CONSPICUOUS GALLANTRY MEDAL.

Warrant Officer Kevin John Dennis, No. 437121.

COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA.

The Solicitor-General Act 1916.

DELEGATION TO THE SOLICITOR-GENERAL.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of the provisions of the Solicitor-General Act 1916 the Attorney-General is empowered by writing under his hand to delegate any of his powers or functions under any Act (except that power of delegation), so that the delegated powers may be exercised by the Solicitor-General as fully and effectually as by the Attorney-General:

Now therefore I, John Albert Beasley, the Minister of State for Defence, acting for and on behalf of the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth, do hereby delegate to the Solicitor-General of the Commonwealth all the powers and functions of the Attorney-General under—

- the Lands Acquisition Act 1906-1936;
- the Statutory Declarations Act 1911-1944;
- any Acts of the Commonwealth relating to Patents, Trade Marks, Designs or Copyright, or any Regulations thereunder;
- section sixty-one of the Judiciary Act 1903-1940;

(e) the War Precautions Act Repeal Act 1920-1934, or any Regulations made under the War Precautions Act Repeal Act 1920 or made under that Act as subsequently amended;

(f) section two hundred and eight of the Bankruptcy Act 1924-1933;

(g) section ten, sub-section (4.), of the National Security Act 1939-1943;

(h) the National Security (Land Transfer) Regulations, being regulations under the National Security Act 1939-1943, or under any amendments of those Regulations;

(i) the Peace Officers Act 1925—

(1) Power to grant increments to Peace Officers within the limits of remuneration approved by the Governor-General in Council;

(2) Power to promote Peace Officers of any rank or grade, other than that of Superintending Peace Officer or Deputy Superintending Peace Officer;

(3) Power to authorize Peace Officers to resign their offices or to withdraw from the duties thereof;

(4) Power to dismiss any Peace Officer where he is satisfied that the Peace Officer has committed an offence of such a serious nature, or his services are so unsatisfactory, that he should no longer be permitted to hold office as a Peace Officer; and

(5) Power to terminate the appointment of any Peace Officer—

(i) where the Commonwealth Medical Officer has certified that in his opinion the Peace Officer is in such condition of health that it is not possible for him to perform his duties with reasonable efficiency;

(ii) whose sick leave credits are exhausted; and

(iii) whose services are no longer required in view of the reduction in the amount of work to be done and for whom no other suitable position is available elsewhere; and

(j) the sections hereinafter specified of the following Ordinances of the Australian Capital Territory made under the Seat of Government Acceptance Act 1909 and the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910, or made under either or both of those Acts as subsequently amended:—

(1) sections three and six of the Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Ordinance 1927-1938;

(2) section six, sub-section (1A.), of the Police Superannuation Ordinance 1928-1945; and

(3) section five of the Police Ordinance 1927-1943 insofar as that section applies to the appointment of constables, the promotion of members of the Police Force not higher than the rank of sergeant and the granting to members of the Police Force increments and allowances within such limits, and on such conditions, as have been approved generally or in like cases by the Attorney-General.

This instrument of delegation shall continue in force until the return of the Attorney-General to Australia.

Dated this sixteenth day of July, 1945.

JOHN A. BEASLEY

for and on behalf of the Attorney-General.

COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA.

ORDER MADE BY THE MINISTER UNDER SECTION 265 OF THE CUSTOMS ACT 1901-1936.

WHEREAS by Order made in pursuance of section 265 of the Customs Act 1901-1936 and dated the twenty-fifth day of February, 1944, a notification of which appeared in the Commonwealth Gazette dated the twenty-third day of March, 1944, a penalty of Five pounds together with forfeiture of the goods related to the offence was imposed on J. Riordan, c/o SS. Taroona for making in a document produced to an officer a statement untrue in a particular.

And whereas it is desirable to remit so much of the said penalty as exceeds Two pounds ten shillings:

Now therefore I, Richard Valentine Keane, Minister of State for Trade and Customs, in pursuance of section 265 of the said Act, do hereby order that so much of the said penalty as exceeds Two pounds ten shillings be remitted.

