister directs.

40.—(1.) The Board may make by-laws, not inconsistent with this Ordinance, for or with respect to— By-laws.

- (a) the admission or discharge of patients and other persons entitled to the benefits of the Hospital;
- (b) the maintenance of order, discipline, decency and cleanliness among the inmates of the Hospital;
- (c) the prohibition of the introduction of any specified articles into the Hospital;
- (d) the charges to be paid in respect of accommodation, maintenance, services, attendance and treatment at or from the Hospital, the hire of plant and equipment of the Hospital, and the removal of patients to or from the Hospital;
- (e) the duties of the officers, nurses, attendants and servants of the Hospital;
- (f) the management, care, control and superintendence of the Hospital and the fulfilment of the purposes thereof;
- (g) the maintenance of order and the regulation of traffic in the Hospital grounds; and
- (h) the imposition of penalties not exceeding Five pounds for a breach of any by-law.

(2.) All such by-laws shall be published in the Gazette.

(3.) Within one month from the date of publication in the Gazette of any by-law, the Minister may disallow the by-law, and the disallowance, on being published in the Gazette, shall annul the by-law from the date of publication.

41. The Minister may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Ordinance, prescribing all matters which are required or permitted to be prescribed, or which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed, for carrying out or giving effect to this Ordinance. Regulations.

Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904-1934.

Principal Registry,

Melbourne, 26th May, 1938.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR CHANGE OF THE CONDITIONS OF ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP OF AN ORGANIZATION.

NOTICE is hereby given that application has been made to me under the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904-1934 for change of the conditions of eligibility for membership of the Graziers Association of New South Wales from the following:—

"Any person, firm or company engaged or interested in pastoral pursuits in any of the Australian States shall be eligible as a member of this Association and the word 'member' shall include any person, firm or company who may be admitted as hereinafter provided"

to the following:—

"The word 'member' shall include any person, firm or company admitted as hereinafter provided.

Any person, firm or company engaged or interested in pastoral pursuits in any of the Australian States shall be eligible for membership with the Association except that the manager of a property shall not be eligible for membership unless his principal is also a member."

Any person who desires to object to the proposed change may do so by lodging with me a notice of the objection in the prescribed form, and a statutory declaration in support thereof, within twenty-one days after the publication of this advertisement, and by serving on the organization copies of the notice of objection, and statutory declaration so lodged.

MURRAY M. STEWART, Industrial Registrar.

Navigation Act 1912-1935.

COUNTRIES TO WHICH THE INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION FOR THE SAFETY OF LIFE AT SEA APPLIES.

WHEREAS an International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea (hereinafter referred to as "the Safety Convention") was signed in London on the thirty-first day of May, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine:

And whereas by section 187A of the Navigation Act 1912-1935 it is provided that, in Part IV. of that Act, unless the contrary intention appears, "Country to which the Safety Convention applies" means—

- a country the Government of which has been declared by the Minister, by notification in the Gazette, to have ratified or acceded to the Safety Convention, and has not been so declared to have renounced that Convention; and
- a country to which it has been so declared that the Safety Convention has been applied under the provisions of Article 62 thereof, not being a country to which it has been so declared that that Convention has ceased to apply under the provisions of that Article:

Now therefore I, Allan Nicoll MacDonald, a member of the Executive Council acting for and on behalf of the Minister of State for Commerce, hereby declare that the Governments of the following countries have acceded to the Safety Convention:—

Greece.

Roumania.

Dated this twenty-third day of May, 1938.

COUNTRIES TO WHICH THE INTERNATIONAL LOAD LINE CONVENTION APPLIES.

WHEREAS an International Load Line Convention (hereinafter referred to as "the Load Line Convention") was signed in London on the fifth day of July, One thousand nine hundred and thirty:

And whereas by section 187A of the Navigation Act 1912-1935 it is provided that, in Part IV. of that Act, unless the contrary intention appears, "Country to which the Load Line Convention applies" means—

- (a) a country the Government of which has been declared by the Minister, by notification in the Gazette, to have ratified or acceded to the Load Line Convention, and has not been so declared to have denounced that Convention; and
- (b) a country to which it has been so declared that the Load Line Convention has been applied under the provisions of Article 21 thereof, not being a country to which it has been so declared that that Convention has ceased to apply under the provisions of that Article:

Now therefore I, Allan Nicoll MacDonald, a member of the Executive Council acting for and on behalf of the Minister of State for Commerce, hereby declare that the Government of Brazil has acceded to the Load Line Convention.

