“fish market” means the fish market established at the date of commencement of the Fisheries and Oyster Farms (Amendment) Act, 1942, of the State by the Municipal Council of Sydney in the Metropolitan Fish Supply District in pursuance of section 195 of the Sydney Corporation Act, 1932-1942, of the State, and the fish market established at Newcastle in the State in pursuance of section 41B of the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act, 1935-1942, of the State, and any other fish market established for a district under that Act;

“original owner” has the same meaning as in section 4 of the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act, 1935-1942, of the State;

“the Chief Secretary” means the Chief Secretary of New South Wales;

“the State” means the State of New South Wales;

“to sell” means to sell by wholesale or by retail or by auction, and includes to barter or exchange, supply for profit, offer for sale, receive for sale, have in possession for sale, expose for sale, send, forward or deliver for sale, cause or suffer or allow to be sold, offered or exposed for sale, and words derived therefrom have a corresponding meaning.

Restriction on delivery and sale of fish.

5.—(1.) All fish taken or landed by an original owner in any district or brought by him into any district or brought into any district by any other person shall be delivered to the authorized person in that district.

(2.) This paragraph shall take effect as from a date fixed by the Chief Secretary by notice published in the New South Wales Government Gazette.

(3.) This paragraph shall not apply to any sale or delivery of fish by—

- (a) a fisherman who is the holder of a consent under sub-section (3.) of section 40B of the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act, 1935-1942, of the State and who complies with all the terms and conditions of the consent;

- (b) a person who has taken or landed fish or brought fish into a district for his own consumption or that of the household where he resides; or

- (c) a person who sells or delivers fish in pursuance of the authority or the direction of the Chief Secretary or an authorized person and who complies with all the terms and conditions of that authority or with that direction.

Transport and processing of fish.

6.—(1.) A person shall not for gain or reward engage in the transport or processing of fish unless he is the holder of a licence issued by the Chief Secretary and except in accordance with the terms and conditions of the licence.

(2.) This paragraph shall take effect as from a date fixed by the Chief Secretary by notice published in the New South Wales Government Gazette.

(3.) This paragraph shall not apply to the transport of fish purchased in pursuance of an essential consumer's certificate under the National Security (Fish) Regulations.

Authorized person may sell fish delivered at fish market.

7.—(1.) An authorized person may take delivery of, and sell on behalf of the consignor, any fish delivered at a fish market, as if that fish had been consigned to him with authority for him so to sell it.

(2.) An authorized person may exercise the powers conferred on him by the last preceding sub-paragraph notwithstanding that the fish was consigned to some other person or was not consigned to any other person.

Delivery and sale of certain fish excluded.

8. This Order shall not apply to the delivery or sale in any district of—

- (a) canned, smoked or cured fish; or
- (b) oysters.

Terms and conditions of authority and licence.

9.—(1.) The terms and conditions of any authority or licence issued under this Order may—

- (a) be made to apply to the whole of the State or to any district of the State specified in the authority or licence;
- (b) be made so as to operate for any period or periods, for any time or times, or for any occasion or occasions, specified therein; and
- (c) be of general operation or of specially limited operation according to time, place, circumstances, conditions or restrictions.

(2.) Any authority, direction or licence issued under this Order may be revoked, varied or amended by the Chief Secretary.

Dated this twentieth day of August, 1945.

JOHN J. DEDMAN

Minister of State for Post-war Reconstruction.

NATIONAL SECURITY (FISH) REGULATIONS.

FISH MARKETS (NEW SOUTH WALES) ORDER.

IN pursuance of regulation 9 of the National Security (Fish) Regulations, I, John Johnstone Dedman, Minister of State for Post-war Reconstruction, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as the Fish Markets (New South Wales) Order.

Administration.

2. This Order shall be administered by the Minister of State for Post-war Reconstruction.

Application.

3. This Order shall apply to the State of New South Wales.

Definitions.

4. In this Order, unless the contrary intention appears—

“Newcastle Fish Market” means the fish market established at Newcastle in the State of New South Wales in pursuance of section 41B of the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act, 1935-1942, of the State;

“Sydney Fish Market” means the fish market established at the date of commencement of the Fisheries and Oyster Farms (Amendment) Act, 1942 of the State by the Municipal Council of Sydney in the Metropolitan Fish Supply District in pursuance of section 195 of the Sydney Corporation Act, 1932-1942, of the State;

“the State” means the State of New South Wales.

Control of fish markets.

5.—(1.) The control of the Sydney Fish Market shall, as on and from the seventeenth day of September, 1945, be vested in the corporation sole constituted by section 41A of the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act, 1935-1942, of the State under the name of the Chief Secretary of New South Wales.

(2.) As from a date fixed by the Minister by notice published in the Gazette, the control of the Sydney Fish Market shall be transferred to and be vested in an association specified in the notice which has been formed under the Co-operation Act, 1923-1945, of the State and the component societies of which are trading societies formed under Division 3 of Part II. of that Act for the object of carrying on the industry of fishing.

(3.) As from a date fixed by the Minister by notice published in the Gazette, the control of the Newcastle Fish Market shall be transferred to and be vested in a trading society specified in the notice which has been formed under Division 3 of Part II. of the Co-operation Act, 1923-1945, of the State for the object of carrying on the industry of fishing.

(4.) A person, other than the person in whom the control of the Sydney Fish Market or the Newcastle Fish Market is for the time being vested in pursuance of this paragraph, shall not sell fish in either the Sydney Fish Market or the Newcastle Fish Market, as the case may be.

Mode of sale.

6. A person in whom the control of any fish market is vested in pursuance of the last preceding paragraph may sell fish in that fish market by wholesale or retail or by private contract or at public auction.

Dated this twentieth day of August, 1945.

JOHN J. DEDMAN

Minister of State for Post-war Reconstruction.