Dated this 12th day of July, 1945.

R. V. KEANE,

Minister of State for Trade and Customs.

ORDERS MADE BY THE MINISTER UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE ACTS HEREUNDER CITED.

Customs Act 1901-1936 and Excise Act 1901-1942.

THE Statutory conditions precedent to Determination by the Minister of the contraventions enumerated in the following Schedule having been fulfilled, the several matters have been so determined and Orders have been made in relation thereto and a notification of each such Order is hereby published—in accordance with the law.

R. V. KEANE, Minister for Trade and Customs.

Melbourne.

9th July, 1945.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR CHANGE OF THE CONDITIONS OF ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP OF AN ORGANIZATION (INCLUDING THE DESCRIPTION
OF THE INDUSTRY IN CONNEXION WITH WHICH IT IS REGISTERED).

NOTICE is hereby given that application has been made to me under the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904-1934 for the change of conditions of eligibility for membership of the Federated Ironworkers Association of Australia (including the description of the industry in connexion with which it is registered) from the following:—

I. The Union shall consist of an unlimited number of persons—

- Employed, or usually employed, in the Public Service of the Commonwealth, or in private industry, in the manufacture, preparation, storage, or delivery of ammunition (including sporting and military), cordite, explosives (including commercial and military), arms, (including sporting and military) and munitions, or works incidental thereto throughout the Commonwealth.
- All assistants and all laborers, general or special engaged in connection with the work of boilermakers, blacksmiths, engineers (including electrical engineers), moulders, coppersmiths, sheet-iron workers, plumbers, springmakers, electricians, motor mechanics, any any other mechanics engaged in the iron, steel and metal industries.
- Dressers, grinders, drillers on stationary machines, furnacemen (including forge furnacemen), pipe moulders, tool storemen, and all laborers, general or special, engaged in iron, steel and metal industries, or engaged in the cast-iron pipe-making industry, steel locking bar pipe industry, riggers and scaffolders (other than riggers on ships and riggers and scaffolders employed in shipyards, dockyards and in building operations), machinists (excepting operators of punching, shearing, riveting, rolling, bending, angle or plate straightening, nipping and notching machines, and smithy machines), and all assistants to mechanics, and laborers general and special, employed in constructional shops in industries in or in connexion with which this Union is registered as an organization.
- Machinists engaged in the steel locking bar pipe-making industry. All persons employed in the iron, steel and tin plate rolling industries, in the manufacture of galvanized iron, in the manufacture and/or rolling of brass, copper and aluminium and other non-ferrous metals and in the process of lining and/or covering pipes with bitumen, and all persons employed in the machine horseshoe-making industry and in the reinforced steel industry carried out in workshops or foundries.
- Persons engaged in a repetition or specialized process for the production of or assembling of machine parts or metallic articles or plastic mouldings. Persons engaged in the assembling of motor chassis, bumper bars, motor accessories and the like, and employees, including labourers, engaged as assistants in the manufacture of such articles and/or accessories and the like excepting assemblers of engines, engineers, fitters, turners, planers, shapers, slotters, millers and motor mechanics. Operators of metal spraying machines and labourers employed directly or indirectly as assisting such workers.

- (f) All classes of employees which are referred to in the preceding paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e), engaged in or in connection with the industries of shipbuilding and ship-repairing or engaged in or in connection with the work of foundries, together with such other persons, whether employees in any industrial pursuit or pursuits or not, who may have been appointed officers of the Union and admitted as members thereof provided that no boilermaker, blacksmith, engineer, electrician, moulder (other than pipe moulder), coppersmith, sheet metal worker, tinsmith, canister-maker, plumber, or spring-maker shall be eligible to become a member of this union.

II. Any persons employed in one of the capacities referred to in Part I. of this Rule shall, unless he is shown to have been guilty of conduct rendering him in the opinion of the National Conference undesirable as a member, be eligible for admission as a member in accordance with these Rules.