Dated this twenty-third day of May, 1938.

PUBLIC OFFERS, closing with the Secretary, Department of the Interior, Canberra, at noon, on the 20th June, 1938, are invited for the letting or the purchase where indicated of the undermentioned properties, for the periods shown, subject to the following conditions:—

In regard to Grazing Rights.

The Licensee will be required to pay rental half-yearly, or quarterly in advance; to keep the area clean and free from noxious weeds, rubbish, garbage, debris, &c.; to destroy rabbits and other noxious animals, to keep all fences and gates in good repair and condition; to make good damage to works, &c., caused by stock; to indemnify the Commonwealth against loss of life or stock through the use of the area as a Rifle Range or other Commonwealth purposes; not to assign or sublet without authority; and not interfere with the use of the area by the Commonwealth for any purpose whatever. Stock must be removed from aerodrome sites when weather conditions are such that the presence of stock is likely to cause damage to the surface of the aerodrome, or on any other occasion when required by the Commonwealth Authorities.

Regarding Leasing of Land.

The Lessee will be required:—To pay rental half-yearly or quarterly in advance; to pay any rates and taxes legally levied on the land; to keep the area clean and free from rubbish, debris, &c., and noxious weeds; to destroy rabbits and other noxious animals; to keep fences (if any) in good repair and condition; not to assign or sublet without the permission of the Commonwealth; not to build or erect any structures on the land without the approval of the Commonwealth; and to leave the land in a clean and satisfactory condition at the expiration or termination of the lease.

Regarding Leasing of Premises.

The Lessee will be required to pay all rates and taxes, in addition to rent; to pay rental quarterly in advance; to insure the premises against fire, in the name of the Commonwealth, for the amount indicated; to keep the premises in good repair and condition, and to yield the same up upon the expiration or determination of the tenancy in as good repair and condition as same are now in (reasonable wear and tear and damage by fire, storm, tempest, flood or earthquake excepted); to permit any responsible officer of the Commonwealth to enter and inspect the premises at all reasonable times; not to assign, underlet, or part with the possession of the premises or make any structural alterations without the consent of the Commonwealth; and to state for what purposes the premises will be used. The lessee may, on or before the expiration of the lease, remove all fixtures or erections erected or set up by him unless other arrangements shall have been made with the Lessor.

The Commonwealth reserves the right to terminate the lease at any time by six months' notice without payment of compensation should the premises be required for Commonwealth purposes.

Plans and conditions of tenancy may be seen at the Post Office nearest to the individual property, or at the office of the Commonwealth Works Director in the Capital City of the State concerned.

No offer necessarily accepted.

OFFERS, closing with the Secretary, Department of the Interior, Canberra, at noon, on the 20th June, 1938, are invited for grazing rights over about 325 acres of the Enoggera Rifle Range area, for a period of five years from the 1st July, 1938, subject to the following conditions:—

The licensee will be required to pay rental monthly in advance: to keep the area clean and free from noxious weeds, rubbish, garbage, debris, &c.; to destroy rabbits and other noxious animals, to keep all fences and gates in good repair and condition; to make good damage to works, &c., caused by stock; to indemnify the Commonwealth against loss of life or stock through the use of the area as a rifle range or other Commonwealth purposes; not to assign or sublet without authority; and not interfere with the use of the area by the Commonwealth for any purpose whatever.

The Commonwealth reserves the right to withdraw from the licence at any time an area of about 70 acres for use as a golf course, in which case a proportionate reduction of the rental will be made.

A plan of the area and the conditions of tenancy may be seen at the Enoggera Post Office.

No offer necessarily accepted.

The Bankruptcy Act 1924-1933.

THE Administrator of the Government of the Commonwealth, in pursuance of section 12 of the Bankruptcy Act 1924-1933, has been pleased to appoint Archibald Rimmer Frost, an officer of the Bankruptcy Administration, to be a Deputy Registrar in Bankruptcy in the Bankruptcy District of Southern Queensland during the absence on leave of the Registrar in Bankruptcy, from 15th June, 1938, to 12th July, 1938, inclusive.

