IN THE HIGH COURT OF AUSTRALIA.

In the matter of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918-1949 and in the matter of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act and in the matter of the election of GORDON ANDERSON to the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Australia at the General Election of the 10th day of December, 1949, for the Electorate of Kingsford Smith.

PETITION.

To the Court of Disputed Returns at the High Court of Australia Sydney (No. 5 of 1950).

MAY IT PLEASE THE COURT.

I HENRY WILLIAM CRITTENDEN, a Candidate for the Kingsford Smith Electoral Division in the State of New South Wales at the General Elections of 10th December 1949, now residing at 12 Seville St., Lane Cove in that State, respectively present this my Petition as authorised by Part XVIII of the Commonwealth Electoral Acts 1918-1949.

The validity of the duly proclaimed election of Gordon Anderson to sit as a Member of the House of Representatives for the Kingsford Smith Electoral Division on 21st December 1949 is disputed by me under the following counts:—

1. The said Gordon Anderson is not capable of being chosen or of sitting as a Member of the House of Representatives he being under acknowledgment of adherence, obedience and/or allegiance to a foreign power within the meaning of Section 44 of the Commonwealth Constitution.
2. More than £250 was expended by or on behalf of the said Gordon Anderson as and by way of election expenses in contravention of Part XVI Sections 145 and 146 of the Commonwealth Electoral Acts of 1918-49.
3. Certain Commonwealth Government Department Publications produced wholly at the public expense were used by the said Gordon Anderson and/or his Agents for the purpose of influencing Electors in his favor and the cost of which is part of the Election Expenses as limited by the relevant part and sections of the Commonwealth Electoral Acts 1918-49.

I rely upon the facts as set out hereunder.

As to Count No. 1—

Section 44 Sub-Section 1, of The Commonwealth Constitution of 1900, provides that—

Any person who—

"Is under any acknowledgment of allegiance, obedience, or adherence to a foreign power, or is a subject or a citizen or entitled to the rights or privileges of a subject or a citizen of a foreign power" shall be incapable of being chosen or of sitting as a Senator or as a Member of the House of Representatives."

The Roman Catholic Church is both a Spiritual and Temporal Power. It has survived as a Religion for nearly 2,000 years only because of its power and influence as a Political State.

The Spiritual Head of the Roman Catholic Church as a Religious Body is the Reigning Pope, who is also, as the Sovereign Pontiff the Ruling Head of the Roman Catholic Church as a Political Hierarchy centered in the independent sovereign State of the Holy See or Papal State situated in its own territory at Rome.

In 1860 the Government of Italy under Garibaldi forcibly incorporated three of the nine Papal States over which the Popes had exercised sovereignty for centuries. The temporal power of the Vatican was suspended. In 1870 the remaining six Papal States were incorporated into a United Italy and the Pope no longer had jurisdiction or diplomatic status as the ruler of an independent State. The then Pope and his successors since accepted the position only under protest, and still maintained the validity of their claims to all those ancient political rights and privileges of which they were now deprived.

In 1929 the Lateran Treaty was signed by the Italian Government on the one hand and Pope Pius XI. as head of the Holy See, on the other, whereby temporal power was restored to him and his successors, and which recognized full and independent sovereignty of the Holy See. As compensation for having deprived the Holy See of Temporal Power and Sovereignty for sixty years, inter alia, the Treaty provided for the Italian Government to pay the Pope 750 million lire (£20,000,000 stg.) and further to pay him 5 per cent. per annum on 1,000 million lire (£25,000,000 stg.). The Treaty also recognized the Roman Catholic Church as the State Religion of Italy. The Vatican City was recognized as being an independent sovereign State known as the Papal State, and having "Independent Diplomatic Status among the sovereign States of the World". The entire motif of this Treaty was political from the view points of both parties. The aim of the Italian Government is accepted generally as including the moral support of the Vatican for its projected imperial adventures which included the attack upon Abyssinia.

Since 1929 to the present day the Papal State has its own independent ruling sovereign in the person of the Pope, who is internationally recognized as the Sovereign Pontiff. It has its own accredited diplomatic representatives (nuncios &c.) in exchange with those of other powers. It has its own Executive Council and Legislature, including various executives among which is the Papal Secretary of State. It has its own treasury and coinage, military establishment, post and telegraph and, in fact all the recognized institutions of a Sovereign Power.

Since the Lateran Treaty was signed the British Diplomatic Representative at the Vatican and Resident in Rome is a Minister Plenipotentiary with status and emoluments slightly higher than those of the British Representative in Panama Republic—similarly a sovereign State and foreign power to all others.

The immediate outcome of the Lateran Treaty between two political entities as the contracting parties was the establishment of the wholly political Catholic Action Organization in all countries where opportunity offered. Under the overall direction of the present Pope then Cardinal Pacelli as Secretary of State to the Vatican, Apostolic Delegate Panico established Catholic Action in Australia on a nation-wide basis. To-day in this country Catholic Action is believed to have a secret and active membership of up to two hundred thousand and every member of the Roman Catholic Church is expected to give it full moral if not active support. Its influence is seen and felt in almost every department of the Australian way of life especially in the Political, Public Service, Trade Union Propaganda and Local Government spheres of action.

