INTERNATIONAL BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT.

THE International Bank for Reconstruction and Development intends to adopt a programme for the training of junior professional and administrative staff. This programme will be in the nature of the establishment of fellowships and under it a limited number of candidates, probably not exceeding six at any one time, will be selected for a period of approximately one year for varied training in phases of the Bank's operations. Subject to the needs of the Bank at the time, it is expected that at the conclusion of their training offers of appointment to junior positions in the Bank will be made to most of the candidates. The training will take place in Washington.

Applicants for these traineeships should be young men and women with outstanding qualifications aged between twenty and thirty years. Their qualifications should meet the following minimum requirements:—

- (a) Citizenship of a country which is a member of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development;
- (b) The equivalent of a bachelor's degree from a recognized university, the major course of study having been in a field which would serve to prepare the candidate for a position with the Bank;
- (c) Fluency in English.

In addition, experience is desirable and a working knowledge of a language other than English would be an advantage. Preference will be given to single men and women.

The Bank will pay the travelling expenses of each successful applicant, from his or her home, to Washington, and should the trainee not receive an appointment to the permanent staff of the Bank, the expenses of the return trip will also be paid.

During the training period trainees will be paid between 2,500 and 3,000 dollars per annum, dependent upon qualifications and experience. On appointment to the permanent staff of the Bank, the salary will be approximately 3,500 dollars per annum, with good prospects of early advancement to salaries of 4,500 or 5,000 dollars, for those who have demonstrated ability during training.

One or two persons may be nominated from Australia. The successful applicants will be announced on the 1st October, 1948, and the course of training will begin about 1st January, 1949.

Permanent officers of the Commonwealth Public Service, if selected, will be granted leave of absence pending permanent appointment to the staff of the Bank.

Applications and inquiries should be addressed to the Secretary, Department of the Treasury, Canberra, so as to reach him not later than the 1st April, 1948.