A. J. McLACHLAN, Acting Attorney-General.

Bankruptcy Act 1924-1933.

ORDER BY THE ACTING ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

IN pursuance of sub-section (6.) of section 12 of the Bankruptcy Act 1924-1933, I direct that Archibald Rimmer Frost, a Deputy Registrar in Bankruptcy in the Bankruptcy District of Southern Queensland, shall have and may exercise and perform any or all of the powers and functions of the Registrar in Bankruptcy in the Bankruptcy District of Southern Queensland during the absence of the Registrar on leave from 15th June, 1938, to 12th July, 1938, inclusive.

Dated this twenty-fifth day of May, 1938.

A. J. McLACHLAN, Acting Attorney-General.

THE Administrator of the Government of the Commonwealth in Council, in accordance with the provisions of clause 2(b) of the Agreement made the twelfth day of September, 1923, between the Commonwealth of Australia and the State of Victoria, regarding the collection of taxes, has appointed David Crawford Stevenson as Acting Federal Deputy Commissioner of Taxation for the State of Victoria, from 16th May, 1938, to 30th May, 1938, during the temporary absence of R. W. Chenoweth.

R. G. CASEY, Treasurer.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

ASSISTANT AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT TRADE COMMISSIONER IN CHINA.

ASSISTANT AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT COMMISSIONER IN JAPAN.

APPLICATIONS are invited from officers of the Commonwealth Public Service for appointment to the above-mentioned positions, which are located in Shanghai and Tokyo respectively. The appointment in each instance will be for a period of three years and will be subject to the provisions of the Trade Commissioners Act 1933-1936 and the Regulations thereunder and the Commonwealth Public Service Act 1922-1937.

The officer selected for each position will be temporarily transferred at his existing salary, but from the date of commencing duty at his post will be paid, if his existing salary is less than £624 per annum, an allowance to raise his salary to that amount, payable in sterling. In addition, a living allowance of £250 per annum sterling and an entertainment allowance of £250 per annum sterling will be paid to the officer, if married, from the date of commencing duty at his post. Child endowment at the rate of £50 per annum sterling for each child under the age of sixteen years will also be payable from the date of commencing duty at his post.

If the officer is unmarried, the living allowance payable will be at the rate of £100 per annum sterling, and the entertainment allowance at the same rate.

Should a married officer selected for a position be already in receipt of a salary in excess of £624 per annum, the living allowance will be correspondingly reduced so that, on commencing duty at his post, his salary and allowances will be £1,124 per annum sterling, exclusive of child endowment. Similarly, in the case of an unmarried officer, on commencing duty at his post the salary and allowances will be £824 per annum sterling.

Applications should be addressed to the Acting Secretary, Department of Commerce, No. 1 Secretariat, Canberra, and should reach him on or before 9th June, 1938.

SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY ENDOWMENT FUND.

SENIOR STUDENTSHIP IN BIOLOGICAL STATISTICS.

THE Trustees of the Science and Industry Endowment Fund invite applications for appointment to a Senior Studentship in Biological Statistics. The appointee will be required to undergo a course of training in statistical methods at research centres abroad. He will receive a personal allowance of £300 per annum, together with an allowance to cover travelling expenses and fees. The studentship will be tenable for a period of two years.

Applicants should possess a university degree with honours in mathematics.

The successful applicant will be required to give the Trustees an undertaking that his services will be available to the Council for Scientific and Industrial Research, if so required by the Council, for a period of three years after the conclusion of his training. During these three years he would be paid the rates of salary pertaining to officers of the Council classed as Assistant Research Officers (approximately £400, increasing to £440 per annum and subject to cost of living provisions). In the case of a female being appointed, the salary would be £50 less.

Applications, which should reach the Secretary to the Trustees not later than the 8th June, 1938, should not be accompanied by written testimonials, but should give full details of training and experience and the names of the principal authorities under whom these were obtained. In making the appointment the Trustees would be guided largely by recommendations of professors or others under whom applicants have been trained.

Examination No. 2163.

FOR APPOINTMENT, TRANSFER OR PROMOTION AS MECHANIC,
GRADE 2, FOURTH DIVISION, TELEGRAPH MAINTENANCE
SECTION, POSTMASTER-GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT, VICTORIA.