Later Pope Pius XI. signed the Concordat (treaty) between the Vatican and Hitler which many authorities agree precipitated World War II.

The history of the Roman Catholic Church as with that of every country, is overwhelmingly political. It is not necessary to cite more than a few cases such as the humiliation of King John, as a prelude to the signing of Magna Carta.

The Excommunication of Queen Elizabeth and the Vatican backing of European Courts to wage war on England from which the Armada eventuated. The Guy Fawkes plot to blow up the English House of Parliament in 1603 was inspired by the same hierarchy. The revolt in Ireland under James II. was similarly inspired. Nearer at hand we have the anti-censorship campaigns of World War I. under Archbishop Mannix which were wholly political, and in which almost every priest was a leader. These coincided with the Irish Rebellion of 1916, during which the Pope sent a Special Mass to "His Irish Province" calling upon all Irish Catholics to support the Rebels as a sacred duty. Nor can it be denied that the Vatican, politically bound to Hitler, sponsored Eire's neutrality. (In World War II).

The selected Laws and Decrees set out hereunder are part of what is known as The Canon Law of the Roman Catholic Church and mandatory upon all its members in all countries, including Australia, and claimed and accepted as taking precedence over the Civil Laws of all countries in which such members live. They are administered by Local Hierarchies comprising a constituent Governing Body of Bishops and Priests with delegated and discretionary powers from the Pope himself. The numbered sequence in this Statement is for reference herein only.

These Laws and Decrees are cited, confirmed and elaborated in hundreds of official books, documents, and journals authorized by the Pope.

1. The definitions, teachings, decrees and instructions of the Roman Pontiff are infallible and above all earthly law.

2. The Pope can annul all legal relations of those in ban, especially their marriages.

3. The Pope can release from every obligation, vow, either before or after being made.

4. The Roman Catholic is free and independent of any earthly power, a sovereign society, the supreme head of which the Pope must be esteemed the king.

5. If the Pope's authority comes into conflict with the civil laws upon any vital point, the Catholic is to act as he did in the first, second and third centuries.

6. The Church and her priests have the right of immunity from all civil laws.

7. The clergy should be tried for civil and criminal offences only in ecclesiastical courts.

8. The Church has the right to interfere in the discipline and in the arrangement of the studies of the public schools.

9. The execution of Papal commands for the persecution of heretics causes remission of sins.

10. He who kills one that is excommunicated is no murderer in the legal sense.

11. It is quite unlawful to demand, defend or to grant unconditional freedom of thought or writing or of worship as if these were so many rights given by nature to men.

12. In point of fact, democracy is a mischievous dream wherever the Catholic Church does not predominate to inspire the people with reverence.

13. The Pope has the right to annul State laws, treaties, constitutions, &c., to absolve from obedience thereto as soon as they seem detrimental to the rights of the Church or those of the clergy.

14. The Pope has the right of admonishing and, if necessary, of punishing the Temporal rulers, emperors and kings.

15. Without the consent of the Pope no tax or rate of any king can be levied upon a clergyman or upon any (R.C.) church whatsoever.

16. The Pope has the right to absolve from oaths and obedience to the persons and laws of the princes whom he excommunicates.

17. The civil power has no power to assist persons to regain their freedom who have once adopted a religious life—that is, have become priests or nuns.

18. All private persons whether of the laity or the sacred orders, male or female, who, without the proper ecclesiastical authority cites before any lay tribunals any ecclesiastical person whatsoever, either in civil or criminal cases, and shall publicly compel them to be present in court, shall incur excommunication.

19. The laws of the Church do not recognize any civil privileges as belonging to persons non-Catholic; their marriages are not valid; they live only in concubinage; their children, being bastards, are not capacitated to inherit. When Catholics are married according to the rules of the Church the marriage is valid, even if in other respects they infringe all the laws of their own country.

20. All Catholics must make themselves felt as active elements in daily political life in countries where they live. All Catholics should exert their power to cause constitutions of States to be modelled on the principles of the true Church. Catholics have just reason to enter into the political life having in mind the purpose of introducing the wholesome life-blood of Catholic wisdom, virtue into the whole system of the State."

I submit that it is clearly established by the foregoing that:

1. The Roman Catholic Church is an integral part of a world-wide political régime headed by the Pope as Sovereign Pontiff and ruler of a foreign power within the meaning of section 44 clause 1 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia.

2. The Canonical Laws and Decrees imposed upon and accepted by Roman Catholics in Australia whom the Pope claims as his subjects within his Australian Province, cannot by any reasonable interpretation be included in the spiritual or religious category within the meaning of the provision for religious freedom in the Australian Constitution, but are entirely in the political category and primarily calculated to achieve the political ends of a foreign power. They conflict with and challenge the Civil Laws of Australia as well as the principles of Magna Carta 1215 A.D., Habeas Corpus 1679 A.D. and the Bill of Rights 1689 A.D., upon which they are founded, together with the Australian Constitution.

