Customs Act 1901-1947.

PASSENGER'S PERSONAL EFFECTS.

Determination Under Regulation 24 (4) of the Customs Regulations.

IN accordance with Regulation 24 (4) of the Customs Regulations, I determine as follows in regard to "personal effects" of passengers arriving in Australia:—

"The personal effects of a passenger include the passenger's own wearing apparel and articles of personal use. They include also jewellery, hair-brushes and essential toilet requisites, bicycles, cameras of non-commercial types, camp equipment of travelling sportsmen, exposed (or exposed and developed) films for home cinematographs brought to Australia by passengers and recording incidents of their travels abroad, portable gramophones, sporting guns, surgical, dental or veterinary hand instruments, gramophone records, sporting rifles including those for range competitions, saddles, personal sporting requisites, tradesmen's hand tools, portable equipment of the kind normally owned by workers for the carrying out of their particular trades, and typewriters. Provided that every such article is the passenger's own exclusive property, is or has been in his possession, is for his own use, and is not intended for gift, sale, exchange or trade.

"In certain circumstances and subject to special approval, a motor cycle (with or without side car) or a second-hand motor vehicle may be regarded as personal effects. In each case, application must be made to the Collector of Customs, setting out the circumstances of the importation.

"Personal effects do not include—

- (i) partly made wearing apparel, piece goods of silk wool or other material, lace, or goods of any kind for making into wearing apparel or furnishings;
- (ii) household goods or furnishings or any article for use, decoration, or ornament in a house or premises;
- (iii) perfumes, spirituous liquors, tobacco, cigars, cigarettes or confectionery;
- (iv) aircraft or motor vehicles except a second-hand motor car or second-hand motor van or truck with standard fittings and accessories, the private property of a passenger who intends to reside in Australia permanently, subject—

(a) to the production to, and to the satisfaction of the Collector of Customs of evidence that the car, van or truck is the private property of the passenger and has been in his possession and use for at least one year prior to the date of its shipment to Australia; and

(b) to the lodgment by the passenger with the Collector of Customs of a documentary security subscribed to as surety by an approved bank or guarantee company requiring that an amount specified therein representing the Customs duties and sales tax ordinarily payable on the car, van or truck at the date of its importation, shall be paid to the Collector in the event that the car, van or truck is sold or otherwise disposed of in Australia by the passenger or on his behalf within three years of its importation into Australia;

(v) wireless sets;

(vi) home cinematographs (projectors)."

The determination of 7th February, 1949, published in Gazette No. 21, dated 17th March, 1949, is hereby superseded.