AN Examination as above will be held under the following conditions:—

DATE AND CENTRES OF EXAMINATION.—The educational and the written theory examinations will be held on Saturday, 15th October, 1938, in Melbourne, and at such other centres in Victoria as are found to be necessary and convenient. The practical tests and oral theory examination will be conducted only in Melbourne on subsequent dates to be arranged.

PERSONS ELIGIBLE TO ENTER.—The examination will be open to—

- Officers classified as Mechanic, Grade 1, permanently stationed in Victoria;
- Officers classified as Junior Mechanics, who were born not later than 1st October, 1917, and who are permanently stationed in Victoria;
- Officers classified as Mechanic, Grade 2, in a section other than Telegraph Maintenance, permanently stationed in Victoria;
- Permanent officers (male) of the Commonwealth Public Service who were born not later than 1st October, 1917, and who are permanently stationed in Victoria;
- Persons (male) who are not officers of the Commonwealth Public Service, who are natural-born or naturalized British subjects, and who were born not earlier than 7th November, 1887, and not later than 1st October, 1917.

HOW TO MAKE APPLICATION.—Applications should be made on foolscap and in the following form:—

- For officers of the Commonwealth Public Service—
The Secretary,
Commonwealth Public Service Board,
Canberra, F.C.T.

I hereby notify my intention to attend Examination No. 2163, Mechanic, Grade 2, Telegraph Maintenance Section, Postmaster-General's Department, Victoria, and furnish the following particulars:—

- Name in full.
- Designation.
- Official address.

(d) Date in month, month and year of birth.

(c) Sections of examination from which exemption is claimed*.....

(Date).....

* Insert here "Practical," "Written Theory," or "Oral Theory," as the case may be.

(b) For persons who are not permanent officers of the Commonwealth Public Service—

The Secretary,
Commonwealth Public Service Board,
Canberra, F.C.T.

I hereby notify my intention to attend Examination No. 2163, Mechanic, Grade 2, Telegraph Maintenance Section, Postmaster-General's Department, Victoria, and furnish the following particulars:—

- Name in full.
- Postal address.
- Date in month, month and year of birth.
- Place of birth.
- Whether applicant is a natural-born or a naturalized British subject.
- A certificate from last or present employer, a clergyman, or a justice of the peace that applicant is of good moral character and industrious habits. This certificate (original) must be supplied by all applicants, whether temporarily employed or not, who are not on the permanent staff. If the certificate from the last employer was obtained more than six months prior to the making of the application, a certificate from a clergyman, a justice of the peace, or other reputable person should be obtained and furnished.
- Number of postal note for 5s. required as entrance fee, and attached to the application.
- Whether applicant is a returned soldier.† If so, regimental number and unit.

(Signature).....

† "Returned Soldier" means any person who enlisted prior to the eleventh day of November. One thousand nine hundred and eighteen and served in the war with satisfactory record in any Expeditionary Force raised under the provisions of the Defence Act 1903-1918, and includes—

- a member of the Army Medical Corps Nursing Service who was accepted or appointed by the Director-General of Medical Services for services outside Australia during the war;
- any member of the Naval Forces of the Commonwealth who has during the war been on active service outside Australia or on a ship of war;
- any person who, during the war, has been employed as a radio telegraphist in the transport service in connexion with any such Expeditionary Force, and who, while so employed, served in the zone of war; and
- any person who was born in Australia or resident in Australia within six months prior to enlistment, and who, at any time during the war, served with satisfactory record in a Naval or Military Expeditionary Force raised in the United Kingdom or in any British Dominion.

EXAMINATION FEE.—Every application from a person not on the permanent staff of the Commonwealth Service must be accompanied by a postal note for 5s., made payable to the Collector of Public Moneys.

APPLICATIONS CLOSE.—Applications must reach the Secretary, Commonwealth Public Service Board, Canberra, Federal Capital Territory, not later than 1st September, 1938.

Applications received after 1st September, 1938, will be rejected unless the applicant has advised the Secretary to the Board by letter or telegram which reaches him not later than 1st September, 1938, that he is forwarding an application, and has actually posted his application on or prior to 1st September, 1938.

