NATIONAL SECURITY (GENERAL) REGULATIONS.

CONTROL OF PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION OF FOOTWEAR ORDER (No. 2).

IN pursuance of regulation 59 of the National Security (General) Regulations, I, William Patrick Ashley, Minister of State for Supply and Shipping, hereby make the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Control of Production and Distribution of Footwear Order (No. 2).

2. The Control of Production and Distribution of Footwear Order is amended by adding after paragraph 1 the following paragraph 1A:—

“1A. This Order shall be administered by the Minister of State for Supply and Shipping.”

3. Paragraph 2 of the Control of Production and Distribution of Footwear Order is amended by omitting the definition of “the Controller” and inserting in its stead the following definition:—

“Controller” means the person for the time being appointed by the Minister to be the Controller of Footwear and Leather Goods and includes any person for the time being appointed by the Minister to be the Deputy of the Controller or to act for the Controller for all or any purposes of this Order.”

Dated this twenty-second day of August, 1945.

W. P. ASHLEY
Minister of State for Supply and Shipping.

NATIONAL SECURITY (GENERAL) REGULATIONS.

REVOCATION OF DECLARATION OF WATER AND SEWERAGE WORKS TO BE PROHIBITED PLACES.

WHEREAS by sub-regulation (1.) of regulation 4 of the National Security (General) Regulations it is provided that if it appears to the Minister to be necessary or expedient in the interests of the defence of the Commonwealth or the efficient prosecution of the war or for maintaining supplies and services essential to the life of the community that special precautions should be taken for the security of any place he may by order declare that place to be a prohibited place for the purpose of these Regulations:

And whereas by an order made on the 15th day of July, 1942, pursuant to the said regulation 4, John Johnstone Dedman, Minister of State for War Organization of Industry, acting for and on behalf of the Minister of State for Defence, declared all places in Australia which are under the control of a governmental, semi-governmental, municipal or local authority or body engaged in the supply of water or the maintenance and control of a sewerage system and being places used primarily for the collection, storage, conveyance or disposal of water or of sewage and in particular but without limiting the generality of the foregoing all reservoirs, open viaducts and channels, water towers, exposed water mains, syphons and pumping stations and where they and any of them are surrounded by or contained in any such enclosure were declared to be prohibited places for the purposes of the National Security (General) Regulations:

And whereas it appears to me, Francis Michael Forde, Minister of State for the Army, acting for and on behalf of the Minister of State for Defence, that it is no longer necessary or expedient in the interests of the defence of the Commonwealth or the efficient prosecution of the war or for maintaining supplies and services essential to the life of the community that special precautions should be taken for the security of those places referred to in the said Order made on the 15th day of July, 1942:

Now therefore, I, Francis Michael Forde, Minister of State for the Army, acting for and on behalf of the Minister of State for Defence, do hereby revoke the said Order made on the 15th day of July, 1942.

Dated the sixteenth day of August, 1945.

F. M. FORDE
Minister of State for the Army acting for and on behalf of the Minister of State for Defence.