III. The Union is formed in connexion with the industries referred to in Part I. of this Rule.

to the following:—

I. The Union shall consist of an unlimited number of persons:—

- (a) Employed, or usually employed, in the Public Service of the Commonwealth, or in private industry, in the manufacture, preparation, storage, or delivery of ammunition (including sporting and military), cordite, explosives (including commercial and military), arms (including sporting and military) and munitions, or works incidental thereto throughout the Commonwealth.
- (b) All workers in wire, employees in or about wire netting or other wire workers, employees engaged in the manufacture of metal wire or of any article or articles made therefrom. Employees engaged in the process of galvanizing or tinning articles of wire or any form of metal, and in all processes leading up to the preparation of such tinning or galvanizing and all workers engaged in tubular gate making.
- (c) All persons who are employed in any establishment wholly or partly connected with the manufacture of bone dust and other artificial manures or fertilizers; or in the manufacture of nitric, muriatic, acetic or any other acids or chemicals not otherwise described.
- (d) All assistants and all labourers, general or special engaged in connexion with the work of boilermakers, blacksmiths, engineers (including electrical engineers), moulders, copper-smiths, sheet-iron workers, plumbers, spring-makers, electricians, motor mechanics, and any other mechanics engaged in the iron, steel and metal industries.
- (e) Dressers, grinders, drillers on stationary machines, furnacemen (including forge furnacemen), pipe moulders, tool storemen, and all labourers, general or special, engaged in the iron, steel and metal industries, or engaged in the cast-iron pipe-making industry, steel locking bar pipe industry, riggers and scaffolders (other than riggers on ships and riggers and scaffolders employed in ship-yards, dockyards, and in building operations), machinists (excepting operators of punching, shearing, riveting, rolling, bending, angle or plate straightening, nipping and notching machines, and smithy machines), and all assistants to mechanics, and labourers general or special, employed in constructional shops in industries in or in connexion with which this Union is registered as an organization.

- (f) Machinists engaged in the steel locking bar pipe-making industry. All persons employed in the iron, steel and tin plate rolling industry, all persons employed in occupations directly associated with the iron, steel and metal industry including quarrying and transporting ore, and all persons employed on work carried on in association with and ancillary to the iron, steel and metal industry. All persons employed in the manufacture of galvanized iron, in the manufacture and/or rolling of brass, copper, aluminium, and other non-ferrous metals, and in the process of lining and/or covering pipes with bitumen, and all persons employed in the machine horseshoe-making industry, and in the reinforced steel industry carried out in workshops or foundries.
- (g) Persons engaged in a repetition or specialized process for the production of or assembling of machine parts or metallic articles. Persons engaged in a repetition or specialized process for the production of plastic mouldings. Persons engaged in the assembling of motor chassis, bumper bars, motor accessories and the like, and employees including labourers engaged as assistants in the manufacture of such articles and/or accessories and the like, excepting assemblers of engines, engineers, fitters, turners, planers, shapers, slotters, millers and motor mechanics. Operators of metal spraying machines and laborers employed directly or indirectly assisting such workers.
- (h) All classes of employees which are referred to in the preceding paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e), engaged in or in connexion with the industries of shipbuilding and ship-repairing or engaged in or in connexion with the work of foundries, together with such other persons, whether employees in any industrial pursuit or pursuits or not, who may have been appointed officers of the Union and admitted as members thereof provided that no boilermaker, blacksmith, engineer, electrician, moulder (other than pipe moulder), coppersmith, sheet metal worker, tinsmith, canister-maker, plumber, or spring-maker shall be eligible to become a member of this union.

II. Any person employed in one of the capacities referred to in Part I. of this Rule shall, unless he is shown to have been guilty of conduct rendering him in the opinion of the National Conference undesirable as a member, be eligible for admission as a member in accordance with these Rules.

III. The Union is formed in connexion with the industries referred to in Part I. of this Rule.

Any person who desires to object to the proposed change may do so by lodging with me a notice of objection in the prescribed form and a statutory declaration in support thereof within twenty-one days after the publication of this advertisement and by serving on the organization copies of the notice of objection and statutory declaration so lodged.

COMMONWEALTH PUBLIC SERVICE.