The receipt of applications will be acknowledged. Applicants who do not receive such acknowledgment within fourteen (14) days should communicate with the Secretary to the Board.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS.—If an officer is transferred either permanently or temporarily after he forwards his application, he should immediately advise the Secretary to the Board of his new address.

An applicant who is not an officer of the Commonwealth Public Service should notify the Secretary to the Board of any change in his postal address.

SALARY.—Subject to the Regulations, the annual salary payable is minimum £276 (£262), maximum £312 (£298), the maximum being attainable subject to good conduct, diligence, and efficiency, by three annual increments of £8, and one of £12.

A successful candidate who is temporarily employed as a mechanic at the date of permanent appointment, and is in receipt of pay above the minimum prescribed for permanent officers, will be appointed without reduction of his rate of pay, and, if not in receipt of the maximum, will be eligible for incremental advancement twelve months from the date of receipt of the rate of pay drawn as a temporary employee at the time of his permanent appointment.

Appointees will be eligible for child endowment at the rate of £13 per annum in respect of each dependent child under the age of fourteen years.

Where any amount of salary specified above is varied by the operation of Public Service Regulation 106A, the varied salary is to be regarded as the specified salary.

SUBJECTS OF EXAMINATION.—The examination will comprise the following:—

I. Practical tests (maximum marks 300; pass marks 180)—

- (a) Use of lathe and other machines in the ordinary (not advanced) operations of workshop practice embracing turning and fitting, drilling and tapping, and making tools required in connexion with the work. Bench work—embracing filing, hardening and tempering, hard and soft soldering of various metals and uses of fluxes; lacquering; making parts of, repairing, and fitting telegraph and other instruments, machines, fittings and apparatus.
- (b) Making screws and cutting threads of various kinds.
- (c) Use of gauges (various) reducing metals in thickness and diameter to given dimensions.
- (d) Repairing quadruplex and duplex instruments, including relays, keys, registers, galvanometers, pole changers, transmitters, and other associated apparatus.
- (e) Making tests of telegraph or other apparatus used by the department, including elementary tests on automatic telegraph apparatus.
- (f) Ability to understand and work to dimensioned drawings.
- (g) Elementary operating adjustments of automatic telegraph systems.
- (h) Location and removal of elementary faults on automatic telegraph apparatus.

II. Theory (maximum marks 200; pass marks 120)—

- (a) Written examination (maximum marks 100).

This section of the examination will consist of questions regarding any of the items in the above syllabus of practical tests, together with questions calculated to test the candidate's knowledge of the principles underlying the ordinary work of a mechanic.

- (b) Oral examination (maximum marks 100).

Questions will be asked regarding any of the items covered by the above syllabus of practical tests.

III. Educational—

Tests will be set in handwriting, spelling, and arithmetic (first four rules, including British standard weights, measures and money). This section of the examination is of an elementary character: marks will not be allotted, but it will be necessary to qualify in this section to become eligible for appointment.

EXEMPTION FROM EXAMINATION.—The following exemptions will be allowed:—

(i) Any permanent officer of the Service who has completed the course for Telegraph and Telephone Mechanics at an approved Technical College or the Victorian Postal Institute and obtained the final certificate for the course, or who underwent part of the course at such college or institute and satisfactorily completed the course at the special correspondence class arranged by the Postmaster-General's Department, may claim exemption from the written section of Theory. An officer who claims such exemption must obtain at least 60 marks in the oral section to complete his examination in Theory.

(ii) An officer who was examined in the written, oral or practical tests at Examination No. 1991, No. 2045 or No. 2109, for advancement as Mechanic, Grade 2, and obtained at least 60 per cent. of the marks available in any of the three sections, or passed wholly in Theory, may claim exemption from re-examination in the section in which that minimum percentage of marks, or pass, was obtained.

ORDER OF MERIT.—Where two or more candidates obtain the same total of marks, their order of merit will be determined by the number of marks gained in the practical tests, or, if these also are equal, by lot.

VACANCIES.—It is estimated that within the ensuing twelve months five vacancies will be filled by successful candidates at this examination.

PERIOD OF ELIGIBILITY.—Officers who are returned soldiers will be eligible for transfer or promotion at any time. Returned soldiers who are not on the permanent staff will upon attaining the age of 51 years cease to be eligible for appointment.