3. All Roman Catholics in Australia are under "acknowledgments of allegiance, obedience or adherence to a Foreign Power" within the meaning of section 44 clause 1 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia and are therefore not capable of being chosen or of sitting as Senators or Members of the House of Representatives".

The recent direction by the present Pope to Catholic Judges that they should ignore the civil laws in certain cases which came before them, can be interpreted in no other way than that where the civil law conflicts with "Church Law" Catholic Judges must betray their solemn oaths taken to administer the laws of the State without a single reservation.

In addition there are many such classical works as Gladstone's "Church and State", inspired by the Vatican's repudiation of certain undertakings made by the English R.C. Hierarchy as a condition precedent to the Special Act passed in 1829 which permitted Roman Catholics to sit in the English Parliament.

It is the political activities of the Local Hierarchies in English-speaking countries that have given them such control over the Press, Radio and Politics generally, as to virtually impose a taboo upon publication of matters calculated to prejudice their special interests.

Infrequent news items of this category in the aggregate provide a convincing endorsement of the case as presented herein. Included in these are Sydney Morning Herald's Report of Post-war Roman Catholic Political parties in every State in Europe, under various names but all under Vatican direction and control in pursuit of its Temporal Power.

The said Gordon Anderson was, at the times of his nomination and election, a professed member of the Roman Catholic Church. As such he, as in the case of all members of that Church in all countries, is under "acknowledgement of Adherence, Obedience or Allegiance to a Foreign Power"—the Papal State. He is therefore incapable of being chosen or of sitting as a Member of the House of Representatives.

As to Count No. 2.

Part XVI., Sections 145-146, of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918-49, make no provision for any additional amount of election expenses beyond the specified £250 and Section 147 specifically defines "Election Expenses" as including all expenses incurred by or on behalf of or in the interests of any candidate at or in connexion with any election excepting only the purchasing of electoral rolls and the personal and reasonable living and travelling expenses of the candidate".

The following Section 148 requires that "any person incurring or authorizing electoral expense by or on behalf of any candidate must have the written authority of the candidate in each case. It is submitted that any expense incurred by a trade union, party or other body or person referred to in Section 152 of Part XVI. of the said Electoral Acts on behalf or in the interest of any candidate is included in the prescribed maximum of £250 for each candidate. It is submitted also that where such expense is similarly incurred on behalf of or in the interest of any political party, it must be a charge at least proportionately against each of that Party's Candidates. Any other conclusion would defeat the entire letter and spirit of sections 145, 146, 147 which clearly aim at protecting candidates against the advantage otherwise exercised by wealthier opposing candidates and/or the interests which are prepared to back them. I find that the cost of daily and weekly newspaper advertising authorized by The Australian Labor Party for and on behalf of all its candidates who were frequently named therein and which includes the said Gordon Anderson appears in the aggregate to exceed £250 per Labor Party Candidate for the House of Representatives, and £500 per candidate for The Senate, under such conditions my candidature was gravely prejudiced by inability to expend more than the prescribed £250, as against the very large funds available to the said Gordon Anderson.

As to Count No. 3.

Several expensively produced booklets were published by various Commonwealth Government Departments shortly prior to the last general elections, for example those from the Departments of Post-war Reconstruction and Social Services.

Hundreds of thousands of copies of these booklets extolling the work of the Departments concerned under Labor Administration were made available to Labor Party Candidates, including the said Gordon Anderson in whose electorates they were freely distributed as part of the electioneering literature issued by or on behalf of the Party Candidates in each Electorate. Severe and quite justifiable criticism has been voiced throughout the Press and at Public Meetings against this manifestly corrupt misuse of public funds, and which is in my submission an illegal practice vide Section 162 (b).

I submit that the cost of this literature must be included as "Election Expense" within the meaning of Section 147 of the Commonwealth Electoral Acts. My candidature was thus seriously prejudiced.

I respectfully pray for such relief as is warranted by the circumstances to the end that Justice may be done as provided by the Commonwealth Constitution and Electoral Acts.

The whole of the facts as set out in this my Petition are true in all essentials to the best of my knowledge and belief.

As witness my hand this Twenty-seventh day of January in the year 1950.

H. W. CRITTENDEN.

Applicants should state fully their qualifications for the position sought, and must, to ensure consideration, forward their applications to the officer indicated in the last column in time to reach him not later than the appointed date.

Applications submitted by telegram prior to the closing date will be accepted, but these should be followed up immediately by full written application.

Where an applicant desires to be considered for two or more vacancies a separate application should be forwarded in respect of each position sought except where the positions applied for are of similar classification and in the same Branch of the Department, e.g., positions of Postmaster, Lines Staff positions, &c., when one application covering such positions will be accepted.

In the case of applicants who are permanent officers of the Public Service of the Commonwealth or of a State, the following particulars should be set out at the foot of the application:—