PROMOTIONS—SECTION 50 AND REGULATION 109

THE following promotions are provisional and subject to appeal by officers to the Public Service Board, and, where consequent upon another provisional promotion, shall be dependent upon the latter being confirmed. Appeals should be lodged, either by letter or telegram, within twenty-one days of the date of this notification, as follows:—

- (a) if the promotion is to be made in a State, with the Commonwealth Public Service Inspector in the capital city of that State;
- (b) if the promotion is to be made in the Australian Capital Territory, with the Public Service Inspector in Canberra, unless the promotion is to be made to a vacancy in the Postmaster-General's Department, in which case the officer shall lodge his appeal with the Commonwealth Public Service Inspector, Sydney;
- (c) if the promotion is to be made in the Northern Territory:—
 - (i) with the Commonwealth Public Service Inspector, Brisbane, in the case of a promotion to a vacancy in the Department of Trade and Customs;
 - (ii) with the Commonwealth Public Service Inspector, Adelaide, in the case of a promotion to a vacancy in the Postmaster-General's Department;
 - (iii) with the Public Service Inspector, Canberra, in other cases.

An appellant shall forward his appeal direct to the Public Service Inspector.

Under Section 50 (7A) of the Commonwealth Public Service Act, the Board may regard an appeal as having been made against a provisional promotion notified hereunder by any officers who, at any time within the time prescribed for lodging an appeal, are absent on leave for war service.

Where an officer desires to appeal against two or more provisional promotions a separate appeal should be lodged in respect of each, except where the provisional promotions appealed against are to positions of similar classification in the same Branch of a Department, when one appeal covering such provisional promotions will be accepted.

The grounds of appeal must be as prescribed in Section 50 of the Commonwealth Public Service Act, viz.:—

- (a) Superior efficiency; or
- (b) Equal efficiency combined with seniority.

(N.B.—Where positions have been the subject of an Arbitration Determination, the salary scales shown are those prescribed by Determinations.)

NOTIFICATION OF VACANCIES.

APPLICATIONS are invited from permanent officers of the Commonwealth Public Service for promotion or transfer to the positions named in the appended schedule. Where so indicated, applications will also be received from officers of the Public Service of the States and other persons.

Applicants should state fully their qualifications for the position sought, and must, to ensure consideration, forward their applications to the officer indicated in the last column in time to reach him not later than the appointed date.

Where an applicant desires to be considered for two or more vacancies a separate application should be forwarded in respect of each position sought except where the positions applied for are of similar classification and in the same Branch of a Department, e.g., positions of Postmaster, Lines Staff positions, &c., when one application covering such positions will be accepted.

In the case of applicants who are permanent officers of the Public Service of the Commonwealth or of a State, the following particulars should be set out at the foot of the application:—

- Full name (block letters)
- Designation
- Standard salary scale
- Office or Branch
- Age last birthday (in years)
- Length of service
- Salary (per annum)
- Date granted last increment

Other applicants should state full names, date, year and place of birth, and whether they are natural born or naturalized British subjects. Returned soldiers should give particulars of war service. Copies only of diplomas, references, testimonials, or certificates should be forwarded. If the originals are required they will be asked for.

The range of salary indicates the classified value of a position, but appointments may be made at any salary within such range.

Successful applicants must comply with the provisions of the Superannuation Act.

At offices where quarters are shown, a deduction at the rate of 10 per cent. of the minimum salary of the position will be made, unless otherwise stated. Particulars of existing quarters are furnished merely for the information of officers. It is not incumbent on Departments to provide quarters, which, if provided, may be wholly or partially withdrawn at any time.

Officers of the Commonwealth Public Service, who may be transferred without promotion, as the result of an application for an advertised vacancy, will be required to pay their own expenses of removal unless the transfer comes within the conditions prescribed in Public Service Regulation No. 119.

Fares to locality of appointment of appointees who are not permanent officers of the Commonwealth Public Service will not be paid by the Commonwealth unless such fares (including, if the applicant is married, those of his wife and family) exceed £3, when such allowance as the circumstances justify may be granted.