Successful candidates who are not returned soldiers will be eligible for appointment, transfer or promotion within twelve months immediately succeeding publication in the Commonwealth Gazette of the results of the examination, but if prior to the expiration of that period a successful candidate from outside the Service attains the age of 51 years he will thereupon cease to be eligible for appointment.

ORDER OF APPOINTMENT, TRANSFER OR PROMOTION.—

- (a) Successful candidates included in either category (a) or (b) of the paragraph "Persons Eligible to Enter" will be advanced as Mechanics, Grade 2, as from the date of passing the examination;
- (b) Other successful candidates will be listed in two groups, viz:—
 - (i) Officers of the Service;
 - (ii) Candidates from without the Service.

In filling vacancies first preference will be given to successful candidates who are permanent officers of the Commonwealth Service, and, subject to the provisions of Section 50 of the Commonwealth Public Service Act, and of Determination by the Public Service Arbitrator No. 20 of 1929, they will be transferred or promoted in the order of their relative seniority.

If the number of officers who pass the examination is insufficient for the filling of vacancies, the appointment of successful candidates who are not officers of the Commonwealth Service will be made in their order of merit at the examination, subject to preference for appointment being given to (a) returned soldiers temporarily employed in the Commonwealth Service, and (b) other returned soldiers.

APPOINTMENT SUBJECT TO CERTAIN CONDITIONS.—A successful candidate who is not a permanent officer must, upon appointment, produce evidence of the date of his birth, and a medical certificate, satisfying the Board in such particulars as it may determine, of sound bodily health and freedom from physical defects. Upon confirmation of his appointment, he will, if eligible, be required to contribute to the Commonwealth Superannuation Fund.

An appointee will be required to defray the cost of fares to the place of appointment, but any expense on second-class fares in excess of £3 incurred by him may be refunded by the Department upon the expiration of three months from date of commencing duty.

Qualified candidates who on appointment are already temporarily employed, or who take up duty within fourteen days of the date of issue by the Chief Officer of notification of appointment and request to report for duty, will be regarded for seniority purposes as having entered the Commonwealth Service on the date of the Public Service Inspector's appointment certificate.

REFUSAL OF APPOINTMENT.—If a successful candidate declines to accept an appointment offered to him, or fails to reply within seven days to a communication from the Board, a Public Service Inspector, or a Chief Officer, addressed to him at his last known place of residence, respecting his nomination to the Public Service, his name may be removed from the "Register of Persons Qualified for Appointment."

Public Service Board.

NOTIFICATION OF VACANCIES.

APPLICATIONS are invited from permanent officers of the Commonwealth Public Service for promotion or transfer to the positions named in the appended schedule. Where so indicated, applications will also be received from officers of the Public Services of the States and other persons.

Applicants should state fully their qualifications for the position sought, and must, to ensure consideration, forward their applications to the officer indicated in the last column in time to reach him not later than the appointed date.

In the case of applicants who are permanent officers of the Public Service of the Commonwealth or of a State, the following particulars should be set out at the foot of the application:—

Designation.....
Standard salary scale (i.e., 1.7.26 rate).....
Office or Branch.....
Age last birthday (in years).....
Length of Service.....
Salary (per annum).....
Date granted last increment.....

Other applicants should state full names, date, year and place of birth, and whether they are natural born or naturalized British subjects. Copies only of diplomas, references, testimonials, or certificates should be forwarded. If the originals are required they will be asked for.

The range of salary indicates the classified value of a position, but appointments may be made at any salary within such range.

Successful applicants must comply with the provisions of the Superannuation Act 1922-1931.

At offices where quarters are shown, a deduction at the rate of 10 per cent. of the minimum salary of the position will be made, unless otherwise stated. Particulars of existing quarters are furnished merely for the information of officers. It is not incumbent on Departments to provide quarters, which, if provided, may be wholly or partially withdrawn at any time.

Officers of the Commonwealth Public Service, who may be transferred without promotion, as the result of an application for an advertised vacancy, will be required to pay their own expenses of removal unless the transfer comes within the conditions prescribed in Public Service Regulation No. 119.

Fares to locality of appointment of appointees who are not permanent officers of the Commonwealth Public Service will not be paid by the Commonwealth unless such fares (including, if the applicant is married, those of his wife and family) exceed £3, when such allowance as the circumstances justify may be granted.
